ROAD VIEWER'S REPORT.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY, SS:

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the County of Clearfield, held at Clearfield, in and for said county, on the 21st day of March, A. D., 1870, before the Judges of the said Court, upon the petition of sundry inhabitants of the township of Pike, in the said county, setting forth that they labor under great inconvenience for the want of a ~~road or highway, leading from~~ An Independant School District so as to include the inhabitants and pupils within the following described territory - To wit - Beginning on the Bank of the Susquahanna River at the corner of the George Rush tract thence by the courses and distances of line East of said tract to Corner of Rush and Azeah Wilson tracts, thence in a direct line to strike the River opposite the N. E. line of H. H. Kelly, thence down the River its courses and distances to the place of beginning

And therefore praying the Court to appoint proper persons to view and ^{Report} ~~lay out~~ the same, according to law. Whereupon, the Court, upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint John Owens, Josiah Evans and J. Ross Bloom who, after being respectively sworn or affirmed to perform the duties of their appointment with impartiality and fidelity, are to view the ground proposed for ^{Independant School District} said road; and if any two of them agree that there is occasion for such ^{J. S. District} road they shall proceed to ^{view} ~~lay out~~ the same, as agreeably to the desire of the petitioners as may be, having respect for the best ^{Interests of the petitioners and the Citizens generally of said Township} ground ~~for a road~~, and the shortest distance, in such manner as to do the least injury to private property; and shall make report thereof, stating particularly whether they judge the same necessary for a ^{Independant School District} ~~public or private~~ road, together with a plot or draft thereof, and the courses and distances, with reference to the improvements through which it may pass, to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for said county. In which report they shall state that they have been sworn or affirmed according to law.
