COMPLAINT IN LAW

NOW comes the Plaintiff, Clearfield-Lawrence Township Joint Airport Authority, by and through its Solicitor, David S. Ammerman, and for its complaint and cause of action sets forth the following:

1. The Plaintiff, Clearfield-Lawrence Joint Airport Authority (Authority) is a Pennsylvania municipal authority with its address at 800 Airport Road, Clearfield, Pennsylvania 16830.

2. The Defendant, Brett K. James (James) is an individual whose last known address is 209 East McClellan Avenue, Livingston, New Jersey 07039.

3. That the Plaintiff Authority is, and has during the time period set forth hereinafter, been the operator and manager of the Clearfield-Lawrence Airport, situate in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

4. That the Defendant, Brett K. James was, on or about September, 1997 the owner of a 1988 CASSUTT model aircraft being an experimental aircraft bearing FAA registration aircraft number N9XR.

5. That on or about said date Defendant landed his CASSUTT model aircraft at the Clearfield-Lawrence Airport and informed Ray Erensberger, the then airport fixed base operator, that he, the Defendant, was having engine problems and requested repair service and temporary storage, and thereafter left the airport premises.

6. That approximately one year later, a person who identified himself as the Defendant, Brett K. James, telephoned the airport and talked with Richard Shaffer, the newly appointed airport manager. Said caller inquired as to the airplane's status and was told by Mr. Shaffer that it was in a storage hanger at the airport.

7. That the Defendant informed Mr. Shaffer that he would be sending a lowboy to haul away the airplane. Defendant was then informed by Mr. Shaffer that Defendant would have to furnish proof of his identity as Brett K. James and tender a certified check for the storage costs, then amounting to $2,000.00, before possession of the aircraft would be surrendered to Defendant.

8. That the Defendant, nor anybody claiming to be the Defendant, has been seen in person since September, 1997 nor heard from since September, 1998.

9. That Defendant's aircraft has been safely stored in airport hangers at the Clearfield-Lawrence Township Joint Airport since September, 1997.

10. That a check of the current FAA registration for aircraft number N9XR shows Brett K. James as the registered owner of the CASSUTT aircraft. A true copy of the FAA registration being attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

11. That Plaintiff, at various times, has tried, without success, to contact Defendant concerning said aircraft and the bill for storage.

12. That Defendant has incurred storage costs for said aircraft from September, 1997 to date which, together with simple interest at 6%, as of October 1, 2005 amounts to $10,811.00. A true copy of the current invoice being labeled Exhibit "B" and attached hereto.

13. That said sum of $10,811.00 is lawfully due and owing Plaintiff by Defendant and which Defendant has failed to pay.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant in the amount of $10,811.00, plus accrued charges from October 1, 2005, interest and costs of suit.

The following is a summary of the lawsuit against you:

The Plaintiff Authority operates the Clearfield-Lawrence Airport. In September, 1997 Defendant, the owner of a 1988 CASSUT aircraft
landed at the airport and requested repair services and temporary storage for the aircraft more than a year later. The airport manager received a telephone call from a party identifying himself as Defendant and stated that he intended to pick up the aircraft. After being informed of accrued storage charges of approximately $2,000.00 the caller terminated the telephone call and has never been heard from since.
The aircraft still remains in storage
at the airport with accrued costs of $10,811.00 as of October 1, 2005. Many attempts including internet searches made by the Plaintiff to locate and serve the complaint upon Defendant have been futile. Upon motion filed, the Honorable Paul E. Cherry, Judge, has authorized this service of the com-

tion pursuant to R.C.P. 430.
