HARSTER OF PHILIPSBURG, NC vs. JACK FROST CONST.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
CIVIL DIVISION - LAW

HARPSTER OF PHILIPSBURG, INC.
Owner

V.

JACK FROST CONSTRUCTION, INC.,
Contractor

No. 03-707-CD

Waiver of Mechanic's Lien

WHEREAS, Jack Frost Construction, Inc., contractor, a Pennsylvania corporation, hereinafter called "Contractor," has entered into a contract with Harpster of Philipsburg, Inc., hereinafter called "Owner," whereby Contractor is to provide materials and perform labor necessary for the construction of a commercial car wash, for the Owner upon a lot of ground located in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, being the property more particularly described on Exhibit "A" attached hereto.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between Owner and Contractor, as part of that contract and for the consideration set forth in that contract, that neither Contractor nor any subcontractor or material man, nor any other person furnishing labor or materials to contractor under that contract, shall file a lien, commonly called a mechanic's lien, for work done or materials furnished for said construction or any part thereof.

This stipulation is made and is intended to be filed in the Office of the Clearfield County Prothonotary in accordance with the requirements of Section 402 of the Mechanic's Lien Law of 1963, Act of August 24, 1963, P.L. 1175, No. 497, Article IV, § 402, 49 P.S. § 1402, in such case provided.
