COMPLAINT

NOW COMES, Linda J. Henry, Plaintiff above named, and by her Attorneys, Belin & Kubista, and files her Complaint against the Defendants as follows:

1. Plaintiff is Linda J. Henry, an adult individual residing at 261 Friendly Acre Road, Curwensville, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, 16833.
2. Defendants are:
 - a. Todd J. Marino, an adult individual residing at 329 Fredrica Street, Curwensville, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, 16833.
 - b. Matthew Greenland, an adult individual residing at RD 1, Rockton, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, 15856.
3. On October 22, 2003, Plaintiff was operating a motor vehicle in a westerly direction on State Route 879 in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, approximately three miles west of the Borough of Curwensville.
4. Plaintiff was operating her vehicle directly behind a vehicle operated by Defendant Greenland.

5. At that place and time, Defendant Marino was operating a vehicle on said State Route 879 in an easterly direction.
6. Defendant Greenland made a left turn across the eastbound lane of Route 879 into a construction area, and in so doing crossed the path of the vehicle operated by Defendant Marino.
7. Defendant Marino applied his brakes, lost control of his vehicle, crossed the center line of Route 879 and proceeded into the westbound lane of the roadway where his vehicle collided with the Plaintiff's vehicle.
8. After colliding with Plaintiff's vehicle, the vehicle operated by Defendant Marino spun counterclockwise and the frame of the vehicle came to rest on the centerline of Route 879.
9. The force of the collision caused Plaintiff's vehicle to travel an additional 100 feet in a westerly direction and said vehicle ultimately came to rest on the northern berm of Route 879 facing West.
10. The force of the collision further caused the cab of the vehicle operated by Defendant Marino to separate from the vehicle's frame and said cab came to rest on the south berm of Route 879.

COUNT I—LINDA J. HENRY v. TODD J. MARINO

11. Paragraphs 1 through and including Paragraph 10 of Plaintiff's Complaint are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth at length.
12. At the time and place set forth herein, Defendant Marino operated his vehicle in a careless, negligent and reckless manner, in that:

- a. He then and there operated his vehicle at an excessive rate of speed under the circumstances, as evidenced by 225 feet of skid marks on the roadway which resulted from his attempt to apply the brakes and by the fact that his vehicle broke apart on impact;
 - b. He failed to maintain control of his vehicle;
 - c. He failed to operate his vehicle in the proper lane of travel;
 - d. He failed to keep a proper lookout and anticipate that an oncoming vehicle may turn left across the roadway, particularly where there was a construction area nearby.
13. As the direct and proximate result of the carelessness, negligence and recklessness of the Defendant Marino, Plaintiff suffered injury to her person, in that she aggravated a pre-existing back condition, which has caused her great pain and discomfort, which has diminished her enjoyment of life, and which will continue to cause her pain and discomfort into the foreseeable future. Plaintiff has been forced to seek medical attention for her injuries and will require medical attention in the future.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks judgment against the Defendant Todd J. Marino in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of the board of arbitration, together with interest and costs of suit.

COUNT II – LINDA J. HENRY v. MATTHEW GREENLAND

14. Paragraphs 1 through and including Paragraph 13 of Plaintiff's Complaint are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth at length.

15. At the time and place set forth herein, Defendant Greenland operated his vehicle in a careless, negligent and reckless manner, in that:
 - a. He made a left turn into oncoming traffic without ascertaining that no vehicles were proceeding toward him;
 - b. He failed to keep a proper lookout for oncoming traffic before turning;
 - c. His actions caused Defendant Marino to suddenly apply his brakes and lose control of his vehicle, which then collided with the vehicle operated by Plaintiff.
16. As the direct and proximate result of the carelessness, negligence and recklessness of Defendant Greenland as set forth herein, Plaintiff suffered injury to her person, in that she aggravated a pre-existing back condition, which has caused her great pain and discomfort, which has diminished her enjoyment of life, and which will continue to cause her pain and discomfort into the foreseeable future. Plaintiff has been forced to seek medical attention for her injuries and will require medical attention in the future.
WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks judgment against the Defendant Matthew Greenland in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of the board of arbitration, together with interest and costs of suit.

COUNT II - LINDA J. HENRY v. MATTHEW GREENLAND

12. The averments set forth in paragraph no. 14 of the Plaintiff's Complaint, incorporating therein the averments set forth in paragraph nos. 1 through 13 of the Plaintiff's Complaint are answered by the Defendant Greenland incorporating herein his answers to paragraph nos. 1 through 13 as fully as though the same were set forth at length.

13. The averments set forth in paragraph no. 15 of the Plaintiff's Complaint are denied. The Defendant Greenland denies that he operated his vehicle in a careless, negligent and/or reckless manner. 1. This action was commenced via Writ of Summons on or about September 14, 2005. Plaintiff filed a Complaint on October 31, 2005.
2. The action sounds in motor vehicle negligence arising from an accident that occurred on October 22, 2003. In her Complaint, Plaintiff Linda Henry alleges that Defendants Todd Marino and Matthew Greenland were negligent in causing an impact between Plaintiff's vehicle and Defendant Marino's vehicle on SR 879 in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania after Defendant Greenland made a left hand turn into the path of Defendant Marino. (See Plaintiff's Compl., Exhibit "A").

3. Defendant Greenland denies making a left hand turn into Defendant Marino's path, and has filed a cross claim against Defendant Marino pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 2252. (See Exhibit "B").

4. An Entry of Appearance was filed on behalf of applicant Todd Marino by his undersigned counsel on November 1, 2005.

5. Defendant Marino is currently on active duty in the United States Army, and is outside of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania engaged in training for deployment to Iraq. It is expected that Defendant Marino will be deployed to Iraq sometime within the month of November 2005.

6. Pursuant to the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C.A. App. §501, et seq., Defendant Marino hereby moves for a stay of any further liability proceedings in this lawsuit, including but not limited to, a stay of any obligation to file responsive pleadings in this action, and a stay as to any discovery regarding liability and/or the facts of the accident.

7. The particulars of Defendant Marino's duties are set forth in Defendant Marino's Military Orders dated August 13, 2005, and the letter of his commanding officer, Daniel McTigue, CPT, AG, attached hereto as Exhibits "C" and "D" respectively.

8. Pursuant to Defendant Marino's current Military Orders, he will remain on active duty for 545 days following his reporting to active duty on October 7, 2005.

9. Accordingly, Defendant Marino anticipates being on active duty until approximately April 4, 2007, unless his period of duty is subsequently shortened or extended.

10. This lawsuit involves significant issues of disputed liability and disputed facts, and Defendant Marino's participation in the investigation and discovery process is essential if he is to have a fair opportunity to defend the negligence allegations against him.

11. Defendant Marino's active duty status prevents him from consulting with counsel, and from otherwise participating in the investigation, discovery, and preparation of a liability defense in this matter.

12. Accordingly, Defendant Marino, by and through his counsel, respectfully requests that all liability aspects of this lawsuit, including any discovery as to liability, be stayed until termination of his active duty status, currently anticipated to be April 4, 2007.

13. Counsel for Defendant Marino reasonably believes that discovery limited to Plaintiff's damages claims can proceed pending Defendant Marino's active duty.

14. Counsel for Plaintiff and counsel for Co-Defendant Matthew Greenland do not oppose the relief sought in the within Application. (See correspondence from Attorneys Ryan¹ and Guthrie, Exhibits "E" and "E-1").

WHEREFORE, Defendant Todd Marino respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order staying any further liability proceedings in this lawsuit, including any further pleadings and any discovery directed to liability, until the termination of Defendant Marino's active military duty status, which is currently anticipated to be April 4, 2007.

COMPLAINT

NOW COMES, Linda J. Henry, Plaintiff above named, and by her Attorneys, Belin & Kubista, and files her Complaint against the Defendants as follows:

1. Plaintiff is Linda J. Henry, an adult individual residing at 261 Friendly Acre Road, Curwensville, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, 16833.
2. Defendants are:
 - a. Todd J. Marino, an adult individual residing at 329 Fredrica Street, Curwensville, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, 16833.
 - b. Matthew Greenland, an adult individual residing at RD 1, Rockton, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, 15856.
3. On October 22, 2003, Plaintiff was operating a motor vehicle in a westerly direction on State Route 879 in Pike Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, approximately three miles west of the Borough of Curwensville.
4. Plaintiff was operating her vehicle directly behind a vehicle operated by Defendant Greenland.

5. At that place and time, Defendant Marino was operating a vehicle on said State Route 879 in an easterly direction.
6. Defendant Greenland made a left turn across the eastbound lane of Route 879 into a construction area, and in so doing crossed the path of the vehicle operated by Defendant Marino.
7. Defendant Marino applied his brakes, lost control of his vehicle, crossed the center line of Route 879 and proceeded into the westbound lane of the roadway where his vehicle collided with the Plaintiff's vehicle.
8. After colliding with Plaintiff's vehicle, the vehicle operated by Defendant Marino spun counterclockwise and the frame of the vehicle came to rest on the centerline of Route 879.
9. The force of the collision caused Plaintiff's vehicle to travel an additional 100 feet in a westerly direction and said vehicle ultimately came to rest on the northern berm of Route 879 facing West.
10. The force of the collision further caused the cab of the vehicle operated by Defendant Marino to separate from the vehicle's frame and said cab came to rest on the south berm of Route 879.

COUNT I—LINDA J. HENRY v. TODD J. MARINO

11. Paragraphs 1 through and including Paragraph 10 of Plaintiff's Complaint are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth at length.
12. At the time and place set forth herein, Defendant Marino operated his vehicle in a careless, negligent and reckless manner, in that:

- a. He then and there operated his vehicle at an excessive rate of speed under the circumstances, as evidenced by 225 feet of skid marks on the roadway which resulted from his attempt to apply the brakes and by the fact that his vehicle broke apart on impact;
 - b. He failed to maintain control of his vehicle;
 - c. He failed to operate his vehicle in the proper lane of travel;
 - d. He failed to keep a proper lookout and anticipate that an oncoming vehicle may turn left across the roadway, particularly where there was a construction area nearby.
13. As the direct and proximate result of the carelessness, negligence and recklessness of the Defendant Marino, Plaintiff suffered injury to her person, in that she aggravated a pre-existing back condition, which has caused her great pain and discomfort, which has diminished her enjoyment of life, and which will continue to cause her pain and discomfort into the foreseeable future. Plaintiff has been forced to seek medical attention for her injuries and will require medical attention in the future.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks judgment against the Defendant Todd J. Marino in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of the board of arbitration, together with interest and costs of suit.

COUNT II – LINDA J. HENRY v. MATTHEW GREENLAND

14. Paragraphs 1 through and including Paragraph 13 of Plaintiff's Complaint are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth at length.

15. At the time and place set forth herein, Defendant Greenland operated his vehicle in a careless, negligent and reckless manner, in that:

- a. He made a left turn into oncoming traffic without ascertaining that no vehicles were proceeding toward him;
- b. He failed to keep a proper lookout for oncoming traffic before turning;
- c. His actions caused Defendant Marino to suddenly apply his brakes and lose control of his vehicle, which then collided with the vehicle operated by Plaintiff.

16. As the direct and proximate result of the carelessness, negligence and recklessness of Defendant Greenland as set forth herein, Plaintiff suffered injury to her person, in that she aggravated a pre-existing back condition, which has caused her great pain and discomfort, which has diminished her enjoyment of life, and which will continue to cause her pain and discomfort into the foreseeable future. Plaintiff has been forced to seek medical attention for her injuries and will require medical attention in the future.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks judgment against the Defendant Matthew Greenland in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of the board of arbitration, together with interest and costs of suit.

Linda J. Henry v. Todd Marino and Matthew Greenland

Dear MS./MR. CLERK OF COURTS:

I am the Commanding Officer of Todd Marino, the Defendant in the above entitled action. He is currently serving in the active military service in the 864th AG CO.

Legal counsel informs me that the Service members Civil Relief Act allows a stay of proceedings for service members on active duty when their ability to defend themselves is materially affected by their military service. In this instance Mr. Marino's critical role in the national security mission of this command precludes his participation in court proceedings until after 04 April 07. He will be unable to adequately defend his interests at the scheduled hearing.

I will personally ensure that Mr. Marino is placed on leave immediately following the completion of the duties described above, so that he may appear at the next scheduled court date after 04 April 07. Please note that I am not an attorney and am not making this request based on any attorney-client relationship between myself and Mr. Marino. I am not representing Mr. Marino with regard to the proceedings pending in your court. This letter is a special request in my capacity as a commander, charged with a mission supporting the national security of this nation, that you delay the proceedings to allow this Soldier to perform his critical part in that mission.

Thank you for your assistance. Please inform me or Mr. Marino at the above address, of your action regarding this request.

Sincerely,

Application for Stay Pursuant to Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act

Dear Judge Ammerman:

The above-referenced matter has been set for hearing on Defendant Todd Marino's Application for Stay Pursuant to the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act for January 27, 2006 at 9:00 a.m. Please note that Defendant Marino's Application for Stay is unopposed, and that the adverse parties consent to an Order granting the stay. Enclosed for your information and ease of reference are letters from Attorneys John Ryan and William Guthrie to that effect, which are also attached as Exhibits "E" and "E1" to Defendant Marino's Application for Stay. Additionally, enclosed is a letter from Attorney Ryan dated January 10, 2006 reaffirming his position on the matter.

The purpose of this letter is to inquire whether the Court would be willing to grant the Application for Stay without the necessity of a hearing in light of the consent of all parties. To that end, I have also enclosed a copy of the proposed Order that was filed with the Application for Stay on November 23, 2005. If you approve, the enclosed Order could be entered of record, and the hearing currently scheduled for January 27th cancelled. Of course, in the event you believe a hearing is necessary despite the consent of all parties, I will certainly appear on January 27, 2006 as scheduled to address any questions and concerns.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Very truly yours,

McQUAIDE BLASKO

Re: Linda J. Henry v. Todd Marino and Matthew Greenland
No. 05-1417-C.D.

Dear Judge Ammerman:

This firm represents Co-Defendant Todd Marino in the above-referenced matter. Shortly before the lawsuit was initiated, Co-Defendant Marino received military orders from the United States Army deploying him to Iraq for active duty. Your Honor entered an order on January 16, 2006 staying all liability aspects of the case for the duration of Co-Defendant Marino's active military service.

The purpose of this letter is to advise the Court that Co-Defendant Marino has returned home from his active military service. I have contacted Attorney John Ryan on behalf of Plaintiff Linda Henry and Attorney William Guthrie on behalf of Co-Defendant Matthew Greenland to advise them of this development. All parties are in agreement that the Stay entered on January 16, 2006 should be lifted at this time. A proposed Order to that effect is enclosed for your consideration. On behalf of all parties, please accept this letter as a request that an Order in the form of the enclosed be entered of record.

Thank you for your time and consideration of this matter. Should you need anything further to process this request, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

23. Paragraphs 1 through 22 are incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full.

CO-DEFENDANT TODD MARINO'S REPLY TO NEW MATTER OF CO-DEFENDANT MATTHEW GREENLAND

AND NOW, comes Co-Defendant, Todd Marino, by and through his attorneys, McQuaide, Blasko, Fleming & Faulkner, Inc., and files the following Reply to New Matter of Co-Defendant Matthew Greenland.

15. Co-Defendant Marino hereby incorporates by reference the averments set forth in his Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint at paragraphs 1 through 14 the same as though set forth in full. By way of further response, it is denied that Co-Defendant Greenland was traveling in the opposite direction as Plaintiff. To the contrary, on information and belief, Co-Defendant Marino avers that Co-Defendant Greenland was operating his vehicle in front of the vehicle operated by Plaintiff just prior to making the sudden left hand turn into the path of Co-Defendant Marino's vehicle. Prior to these events, Co-Defendant Marino had been traveling in the opposite direction as Co-Defendant Greenland and Plaintiff.

16. Denied. It is denied that Co-Defendant Greenland was operating his vehicle in a lawful, careful, and prudent manner in an easterly direction on Route 879, and denied that Co-Defendant Greenland was in the process of making a right hand turn when the accident occurred.

To the contrary, on information and belief, it is averred that Co-Defendant Greenland was traveling in front of Plaintiff, and in the opposite direction as Co-Defendant Marino. The accident occurred when Co-Defendant Greenland suddenly and without warning made a left hand turn into the path of Co-Defendant Marino such that Co-Defendant Marino had to brake suddenly, causing his vehicle to slide into the opposing lane of traffic and collide with Plaintiff's vehicle.

17. Denied. Co-Defendant Marino was not operating his vehicle to the rear of Co-Defendant Greenland's vehicle prior to the accident.

18. Denied. To the contrary, on information and belief, Co-Defendant Greenland made a left hand turn, causing his vehicle to be directly in the path of Co-Defendant Marino's oncoming vehicle.

19. Admitted.

WHEREFORE, Co-Defendant Marino respectfully requests that Plaintiff's Complaint against him be dismissed, with prejudice and costs of suit.

NEW MATTER PURSUANT TO Pa.R.C.P. 2252(d)

20. (a-e) Denied. All allegations of carelessness, negligence, and/or recklessness are denied pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1029(e). It is specifically denied that Co-Defendant Todd Marino was careless, negligent, and/or reckless. It is further denied that Co-Defendant Marino operated his vehicle at an excessive speed and/or failed to keep a proper lookout for traffic and oncoming vehicles. To the contrary, Co-Defendant Marino was at all times operating his vehicle in a lawful, careful, and prudent manner. The accident giving rise to this matter occurred as a result of Co-Defendant Greenland's vehicle suddenly and without warning appearing in the path of Co-Defendant Marino's vehicle, causing Co-Defendant Marino to brake immediately and lose control of his vehicle. By way of further response, please see paragraphs 15 through 19, above, and Co-Defendant Marino's New Matter Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 2252(d), incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, Co-Defendant Marino respectfully requests that judgment be entered in his favor and against Co-Defendant Greenland.

APPLICATION FOR STAY PURSUANT TO THE SERVICEMEMBERS' CIVIL RELIEF ACT

AND NOW, comes Defendant, Todd Marino, by and through his undersigned attorneys, McQuaide, Blasko, Fleming & Faulkner, Inc., and files the within application for partial stay of proceedings pursuant to the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C.A. App. § 501, et seq. In support of this application, Defendant Marino avers as follows:

Background

1. This action was commenced via Writ of Summons on or about September 14, 2005. Plaintiff filed a Complaint on October 31, 2005.
2. The action sounds in motor vehicle negligence arising from an accident that occurred on October 22, 2003. In her Complaint, Plaintiff Linda Henry alleges that Defendants Todd Marino and Matthew Greenland were negligent in causing an impact between Plaintiff's vehicle and Defendant Marino's vehicle on SR 879 in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania after Defendant Greenland made a left hand turn into the path of Defendant Marino.
3. Defendant Marino denies any negligence, in that the impact between his vehicle and Plaintiff's was the result of Defendant Greenland turning left directly into the path of Defendant Marino's on-coming vehicle, causing Defendant Marino's vehicle to cross into the path of Plaintiff.

4. Defendant Greenland denies making a left hand turn into Defendant Marino's path.

5. Cross-claims have been filed by both Defendants for indemnification/contribution under Pa.R.C.P. §2252.

Prior Military Stay

6. This action was previously stayed for a period of approximately one year under the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C.A. App. § 501, et seq., when Defendant Todd Marino received Military Orders commanding him to report for active duty in Iraq.

7. The prior stay was pursuant to this Court's Order of January 16, 2006, granting Todd Marino's Application for Stay under the Act.

8. Immediately on Defendant Marino's return from active duty in Iraq, all counsel and the Court were so advised, and the Court entered an Order on the joint request of all parties lifting the stay on January 3, 2007.

Discovery

9. By way of discovery, the parties have exchanged written discovery, and depositions of all parties have been taken.

10. An independent medical examination was performed on August 20, 2007, and a report was issued on September 24, 2007.

11. During the parties' depositions, it became apparent that additional documents exist, beyond those produced in discovery, pertaining to investigations of the accident that were made by or on behalf of Defendant Greenland and/or Greenland Construction, the company Defendant Greenland was working for when the accident occurred.

12. Co-Defendant Marino issued a notice of intent to serve a subpoena on Greenland Construction for documents pertinent to the investigations of the accident on or about November 2, 2007.

13. Co-Defendant Greenland served objections to the aforementioned subpoena on November 9, 2007. Counsel thereafter tried to amicably resolve the objections, but have been unable to do so.

14. With the exception of the discovery noted in ¶¶ 11-13, above, Defendant Marino believes that the majority, if not all, discovery is essentially complete in this case.

Application for Partial Stay

15. The averments at paragraphs 1 through 14 are incorporated herein by reference as though set forth in full.

16. Defendant Marino received Military Orders dated November 6, 2007 commanding that he report for active duty on January 2, 2008.

17. The particulars of Defendant Marino's duties are set forth in the Military Orders dated November 6, 2007, attached hereto as Exhibit "A", and the letter of his Commanding Officer, Daniel E. Graham, 1LT, AG, attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

18. Pursuant to Defendant Marino's current Military Orders, he will remain on active duty for approximately 365 days, or until January 1, 2009, unless his period of duty is subsequently shortened or extended.

19. As noted in paragraphs 2 through 5, above, this lawsuit involves significant issues of disputed liability and disputed facts. Accordingly, Defendant Marino's presence at the trial of this matter will be critical to his ability to defend against the claims made against him.

20. Defendant Marino's active duty status prevents him from appearing at trial, or from otherwise participating in his defense.

21. Accordingly, Defendant Marino, by and through his counsel, respectfully requests that, with limited exceptions set forth below, this action be stayed until termination of his active duty status, currently anticipated to be January 1, 2009.

22. Counsel for Defendant Marino anticipates that a motion to dismiss objections with respect to the Greenland Construction subpoena and to compel production of the documents/materials noted in ¶¶11-13, above, will be necessary. Counsel submits this discovery can proceed without prejudice to any party during the period of Defendant Marino's active duty. Likewise, counsel for Defendant Marino reasonably believes that discovery in the nature of document requests related to both liability and damages claims can proceed pending Defendant Marino's active duty, and that allowing the parties to pursue discovery of this nature while the action is otherwise stayed would greatly enhance the likelihood that all discovery will be complete upon Defendant Marino's return from active military status, such that the case could be ready for trial.

23. Counsel for Plaintiff and counsel for Co-Defendant Matthew Greenland do not oppose the relief sought in the within application. (See Exhibits "C" and "D").

WHEREFORE, Defendant Todd Marino respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order staying this action, with the exception of the discovery matters noted in ¶ 22 of the

- within Application, until the termination of Defendant Marino's active military duty status, which is currently anticipated to be January 1, 2009.

ATTN: Clerk of Courts

SUBJECT: 05-1417-CD
Linda J. Henry vs. Todd Marino and Matthew Greenland

Dear Mr. CLERK OF COURTS

I am the Commanding Officer of Todd Marino, the Defendant in the above entitled action. He is will be serving in the active military service in support of contingency operations in the 403rd AG Co, beginning on the 2nd of January 2008.

Legal counsel informs me that the Service Members Civil Relief Act allows a stay of proceedings for service members on active duty when their ability to defend themselves is materially affected by their military service. In this instance Mr. Marino's critical role in the mission of this command precludes his participation in court proceedings until after 1 January 2009. He will be unable to adequately defend his interests at the present time.

I will personally ensure that Mr. Marino is placed on leave immediately following the completion of the duties described above, so that he may appear at the next scheduled court date after 1 January 2009. Please note that I am not an attorney and am not making this request based on any attorney-client relationship between myself and Mr. Marino. I am not representing Mr. Marino with regard to the proceedings in your court. This letter is a special request in my capacity as a commander, charged with a mission supporting the national security of this nation, that you delay the proceedings to allow this Soldier to perform his critical part in that mission.

Thank you for your assistance. Please inform me or Mr. Marino at the above address, of your action regarding this request.

Sincerely,

DANIEL E. GRAHAM

Dear Judge Ammerman:

This office represents Defendant Todd Marino in the above-referenced case. On April 8, 2008, Your Honor granted Defendant Marino's Application for Stay Pursuant to the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act, which stayed further proceedings during the term of Defendant Marino's active military status.

This letter is to advise the Court that Mr. Marino's active-duty status ended effective February 4, 2009. Counsel for Plaintiff and Co-Defendant Greenland have been advised of this development as well.

Very truly yours,
