PETITION TO VACATE FOREIGN JUDGMENT

COMES NOW, Donna Rabenstein and Brink Transportation, Inc.,
Defendants, by and through counsel, Dwight L. Koerber, Jr. and avers as follows:

1. GreatAmerica Leasing Company, hereinafter "Plaintiff", is apparently, a corporation doing business in the State of Iowa.
2. Donna Rabenstein, hereinafter "Rabenstein" and referred collectively with Brink Transportation, Inc. as "Defendants", is an adult individual residing in Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
3. Brink Transportation, Inc., hereinafter "Brink" and referred collectively with Donna Rabenstein as "Defendants", is a Pennsylvania corporation with its principal place of business at R.R. 1, Box 316-H, Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

4. Rabinstein is an employee of Brink; however, she is not an authorized agent of the corporation to enter into contracts or accept service on Brink's behalf.
5. Plaintiff obtained a judgment against Defendants in Iowa.
6. Plaintiff is seeking to register the foreign judgment in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
7. The foreign judgment is invalid and unenforceable because it was secured in violation of Defendants' due process rights.
8. The foreign judgment is invalid and unenforceable because the courts in Iowa lacked jurisdiction over the Defendants.
9. Apparently, the underlying claim stems from an alleged contract by the Defendants to lease a copier from Word Processing Services, Inc.
10. The alleged agreement occurred in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
11. The copier came from Word Processing Services, Inc. in Altoona, Pennsylvania and was delivered in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
12. The Defendants have never been to Iowa and do not conduct business in Iowa.
13. The Defendants lack minimum contacts with Iowa.

14. The Defendants lack even random, fortuitous or attenuated contacts with Iowa.
15. Iowa lacked personal jurisdiction over the Defendants.
16. Iowa's assertion of jurisdiction is contrary to fair play and substantial justice.
17. Furthermore, notice to Defendants by Plaintiff of the action in Iowa was defective and therefore, Defendants had no opportunity to be heard.
18. Rabenstein is not an executive officer, partner or trustee of Brink.
19. Rabenstein is likewise not the manager, clerk or person in charge of any regular place of business for Brink.
20. The Defendants were not afforded proper notice regarding the proceeding in Iowa.
21. Plaintiff has failed to join an indispensable party, Word Processing Services, Inc.
22. Plaintiff has included a usurious rate of interest, 18%, in addition to the improper judgment.
23. Plaintiff has impermissibly included attorney's fees in the improper judgment.
24. Because of the many defects that exist, the Plaintiff's foreign judgment should be vacated.

WHEREFORE, the Defendants respectfully request that the Court enter an Order vacating the foreign judgment obtained by Plaintiff, GreatAmerica Leasing Company.

Respectfully Submitted,

PETITION TO VACATE/STRIKE PRAECIPE FOR JUDGMENT AGAINST GARNISHEE

COMES NOW, Donna Rabenstein and Brink Transportation, Inc., Defendants, by and through counsel, Law Offices of Dwight L. Koerber, Jr. and avers as follows:

1. GreatAmerica Leasing Company, hereinafter "Plaintiff", is apparently, a corporation doing business in the State of Iowa.

2. Donna Rabenstein, referred collectively with Brink Transportation, Inc. as "Defendants", is an adult individual residing in Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
3. Brink Transportation, Inc., referred collectively with Donna Rabenstein as "Defendants", is a Pennsylvania corporation with its principal place of business at R.R. 1, Box 316-H, Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
4. Plaintiff obtained a judgment against Defendants in Iowa.
5. Plaintiff is seeking to enforce the foreign judgment in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and filed a Praecipe to Re-Issue Writ of Execution.
6. The Praecipe to Re-Issue Writ of Execution requests a writ of execution against the Defendants and against the garnishee, CSB Bank.
7. Defendants filed a Petition to Vacate Foreign Judgment on November 6, 2002.
8. The Court issued an Order on November 8, 2002, which set December 2, 2002 for Plaintiff's written response.
9. The Order of November 8, 2002 also stays the Re-issued Writ of Execution until further Order of Court.

10. On November 8, 2002, Plaintiff was served with the Order and Petition to Vacate Foreign Judgment, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
11. Notwithstanding the stay granted by the November 8, 2002 Order of the Honorable Court, on or about November 14, 2002, the Plaintiff filed a Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee.
12. Defendants maintain that there are serious defects with the Plaintiff's judgment, which render it invalid and unenforceable.
13. Therefore, Plaintiff is now seeking to enter an invalid and unenforceable judgment against the garnishee.
14. As the underlying judgment has been challenged and a stay of execution granted, it is improper for the Plaintiff to proceed against the garnishee until the issues have been resolved.
15. As further support for the Defendants' position, Defendant hereby incorporates by reference the Petition to Vacate Foreign Judgment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
16. Defendants respectfully request that the Court vacate the Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee.
17. The Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee fails to conform with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

18. Rule 440 provides that service of legal papers, other than original process, is to be to the attorney, whose name is set forth on the prior pleading.
19. This office was never served with a copy of the Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee.
20. Plaintiff has included impermissible costs in said Praecipe.
21. In the alternative, Defendants respectfully request this Honorable Court enter an Order striking the Plaintiff's Praecipe.
22. Defendants seek counsel fees in accordance with 42 Pa.C.S.A. § 2503.
23. Because Plaintiff's action is in direct contravention of the November 8, 2002 Order granting a stay, Defendants seek attorney fees of $500.00 to cover this Petition and other sanctions as the Court deems appropriate.

WHEREFORE, the Defendants respectfully request that the Court enter an Order vacating the judgment against garnishee and award attorney's fees and sanctions against Plaintiff as this Honorable Court deems appropriate.

Respectfully Submitted,

PETITION TO VACATE FOREIGN JUDGMENT

COMES NOW, Donna Rabenstein and Brink Transportation, Inc.,
Defendants, by and through counsel, Dwight L. Koerber, Jr. and avers as follows:

1. GreatAmerica Leasing Company, hereinafter "Plaintiff", is apparently, a corporation doing business in the State of Iowa.
2. Donna Rabenstein, hereinafter "Rabenstein" and referred collectively with Brink Transportation, Inc. as "Defendants", is an adult individual residing in Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
3. Brink Transportation, Inc., hereinafter "Brink" and referred collectively with Donna Rabenstein as "Defendants", is a Pennsylvania corporation with its principal place of business at R.R. 1, Box 316-H, Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

4. Rabinstein is an employee of Brink; however, she is not an authorized agent of the corporation to enter into contracts or accept service on Brink's behalf.
5. Plaintiff obtained a judgment against Defendants in Iowa.
6. Plaintiff is seeking to register the foreign judgment in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
7. The foreign judgment is invalid and unenforceable because it was secured in violation of Defendants' due process rights.
8. The foreign judgment is invalid and unenforceable because the courts in Iowa lacked jurisdiction over the Defendants.
9. Apparently, the underlying claim stems from an alleged contract by the Defendants to lease a copier from Word Processing Services, Inc.
10. The alleged agreement occurred in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
11. The copier came from Word Processing Services, Inc. in Altoona, Pennsylvania and was delivered in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
12. The Defendants have never been to Iowa and do not conduct business in Iowa.
13. The Defendants lack minimum contacts with Iowa.

14. The Defendants lack even random, fortuitous or attenuated contacts with Iowa.
15. Iowa lacked personal jurisdiction over the Defendants.
16. Iowa's assertion of jurisdiction is contrary to fair play and substantial justice.
17. Furthermore, notice to Defendants by Plaintiff of the action in Iowa was defective and therefore, Defendants had no opportunity to be heard.
18. Rabenstein is not an executive officer, partner or trustee of Brink.
19. Rabenstein is likewise not the manager, clerk or person in charge of any regular place of business for Brink.
20. The Defendants were not afforded proper notice regarding the proceeding in Iowa.
21. Plaintiff has failed to join an indispensable party, Word Processing Services, Inc.
22. Plaintiff has included a usurious rate of interest, 18%, in addition to the improper judgment.
23. Plaintiff has impermissibly included attorney's fees in the improper judgment.
24. Because of the many defects that exist, the Plaintiff's foreign judgment should be vacated.

WHEREFORE, the Defendants respectfully request that the Court enter an Order vacating the foreign judgment obtained by Plaintiff, GreatAmerica Leasing Company.

Respectfully Submitted,

AND NOW, comes Plaintiff, GreatAmerica Leasing Corporation, by and through its counsel, James R. Hankle, Esquire and Sherrard, German & Kelly, P.C., and files the following Answer to Petition to Vacate/Strike Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee, as follows:

1. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 1, admitted.
2. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 2, same pertain to the identity of an adverse party and are neither admitted nor denied. Strict proof is demanded.
3. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 3, same pertain to the identity of an adverse party and are neither admitted nor denied. Strict proof is demanded.
4. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 4, admitted.
5. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 5, admitted.
6. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 6, admitted.

7. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 7, same relate to matters within the exclusive knowledge and control of Defendant, and Plaintiff is without sufficient knowledge to form a belief as to the truth thereof, and if material, proof thereof is demanded.

8. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 8, admitted.

9. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 9, admitted.

10. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 10, it is denied that Plaintiff received a copy of the November 8, 2002 Order of Court on November 8, 2002, when to the contrary, Plaintiff's counsel believes that Plaintiff's counsel did not receive a copy of the November 8, 2002 Order in their office until November 12, 2002.

11. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 11, admitted. By way of further answer, the Praeceptum for Judgment Against Garnishee was mailed on November 11, 2002, before Plaintiff received a copy of the November 8, 2002 Order of Court.

12. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 12, same relate to matters within the exclusive knowledge and control of Defendant, and Plaintiff is without sufficient knowledge to form a belief as to the truth thereof, and if material, proof thereof is demanded.

13. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 13, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

14. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 14, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

15. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 15, Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 24 of its Response to Petition to Vacate Foreign Judgment hereto as if fully set herein.

16. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 16, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

17. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 17, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

18. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 18, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

19. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 19, it is admitted that Plaintiff inadvertently failed to serve a copy of the Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee on counsel for Defendants.

20. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 20, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

21. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 21, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

22. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 22, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

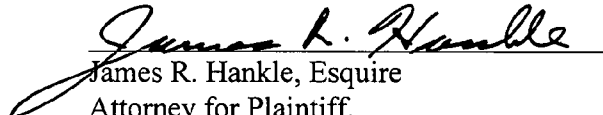

23. As to the allegations contained in Paragraph 23, same constitute legal conclusions to which no response need be made, however, said conclusions are denied to the extent that they may be determined to be factual in nature and strict proof is demanded thereof.

24. Since receiving a copy of this Honorable Court's November 8, 2002 Order, no further action has been taken by Plaintiff's counsel, nor did it receive any monies from the garnishee, CSB Bank.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, GreatAmerica Leasing Corporation, respectfully requests this Honorable Court deny Defendants' Petition to Vacate/Strike Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee, since any and all further action is stayed until further notice by this Honorable Court, and deny Defendants' request for an award of attorneys fees and sanctions against Plaintiff, since Plaintiff's Praecipe for Judgment Against Garnishee was mailed prior to Plaintiff's counsel reviewing this Honorable Court's November 8, 2002 Order.

Respectfully submitted,

OPINION AND ORDER

This matter arises from a lawsuit originally instituted in the State District Court in Iowa by GreatAmerica Leasing Corporation, a company located in Cedar Rapids Iowa ("Plaintiff"), against Brink Transportation, Inc., a company located in Houtzdale, Pennsylvania, and Donna Rabenstein, an affiliate of Brink Transportation, Inc. (together, "Defendants"). Said lawsuit involved Defendants' alleged breach of an agreement dated 6/25/99, providing for the lease of a photocopying machine (the "Lease Agreement"). The Lease Agreement was executed by Ms. Rabenstein as "President and Owner" of Brink Transportation, Inc., as well as "guarantor" of Brink Transportation, Inc.'s obligations under the Lease Agreement. On June 29, 1999, a documentation clerk working on behalf of Plaintiff contacted Brink Transportation, Inc., spoke with Mrs. Carol Brink and verified Defendants' acceptance of the lease, that the equipment was delivered in good working condition and that the documentation was complete. Following such verification, the Plaintiff executed the lease. Defendant made a total of eighteen (18) lease payments to Plaintiff, and thereafter refused to make further payments. Following verbal demands for payment, Plaintiff filed suit in the State District Court of Iowa pursuant to the forum selection clause contained on the bottom of the front page of the Lease Agreement under the heading “Unconditional Guaranty to Lessor.” The relevant portion of such clause states:

THE UNDERSIGNED AGREES TO THE JURISDICTION AND VENUE OF FEDERAL AND STATE COURTS IN LINN COUNTY, IOWA. (Capitalization in original).

On September 12, 2001, an “Original Notice of Suit – Small Claims Action for Money Judgment” was served upon Defendants by the Iowa Secretary of State, and mailed to Defendants by certified United States mail. On September 27, 2001, Defendants entered an appearance and denied the claim asserting that the matter was improperly filed in Iowa rather than in Pennsylvania. Defendants did not appear for trial, and a default judgment was entered in Iowa. Plaintiff filed a Petition for Registration of Foreign Judgment with this Court, and in response Defendants filed a Petition to Vacate Foreign Judgment. Argument was held on February 13, 2003. Pursuant to this Court’s Order, the parties have briefed the issues.

A judgment rendered by a sister state is enforceable in this Commonwealth pursuant to the Uniform Enforcement of Foreign Judgments Act (the “Act”). The Act provides that a foreign judgment<sup>1</sup> filed within the Commonwealth shall be treated in the same manner as a judgment of any court of common pleas of this Commonwealth. A judgment so filed shall be a lien as of the date of filing and shall have the same effect and be subject to the same procedures, defenses and proceedings for re-opening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of any court of common pleas of this Commonwealth and may be enforced or satisfied in like manner.

42 Pa. Cons. Stat. Ann. §4306 (1981).

The Superior Court has stated that under the Act, any properly filed foreign judgment must be accorded full faith and credit “unless there is . . . “some particular overriding reason . . . which would require us to deny full faith and credit to the judgment . . . A lack of personal jurisdiction on the part of the court which originally awarded the judgment or a lack of due process on the part of that court.” Tandy Computer Leasing, a Div. of Tandy Electronics, Inc. v. DeMarco, 564 A.2d 1299, 1301 (Pa. Super. 1989), quoting Everson v. Everson, 400 A.2d 887 (Pa. Super. 199_). However, “the full faith and credit clause does not require recognition of a judgment of a sister state rendered without jurisdiction.” Bancorp Group, Inc. v. Pirgos, Inc., 744 A.2d 791, 792 (Pa. Super. 2000). A party may challenge a judgment on the basis of lack of jurisdiction at any time, and will bear the burden of proof on such issue. Id.; Noetzel v. Glasgow, Inc., 487 A.2d 1372, 1375-76 (Pa. Super. 1985).

---

<sup>1</sup> A “foreign judgment” is defined as “any judgment, decree, or order of a court of the United States or of any other court requiring the payment of money which is entitled to full faith and credit in this Commonwealth.” 42 Pa. C.S.A. §4306(f).

A judgment rendered by a court on a contract conferring jurisdiction on such court may likewise be challenged on jurisdictional grounds. However, a Pennsylvania court “should decline to proceed with the cause when the parties have freely agreed that litigation shall be conducted in another forum and where such agreement is not unreasonable at the time of litigation.” Churchill Corp. v. Third Century, Inc., 578 A.2d 532, 536 (Pa. Super. 1990).

Under Pennsylvania law, a forum selection clause is “unreasonable” where its enforcement would, under all circumstances existing at the time of litigation, seriously impair [a party’s] ability to pursue its cause of action. . . Mere inconvenience or additional expense is not the test of unreasonableness if the plaintiff received under the contract consideration for its agreement to litigate in a specified forum . . . If the agreed upon forum is available to plaintiff and said forum can do substantial justice to the cause of action then plaintiff should be bound by its agreement.

Id.

However, where enforcement of a forum selection clause would result in a situation where it is more expensive to defend a cause of action than to pay a default judgment solely because of the location in which the matter is being adjudicated, litigation in the foreign forum is no longer a matter of mere inconvenience or additional expense; rather it rises to the level of serious impairment of the parties’ ability to defend against the action.

Id. at 536 (emphasis added).

In the case at hand, Defendants assert that the forum selection clause is unreasonable because (1) the Iowa court lacked personal jurisdiction<sup>2</sup> over Defendants; (2) Plaintiff never advised Defendants that the document would be governed by the law of Iowa; and (3) there was no consideration given by Plaintiff to Defendants for Defendants' agreement to abide by the forum selection clause.<sup>3</sup>

The principles and analysis set forth in Churchill Corp. v. Third Century, Inc., 578 A.2d 532 (Pa. Super. 199), are instructive in the case at hand. In that case, a Pennsylvania company leased an office machine from a Missouri corporation doing business in Pennsylvania through a local dealer. The lease agreement provided that jurisdiction and venue would lie in Missouri. The lessee stopped making lease payments after the machine malfunctioned, and the lessor attempted to bring suit in Missouri. The Superior Court refused to enforce the forum selection clause, finding that (1) because venue would lie in Missouri, it would be more expensive to defend the claim than to pay a judgment in default resulting in a serious impairment to the parties' ability to defend against the action; (2) the lessee received no consideration for agreeing to the forum selection clause and in fact, the lessee's representative was unaware that such clause existed; and (3) the agreed upon forum could not render substantial justice because of the extraordinary expense to be incurred litigating in a forum in which lessee had virtually no connections. Id. at 537.

<sup>2</sup> Defendants assert that a provision in a contract that the laws of a particular forum are to govern a dispute "is not the equivalent to consent to personal jurisdiction." Bancorp Group Inc. v. Pirgos, 744 A.2d 791 (Pa. Super. 2000). However, this statement taken from the Pirgos case related to a choice of law provision in a contract. In the case at hand, it is not the choice of law provision but rather the choice of forum clause contained within the Lease Agreement that is at issue, and thus this statement from the Pirgos case and the attendant "minimum contacts" analysis is inapplicable.

<sup>3</sup> Given this Court's findings, it is unnecessary to reach Defendants' allegations that the lease agreement was executed by a party who lacked proper authority to bind the company, or that the agreement was procured by fraud.

As in Churchill Corp., in this case the Defendants were contacted by a dealer for Plaintiff located in Altoona, Pennsylvania regarding the lease of a photocopier. The photocopier was delivered to Defendants place of business in Houtzdale from Altoona. Prior to the commencement of the proceedings in Iowa, Defendants had virtually no contact with that state. Clearly, the cost of litigating this claim in Iowa, a jurisdiction located a significant distance from Houtzdale, Pennsylvania, would in all likelihood be more expensive than paying the amount of the judgment at issue ($1970.74). Given that fact, the cost clearly impaired Defendants ability to defend the action. Additionally, just as in Churchill Corp., the Defendants herein neither negotiated for nor received consideration for agreeing to the forum selection clause, and also as in Churchill Corp., the representative signing on behalf of Brink Transportation was unaware of the existence of such clause. Finally, as in Churchill Corp., Defendants have virtually no connections to the State of Iowa, and as a result, the expenses attendant to litigating in Iowa, including transportation costs and legal fees, would be significant enough to prevent Defendants' participation in the lawsuit such that the Iowa court could not render substantial justice.

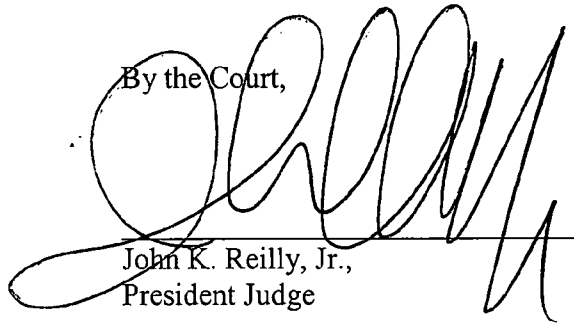

In sum, this Court finds that the expense of defending the cause of action arising from the Lease Agreement would have caused Defendants to incur more expense than actually paying the default judgment, solely based upon the fact that the litigation would take place in the state of Iowa. As such, enforcement of the forum selection clause in this case would and did in fact amount to a "serious impairment of the parties' ability to defend against the action." Churchill Corp., 578 A.2d at 536. On this basis, this Court finds the forum selection clause contained in the Lease Agreement to be unreasonable.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R

AND NOW this 30th day of May, 2003, upon consideration of the Petition to Vacate Foreign Judgment filed by and on behalf of Defendants Donna Rabenstein and Brink Transportation, Inc., said Petition be and is hereby GRANTED.
