3. Plaintiff, as the Personal Representative of the Estate of Hunter Dickinson, Jr., brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other persons entitled to recover damages for the wrongful death of Hunter Dickinson, Jr. pursuant to the provisions of 42 PA. C.S. § 8301.

4. Plaintiff also brings this action to recover damages on behalf of the Estate of Hunter Dickinson, Jr. pursuant to the provisions of 42 Pa. C.S. § 8302.

5. The following persons are or may be entitled by law to recover for the wrongful death of Hunter Dickinson, Jr.:

Kimberly Dickinson, Post Office Box 350, Coalport, Pennsylvania 16627
Decedent's Mother

Hunter Dickinson, Sr., Post Office Box 111, Fallen Timber, Pennsylvania 16630
Decedent's Father

6. During his lifetime, Hunter Dickinson, Jr. did not commence any action to recover damages for the injuries which caused his death and no other actions have been filed to recover damages for the wrongful death of Hunter Dickinson, Jr.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION - WRONGFUL DEATH

Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 6 of the Complaint herein by reference and further avers that:

7. On or about July 2, 2000, Plaintiff's Decedent, Hunter Dickinson, Jr., was a twenty year-old male front-seated passenger in a 1985 Mazda RX7 automobile owned and being operated by Defendant, Randy J. Watt, a twenty-seven year old male, who was travelling Southbound on State Route 53 in the Township of Beccaria, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania when suddenly and without warning, he lost control of the vehicle, causing it to leave the Southbound lane, enter the southern berm and strike a tree west of the roadway, whereby the vehicle rolled over an embankment, coming to rest on the passenger side facing southeast, causing Hunter Dickinson, Jr. to sustain serious injuries resulting in his death.

8. Alternatively, in the event Hunter Dickinson, Jr. was the operator of the vehicle at the time of this incident, Defendant Watt supplied alcoholic beverages to decedent which resulted in his impairment causing the within incident resulting in his death.

9. The injuries and damages hereinafter set forth were caused solely by and were the direct and proximate result of the negligent, reckless, and wanton misconduct of the Defendant in any or all of the following respects:

- (a) in operating the vehicle at a high, dangerous, and reckless speed under the circumstances;
- (b) in failing to have the vehicle under proper control;
- (c) in that the driver was inattentive and failed to maintain a reasonable lookout of the road and the surrounding conditions;
- (d) in failing to exercise reasonable care and caution as was required under the circumstances;
- (e) in violating various statutes and municipal ordinances pertaining to the operation of motor vehicles on public thoroughfares in the Commonwealth, including but not limited to the following statutory provisions: 75 Pa. C.S. §3742 Accidents Involving Death Or Personal Injury; 75 Pa. C.S. §3736 Reckless Driving; 75 Pa. C.S. §3361 Driving Vehicle at Safe Speed; 75 Pa. C.S. §3732 Homicide by Vehicle; 75 Pa. C.S. §3735 Homicide by Vehicle While Driving Under the Influence; and 75 Pa. C.S. §3714 Careless Driving;
- (f) in that the driver was not in a proper physical condition to drive the vehicle; and,

- (g) in providing alcoholic beverages to persons, including decedent, under the age of twenty-one years.

10. The Defendant's conduct as described above was extreme and outrageous and undertaken in reckless disregard of the Plaintiff's Decedent's safety.

11. The persons entitled by law to recover damages for Hunter Dickinson, Jr.'s death have sustained the following damages:

- (a) the cost of medical treatment and supplies incident to the treatment and subsequent death of the decedent;
- (b) the cost of funeral and burial expenses occasioned by the death of Hunter Dickinson, Jr.;
- (c) loss of the pecuniary value of the service, assistance, comfort, guidance, counseling, companionship, and society of Hunter Dickinson, Jr.;
- (d) loss of financial support and all pecuniary benefits which would have been received from Hunter Dickinson, Jr.;
- (e) the cost of the administration of the Estate of Hunter Dickinson, Jr.; and,
- (f) such other losses and damages as are recoverable by law or statute.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Kimberly Dickinson, Personal Representative of the Estate of Hunter Dickinson, Jr., brings this suit against Defendant to recover compensatory and punitive damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of the Board of Arbitrators of this Court.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION - SURVIVAL

Plaintiff incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 11 of the Complaint herein by reference and further avers that:

12. As a result of the previously described negligent, willful, and reckless conduct of the Defendant, Plaintiff, Kimberly Dickinson, personal representative of the Estate of Hunter Dickinson, Jr., seeks damages pursuant to the provisions of 20 Pa. - (c) hospital and medical expenses incurred on his behalf;
- (d) such other losses and damages as are recoverable by law or statute.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Kimberly Dickinson, Personal Representative of the Estate of Hunter Dickinson, Jr., brings this suit against Defendant to recover compensatory and punitive damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of the Board of Arbitrators of this Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION – WRONGFUL DEATH

The foregoing responses are incorporated at this point by reference.

7. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that a vehicular event occurred on July 2, 2000, at or near the described location. However, the balance of the averments are denied. It is affirmatively asserted that Defendant Randy J. Watt was not the operator of the subject motor vehicle at the time of the incident. On the contrary, it is believed that the subject vehicle was being driven by Plaintiff's decedent, Hunter Dickinson, Jr., at that time. All other averments contained in paragraph 7 are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e).

8. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is believed that the operator of the subject motor vehicle was Hunter Dickinson, Jr., at the time of the underlying incident. It is denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e) that Defendant Randy J. Watt supplied alcoholic beverages to the decedent which resulted in impairment causing death.

9. Denied. It is denied that Defendant Randy J. Watt was operating the subject vehicle at the time of the incident. Said party committed no tortious conduct which was a legal or proximate cause of the accident or resultant harm.

(a) through (f). Denied. The responding party was not the operator of the subject vehicle. All averments are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e). Defendant Randy J. Watt did not engage in any form of tortious conduct which was a legal or proximate cause of the subject incident or resultant harm.

(g) Denied. The averments are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e). In addition, it is affirmatively stated that the responding party did not supply alcoholic beverages to the decedent.

10. Denied. The averments are denied in all respects. The responding party did not act in an extreme and outrageous manner nor did he conduct himself in reckless disregard of the decedent's safety. All averments are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e).

11. Denied. The responding party committed no tortious conduct which was a legal or proximate cause of the underlying incident or the alleged harm. All averments relative to damages are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e) including all of the specified items set forth in subparagraphs (a) through (f).

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that judgment be entered in favor of the Defendant and against the Plaintiffs.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION – SURVIVAL

The responding party hereby incorporates by reference at this point the responses set forth in the above paragraphs.

12. Denied. Defendant Randy J. Watt committed no tortious conduct which was a legal or proximate cause of the underlying harm or the subject incident. All averments in this regard are denied pursuant to the averments of the responding party set forth above and pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e). All allegations relating to damages set forth in subparagraphs (a) through (d) are similarly denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1029(e).

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that judgment be entered in favor of the Defendant and against the Plaintiffs.

NEW MATTER

13. In order to preserve the Defendant's statute of limitations, the defense of the expiration of the statute of limitations is hereby asserted. In the event that the Plaintiff failed to effectively commence a civil action in the required time period, the expiration of said time period would constitute a complete bar to the cause of action asserted herein.

14. It is asserted that the underlying incident and the resultant death of the decedent resulted from the negligent, careless, and reckless conduct of the decedent. It was the decedent who was operating the subject vehicle and he failed to do so in a reasonable and prudent manner.

15. The responding party hereby raises all limitations, restrictions, and conditions upon recovery as set forth in the Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility Act.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that judgment be entered in favor of the Defendant and against the Plaintiffs.
