PETITION FOR APPROVAL OF BOND
TO SECURE PAYMENT OF CONDEMNATION
AWARD AND FOR FILING THEREOF

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN J. PENTZ, PRESIDENT JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

The petition of HOUTZDALE MUNICIPAL AUTHORITY respectfully represents:

(1). Petitioner is a body politic and corporate, organized as a general authority by the Houtzdale Borough Council, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, pursuant to the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, particularly under the Municipality Authorities Act of May 2, 1945, P.L. 382, and its amendments, on August 25, 1960.

(2). Petitioner is authorized by the Municipality Authorities Act of May 2, 1945, P.L. 382, and its amendments, to exercise the right of eminent domain, and has heretofore on May 11, 1961, by Resolutions duly passed and adopted at a regular meeting of said body, at which a quorum was present, condemned and appropriated certain right of ways together with 1.04 acres in fee in or near Ramey Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, owned by Frank Srock and Edith Srock, his wife. A description of the right of ways and land condemned in fee is attached hereto, incorporated herein, and marked "Exhibit A".

(4). Petitioner is willing to file an open penalty bond for such amount of damage as may be found to be due by reason of taking and appropriating said right of ways and 1.04 acres; said bond to have The Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, a corporation as Surety thereon, and to be sufficient to pay for any damage which may be suffered by the Owners.

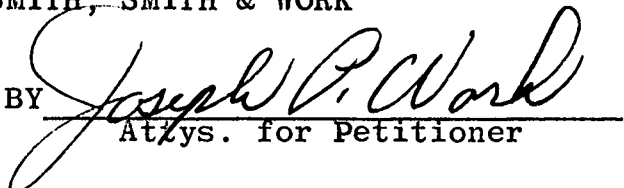

(5). Petitioner has given the Owners of said premises notice that the bond hereto attached would on May 15, 1961, at 10 A.M., D.S.T., be presented to your Honorable Court for approval, or as soon thereafter as it is convenient.

(6). Petitioner avers and believes that the said bond is sufficient to secure payment of any and all damages that may be sustained by any person having an interest therein.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner respectfully presents the said Bond to your Honorable Court and prays that it may be approved and filed for the benefit of said Obligees, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, as provided for by law.
