Dear Ms. Minich:

I have been informed by Russell McCreadie that he has observed you referring to the child as Alexis Fulmer. As you are aware, the Court Order has been issued prohibiting you from using any last for the minor child other than McCreadie.

This letter is to inform you that in the event that you continue to refer to the child by the last name Fulmer, we will immediately be filing a Petition for Contempt with the Court in Clearfield. As a part of that Petition for Contempt, I will not only ask that the Court find you to be in contempt of its Order, but I will also ask that the Court assess you counsel fees for our representation of Russell on that date. It is my belief that counsel fees for Russell McCreadie would be warranted in this case because a Petition for Contempt would involve a blatant disregard for the Court's Order.

Again, I would encourage you to refrain from addressing Alexis McCreadie as Alexis Fulmer. If you have any questions about the proper interpretation of the Order of the Court, I would suggest that you consult your counsel.

Sincerely yours,

Brian K. Marshall
