CERTIFICATE OF MERIT AS TO CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL AND STAT

MEDEVAC, INC.

I, Samuel Cohen, certify that:

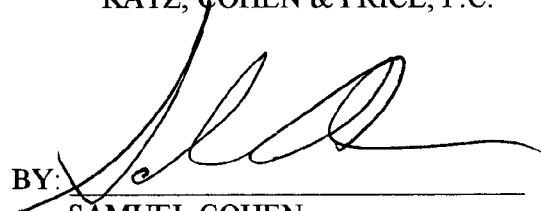

an appropriate licensed professional has supplied a written statement to the undersigned that there is a basis to conclude that the care, skill or knowledge exercised or exhibited by this Defendant in the treatment, practice or work that is the subject of the Complaint, fell outside professional standards and that such conduct was a cause in bringing about the harm.

the claim that this Defendant deviated from an acceptable professional standard is based solely on allegations that other licensed professional for whom this Defendant is responsible deviated from an acceptable professional standard and an appropriate licensed professional has supplied a written statement to the undersigned that there is a basis to conclude that the care, skill or knowledge exercised or exhibited by the other licensed professional in the treatment, practice or work that is the subject of the Complaint, fell outside acceptable professional standard and that such conduct was a cause in bringing about the harm.

[] expert testimony of an appropriate licensed professional is unnecessary for prosecution of the claim against this Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

COME NOW, Plaintiffs Doreen Brady and Edward Brady, wife and husband, by their counsel, Katz, Cohen & Price, P.C. by Samuel Cohen, Esquire and desiring to recover compensation for injuries, losses and damages sustained by them as a result of the negligence and carelessness of Defendants aver in support thereof the following:

1. Plaintiffs Doreen Brady and Edward Brady are adult individuals who are wife and husband and who are citizens and residents of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania residing therein at RD 1 BOX 241, Clearfield, Clearfield County.

2. Defendant Clearfield Hospital is a not for profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, having a regular place of business at 1 Turnpike Avenue in Clearfield, Clearfield County.

3. Defendant Stat MedEvac, Inc, is corporation regularly conducting business in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania having a place of business at 123 Fifth Avenue, Elwood City, Beaver County.

4. At all times material hereto, each of the Defendants acted by and through its authorized agents, servants, workmen and/or employees each of whom was acting within the course and scope of his/her agency and/or employment with said Defendants.

5. Additionally, at all times material hereto, the agents, servants, workman and/or employees of the respected Defendants were also acting as the agents, servants, workmen and/or employees of the other Defendant acting within the course and scope of his/her agency and or employment with said Defendants.

6. On or about February 2, 2002, Plaintiff Doreen Brady was a patient for pay on the premiss of Defendant Clearfield Hospital.

7. On or about the aforementioned date, at or about the aforementioned date at or about 10:00p.m., Plaintiff Doreen Brady was being transported from the emergency room area of Clearfield Hospital to a helicopter landing pad adjacent to Clearfield Hospital by individuals who, upon information and belief, were the agents, servants, workmen and/or employees of both Defendants.

8. At the time she was being transported, Plaintiff Doreen Brady was placed on to a wheeled device by agents, servants, workmen and/or employees of the Defendants for the purpose of transporting her from the emergency room area of Defendant Clearfield Hospital to the helicopter landing pad.

9. In order to transport Plaintiff Doreen Brady, Doreen Brady was strapped to the wheeled device on which she was being transported at the time of the incident more particularly described hereafter.

10. During the course of her transport from the emergency room to the helicopter landing pad, Plaintiff had no ability to control or direct the movements of the wheeled device nor her own physical movements as her body was immobilized.

11. At the time of her transport, Plaintiff Doreen Brady's body was exclusively in the possession and control of Defendants through their agents, servants, workmen and/or employees as was the wheeled device on which Ms. Brady was being transported.

12. On or about the aforementioned date, at or about the aforementioned time, as Plaintiff Doreen Brady was being transported from the emergency room to the helicopter landing pad, she was so negligently and carelessly transported that her body was thrown to the ground and as a result, Plaintiff sustained serious personal injuries, losses and damages more particularly set forth hereafter.

13. No act or failure to act on the parts of Plaintiffs caused or contributed to the happening of the incident or to the nature and/or extent of their injuries losses and damages.

14. At all times material hereto, the device upon which Ms. Brady was being transported was exclusively owned, operated, maintained, possessed and controlled by Defendants.

15. The injuries, losses and damages sustained by Plaintiffs were caused as a result the negligence and carelessness of Defendants in some or all of the following respects:

- a. In failing to properly transport Doreen Brady;
- b. In permitting Ms. Brady to fall to the ground;
- c. In improperly operating the wheeled device so as to allow it to throw Ms. Brady to the ground;
- d. In failing to properly secure Ms. Brady to the wheeled device;
- e. In failing to take in to account the rights, safety and position of Plaintiff Doreen Brady;
- f. In failing to properly use the wheeled device upon which Ms. Brady was being transported;
- g. In moving the wheeled device so as to cause Ms. Brady to fall and strike the ground;

- h. In failing to properly care for Doreen Brady in transporting her;
- i. In failing to warn Ms. Brady of the condition of the wheeled device;
- j. In failing to properly maintain the wheeled device;
- k. In failing to use the appropriate skill and care required to transport Plaintiff Doreen Brady;
- l. In violating applicable rules, statutes, standards and ordinances; and
- m. In moving the wheeled device such as to cause Ms. Brady to fall from it;

COUNT I - PLAINTIFF DOREEN BRADY VS DEFENDANTS

ANSWER AND NEW MATTER TO PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL, by and through its attorneys, McINTYRE, DUGAS, HARTYE & SCHMITT, and files the following Answer and New Matter to plaintiffs' Complaint.

1. The allegations contained in paragraph 1 are true to the best of defendant's knowledge.
2. Admitted except defendant's address is 809 Turnpike Avenue, Clearfield, PA 16830.
3. The allegations contained in paragraph 3 are not directed to answering defendant.
4. The allegations contained in paragraph 4 are overly broad and therefore they are denied as stated..
5. The allegations contained in paragraph 5 are denied. It is denied that any agents, servants or employees of Defendant, Stat Medevac, Inc., were agents, servants or employees of Clearfield Hospital.
6. Admitted.

7. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that Plaintiff, Doreen Brady, was being transported from the emergency room area of Clearfield Hospital to a helicopter landing pad by individuals. It is denied that those individuals were agents, servants, workmen or employees of Clearfield Hospital.

8. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that Plaintiff, Doreen Brady, was placed on a wheeled device and was being transported from the emergency room area to the helicopter landing pad. It is denied that the patient was being transported by agents, servants, or employees of Clearfield Hospital.

9. The allegations contained in paragraph 9 are true to the best of answering defendant's knowledge.

10. After reasonable investigation, answering defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information as to the truth of these averments and therefore they are denied as stated.

11. Denied. It is denied that Doreen Brady was exclusively in possession and control of Clearfield Hospital, its agents, servants, workmen or employees while she was being transported and therefore all of the allegations in paragraph 11 are denied as stated.

12. The allegations contained in paragraph 12 are denied as stated. It is denied that Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees were negligent or careless in any manner. It is further denied that any action or inaction on the part of Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees either caused or contributed to the plaintiff's fall and any subsequent injuries sustained as a result thereof and therefore all of the allegations contained in paragraph 12 are denied.

13. After reasonable investigation, answering defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information as to the truth of these averments and therefore they are denied as stated.

14. It is admitted that one of the devices upon which Ms. Brady was being transported was owned by Clearfield Hospital. The remaining allegations are denied for the reasons set forth above.

15. Denied. It is denied that Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees were negligent or careless in any manner. It is further denied that any action or inaction on the part of Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees either caused or contributed to the injuries and damages set forth in plaintiffs' Complaint and therefore all of the allegations contained in paragraph 15 and the subparagraphs thereof are denied and strict proof thereof is demanded.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, demands judgment in its favor with costs of suit awarded to Clearfield Hospital.

COUNT I – PLAINTIFF DOREEN BRADY vs. DEFENDANTS'

16. Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, incorporates by reference the previous paragraphs of the within Answer and New Matter as though the same were set forth herein at length.

17-22. The allegations contained in paragraphs 17 through 22 are denied. It is denied that Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees were negligent or careless in any manner. It is further denied that any action or inaction on the part of Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees either caused or contributed to the alleged injuries and damages set forth and therefore all of the allegations contained in paragraphs 17 through 22 are denied and strict proof thereof is demanded.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, demands judgment in its favor with costs of suit awarded to Clearfield Hospital.

COUNT II – PLAINTIFF EDWARD BRADY vs. DEFENDANTS

23. Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, incorporates by reference the previous paragraphs of the within Answer and New Matter as though the same were set forth herein at length.

24-26. The allegations contained in paragraphs 24 through 26 are denied. It is denied that Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees were negligent or careless in any manner. It is further denied that any action or inaction on the part of Clearfield Hospital or any of its agents, servants or employees either caused or contributed to the alleged injuries and damages set forth and therefore all of the allegations contained in paragraphs 24 through 26 are denied and strict proof thereof is demanded.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, demands judgment in its favor with costs of suit awarded to Clearfield Hospital.

NEW MATTER

By way of further and more complete Answer, Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, avers the following New Matter:

27. Defendant hereby affirmatively pleads all bars, rights and limitations under the Medical Care Availability and Reduction of Error (MCARE) Act, 40 P.S. §1300, et seq.

28. If plaintiff suffered injuries and damages as a result of actions or inactions of individuals, as alleged in plaintiffs' Complaint, such actions or inactions were of individuals or entities other than Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, its agents, servants or employees and over whom Clearfield Hospital neither exercised nor had the right or duty to exercise control, and for whose actions or inactions Clearfield Hospital is not responsible or otherwise legally liable.

29. Some or all of plaintiffs' cause of action is barred by the two-year statute of limitations.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, demands judgment in its favor with costs of suit awarded to defendant.

Respectfully submitted,

ANSWER AND NEW MATTER TO PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, State Medevac, Inc., by and through its attorneys, Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., and files the within Answer and New Matter to Plaintiffs' Complaint and aver as follows:

1. After a reasonable investigation, this Defendant is without information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 1 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.
2. The allegations of paragraph 2 of Plaintiffs' Complaint do not relate to this Defendant, and thus, no response is required.
3. It is admitted that Defendant Stat Medevac, Inc., is a corporation regularly conducting business in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania having a place of business at 123 Fifth Avenue Ellwood City, Beaver County.
4. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 4 of Plaintiffs' Complaint contain conclusions of law, no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to whom is being referenced by the terms "authorized agents, servants, workmen and/or employees," and thus, said allegations are denied.

5. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 5 of Plaintiffs' Complaint contain conclusions of law, no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to whom is being referenced by the terms "authorized agents, servants, workmen and/or employees," and thus, said allegations are specifically denied.

6. The allegations of paragraph 6 of Plaintiffs' Complaint do not relate to this Defendant, and thus, no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, to the extent that said allegations contain an inaccurate and/or incomplete representation of Plaintiff, Doreen Brady's medical records, said allegations are denied.

7. To the extent that the allegations of paragraph 7 of Plaintiffs' Complaint contain an inaccurate and/or incomplete representation of Plaintiff, Doreen Brady's medical records, said allegations are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. No. 1029(e). To the extent the allegations contain conclusions of law, no further response is required. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to whom is being referenced by the terms "authorized agents, servants, workmen and/or employees," and thus, said allegations are specifically denied.

8. To the extent that the allegations of paragraph 8 of Plaintiffs' Complaint contain an inaccurate and/or incomplete representation of Plaintiff, Doreen Brady's medical records, said allegations are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. No. 1029(e). To the extent the allegations contain conclusions of law, no further response is required. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to whom is being referenced by the terms "authorized agents, servants, workmen and/or employees," and thus, said allegations are specifically denied. Further, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to what is being referenced by the term "wheeled device," therefore, said allegations are denied.

9. To the extent the allegations of paragraph 9 contain an inaccurate or incomplete representation of Plaintiff, Doreen Brady's medical records, said allegations are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. No. 1029(e). By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to what is being referenced by the term "wheeled device," therefore, said allegations are denied.

10. To the extent the allegations of paragraph 10 contain an inaccurate or incomplete representation of Plaintiff, Doreen Brady's medical records, said allegations are denied pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. No. 1029(e). By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to what is being referenced by the term "wheeled device," therefore, said allegations are denied. Further, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant is without information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 10 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

11. To the extent the allegations contain conclusions of law, no further response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to whom is being referenced by the terms "agents, servants, workmen, and/or employees," therefore, said allegations are specifically denied. Further, after reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to what is being referred to by the terms "wheeled device" and "control," therefore, said allegations are denied.

12. To the extent that the allegations of paragraph 12 of Plaintiffs' Complaint contain conclusions of law, no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, it is denied that this Defendant was negligent and/or careless in any way with regard to Plaintiff, Doreen Brady. By way of further response, after reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the extent of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages.

13. To the extent the allegations contain conclusions of law, no further response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, after reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 13 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

14. After a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to what is being referenced by the term "device," therefore, said allegations are denied.

15. To the extent the allegations of paragraph 15 of Plaintiffs' Complaint contain conclusions of law, no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, it is denied that this Defendant was in any way negligent and/or careless with respect to the Plaintiff, Doreen Brady. Further, it is denied that this Defendant was any cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages.

COUNT I - PLAINTIFF DOREEN BRADY v. DEFENDANTS

16. Defendant, Stat Medevac, Inc., hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 15 above as though more fully set forth herein.

17. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations regarding Plaintiff, Doreen Brady's present health and/or conditions.

18. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations regarding Plaintiff, Doreen Brady's present health and/or conditions.

19. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of paragraph 19 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

20. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of paragraph 20 of plaintiffs' complaint.

21. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of paragraph 21 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

22. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of paragraph 22 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that Plaintiffs' Complaint and all allegations therein be dismissed with costs paid.

COUNT II - PLAINTIFF EDWARD BRADY v. DEFENDANTS

23. Defendant, Stat Medevac, Inc., hereby incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 22 above as though more fully set forth herein.

24. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 24 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

25. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 25 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

26. It is denied that this Defendant committed "wrongful acts" and was in any way the cause of Plaintiff's alleged injuries, losses and damages. By way of further response, after a reasonable investigation, this Defendant does not have information or knowledge sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in paragraph 26 of Plaintiffs' Complaint.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that Plaintiffs' Complaint and all allegations therein be dismissed with costs paid.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED.

NEW MATTER

27. To the extent that the evidence reveals that Plaintiff failed to follow medical advice, failed to treat properly, or otherwise failed to mitigate her damages, this Defendant pleads the defense of the failure to mitigate.

28. To the extent that the evidence reveals that Plaintiffs failed to file this action in a timely manner, this Defendant pleads the defense of the statute of limitations.

29. To the extent that the evidence reveals that the Plaintiff had a pre-existing condition that caused or contributed to her injuries, this Defendant pleads the existence of that pre-existing condition as a defense.

30. If at the time of trial it is established that this Defendant accepted less than full payment for certain of Plaintiff's medical expenses or otherwise forgave certain of those expenses, than this Defendant pleads any such set-offs as an affirmative defense.

31. Plaintiffs' claims are barred or limited under the Health Care Services Malpractice Act.

32. To the extent that the evidence reveals that Plaintiffs lacked the capacity to sue at the time this action was commenced, or at any time relevant hereto, this Defendant pleads the lack of capacity to sue as an affirmative defense.

33. To the extent that it is determined that Plaintiffs are or were engaged in other litigation or proceedings pertaining to the injuries alleged in this Complaint, this Defendant pleads the defenses of accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, estoppel, and release.

34. This Defendant avers that the Plaintiff's injuries were directly and proximately caused by the negligence or fault of parties other than this Defendant, whether named or unnamed in Plaintiff's Complaint, over whom this Defendant had no supervision or control and for whose actions and omissions this Defendant has no legal responsibility.

WHEREFORE, this Defendant denies liability and requests that judgment be entered in its favor and against Plaintiffs and that Defendant be awarded attorney's fees and costs.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED.

PETITION OF KATZ, COHEN & PRICE FOR EXTRAORDINARY RELIEF FOR PERMISSION TO WITHDRAW APPEARANCE ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFFS

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF THE SAID COURT:

The Petition of Katz, Cohen & Price, P.C. by Samuel Cohen, respectfully represents:

1. The captioned matter is an action seeking damages for personal injuries arising from an incident which occurred on February 2, 2002.
2. The Plaintiffs retained Samuel Cohen of the law firm of Katz, Cohen & Price, P.C. as counsel by virtue of a written Power of Attorney/Contingent Fee Agreement. Because of Attorney Client privilege, a copy of said document is not attached hereto.

3. On May, 17, 2004, as of the above Court Term and Number, Petitioner instituted suit in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County on behalf of Plaintiffs and against Defendants seeking compensatory damages for the injuries sustained by plaintiffs as a result of the incident of February 2, 2002.

4. Subsequent thereto certain differences have arisen between Counsel and his clients that make it impossible for him to continue his representation.

5. Subsequent to his securing the offer of settlement, Plaintiffs filed for protection under the United States Bankruptcy Code.

6. Counsel for plaintiff contacted the trustee in bankruptcy, Lisa Swope, Esquire and after reviewing the facts and circumstances of the matter, attorney Swope determined that she was not interested in pursuing the matter because of issues surrounding the case involving liability, causation, and the extent of the damages.

7. The reason why counsel desires to withdraw involve confidential matters which counsel will disclose in camera to the Court with the Plaintiffs present should they desire to oppose this Petition.

8. Though prejudice would result to Plaintiffs since there is a state of proceedings pending the bankruptcy matter or such other reasonable time as the Court may determine, it is hereby requested as part of a Court Order in order to afford Plaintiffs ample time to engage new counsel and permit new counsel to become acquainted with the file.

9. The Petitioner assures the Court and the Respondent of his full cooperation with substitute counsel in turning over all of the file and file material to substitute counsel and assisting to familiarize substitute counsel with the instant matter.

10. Petitioner has communicated to opposing counsel his intent to file the instant Rule and Petition to Withdraw His Appearance as counsel for Plaintiff and there is no objection to either from opposing counsel.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully seeks leave of this Honorable Court to withdraw as counsel of record, granting Plaintiffs reasonable time within which to obtain substitute counsel. All proceedings to stay meanwhile.

Respectfully submitted

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF PETITION
OF COUNSEL FOR PLAINTIFFS TO WITHDRAW

SECTION I-STATEMENT OF FACTS

The within matter involves a claim by Plaintiffs against Defendants for injuries sustained as a result of an incident which occurred on February 2, 2008.

On February 2, 2008 , Plaintiff Doreen Brady was being transported from the emergency room of Clearfield Hospital to a helicopter for transport to another medical facility. As she was being transported from Clearfield Hospital, it is believed that a gurney rolled over a curb causing Doreen Brady to be thrown from the gurney to the ground. At the time of the incident, the Gurney was being pushed by employees of Defendant, Stat Medevac, Inc.

Counsel's reasons for desiring to withdraw will be disclosed to the Court on Camera with the Plaintiffs in attendance if they so choose.

Given various discussions between Petitioner and his clients, it is believed that an impasse has been reached. It would not be appropriate for the details of the impasse to be presented in a Court filing and counsel respectfully requests that a Hearing be held in chambers to flush out the details of the problems.

Under the circumstances, your Petitioner does not believe that it would be in the best interests of either Plaintiffs or Petitioner to continue representation of Plaintiffs at this time and request that this honorable Court will grant leave for Petitioner to Withdraw as Counsel of record.

SECTION II-LEGAL ARGUMENT

Rule 1.16 of the Code of Professional Responsibility deals with declining or terminating representation. It provides, in pertinent part:

- ...(b) Except as stated in paragraph (c), a lawyer may withdraw from representing a client if:.... (4) The client insists upon taking action that the lawyer considers repugnant or with which the lawyer has a fundamental disagreement...
- (6) The representation will result in an unreasonable financial burden on the lawyer or has been rendered unreasonably difficult by the client; or
- (7) Other good cause for withdrawal exists.

Because of issues regarding client confidentiality, Petitioner does not believe it to be appropriate to release the details regarding the facts which form the basis of his desire to withdraw as counsel in a public filing. Counsel would prefer to present this matter before the court in chambers so the details are not unduly prejudicial to the Plaintiffs' interest.

SECTION III-CONCLUSION

Based on the requirements of Rule 1.16 (b) of the Rules of Professional Conduct

Based on the requirements of Rule 1.16 (b) of the Rules of Professional Conduct governing attorneys in Pennsylvania, counsel for Plaintiffs' respectfully request that he be permitted to withdraw. Counsel will provide abundant reasons at the time of the hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

MOTION TO ENFORCE SETTLEMENT
AND REMOVE CASE FROM THE TRIAL LIST

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, CLEARFIELD HOSPITAL, by and through its attorneys, McINTYRE, HARTYE, SCHMITT & SOSNOWSKI, and files the following Motion to Enforce Settlement and Remove Case from the Trial List.

1. Plaintiffs' counsel, Samuel Cohen, initiated this lawsuit by filing a Praecept for Writ of Summons on January 23, 2004. Thereafter a Complaint was filed against the above-named defendants alleging negligence when the gurney upon which plaintiff was being transported turned over and plaintiff sustained a fall.

2. Depositions and other discovery were conducted.

3. This matter went to Mediation, which Mediation was not successful.

Thereafter a joint offer of $25,000 was made to plaintiffs to resolve this lawsuit. By letter dated May 2, 2008, Attorney Cohen on behalf of the plaintiffs accepted the $25,000 offer and requested a Release and settlement check. (Exhibit "1")

4. A few days later on May 6, 2008, Attorney Cohen indicated that because of the plaintiffs declaring bankruptcy it was impossible to accept the $25,000 at that time but he expected that the bankruptcy would be resolved shortly and the parties would be able to go forward (with the settlement). (Exhibit "2")

5. By Order dated March 4, 2009, Attorney Cohen was granted leave to withdraw as counsel and then the lawsuit was stayed for 60 days to permit plaintiffs to secure new counsel. (Exhibit "3")

6. Following Attorney Cohen's withdrawal from the case, Attorney Anthony Williott on behalf of the defense wrote to the plaintiffs attempting to accomplish the settlement within the restrictions of the Bankruptcy Court. (Exhibit "4")

7. There was no response from the plaintiffs and no entry of appearance until more than one year later on or about July 23, 2010 when Attorney David S. Klett entered his appearance and filed expert reports dated November 2009 and July 2010.

8. Defendants maintain that a settlement has been reached in this case in the amount of $25,000 subject to any requirements of the Bankruptcy Court. Plaintiffs' acceptance by Attorney Cohen on May 2, 2008 was never revoked and, defendants in reliance upon the same have been waiting to finalize the settlement since that time.

9. By letter dated August 17, 2010, defense counsel advised plaintiffs' counsel of the settlement which had been previously reached and requested bankruptcy documents to determine how best to proceed. (Exhibit "5")

10. Plaintiffs did not respond, instead they have filed a Praecept to List this matter for Trial. Defendant Clearfield Hospital maintains that a settlement has been reached and is requesting the Court to enforce the settlement and remove the case from any trial list.

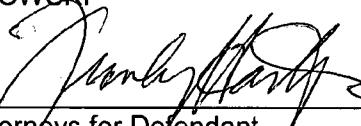

11. There is a strong judicial policy in favor of voluntarily settling lawsuit. Rothman v. Fillette, 503 Pa. 259, 266, 469 A.2d 543, 546 (1983). Settlement agreements are enforced according to principles of contract law. See Felix v. Giuseppe Kitchens & Bath, Inc., 848 A.2d 943 (Pa. Super. 2004).

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Clearfield Hospital, requests this Honorable Court to enforce settlement and upon payment of the settlement amount that this matter be discontinued.

Respectfully submitted,

McINTYRE, HARTYE, SCHMITT &
SOSNOWSKI

RE: Doreen Brady and Edward Brady v. Clearfield Hospital and STAT MedEvac, Inc.
Our File No.: 6143.282222

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brady:

As you know, I represent STAT MedEvac in your lawsuit.

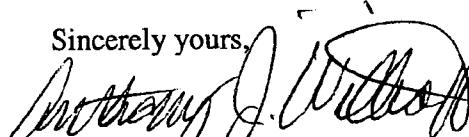

Attorney Cohen withdrew as your counsel in early March and the court stayed the litigation for sixty days. That sixty day stay has now expired.

I am writing to you directly because you are unrepresented. We would like to resolve this case with you, if possible. It is my understanding from reviewing the bankruptcy papers and talking to the trustee in bankruptcy that any amount you secure in this lawsuit above $12,000 must go into the bankruptcy for payment of your creditors.

The defendants remain ready, willing and able to pay you $12,000 in exchange for full and final release and discontinuance, with prejudice, of your lawsuit.

I look forward to your response.

Sincerely yours,

Anthony J. Willott

Dear Mr. Klett:

Thank you for sending the reports from your experts. Prior to receiving correspondence from you, I was under the impression that this matter had been settled and we were merely awaiting approval from the Bankruptcy Court. I am enclosing a copy of the letter from Attorney Cohen from two years ago indicating that the settlement offer on behalf of the defendants was accepted.

Could you please forward to me a copy of Doreen Brady's Petition in Bankruptcy as well as the copy of any Orders relating to the bankruptcy. In addition, could you please forward to me an itemized list of the medical bills being claimed and an itemized statement from DPW and/or Medicare.

Once I have received those documents from you, I will advise whether or not I will proceed with a Motion to Enforce Settlement.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation in these matters.

Sincerely,

ANSWER TO MOTION TO ENFORCE SETTLEMENT AND REMOVE CASE FROM TRIAL LIST

AND NOW come the Plaintiffs, DOREEN BRADY and EDWARD BRADY, by and through their attorneys, DAVID S. KLETT, ESQUIRE and KLETT & ASSOCIATES and file the following Answer to Motion to Enforce Settlement and Remove Case from Trial List:

1. Admitted.
2. Admitted.
3. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that the matter went to unsuccessful mediation. It is specifically denied that Attorney Cohen was expressly authorized by Plaintiffs to accept an offer of $25,000. It is specifically denied that Attorney Cohen accepted an offer on behalf of and at the request of Plaintiffs. The implication that Plaintiffs Doreen Brady and Edward Brady expressly authorized and accepted a $25,000 offer is specifically denied. By way of further answer, Exhibit "1" is a writing that speaks for itself. It is specifically alleged that Plaintiffs did not learn of the existence of Exhibit "1" until advised on May 6, 2008 by their counsel in bankruptcy, Earle David Lees, Jr. It is specifically alleged that Doreen Brady and Edward Brady did not give Attorney Cohen express authority to settle their case for $25,000, and it is specifically alleged that Doreen Brady and Edward Brady instructed Attorney Cohen to not accept the offer of $25,000, as further evidenced by

Joint Affidavit of Doreen Brady and Edward Brady dated September 21, 2010 filed of record in this matter on September 27, 2010, and attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "A", which provides:

We, Doreen Brady and Edward Brady, Husband and Wife, being of full age and under penalty of perjury, declare and state as follows:

Our case against Clearfield Hospital and Stat Medevac, Inc. was mediated before the Honorable Thomas Raup. Our attorney Sam Cohen told us to not go to our mediation hearing. He called at 4:50 p.m. with a $25,000 settlement offer. We did not at any time give Attorney Cohen any authority whatsoever to settle our case for $25,000, and specifically advised Attorney Cohen that we did not and would not accept $25,000 to settle our case.

/s/
Doreen Brady
Edward Brady

The lack of express authority warrants denial of Defendant's Motion. Reutzel v. Douglas, 582 Pa. 149, 870 A.2d 787 (2005) (Trial Court erred in granting motion to enforce a settlement agreement because attorney representing plaintiffs did not have express authority to make the settlement offer, and apparent authority was not sufficient to make the offer valid).

4. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that it was impossible for Attorney Cohen to accept an offer of $25,000, and that notice thereof was delivered to Plaintiffs through Attorney Lees, as evidenced by Exhibit "2". Exhibit "2" is a writing that speaks for itself, and Defendant's characterization, embellishment and unreasonable inferences and conclusions as to the provisions of Exhibit "2" are specifically denied.

5. Admitted.

6. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that Attorney Williott communicated with Plaintiffs who were unrepresented at the time through Exhibit "4". Exhibit "4" is a writing that speaks for itself, and Defendant's characterization, embellishment and unreasonable inferences and conclusions as to the provisions of Exhibit "4" are specifically denied. By way of further Answer, it is specifically denied that Attorney Williott was writing to accomplish settlement in the amount of $25,000, as evidenced by his offer of only $12,000. In fact, the offer of lesser money is advanced after acknowledging the lack of existence of prior settlement by stating "we would like to resolve this case with you, if possible." It is further believed and therefore averred that Attorney Williott's legal opinion being offered to unrepresented Plaintiffs concerning the amount of remaining exemptions was an incorrect statement of the law, given the unlimited nature of the precise exemptions being claimed by Plaintiffs.

7. Denied. To the contrary, in response to Exhibit "4", on October 29, 2009 the undersigned Counsel, David S. Klett, spoke with Attorney Williott with regard to the status of the matter, and Attorney Williott at no time represented that the matter had been settled.

8. Denied. To the contrary, Exhibit "2" is notice of impossibility of settlement, with the concept of revocation being irrelevant in the context of impossibility. Any purported reliance by Defendant is unreasonable and not supported by their subsequent conduct.

9. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that Attorney Hartye through Exhibit "5" requested information concerning Plaintiffs' bankruptcy. It is specifically denied that the matter had been settled and the parties were awaiting approval from the Bankruptcy Court. To the contrary, bankruptcy approval is not relevant to the circumstances of this matter, and no reference to any purported "approval" is contained in any Exhibit to the Motion herein. It is further specifically denied that Attorney Hartye possessed a reasonable impression that the matter had been settled. As evidenced by his ability to obtain the public record of Plaintiffs' bankruptcy information by attachment to Defendant's brief in support of this Motion, Defendant could have readily determined the status, and anytime after May of 2008 when the case was closed provided a release and settlement proceeds of $25,000 (rather than the $12,000 offered by Attorney Williott) and moved to enforce the settlement. Instead, both defendants continued with discovery in this matter by each serving a Request for Production of Expert Reports Directed to Plaintiffs Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1042.28 on or about February 1, 2010, with the obvious goal of seeking dismissal of the action without any monetary payment to Plaintiffs or coercion to accept the mere $12,000 then being offered. A copy of Mr. Hartye's letter of February 1, 2010 sent directly to Mr. and Mrs. Brady demanding production of expert reports, together with that of Mr. Gottwald (Attorney Williott) are attached hereto as Exhibit "B", and incorporated herein by reference.

10. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that Plaintiffs did not supply documents in response to Attorney Hartye's request for medical bills and bankruptcy court information which was otherwise available to him, and which was the subject of prior discovery and will be provided in Plaintiffs' Pretrial Statement. Plaintiffs did provide a response by placing this matter on a trial list, after obtaining and supplying expert reports in response to Defendants' discovery demand therefor on or about February 1, 2010. It is denied that settlement as been reached, and that such a claim is reasonably supported by the evidence.

11. The averments of paragraph 11 constitute conclusions of law to which no response is necessary or warranted. To the extent that a response is warranted, it is averred that Defendant's citation to authority in its Motion and its Brief in Support is premature based upon the procedure governing this Motion pursuant to Local Rule 206. Contrary to Defendant's assertions, this matter is governed by the recent teachings of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in Reutzel v. Douglas, 582 Pa. 149, 870 A.2d 787 (2005) (Trial Court erred in granting motion to enforce a settlement agreement because attorney representing plaintiffs did not have express authority to make the settlement offer, and apparent authority was not sufficient to make the offer valid), which is attached as Exhibit "C" hereto for the convenience of the Court.

NEW MATTER

12. The averments of paragraphs 1 through 11 are incorporated here in by reference.
13. Defendant has alleged no prejudice in support of this Motion and Defendant has suffered no prejudice generally, or specifically as a result of being advised by fax of the impossibility of settlement on May 6, 2008 - one day after Defendant's receipt on May 5, 2008 of Attorney Cohen's letter of May 2, 2008 (Exhibit "1").
14. The lack of a Joint Motion including Defendant StatMedevac supports the conclusion that no settlement occurred in this matter.
15. Doreen Brady and Edward Brady did not give Attorney Cohen express authority to settle their case for $25,000.
16. Plaintiffs will suffer prejudice as a result of further costs and delay in this matter.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Doreen Brady and Edward Brady pray that his Honorable Court will deny the within Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

We, Doreen Brady and Edward Brady, Husband and Wife, being of full age and under penalty of perjury, declare and state as follows:

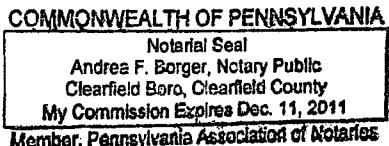

Our case against Clearfield Hospital and Stat Medevac, Inc. was mediated before the Honorable Thomas Raup. Our attorney Sam Cohen told us to not go to our mediation hearing. He called at 4:50 p.m. with a $25,000 settlement offer. We did not at any time give Attorney Cohen any authority whatsoever to settle our case for $25,000, and specifically advised Attorney Cohen that we did not and would not accept $25,000 to settle our case.

OPINION BY: NIGRO

OPINION

[*150] [787] MR. JUSTICE NIGRO

The issue in this case is whether the Superior Court erred in enforcing a settlement agreement between Appellants Rozanna and Mark Reutzel and Appellees Dr.

Richard Douglas, M.D., and Allegheny General Hospital ("AGH") based on its conclusion that the Reutzels' attorney had apparent authority to settle the case on the Reutzels' behalf. For the following [788] reasons, we conclude that it did err and therefore reverse.

On November 23, 1994, Mark Reutzel and his wife Rozanna were traveling along an interstate highway in the family's mini-van when Mark lost control of the vehicle, causing it to veer [*151] across the road's grass median and collide head-on with a car traveling in the opposite direction. As a result of the collision, Rozanna sustained serious [2] injuries to her back which rendered her paraplegic. Thereafter, she underwent back surgery at AGH, with Dr. Douglas as her surgeon. Unfortunately, the surgery was not entirely successful as Dr. Douglas, by his own later admission, incorrectly implanted a pedicle screw into Rozanna's vertebrae, thereby aggravating her pre-existing injury. Rozanna subsequently underwent a second surgery to have the screw removed and in 1996, the Reutzels brought an action against Dr. Douglas and AGH, seeking to recover for the negligently performed surgery.

In 2002, the parties engaged in negotiations to settle the case. Due largely to a personality conflict between the Reutzels' attorney, Paul Danielsen, and Dr. Douglas' attorney, Diane Barr Quinlin, the two communicated primarily in writing and apparently used AGH's attorney, Terry Cavanaugh, as an intermediary for many of their negotiations. On July 30, 2002, Danielsen left a voice-mail for Cavanaugh, stating in relevant part:

Before I have a knockdown drag out of any kind with [Quinlin], my thought is if you could talk to her first, you guys get us a hundred, contribute what you want, I will make it go away. I don't have client consent, but [3] I'm not going to come back to you and say $ 125,000, I can guarantee you that. A hundred and it all goes poof!

2005 Pa. LEXIS 598, ***

Tr. Ct. Op. at 2.

As requested, Cavanaugh communicated this message to Quinlin. Quinlin, however, was about to leave on a trip to Europe and therefore informed Danielsen that he should temporarily communicate with Dr. Douglas' insurance agent, John Cleary, about all settlement matters. On August 7, 2002, Cleary advised Danielsen that he had obtained authority to settle the suit on Dr. Douglas' behalf for the $ 100,000 figure that Danielsen had suggested. When Quinlin returned from Europe, Cleary informed her that he had accepted the $ 100,000 proposition from Danielsen. Quinlin, believing the case to be settled, relayed this information to Cavanaugh, who [*152] agreed with Quinlin that there had been a meeting of the minds on the $ 100,000 figure, but cautioned Quinlin that Danielsen had since contacted him in an attempt to re-open negotiations, saying that he was "losing control of [his] client" and would actually need more money to settle the case. N.T., 10/28/02, at 5.

Fearful that Danielsen was trying to evade their prior agreement, on October 7, 2002, Quinlin and [4] Cavanaugh filed a Joint Petition to Enforce Settlement Agreement (the "Petition") in which they asserted that the July 30 voicemail was an offer to settle for $ 100,000 and that Cleary's conversation with Danielsen on August 7 was an acceptance of that offer. For their part, the Reutzels and Danielsen claimed that they understood the voicemail and subsequent conversations merely to be part of ongoing negotiations and thus, were shocked by Quinlin's and Cavanaugh's filing of the Petition.

Following a hearing, the trial court granted the Petition and ordered AGH and Dr. Douglas to pay the Reutzels $ 100,000, finding that: (1) Danielsen had conveyed his ability to settle the suit on the Reutzels' behalf in the July 30 voicemail, despite his disclaimer that he did not have client consent; and (2) Cavanaugh and [789] Quinlin had reasonably relied on that representation. The trial court therefore concluded that Quinlin and Cavanaugh had successfully established that Danielsen had acted with apparent authority, which was all that was necessary to bind his clients under Superior Court precedent. Tr. Ct. Op. at 5 (citing Hannington v. Trustees of the Univ. of Pennsylvania, 2002 PA Super 314, 809 A.2d 406 (Pa. Super. 2002)). [5]

On appeal, the Superior Court affirmed, summarily endorsing the trial court's application of the Hannington decision and adopting the trial court's findings of facts as conclusively establishing that apparent authority existed under the circumstances.

In a lengthy dissent, Judge Johnson agreed that whether Danielsen had apparent authority to settle was the appropriate inquiry under the circumstances of the case, but disagreed that such authority was present here. According to Judge [*153] Johnson, the evidence showed that Danielsen expressly disavowed his authority to settle the case, and that such disavowal destroyed any reasonable reliance that Quinlin and Cavanaugh could place on Danielsen's representations. Moreover, Judge Johnson stated that the evidence, including correspondence between Cavanaugh and Danielsen after July 30 that appeared to signal continuing negotiations,¹ as well as the failure of all three parties to tender a release during the six week period following the voicemail, showed that Cavanaugh and Quinlin did not actually believe that the case had been settled, belying the trial court's conclusion that the two had reasonably relied on Danielsen's representations. [6] Judge Johnson therefore stated that he would have reversed the trial court's order based on a lack of apparent authority.

1 On August 2, 2002, three days after receiving Danielsen's voicemail, Cavanaugh sent a letter to Danielsen suggesting that the two commemorate the contents of the voicemail in a letter, with a copy to be sent to Quinlin. The letter stated, in relevant part:

Dear Paul,

First, it is important to note that you have not made a commitment to me.

Nonetheless, what harm would there be in a letter that I direct to you with a copy to [Quinlin] as follows:

Dear Paul,

I do appreciate the tone and tenor of our recent, cordial conversations.

You have indicated to me that you are prepared to recommend to your client that she abandon all claims against Allegheny General Hospital so that you can concentrate exclusively on our co-defendant, Dr. Douglas.

* * * *

Because you have advised that you and counsel for the neurosurgeon are beginning negotiations, I see no point in discontinuing the action as to my client and amending the caption at present. If negotiations break down, I do appreciate your willingness to abandon claims again Allegheny General.

Very Truly Yours,
/s/ Terry C. Cavanaugh

Super. Ct. Op. at 8-9 (Johnson, J., dissenting) (emphases added).

[7] On appeal to this Court, the Reutzels contend that the lower courts erred in concluding, based on Hannington, that Daniels' authority was sufficient to bind his clients to a settlement agreement when he expressly stated that he did [*154] not have his client's consent. We agree.²

2 This case involves a question of law and therefore our review is plenary. Stoner v. Stoner, 572 Pa. 665, 819 A.2d 529, 530 (Pa. 2003).

The law in this jurisdiction is clear and well-settled that an attorney must [*790] have express authority in order to bind a client to a settlement agreement. McLaughlin v. Monaghan, 290 Pa. 74, 138 A. 79 (Pa. 1927); Starling v. West Erie Ave. Bldg. & Loan Ass'n, 333 Pa. 124, 3 A.2d 387 (Pa. 1939); Senyshyn v. Karlak, 450 Pa. 535, 299 A.2d 294 (Pa. 1973); Rizzo v. Haines, 520 Pa. 484, 555 A.2d 58, 66 (Pa. 1989). The rationale for this rule stems from the fact that parties settling legal disputes forfeit substantial legal rights, [*8] and such rights should only be forfeited knowingly. See, e.g., Starling, 3 A.2d at 388 ("apparent or implied authority does not extend to unauthorized acts which will result in the surrender of any substantial right of the client, or the imposition of new liabilities or burdens upon him"). As such, a client's attorney may not settle a case without the client's grant of express authority, and such express authority can only exist where the principal specifically grants the agent the authority to perform a certain task on the principal's behalf. See RESTATEMENT (SECOND) OF AGENCY § 7 cmt. c (1958).

In concluding that Daniels bound the Reutzels to a settlement agreement that they did not authorize, the lower courts relied on the Superior Court's decision in Hannington for the proposition that an attorney can settle a case based on apparent authority alone. In Hannington, the plaintiff, a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Pennsylvania (the "University"), sued the University for breach of an alleged tuition agreement. Following several months of settlement negotiations, the plaintiff's attorney informed counsel [*9] for the University that his client had agreed to the terms of the parties' negotiated agreement and release, and several weeks later, he sent a finalized version of the agreement to the University's counsel and informed the court that the parties had settled. Nevertheless, the plaintiff thereafter refused to sign the final settlement agreement, hired new counsel, and moved to resume his case against the University. The trial court denied the plaintiff's [*155] motion and on appeal, the Superior Court affirmed. According to the Superior Court, the plaintiff was bound by the settlement agreement because his attorney had acted with apparent authority and the University's counsel had reasonably believed that the plaintiff's attorney had that authority. In holding as such, the Superior Court cited this Court's decision in Rothman v. Fillette, 503 Pa. 259, 469 A.2d 543 (Pa. 1983), for the underlying legal premise that a settlement agreement may be enforced against a principal where his lawyer acts with apparent authority, stating that "the Rothman Court ruled that, even though plaintiff's lawyer committed a fraud on plaintiff, plaintiff's lawyer had the apparent authority to [*10] settle with the innocent opposing party." Hannington, 809 A.2d at 408.

Appellees urge this Court to uphold the Superior Court below, arguing that it properly applied the Hannington decision. However, Hannington's statement that an attorney can bind his client to a settlement based on apparent authority alone is simply an incorrect statement of the law and is grounded in a misreading of this Court's decision in Rothman.³

3 We note that this Court granted allowance of appeal in Hannington, 573 Pa. 659, 820 A.2d 162 (Pa. 2003) (Table), but the case was subsequently discontinued upon the request of the parties.

Rothman was a personal injury case arising out of an automobile accident in which plaintiff Phillip Rothman was injured. After a period of settlement negotiations, Mr. Rothman's counsel informed Liberty Mutual, the defendants' insurance company, that his client had agreed to [*791] settle the case for seven thousand dollars. Liberty Mutual, relying on that representation, [*11] sent to Mr. Rothman's counsel a settlement agreement and a check made payable to Mr. Rothman and his wife. Contrary to his counsel's representations, however, Mr. Rothman had not authorized his counsel to settle the case, and when his counsel received the two documents, he forged Mr. Rothman's name and pocketed the settlement funds for his own use. Thereafter, the court declared the case settled, discontinued, and ended.

[*156] Years later, Mr. Rothman learned of his attorney's fraud and sought to re-open the case, arguing that "since he was neither aware of, nor had he authorized the settlement and [since] his agent acted without authority, he should not be prevented from pursuing his claim against [defendants] and their insurer." Rothman, 469 A.2d at 545. The lower courts agreed with Mr. Rothman and reinstated his action against the defendants. On appeal, however, this Court reversed, explaining that "where one of two innocent persons must suffer, the loss should be borne by him who put the wrongdoer in a position of trust and confidence and thus enabled him to perpetrate the wrong." Id. (quoting Rykaczewski v. Kerry Homes, Inc., 192 Pa. Super. 461, 161 A.2d 924, 926 (Pa. Super. 1960)). [12] As Mr. Rothman had hired the fraudulent attorney, this Court reasoned that as between him and the innocent insurance company, he should bear the loss. It therefore refused to re-open the personal injury case.

As Hannington and the decision of the Superior Court below make clear, Rothman has been interpreted, at least on occasion, as ruling that attorneys may bind their clients to settlements based on apparent authority alone. See Hannington, 809 A.2d at 408 (Pa. Super. 2002) ("The doctrine of apparent authority permits a settlement agreement to be enforced where a third party reasonably believes that the principal's lawyer, the agent, had the authority to settle the case even though the lawyer fraudulently represents that he has such authority.") (citing Rothman, 469 A.2d at 545); id. ("The Rothman court ruled that, even though, plaintiff's lawyer committed a fraud on plaintiff, plaintiff's lawyer had the apparent authority to settle with the innocent opposing party."); Super. Ct. Op. at 6 ("Our reading of Hannington reveals that it comports with existing law regarding the doctrine of apparent authority."); see also Manzitti v. Amsler, 379 Pa. Super. 454, 550 A.2d 537 (Pa. Super. 1988) [13] (applying Rothman and concluding that settlement agreement was enforceable where defendant's insurer had reasonable belief that an oral settlement agreement reached with plaintiffs' counsel had been expressly authorized by plaintiffs); Covington v. Continental [*157] Gen'l Tire, Inc., 381 F.3d 216, 220 (3d Cir. 2004) ("Questions of agency certainly emanated from the ethers of Rothman"); Farris v. JC Penney Co., Inc., 176 F.3d 706, 709 (3d Cir. 1999) ("At best, the court has left the applicability of the [apparent authority] doctrine open, seeming to suggest in Rothman . . . that apparent authority might be used to enforce a settlement given the right set of facts."). However, contrary to the understanding of these courts, Rothman's disposition did not rest on principles of apparent authority and thus, did not stand for such a proposition. Indeed, the first sentence of the Rothman opinion explains that the case raised the issue of "who must bear the burden of loss between innocent parties where the attorney for one of the parties has acted beyond the scope of his authority and has misappropriated funds." Rothman, 469 A.2d at 544 [14] (emphasis added). Similarly, at the beginning of its analysis, the court states that "it must be understood that under the facts of this case, there is no question of [792] an implied or an apparent agency," emphasizing that the "law in this jurisdiction is quite clear that an attorney must have express authority to settle a cause of action of the client." Id. at 545. Accordingly, while the court ultimately held Mr. Rothman to the terms of the settlement that he had not authorized, it did so not based on a conclusion that his counsel had apparent authority, but rather, based on "the long recognized principle that where one of two innocent parties must suffer because of the fraud of a third, the one who has accredited him must bear the loss." Id. (citing Keller v. N.J. Fidelity and Plate Glass Insur. Co., 306 Pa. 124, 159 A. 40 (1932); Mundorff v. Wickersham, 63 Pa. 87 (1869)); see also id. (citing with approval cases in which "the lack of authority of the agent has been rejected as a basis for shifting the principal's losses onto the innocent third party.").

We therefore conclude, as stated above, that Rothman did not establish that an [15] attorney can bind his client based on apparent authority. Instead, the law remains that an attorney can only bind his client to a settlement based on express authority. See, e.g., Starling. Accordingly, Hannington clearly misstated the law emanating from Rothman and the [*158] lower courts erred in relying on Hannington's misstatement to find that the Reutzels were bound to the negotiated settlement here.

That said, as we did hold in Rothman that the innocent plaintiff in that case had to accept a settlement that his attorney had no authority to enter into, we feel compelled to consider whether the same principles of equity and agency that drove Rothman's conclusion should also compel us to find that the Reutzels are bound to the terms of the settlement that Danielsen negotiated.⁴ We conclude that they do not. As a general matter, we note that Rothman was a particularly egregious case of attorney fraud and therefore warranted somewhat unusual treatment. See Rothman, 469 A.2d at 544 ("Mindful of the adage that hard cases make bad law, we are constrained to conclude that the innocent client must bear the brunt of his counsel's errant [16] behavior."). In contrast, in the instant case, while Appellees contend that Danielsen misled them as to his authority, they do not go so far as to characterize his conduct as fraud and indeed, it seems clear that Danielsen's representations to Appellees regarding settlement simply did not rise to that level.⁵ In any event, unlike the attorney in Rothman, Danielsen certainly did not defraud his own client, much less enter into a settlement by forging his client's signature and then pocketing the proceeds for his own use. As such, unlike the situation in Rothman, we are not faced with two defrauded parties, between whom we must apportion a loss. Rothman, 469 A.2d at 545 ("Where one of two innocent persons must suffer because of the fraud of a third, the one who has accredited him must bear the loss."). [*159] In addition, the fact that the Reutzels were not defrauded is significant in the balancing of the equities here, because [793] defrauded clients like those in Rothman can oftentimes recover their losses from the Client Security Fund, see 469 A.2d at 546 n.4 (noting that Mr. Rothman's losses would be minimized by his ability to collect from the [17] fund, citing Pa.R.D.E. 502, et seq), while the Reutzels, whose attorney did not defraud them, would not be entitled to such recovery. See Pa.R.D.E. 514 (Permitting compensation for losses caused by an attorney's "dishonest conduct"); Pa.R.D.E. 513 (defining dishonest conduct as "wrongful acts or omissions committed by [an attorney] in the manner of defalcation or embezzlement of money, or the wrongful taking of conversion of money, property or other things of value"). Finally, we think it noteworthy from an equities standpoint that the plaintiff in Rothman sought to set aside the settlement almost five years after it was executed, which would have seriously disrupted both the defendants' and the court's long-held belief that the case was settled, whereas here, the settlement had not been finalized, the case remained active, and at the most, the defendants only believed the case to be settled for a matter of two months. Accordingly, although this Court determined in Rothman that agency and equitable principles required Mr. Rothman to bear the losses sustained by his attorney's misconduct, we conclude that these principles do not require a similar result here.

4 This Court specifically stated in Rothman that our holding was "consistent with fundamentally sound principles of agency and equity . . ." Id. at 546 (emphasis added).

5 We recognize that the trial court concluded that opposing counsel reasonably believed that Danielsen had authority to settle the case. See Tr. Ct. Op. at 4-6. However, even accepting this as so, it does not transform Danielsen's conduct into fraud and certainly does not transform it into a fraud of the magnitude of that in Rothman. Accordingly, we need not revisit the trial court's finding in that regard in order to conclude that Rothman is distinguishable on its facts and does not require the Reutzels to be bound by the settlement here.

In sum, we conclude that the Superior Court erred in holding that Danielsen's apparent authority was sufficient to bind the Reutzels to the terms of the oral settlement agreement at issue, when this Court has clearly stated that an attorney may only bind his client to the terms of a settlement based on express authority. See, e.g., Starling, 333 Pa. 124, 3 A.2d 387. Moreover, while we recognize that Rothman required a plaintiff to bear the loss associated with his attorney's fraud in connection with an unauthorized [19] settlement, we do not believe that the same result is mandated in this case, as the facts and equities of the two cases are easily distinguishable from one another.

[*160] For the foregoing reasons, the Superior Court decision is reversed, the trial court's order granting Appellees' Joint Petition to Enforce the oral settlement agreement is vacated, and the case is remanded for further proceedings.

CONCUR

CONCURRING OPINION

MR. CHIEF JUSTICE CAPPY

I join the majority opinion. I write separately, however, to note that I would take this opportunity to adopt, prospectively, the doctrine of apparent authority as set forth in Section 27 of the Restatement (Third) of the Law Governing Lawyers. I favor embracing this approach due to its recognition of the practical difficulties inherent in negotiating and enforcing settlements, and its proper balancing of the competing policies of the client's right to control settlement, protection of third parties, [20] and our strong public policy in favor of settlement.

As set forth by the majority, the law in our Commonwealth has been clear that an attorney must have express authority in order to bind a client to a settlement agreement. Starling v. West Erie Avenue Building & Loan, 333 Pa. 124, 3 A.2d 387, 388 (Pa. 1939). While it has been suggested that whether our Court would adopt the doctrine of apparent authority is an open question,¹ our prior case law has expressly [794] rejected the apparent authority doctrine. Starling, 3 A.2d at 388 (determining that the "necessity of special [express] authority ... not only denies the existence of implied authority, but also of apparent authority of an attorney to bind his client" to a settlement agreement).

1 See, Farris v. JC Penney Company, Inc., 176 F.3d 706, 709 (3rd Cir. 1999)(noting that the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has never invoked the doctrine of apparent authority to enforce a settlement agreement, but at best, "has left the applicability of the doctrine open...." citing

582 Pa. 149, *; 870 A.2d 787, **;
2005 Pa. LEXIS 598, ***

Rothman v. Fillette, 503 Pa. 259, 469 A.2d 543 (Pa. 1983).

[21] [*161] I, however, would adopt, prospectively, the doctrine of apparent authority, as stated in Section 27 of the Restatement (Third) of the Law Governing Lawyers as the law of our Commonwealth. Embracing Section 27 would slightly alter the current requirement of express authority by permitting enforcement of a settlement agreement where a third party reasonably assumes that the lawyer is authorized to settle a matter, based upon the client's manifestations of such authorization.

A lawyer's act is considered to be that of the client in proceedings before a tribunal or in dealings with a third person if the tribunal or third person reasonably assumes that the lawyer is authorized to do the act on the basis of the client's (and not the lawyer's) manifestations of such authorization.

RESTATEMENT (THIRD) OF THE LAW GOVERNING LAWYERS § 27 (2000).

I believe that such an approach is more desirable than the doctrine of express authority, first, because it takes into account the complex and difficult nature of negotiating a settlement agreement as well as a blameless third party's burden in enforcing a settlement [22] agreement. Settlement disputes can arise if a recalcitrant attorney agrees to settle an action contrary to the express instructions of his or her client. Likewise, an attorney mistakenly may believe his or her client has authorized a settlement. Finally, a client may renege on a commitment to settle after authorizing his attorney to reach an agreement. Under the doctrine of express authority, the impact of such contests regarding the validity of a settlement falls disproportionately on a third party who relies upon an opposing party's attorney's acts and representations. This is due to the fact that a third party engaged in the settlement of a dispute seldom knows whether the opposing party's attorney is acting with the express authority of his or her client. Furthermore, in enforcing a settlement agreement, a third party may find proving express authority difficult, as the proof necessarily will involve dealings between the client and his or her attorney to which the third party was not privy and which [*162] may be protected by the attorney-client privilege. See generally, Grace M. Giesel, Enforcement of Settlement Contracts: The Problem of the Attorney Agent, 12 Geo. J. Legal Ethics 543, 543-44 (Spring 1999).

[23] The doctrine of apparent authority as set forth in the Restatement (Third) of the Law Governing Lawyers alleviates, at least to some degree, these practical difficulties that are manifest in the settlement of disputes and the shortcomings of the express authority doctrine. Under the doctrine of apparent authority a third party bases enforcement of a settlement agreement upon the statements and conduct of the opposing attorney's client. Therefore, if the third party is reasonably misled by the client's communications or manifestations that the client's attorney is authorized to bind the client to a settlement agreement, then it is the client who must bear the burden for misleading. By adopting the apparent authority doctrine, a balance of interest between the parties is maintained where clients retain ultimate [795] control over settlement issues yet, at the same time, reasonable third parties are protected.

Second, I believe that the apparent authority doctrine is more in line with our Court's strong and historic public policy of encouraging the settlement of disputes. Muhammad v. Strassburger, et al., 526 Pa. 541, 587 A.2d 1346, 1350-51 (Pa. 1991). Under the doctrine [24] of apparent authority, if a client's communications or manifestations are reasonably interpreted to mean that the client's attorney has the authority to settle the dispute, any settlement agreement entered into by the client's attorney will be enforceable against that client. This approach also will reduce the ability of a client to renege on settlement after an agreement is reached.²

2 Scholarship has endorsed this approach to the enforcement of settlement agreements. See e.g. Giesel, 12 Geo. J. Legal Ethics at 590; Parness and Bartlett, The Authority of Illinois Lawyers to Settle Their Client's Civil Claims: On Principles Not Quite Settled, 31 Loy. U. Chi. L.J. 199, 220-21 (Winter 2000).

Thus, for the reasons stated above, I join the majority opinion, but additionally would prospectively adopt as the law [*163] of our Commonwealth the Restatement (Third) of the Law Governing Lawyers § 27.

Madame Justice Newman joins this concurring opinion.

[*25] CONCURRING OPINION

MR. JUSTICE EAKIN

I concur with the result in this case; however, I write separately because I believe the majority opinion is too far-reaching and, therefore, advisory in nature.

The majority pronounces the proper rule of law: "an attorney can only bind his client to a settlement based on express authority." Majority Slip Op., at 9. Here, the attorney for appellants did not have such express authority to settle the case; the attorney stated "I don't have client consent" in the very voicemail construed below as an "offer." As such, the majority's thoughtful analysis balancing the equities in this case is an unnecessary step -- the absence of express authority ends the inquiry.

582 Pa. 149, *; 870 A.2d 787, **;
2005 Pa. LEXIS 598, ***

In Rothman v. Fillette, 503 Pa. 259, 469 A.2d 543 (Pa. 1983), this Court was asked to determine which innocent party should bear the loss resulting from fraud perpetrated by Rothman's attorney. Id., at 544. Here, there was no fraud perpetrated upon either party, and there was no loss; one party merely tried to benefit from the statements of another's counsel made during settlement negotiations. Insofar as that decision has been interpreted [26] to allow apparent authority to bind the client in a case without fraud, it is rightly rejected. However, as the finding that apparent authority existed here is in error, resolving this issue might better wait for another day.

MOTION TO ENFORCE SETTLEMENT
AND REMOVE CASE FROM THE TRIAL LIST

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, STAT MEDEVAC, INC., by and through its attorneys, DICKIE, McCAMEY, and CHILCOTE, P.C., and Justin M. Gottwald, Esquire, and file the within Motion to Enforce Settlement and Remove Case from the Trial List, and in support thereof avers as follows:

1. Plaintiffs' counsel, Samuel Cohen, Esquire, initiated this lawsuit by filing a Praecept for Writ of Summons on January 23, 2004. Thereafter a Complaint was filed against the above-named defendants alleging negligence when the gurney upon which plaintiff was being transported turned over and plaintiff sustained a fall.
2. Depositions and other discovery were conducted.
3. This matter went to Mediation, but said Mediation was not successful. Thereafter a joint offer of $25,000 was made to plaintiffs to resolve this lawsuit.
4. By letter dated May 2, 2008, Attorney Cohen, on behalf of plaintiffs, accepted the $25,000 offer and requested a Release and settlement check. A copy of Attorney Cohen's May 2, 2008 correspondence is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5. Attorney Cohen's May 2, 2008 letter explicitly sets forth that his clients authorized him to settle the case. authority he was granted to accept the offer on behalf of plaintiffs, "I have been instructed to accept your offer...." A copy of Attorney Cohen's May 2, 2008 correspondence is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6. A few days later on May 6, 2008, Attorney Cohen indicated that because of the plaintiffs declaring bankruptcy it was impossible to accept the $25,000 at that time but he expected that the bankruptcy would be resolved shortly and the parties would be able to go forward [with the settlement]. A copy of Attorney Cohen's May 6, 2008 correspondence is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

7. By Order dated March 4, 2009, Attorney Cohen was granted leave to withdraw as counsel and then the lawsuit was stayed for sixty (60) days to permit plaintiffs to secure new counsel. A copy of the Order of Court dated March 4, 2009 is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

8. Following Attorney Cohen's withdrawal from the case, Anthony Williot, Esquire on behalf of the defendants, wrote to the plaintiffs attempting to accomplish the settlement within the restrictions of the Bankruptcy Court. Those restrictions, as per the bankruptcy trustee, Lisa Swope, with whom Attorney Williot spoke on or about March 19, 2009, were that any settlement amount above $12,000 would be placed back into the bankruptcy estate for distribution to creditors. Please see correspondence of Attorney Williot dated May 14, 2009 attached hereto as Exhibit D.

9. Plaintiffs did not respond to Attorney Williot's letter.

10. On or about October 30, 2009, Attorney David S. Klett phoned Attorney Williot to advise that he was considering entering his appearance on behalf of plaintiffs.

11. There was no response from the plaintiffs relative to the case settlement and no entry of appearance until on or about July 23, 2010 when Attorney Klett entered his appearance and filed expert reports dated November 2009 and July 2010.

12. Defendants maintain that a settlement has been reached in his case in the amount of $25,000 subject to any requirements of the Bankruptcy Court. Plaintiffs' acceptance by Attorney Cohen on May 2, 2008 was never revoked and, defendants in reliance upon the same have been waiting to finalize the settlement since that time within the confines of the Bankruptcy Court.

13. By letter dated August 17, 2010, defense counsel advised plaintiffs' counsel of the settlement which had been previously reached and requested bankruptcy documents to determine how best to proceed. Please see correspondence of Attorney Hartye attached hereto as Exhibit E.

14. Plaintiffs did not respond; instead they have filed a Praecept to List this matter for Trial. Defendant Stat Medevac, Inc. maintains that a settlement has been reached and is requesting the Court to enforce the settlement and remove the case from any trial list.

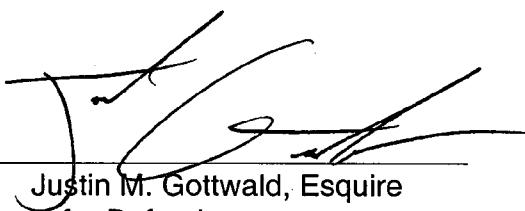

15. There is a strong judicial policy in favor of voluntarily settling lawsuit. Rothman v. Fillette, 469 A.2d 543, 546 (Pa. 1983). Settlement agreements are enforced according to principles of contract law. See Felix v. Giuseppe Kitchens & Bath, Inc., 848 A.2d 943 (Pa.Super. 2004).

WHEREFORE, Defendant Stat Medevac, Inc., respectfully requests this Honorable Court to enforce settlement and upon payment of the settlement amount that this matter be discontinued.

Respectfully submitted,

DICKIE, McCAMEY & CHILCOTE, P.C.

RE: Doreen Brady and Edward Brady v. Clearfield Hospital and STAT MedEvac, Inc.
Our File No.: 6143.282222

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brady:

As you know, I represent STAT MedEvac in your lawsuit.

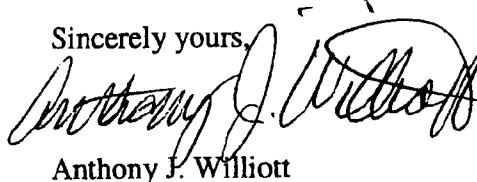

Attorney Cohen withdrew as your counsel in early March and the court stayed the litigation for sixty days. That sixty day stay has now expired.

I am writing to you directly because you are unrepresented. We would like to resolve this case with you, if possible. It is my understanding from reviewing the bankruptcy papers and talking to the trustee in bankruptcy that any amount you secure in this lawsuit above $12,000 must go into the bankruptcy for payment of your creditors.

The defendants remain ready, willing and able to pay you $12,000 in exchange for full and final release and discontinuance, with prejudice, of your lawsuit.

I look forward to your response.

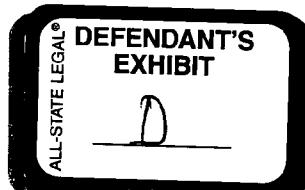

Sincerely yours,

Anthony J. Williott

No. 2004 – 110 CD (Clearfield County)

Dear Mr. Klett:

Thank you for sending the reports from your experts. Prior to receiving correspondence from you, I was under the impression that this matter had been settled and we were merely awaiting approval from the Bankruptcy Court. I am enclosing a copy of the letter from Attorney Cohen from two years ago indicating that the settlement offer on behalf of the defendants was accepted.

Could you please forward to me a copy of Doreen Brady's Petition in Bankruptcy as well as the copy of any Orders relating to the bankruptcy. In addition, could you please forward to me an itemized list of the medical bills being claimed and an itemized statement from DPW and/or Medicare.

Once I have received those documents from you, I will advise whether or not I will proceed with a Motion to Enforce Settlement.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation in these matters.

Sincerely,

Frank J. Hartye

MOTION TO PROTECT AND STRIKE SUBPOENAS TO ATTEND AND TESTIFY

AND NOW come the Plaintiffs, DOREEN BRADY and EDWARD BRADY, by and through their attorneys, DAVID S. KLETT, ESQUIRE and KLETT & ASSOCIATES and file the following Motion to Protect and Strike Subpoenas to Attend and Testify:

1. On September 14, 2010 Defendant Clearfield Hospital filed an unverified Motion to Enforce Settlement and Remove Case from Trial List upon the certification of its counsel, Frank J. Hartye, Esquire, and by Julie C. Radford, Esquire by virtue of a Brief in Support filed on or about October 1, 2010.
2. On September 17, 2010 a Rule to Show Cause returnable by October 19, 2010 was issued by the Honorable Fredric J. Ammerman, pursuant to Local Rule 206. Said Rule to Show Cause, which was prepared by Mr. Hartye did not comply with Local Rule 206(i) in that it failed to contain the mandatory Notice to Plead.
3. Local Rule 206, and its comment in subsection (l) provides:

This rule clarification is to make clear that the rule to show cause in petition/motion practice is a "notice to plead". A hearing is not seasonable until an answer has been filed and the issues have been determined. Hearings or depositions will be scheduled at a conference on Petition, Motion, and Argument days after the answer has been filed.

Local Rule 206(i) further provides that "hearings will not be scheduled in the Order issuing the Rule to Show Cause, except upon special leave of court upon due notice to the other parties."

4. On September 27, 2010 Plaintiffs filed a Joint Affidavit of Doreen Brady and Edward Brady in support of Answer to Motion to Enforce Settlement and Remove Case From Trial List filed by the Plaintiffs on October 4, 2010 in satisfaction of the Rule to Show Cause.

5. Local Rule 206(k) provides that "[w]hen an Answer is filed, it shall be the duty of the moving party to take depositions of disputed issues of fact or to request the Court Administrator to schedule a hearing."

6. By letter dated October 8, 2010 Mr. Hartye served three (3) Subpoenas to Attend and Testify-Duces Tecum upon past and present counsel for Plaintiffs for all three attorneys to attend and testify simultaneously on the same day of October 19, 2010 at 10:00 a.m., copies of which are attached hereto.

7. On October 11, 2010 the Honorable Fredric J. Ammerman issued an Order scheduling argument on the Motion on October 19, 2010 at 10:00 a.m.

8. A hearing in this matter has not been scheduled and the procedures governing this Rule to Show Cause do not provide for discovery in the form of unilateral conduct by Mr. Hartye through the unscheduled and unnoticed issuance of three (3) subpoenas for three (3) attorneys to attend and testify and produce documents simultaneously on the same day in a Courtroom on October 19, 2010 at 10:00 a.m.

9. The discovery sought by Defendant through the three (3) subpoenas is sought in bad faith, and would cause unreasonable annoyance, oppression, burden or expense, and prejudice to the Plaintiffs.

10. Plaintiffs' Answer and supporting Affidavit evidence that Plaintiffs did not provide express authority to settle. The conduct of Mr. Hartye and Mr. Williott makes it clear that there was no meeting of the minds required for settlement, based upon the Defendants inconsistent conduct in not tendering a release or proceeds, in reducing the offer from $25,000 to $12,000 through correspondence containing legal opinions directly to unrepresented Plaintiffs, in not mentioning settlement to the undersigned counsel, and in continuing with discovery and demands pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1042.28 for expert reports as to professional negligence with the only possible goal being dismissal of the action without payment of any money.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that this Honorable Court issue an Order of Court striking the three (3) Subpoenas dated October 7, 2010 issued in the above-captioned matter.

Respectfully submitted,

OPINION

Currently before this Court are motions by Defendants Clearfield Hospital and STAT Medevac, Inc., seeking Court approval to enforce a purported settlement reached between the Defendants and Plaintiffs Doreen and Edward Brady for $25,000.00. Defendants claim the settlement is binding because Plaintiff's former counsel was authorized to enter into the agreement, whereas Plaintiffs claim they never authorized their former counsel to settle, in part because they themselves lacked the authority to settle the claim due to a then-pending bankruptcy. For the following reasons, the Court agrees that Plaintiffs and/or their counsel lacked the authority to settle any claims at the time of the purported settlement due to the pending bankruptcy proceedings.

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, commencement of a bankruptcy case creates an estate that is comprised of all legal and equitable property interests of the debtors. 11 U.S.C. § 541. This includes personal injury claims that may be pending at the time of filing. Northview Motors, Inc. v. Chrysler Motors Corp., 186 F.3d 345, 350 (3rd Cir. 1999). In the instant action, Plaintiffs' personal injury action pre-dated the filing of the bankruptcy action and was still pending when the bankruptcy case commenced. Therefore, the personal injury action became an asset of the bankruptcy estate under the custody and control of the trustee. The trustee then is authorized to utilize the procedure set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 9019 to settle a claim of the estate. The trustee must file a motion with the bankruptcy court seeking approval of the settlement, and thereafter a hearing must be held on the proposed settlement. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019.

The debtors (here, the Plaintiffs) no longer control the course of the lawsuit once the bankruptcy proceeding commences. This is not to say, however, that they lacked any say in the matter. Their role, however, was substantially limited by the bankruptcy filing. Once the trustee moves for bankruptcy court approval of the settlement, the debtors are only entitled to notice of the proposed settlement and an opportunity to voice their concerns over it. In re Martin, 91 F.3d 389 (1996). It is the trustee who has the authority to accept or reject any settlement offers, subject to bankruptcy court approval. In re RFE Industries, Inc., 283 F.3d 159 (3rd Cir. 2002).

In the case sub judice, the lawsuit was part of the estate, controlled by the trustee. There is no evidence that the trustee approved the settlement or sought approval from the bankruptcy court of any purported settlement. Rather, Defendants appear to rest their case on the fact that Plaintiffs' former counsel, Samuel Cohen, was authorized to settle the dispute. The law is clear that this was not the case, though. The power of settlement was held by the trustee alone, subject only to the bankruptcy court's approval. Whether Plaintiffs told Mr. Cohen to accept the $25,000.00 offer or not is immaterial. The fact remains that Mr. Cohen had no legal authority to bind the bankruptcy estate to the settlement.

At the time of the purported settlement on May 2, 2008, the bankruptcy proceeding, although it was winding down, was still pending. It was not until two weeks after the alleged settlement was reached that the bankruptcy case was closed. Once the bankruptcy proceeding closed on May 16, 2008, the lawsuit was effectively abandoned by the estate, rendering the claim once again within the Plaintiffs' control. Only then does the issue of Plaintiffs' authorization to Mr. Cohen become material. However, since there are no allegations that a purported settlement arose post-closing of the bankruptcy case, this is not a matter before this Court.

Based on the foregoing, the Court enters the following:

ORDER

AND NOW, this 19th day of January, 2011, following hearing on Defendants' Motions to Enforce Settlement and Remove from Trial List, review of the record and timely submission of the parties' briefs, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendants' Motions be and are hereby DENIED.

AND NOW comes one of the defendants, STAT MedEvac, Inc., by and through its counsel, Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. and Justin M. Gottwald, Esquire, and hereby files the within Motion to Compel Discovery, and in support thereof avers as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, after a period of inactivity of over four (4) years, certified this case as ready for trial on September 9, 2010.
2. Defendants objected to this certification in that they sought to enforce the settlement of this matter. Defendants' Motion to Enforce Settlement and Remove Case from Trial List was denied by this Honorable Court (Ammerman, P.J.) on January 19, 2011.
3. Plaintiff, Doreen Brady, was deposed on June 21, 2005.
4. Prior to the filing of a Certificate of Readiness, counsel for plaintiffs did not supplement plaintiffs' responses to this defendant's First Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents.
5. Along with the Certificate of Readiness, counsel for plaintiff submitted an undated expert report of Vanessa Fazio, Ph.D.

MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

AND NOW comes one of the defendants, STAT MedEvac, Inc., by and through its counsel, Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. and Justin M. Gottwald, Esquire, and hereby files the within Motion to Compel Discovery, and in support thereof avers as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, after a period of inactivity of over four (4) years, certified this case as ready for trial on September 9, 2010.
2. Defendants objected to this certification in that they sought to enforce the settlement of this matter. Defendants' Motion to Enforce Settlement and Remove Case from Trial List was denied by this Honorable Court (Ammerman, P.J.) on January 19, 2011.
3. Plaintiff, Doreen Brady, was deposed on June 21, 2005.
4. Prior to the filing of a Certificate of Readiness, counsel for plaintiffs did not supplement plaintiffs' responses to this defendant's First Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents.
5. Along with the Certificate of Readiness, counsel for plaintiff submitted an undated expert report of Vanessa Fazio, Ph.D.

6. Dr. Fazio performed five (5) evaluations of Ms. Brady from December of 2008 through October of 2009.

7. Dr. Fazio's records of treatment were not produced to the defendants along with her narrative report.

8. Dr. Fazio also considered and relied upon the records of several of Ms. Brady's treating physicians. These physicians provided care to Ms. Brady in the years following her deposition. None of the medical records relied upon by Dr. Fazio were produced to the defendants.

9. In summary, plaintiffs have not provided the defendants with any medical records of Ms. Brady since the date of her deposition.

10. Having not received any supplemental discovery responses, on September 30, 2010, this defendant propounded and served upon counsel for plaintiffs a Second Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents. These discovery requests were narrowly tailored to discover information relative to Ms. Brady's condition since the date of her deposition.

11. On January 21, 2011, counsel for this defendant requested plaintiffs' overdue responses to the Second Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents. Plaintiffs served a "Response" to this defendant's Second Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents on January 26, 2011. In short, plaintiffs objected to providing any updated information regarding Ms. Brady or her medical condition aside from the information contained in the expert report of Dr. Fazio.

12. Without full and complete discovery responses, this defendant cannot properly proceed with the preparation of its case and is thereby prejudiced.

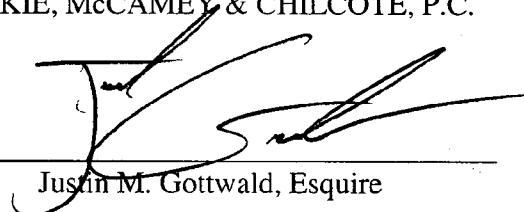

13. Counsel for this defendant certifies that it has conferred or attempted to confer with all interested parties in order to resolve the matter without Court action in compliance with Local Rule 208.2 (e).

WHEREFORE, the Defendant, STAT MedEvac, Inc., respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order directing Plaintiffs to respond to the Second Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents completely, fully, and in good faith within ten (10) days from the date of this Order.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF ORDER DATED FEBRUARY 7, 2011

AND NOW come the Plaintiffs, DOREEN BRADY and EDWARD BRADY, by their attorneys, DAVID S. KLETT, ESQUIRE and KLETT & ASSOCIATES and file the following Motion:

1. Defendant Stat Medevac, Inc. served a Second Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents upon Plaintiffs on September 30, 2010.
2. On October 19, 2010, after hearing on Defendant's motion to enforce settlement, Counsel for Defendant was advised that Plaintiffs objected to the discovery on the basis of timeliness.
3. By letter dated January 21, 2011 Defendant advised that a motion to compel would be filed if a discovery response was not received within ten (10) days.
4. On January 26, 2011 Plaintiffs provided a formal discovery response raising certain specific objections.
5. On February 7, 2011 Defendant filed a Motion to Compel Discovery which did not set forth the basis for Plaintiffs' objections to the discovery sought.
6. On February 7, 2011 the Court entered an Order of Court requiring Plaintiffs' to respond to the discovery within thirty (30) days, without having been afforded the opportunity to consider Plaintiffs' objections.

7. The specific objections contained in Plaintiffs' formal response dated January 21, 2011 are as follows:

1 - 13. Objection. Discovery is closed. Local Rule 212.2 provides for trial listing by Praecipe and Certificate of Readiness pursuant to Local Rule 212.2(a) that discovery is closed or limited by Order of Court, and no motions are outstanding. Plaintiffs filed with the Court and served on all parties a Praecipe for Trial and Certificate of Readiness pursuant to Local Rule 212.2(a) on or about September 9, 2010. The matter was listed for trial by Order of Court dated September 15, 2010.

Local Rule 212.2(b) provides that any party objecting to the case being listed for trial shall file a motion to strike the case from the trial list within seven (7) days of notice of the Praecipe for Trial from Plaintiffs. Defendant Stat Medevac, Inc. did not file within seven (7) days, or at any time, a motion to strike raising any objection to the trial listing with regard to purported outstanding discovery.

By way of further objection, Plaintiffs filed their Pretrial Statement on or about October 16, 2010, which contains information sought by Defendant. This matter is scheduled for pretrial conference on March 1, 2011 and for jury selection on April 5, 2011.

8. Defendant Stat Medevac, Inc. had an opportunity to provide timely objection to the trial listing on the basis that discovery was not completed, and had it done so, discovery could have been completed and Plaintiffs would not be threatened with further delay of trial associated with the timing of the discovery presently sought.

9. Defendant previously deposed Plaintiffs Doreen Brady and Edward Brady, as well as their two children. Defendant has conducted an independent medical examination of Doreen Brady, and has filed a pretrial statement with an expert medical report.

10. Plaintiffs provided Defendant with Plaintiffs' expert's medical report on July 23, 2010 and filed their pretrial statement on October 16, 2010, and Plaintiffs have previously suffered delay in trial in response to Defendant's unsuccessful motion to enforce settlement.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that this Honorable Court issue an Order of Court vacating the Order of Court dated February 7, 2011 and protecting Plaintiffs from further discovery pursuant to Local Rule 212.2(b) where Defendant raised no timely objection concerning discovery in response to Plaintiff's Praeclipe for Trial.
