decide to pay credit card bills from line 16. You are not to credit or attempt to credit your credit card. You will credit your credit card if you allow your unpaid bill(s), including finance charges and fees, to be added to your credit card. Your credit card will not include the amount of any credit balance in your account.

On the date of your Account, each of you agrees to be liable individually and jointly for the debts now and owed on your Account. We can accept the payments or partial payment of checks and money orders mailed payment in full or with any other non-refundable endorsement without losing any of our rights under this Agreement.

Due to the sum of any amount paid due and the minimum monthly payment, a minimum monthly payment each month will be the greater of $10.00 or the amount equal to 1% (1%) of the Next Balance, rounded to the next higher whole dollar amount. However, if the Next Balance is less than $10, the minimum monthly payment will be the amount of the New Balance. You can pay as much as you want. The Minimum Payment Due for each monthly billing period will be displayed on the statement you have paid or access of the Minimum Payment Due for any of the three preceding months. See www.bankofamerica.com/creditcards for more information.

BALANCE TRANSFERS. We may periodically offer you the opportunity to transfer balances from other credit accounts to your Account. Each offer will contain an initial special rate, which will be the Annual Percentage Rate (APR) that will apply to transferred balances for the time period specified in the offer. After the expiration of this time period, the Annual Percentage Rate will apply to any balances that remain on the account. If you do not wish to transfer a balance, you may request that the balance be removed from the account. If you do not wish to transfer a balance, you may request that the balance be removed from the account. If you do not wish to transfer a balance, you may request that the balance be removed from the account.

Each offer will contain an expiration date. If you attempt to use the balance by means of a check after the expiration date, we will treat the "purchase" as a cash advance. We will not make balance transfers attempted by means of a coupon after the expiration date.

FINANCIAL CHARGES. Except as explained below, F. and F. charges are imposed on paymaster, with attorneys' and filing fees being the sole financial charges on the date of payment. If the transaction is posted to your Account after the close of the billing period in which it occurs, we will treat the transaction as having occurred on the last day of the billing period in which it is posted to your Account. We will assess F. and F. charges as follows:

(1) Custom Filing Period

Periodic Finance Charges are imposed for the entire month period on purchases, cash advances and balance transfers unless it is paid, by the Payment Due Date, the New Balance shown on your previous billing statement. We compute Periodic Finance Charges each day by multiplying your daily balances of purchases, cash advances and balance transfers by the applicable Daily Finance Rates. Cash advances and balance transfers fees are included in the daily balance of balance transfers. Purchases and balance transfers are included in the daily balance of balance transfers. At the end of the billing period, we add up the totals of the daily calculations to determine your Periodic Finance Charges for the billing period.

For purchases, the daily balance is calculated on each day by including the following in the previous day's daily balance: (a) any new charges that day (with the exception of transactions for a credit charge) and (b) any Periodic Finance Charges charged on the previous day's daily balance, and by then subtracting any credits and payments that are applied against the balance of purchases and purchase rate balance transfers on that day. On the first day of the billing period we also add in the balance of any transfers that become purchase rate balance transfers on that day.

For cash advances, the daily balance is calculated on each day by including the following in the previous day's daily balance: (a) cash advances made that day, (b) transaction fee finance charges for cash advances made that day, and (c) Periodic Finance Charges charged on the previous day's daily balance, and by then subtracting any credits and payments that are applied against the balance of cash advances on that day.

- (12) Previous Billing Period
- Periodic finance charges are imposed for the previous billing period on all purchases, cash advances and balance transfers imposed for that billing period, or you paid the new balance shown on your previous billing statement by the Payment Due Date. To compute these charges, we use the same method of calculation that we use in calculating the periodic finance charges for the current billing period, as described above. Except when billing period, these daily balances are also computed as described above, with the "previous day's daily balance" considered to have been zero on the first day of the billing period.

- (13) Daily Periodic Rates and Annual Percentage Rates
- The Daily Periodic Rates applicable to purchases and cash advances for the current billing period and the previous billing period are based on the Annual Percentage Rate in effect for each billing period as determined by the Daily Periodic Rates for each billing period are 1/2% of the Annual Percentage Rate for purchases may be changed based on changes in the rate level from time to time, as explained below.

- (14) Annual Percentage Rates are determined in part by the Prime Rate interest rate as that Agreement, the Prime Rate is the highest rate of interest shown in the last business day of the month. When the Prime Rate changes, the Annual Percentage Rates will change beginning on the first day of the first billing period which begins in the calendar month following the change in the Prime Rate. Increases in the Prime Rate may cause the Daily Periodic Rates, Periodic Finance Charges and Minimum Payment Due each month to increase. The Prime Rate is merely a benchmark and does not represent the lowest or best interest rate available to a borrower at any particular time at any given time.

- (15) Annual Percentage Rate for Purchases
- We may have offered you an introductory rate on purchases. The introductory rate is the fixed Annual Percentage Rate that will apply to purchases for the time period specified in the offer. After expiration of this time period, the Annual Percentage Rate for purchases will be as described below.
- The three Annual Percentage Rates for purchases are: the Standard Rate, the Introductory Rate and the First Rate. The rate level for which you qualify is based on the total amount of purchases that you made during the introductory period, as explained below. Purchases which comprise that annual total are sometimes referred to as qualified purchases. We make certain appropriate adjustments to qualified purchases in respect of Account activity (e.g., a credit issued for a returned purchase). You will qualify for the Standard Rate if total qualified purchases are less than $500.00, the Introductory Rate if total qualified purchases are less than $500.00, but less than $1000.00, and the First Rate if total qualified purchases are $1000.00 or more.

You will qualify for and receive the Best Rate until your last Anniversary Date, subject to disqualification. Your anniversary date shall be the last day of the previous billing period after your Account was opened, and each anniversary of that date, as your Anniversary Date. On each Anniversary Date, we will determine your rate level based on total qualified purchases for the preceding 12 billing periods. The rate level will apply to purchases (including the outstanding purchase balance) beginning on the next day, subject to disqualification. You will not be eligible for the Best Rate or the First Rate if on your Anniversary Date you have failed to make the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date for five consecutive billing periods.

If at any time you fail to make the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date for two consecutive billing periods, you will be disqualified from the Best Rate or the First Rate and we will change your rate level to the Standard Rate. The Standard Rate will apply to purchases (including the outstanding purchase balance) from the first day of the second billing period in which you failed to make the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date until you next Anniversary Date.

If your Account is closed, the rate level that is the Standard Rate, the Best Rate or the First Rate in effect on the date your Account is closed will apply until your Account is paid in full, subject to disqualification at the time above.

- (16) Standard Rate is an Annual Percentage Rate of 19.9%, when the Prime Rate is lower than 10.9%, and 19.9% Prime Rate plus 8.9 percent. Additional PURCHASE RATE of Prime Rate plus 8.9 percent. But never exceeding the Standard Rate. The Best Rate is an Annual Percentage Rate of Prime Rate plus 7.9 percent. The First Rate and Best Rates have a minimum of 12.9%. The Daily Periodic Rates and corresponding Annual Percentage Rates in effect on the date the Agreement is furnished to you are set forth in the enclosed "Additional Disclosure" or card carrier.

- (17) Annual Percentage Rate for Cash Advances
- The ANNUAL PURCHASE RATE for cash advances is (a) 19.9%, when the Prime Rate is lower than 10.9%, and (b) Prime Rate plus 8.9 percent. But never exceeding the Standard Rate. The Best Rate is 10.9% or more. The Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate in effect on the date the Agreement is furnished to you are set forth in the enclosed "Additional Disclosure" or card carrier.

- (18) Annual Percentage Rate for Balance Transfers
- The Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate in effect for special rate balance transfers will be set forth in the offer, as under which you make the balance transfer. As indicated in the Balance Transfers Section above, purchase rate balance transfers will be subject to the Daily Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate that apply to purchases. If you received an offer prior to your receipt of this Agreement, the Daily Periodic Rates and Annual Percentage Rates in effect on the date the Agreement is furnished to you are set forth in the enclosed "Additional Disclosure" or card carrier.

CASHBACK BONUS® TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Cashback Bonus Terms and Conditions are not a part of the Card member Agreement.

1. Cashback Bonus is an annual denomination in dollars and cents which may be earned by issuers Cardmembers by using their Discover Card for purchases. Cashback Bonus® is not earned for cash advances. Cashback Bonus is subject to these terms and conditions and is subject to change without notice. Cashback Bonus is subject to disqualification prior to being awarded in circumstances described below.

2. Cashback Bonus is calculated based on an annual period corresponding to the Cardmember's anniversary year. The last anniversary year begins on the date the Card is issued and ends on the last day of the twelfth monthly billing period which follows. Each successive anniversary year is the appropriate one year period completed at the next twelve monthly billing periods.

3. The amount of Cashback Bonus is calculated by multiplying each purchase by:

- 2.5% (0025), if the purchase is part of the last $1,000 in purchases during the anniversary year
- 5.0% (0050), if the purchase is part of the second $1,000 in purchases during the anniversary year
- 7.5% (0075), if the purchase is part of the third $1,000 in purchases during the anniversary year
- 1.0% (01), if the purchase is part of the purchases in excess of $3,000 during the anniversary year

The total of such calculations for each anniversary year is the amount of Cashback Bonus which will be awarded as described below. The calculation begins again with the beginning of each anniversary year. The Cardmember's monthly billing statement will show the amount of Cashback Bonus and total purchases through the date of the statement for each anniversary year.

4. Cashback Bonus is awarded shortly after each anniversary year. The exact method of award may change from year to year, but the Cardmember will have the opportunity to receive Cashback Bonus on a Card equivalent (e.g., check or credit to the Cardmember's Discover Card Account). As part of the award method, the Cardmember may have the opportunity to make an election as to receiving a check or the amount in which Cashback Bonus is awarded on the award redemptions. The right to make such election or choice on a timely basis may result in the exercise of default options or in the discontinuation of the Cashback Bonus award. At the Cardmember's responsibility to notify Discover Card in the event a Cashback Bonus award is not received for any reason. Cardmembers have the right to receive but not awarded Cashback Bonus annually, if an Account is closed for any reason prior to the date the Cashback Bonus will be awarded.

5. Presently, Cashback Bonus is awarded by means of (1) a credit to Account, if the amount is less than $2.00, and (2) a check mailed to the Cardmember for the amount that exceeds the stated class amount. If the amount is $2.00 or greater.

6. Cashback Bonus is awarded to Cardmembers in good standing at the time of the award. Cardmembers who are delinquent at the time of the award may, at the option of Discover Card, have their Cashback Bonus forfeited automatically as a credit to their Account.

7. In the event a Card is lost or stolen, the amount of Cashback Bonus, the amount of qualifying purchases and the anniversary date from the old Account are transferred to the new Account.

8. Discover Card reserves the right to make appropriate adjustments to Cashback Bonus amounts in respect of Account activity (e.g., 8 credit to an Account in respect of a prior purchase will result in a reduction of Cashback Bonus).

DISC. REV. 7/93

Your Billing Rights

KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

1. Notify Us In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet of paper at the address listed on your bill for billing errors. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your right.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the items you are not sure about.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. 10 days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

2. Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, you must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating. But you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay the finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of this amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write us within 90 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell anyone we report you to that this matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first 50% of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

3. Special Rule for Credit Card Purchase

If you have a problem with the quality of goods or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have been able to return the goods or services to the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the goods or services. There are two limitations on this right:

- (a) You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
- (b) the purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the goods or services.
