TO THE DEFENDANT: The above named plaintiff(s) asks judgment against you for $ 6,000.00 together with costs upon the following claim (Civil fines must include citation of the statute or ordinance violated):

Four (4) hearing aids were purchased by Plaintiff for Plaintiff and her husband, Alvin G. Williams, who has since passed away on January 22, 2004, for the total purchase price of $6,000.00 on September 8, 2003, on condition that if they did not work, did not fit properly, and were ineffective, the purchase price would be paid back in full. The hearing aids were delivered and the purchase price of $6,000.00 was paid in full. The hearing aids did not work, did not fit properly, and were ineffective. After numerous complaints, the Defendants picked up the hearing aids on November 10, 2003, with the promise that the purchase price would be refunded.

Notwithstanding numerous requests for the refund of the purchase price, the purchase price has not been refunded to date; hence this Civil Complaint to recover the purchase price and costs.

This statement is made subject to the penalties of Section 4904 of the Crimes Code (18 PA. C.S. § 4904) related to unsworn falsification to authorities.

Cindy:

Please postpone the Sherriff's Sale that is scheduled for tomorrow, March 11, 2005, at 10:30 a.m. The Defendant and I have verbally agreed to a payoff schedule of the judgment which, if complied with, will make unnecessary the Sheriff's Sale. However, if he does not comply with the payoff schedule, I will recontact your office to reschedule the sale.

Thank you for your patience in this matter.

Cindy:

I again ask that the Sheriff's Sale scheduled for Friday, October 14, 2005, at 10:30 a.m. be continued. There have been certain developments stemming from the Attorney General's actions that may significantly impact the collection efforts on this judgment. If they come to fruition, the sale will not need to be rescheduled, but I will keep you advised as things progress. Again, thank you for your patience in this matter. I will contact your office at a later date with instructions whether or not to reschedule the Sheriff's Sale.
