RE: Citibank South Dakota, NA
Account with Jane Angeletti
Lawsuit balance $2891.40

Dear Ms. Dugan:

This letter confirms the agreement made to pay your client's account with Citibank South Dakota, NA. A lawsuit was filed to obtain a judgment against her. The lawsuit balance noted above includes the principal balance owed and court costs. It is our understanding that your client will not defend the lawsuit. Should your client change her mind and decide to defend the lawsuit, which is her right, this agreement will be void. Once a judgment is entered, your client agrees to pay the full amount of the judgment plus interest at 6% per annum and court costs. The payment terms follow.

Your client will begin with an initial payment today of $1,200.00 which will be followed by 5 payments of $150.00. We will then contact your client on or about May 15, 2006 to renegotiate the monthly payment amount.

The checks, payable to Citibank South Dakota, NA, are to be mailed to this office. Provided payments are made as agreed, my client will take no additional legal action to collect its judgment. Once the judgment is paid in full, my office will arrange to have the judgment marked satisfied on the court's records. Should your client default, my client may proceed with further legal action to collect any balance remaining due on the judgment. If the terms above do not correctly state the agreement that was reached, your client should immediately contact us. If you need to discuss the account with us in the future, please do not hesitate to contact us. The account representative's name and extension are noted below.

Very truly yours,

Burton Neil

PLAINTIFF'S REPLY TO DEFENDANT'S NEW MATTER

10. Denied. To the contrary, the payment arrangement Defendant's representative entered with Plaintiff was on the full lawsuit balance, court costs and 6% per annum interest once the judgment was entered. The lawsuit balance on the December 5, 2005 letter reflected the balance after the $1,200.00 payment was posted, which was the accurate lawsuit balance at the time the letter was sent to the Defendant's representative.

11. Denied. Plaintiff has received payments totaling $1,650.00 towards the balance pled in Plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff moves the Court to enter judgment against Defendant as per Plaintiff's Complaint.
