COMPLAINT

NOW COMES the Plaintiffs, TRACI A. SHEPLER AND HARRY E. SHEPLER, III, and by their attorney, James A. Naddeo, Esquire, set forth the following:

1. That Plaintiff, Traci Shepler is an adult individual residing at 475 Cabin Lane, Luthersburg, Pennsylvania.

2. That Plaintiff, Harry E. Shepler, III, is an adult individual residing at 2560 Steamille Road, Odessa, New York 14869.

3. That the Plaintiff, Traci A. Shepler (hereinafter Ms. Shepler), is the equitable title holder of property situate in Brady Township and Bloom Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, which Plaintiff acquired by an agreement made pursuant to a marriage settlement dated April 29, 2006. A true and correct copy of Separation, Custody and Support Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

4. That contained in the marriage settlement agreement at paragraph six, Ms. Shepler, was granted all of her husband's, Mr. Shepler's, right title and interest in and to the marital residence located at 475 Cabin Lane, Luthersburg, Pennsylvania. See Exhibit A, at page 3.

5. That it was known and understood by the parties to the marriage settlement agreement that the grant of property as contained in paragraph 4 above to Ms. Shepler included the lot and land upon which the marital residence was and is located.

6. Further, that Ms. Shepler and Mr. Shepler agreed that in consideration for such grant of the lot and all land owned by the couple at that time being granted to Ms. Shepler, Mr. Shepler received the sum of $33,500.00, said sum being tendered to Mr. Shepler from the monies paid to the couple in exchange for the signing of a Timber Agreement.

7. That the marriage settlement agreement provided that the Mr. Shepler execute all deeds and documents necessary to effectuate his grant of the marital property to Ms. Shepler.

8. That subsequent to the signing of the marriage settlement agreement no deed has been executed from Mr. Shepler and Ms. Shepler to Ms. Shepler individually.

9. That deed to the property and land upon which the marital residence is located is presently recorded in Clearfield County Deeds and Records Books to Volume 1801, Page 73 and describes the land owned by Ms. Shepler and Mr. Shepler as follows:

ALL that certain piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Township of Brady and Bloom, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

BEGINNING at a pin at the N.W. corner of lands now or late of Clifford Serene; thence by lands of said Serene South 30 degrees 00 minutes East 392 feet; thence along Donald Miller lot and Robert Miller lot South degrees 30 minutes East 560 feet; thence along Robert Miller lot North 86 degrees 07 minutes East 232 feet; thence along residue of Elizabeth Miller and Garnett Morgan land South 2 degrees 30 minutes East 50 feet and South 4 degrees 25 minutes West 425 feet; thence along center of Little Anderson Creek the following general courses and distances: North 60 degrees 50 minutes West 60 feet; South 43 degrees 15 minutes West 150 feet; South 67 degrees 35 minutes West 280 feet; North 38 degrees West 300 feet; South 77 degrees 30 minutes West 520; North 50 degrees West 240 feet; North 76 degrees 30 minutes West 150 feet and south 40 degrees 55 minutes West 580 feet; thence along Everett Cramer land North 58 degrees 45 minutes West 485 feet; thence along Schaffer land North 80 degrees 30 minutes West 450 feet; thence along Raymond Berkey lot North 8 degrees 25 minutes East 1,529 feet; thence along Fred Rafferty land South 81 degrees 35 minutes East 1,130 feet; thence along the remaining lands of the Grantors herein, 600 feet to place of beginning, containing more or less 69.846 acres of land.

A true and correct copy of said deed is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

10. That Plaintiff, Mr. Shepler, has joined in this lawsuit as a necessary part, although he acknowledges he is not the owner of the property as described in paragraph 9 of this Complaint.

11. That a timber agreement was entered into by and between Ms. Shepler and Mr. Shepler and Wesley D. Smith t/d/b/a Smith Logging and Timber Sales. A true and correct copy of said agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

12. That the timber agreement involves the harvesting of timber from the land as described in paragraph 9 of this Complaint.

13. That the timber agreement provides for a specified wooded area from which the timber is to be harvested and that only certain species of trees were to be cut and these trees had been previously selected and marked.

14. That in addition to the terms as specified in paragraph 13 above, that in any case, no trees under 12 inches in diameter chest high were to be harvested. That is, even though said smaller trees may have been marked or selected they would not be harvested if they did not meet this measurement.

15. That despite the limitation in the timber agreement to a certain designated and agreed upon wooded area from which the trees were to be harvested the defendant has cut down trees outside of this wooded area.

16. That despite the limitation in the timber agreement that only trees within a certain designated and agreed upon wooded area would be harvested the defendant has marked trees outside of this designated area to be harvested by defendant.

17. That despite the limitation in the timber agreement that only trees 12 inches diameter chest high or greater would be harvested the defendant has cut down trees that are not 12 inches diameter chest high or greater.

18. That subsequent to the agreement between plaintiffs and defendant, defendant marked additional trees within the designated area and has harvested some of these additional trees and some remain marked for harvesting.

19. That defendant has failed to comply with the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and has caused reports to be issued regarding his failure to comply from this department. True and correct copies of DEP inspection reports are collectively attached hereto as Exhibit "D."

20. That defendant has breached the timber agreement as agreed upon by the parties.

21. That plaintiff, Ms. Shepler, has made repeated demands that defendant cease his unlawful actions and the harvesting of timber to which he has no lawful right.

22. That plaintiffs' consider defendant to be in material breach of the contract and have attempted to prevent defendant from entering upon the property. Furthermore, the same (preventing the defendant from entering upon Plaintiff's property) is necessary to ensure the defendant does not damage the land beyond repair.

23. That despite Ms. Shepler's demands that defendant cease harvesting and cease from entering upon the property defendant continues to make attempts to come onto plaintiffs' property and harvest trees.

24. That specifically defendant has stated his full intent to enter upon Ms. Shepler's property on Monday, January 22, 2007. A true and correct copy of letter received from defendant's counsel is attached hereto as Exhibit "E."

25. That Ms. Shepler's land is unique as it stands including the timber thereon.

26. That absent an equitable remedy Plaintiffs will be required to file a multiplicity of suits.

27. That Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs, pray for relief from Defendant's actions and the entry of an order preliminarily, and after final hearing, permanently:

a. Enjoining the Defendant from entering upon Plaintiff's property;

- b. Enjoining the Defendant from removing any timber from the property herein involved;
- c. Awarding damages for the trespass and taking of timber which defendant had no lawful right to harvest;
- d. Awarding other damages as the Court deems just and proper;
- e. Granting any other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

OCT 19 2006

W. L. Clark
Probate
Clerk of CourtsSEPARATION, CUSTODY AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made this 29th day of April 2006,

by and between HARRY ELMER SHEPLER, III, Social Security No. 186-60-5621, an individual hereinafter referred to as "HUSBAND";

AND

TRACI ANN SHEPLER, Social Security No. 191-66-9106, an individual hereinafter referred to as "WIFE".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the parties are husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, there were three (3) minor children born of their marriage, namely,
LACEY KAYE SHEPLER, date of birth November 21, 1990, KAILYN NICOLE SHEPLER, date of birth April 28, 1995, and FAITH LYNMARIE SHEPLER, date of birth July 29, 2002;
and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to provide for the custody and support of their minor children; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to settle their property rights permanently and for all time; and

WHEREAS, both parties agree to relinquish any and all claims which either may have against any property now owned or belonging to the other or which may hereafter be acquired by either of them by purchase, gift, devise, bequest, inheritance and otherwise, except as to the obligations, covenants and agreements contained herein; and

Exhibit 'A'

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have each had the benefit of competent and independent legal advice by separate counsel.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties intending to be legally bound hereby do covenant and agree:

1. SEPARATION: It shall be lawful for each party at all times hereafter to live separate and apart from the other party at such place as he or she may from time to time choose or deem fit. The foregoing provisions shall not be taken as an admission on the part of either party of the lawfulness or unlawfulness of the causes leading to their living apart.
2. INTERFERENCE: Each party shall be free from interference, authority, and contract by the other, as fully as if he or she were single and unmarried, except as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement. Neither party shall molest the other or attempt to endeavor to molest the other, nor compel the other to cohabit with the other, nor in any way harass or malign the other, nor in any way interfere with the peaceful existence, separate and apart from the other, and each of the parties hereto completely understands and agrees that neither shall do nor say anything to the children of the parties at any time which might in any way influence the children adversely against the other party.
3. DESIRE OF THE PARTIES: It is the desire of the parties, after long and careful consideration, to amicably adjust, compromise and settle all property rights and all rights in, to or against each other's property or estate, including property heretofore or subsequently acquired by either party, and to settle all disputes existing between them, including any and all claims for WIFE'S and/or HUSBAND'S maintenance and/or for support, alimony, counsel fees and costs, equitable distribution, and custody.

4. DEBTS: HUSBAND and WIFE represent and warrant to each other that neither one has contracted any debt or debts, charges, or liabilities whatsoever, except as herein expressly set forth, for which the other party or their property or their estates shall or may be or may become liable or answerable, and they covenant that they will at all times keep each other free, harmless and indemnified against and from any and all debts and liabilities heretofore or hereafter contracted or incurred by either of them, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

5. MUTUAL RELEASE: Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, each party has released and discharged, and by this Agreement does for himself or herself and for his or her heirs, legal representatives, executors, administrators and assigns, release and discharge the other of and from all causes of action, claims, rights or demands whatsoever, in law or equity, which either of the parties ever had or now has against the other, except any or all cause or causes of action for breach of any provisions of this Agreement.

6. DIVISION OF REAL PROPERTY: HUSBAND agrees and by these presents does convey to WIFE all of his right, title and interest in and to the marital residence of the parties located at 475 Cabin Lane, Luthersburg, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and agrees to execute all deeds or other documents necessary to effectuate such transfer. The parties stipulate that the value of the parties' marital residence is approximately One Hundred Fifty Thousand and no/100 ($150,000.00) Dollars, as shown by the appraisal of Michele A. Dennison dated August 28, 2002, a copy of which is attached hereto. The parties further waive the right to seek a current appraisal of the real property, they being satisfied with the valuation as set forth above.

WIFE further agrees to assume sole responsibility for the payment of an outstanding mortgage taken for the purchase of said property through Washington Mutual, the same having an approximate balance of Ninety-seven Thousand One Hundred Eighty-six and 71/100 ($97,186.71) Dollars as of December 29, 2005. WIFE'S obligation to assume responsibility for the said outstanding mortgage is expressly conditioned on HUSBAND'S continued payment of child support as hereinafter set forth. Should HUSBAND cease to pay child support for whatever reason, HUSBAND shall assume responsibility for the payment of the outstanding mortgage and hold WIFE harmless from same. WIFE shall be permitted to refinance the aforesaid mortgage as she deems appropriate. In consideration thereof, WIFE waives any and all right and entitlement to support for the minor children, with the parties stipulating that HUSBAND's payment of such mortgage obligation shall be in lieu of child support. The parties further agree, however, that, should WIFE sell the subject premises, or should HUSBAND discontinue making payments upon said mortgage obligation, thereby obligating WIFE to make the same, or should the parties no longer be obligated on such Mortgage obligation during the minority of their children, WIFE shall be at will to seek child support from HUSBAND through a Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND.

7. DIVISION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY: The parties hereby divide their personal property, including but not limited to all household goods and furnishings, personal effects and all other items of personal property used by them in common as follows:

- a. WIFE agrees and by these presents does convey to HUSBAND all of her right, title and interest in and to a 1984 GMC pickup truck and to an 1987 GMC pickup truck and agrees to execute all titles or other documents necessary to effectuate such transfer. In consideration thereof, HUSBAND agrees and by these presents does convey to WIFE all of his right, title and interest in and to a 1995 Dodge Ram 1500 pickup and agrees to execute all titles or other documents necessary to effectuate such transfer.

b. HUSBAND agrees and by these presents does convey to WIFE all of his right, title and interest in and to a 401(k) savings plan acquired by HUSBAND as the result of his employment through Penn Traffic Company, DuBois, Pennsylvania, the same having an approximate market value of Eleven Thousand Three Hundred Sixty-two and 03/100 ($11,362.03) Dollars, the same to become the sole property of WIFE, free from the claims of HUSBAND. The parties further agree to execute all Qualified Domestic Relations Orders or other documents necessary to effectuate said transfer.

c. All household goods and furnishings which are in the possession of the individual parties at the time of their execution of this Agreement, shall become the sole property of that party, holding the same free from the claims of the other.

d. HUSBAND and WIFE agree that the aforesaid agreement is in lieu of any and all claims for equitable distribution of said property.

8. CHECKING AND SAVINGS ACCOUNTS: Except as otherwise provided herein, the parties agree that there are no checking or savings accounts in the name of HUSBAND and WIFE and that each has his or her own separate such accounts, with respect to which the other will make no claim.

9. MUTUAL DEBTS: Except as otherwise provided herein, the parties further agree that all debts incurred by the individual parties as of the date of the parties' execution of this Agreement shall become the sole obligation of that party incurring the same, with the debtor party holding the non-debtor party harmless upon the said debt or debts and with the debtor party agreeing to indemnify the non-debtor party for any damages or liability incurred by the non-debtor as a result of the debtor party's failure to satisfy such debts.

10. CUSTODY: WIFE shall have full legal and physical custody of the parties' minor children subject to rights of visitation in HUSBAND at such times and places as may be agreed upon by the parties.

11. CHILD SUPPORT: HUSBAND agrees to pay for the support of his children the sum of One Thousand One Hundred Sixty-Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($1,162.50) per month commencing on March 1, 2006, and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter until the oldest child of the parties, LACEY KAYE SHEPLER, turns eighteen (18) years of age or graduates from high school, whichever shall occur last. Upon the happening of such event, HUSBAND'S support obligation shall be reduced to Nine Hundred Fifty and no/100 ($950.00) Dollars per month commencing with the first day of the month following the parties' oldest child reaching the age of eighteen (18) or graduating from high school, and continuing on the first day of the month thereafter until the youngest child of the parties, FAITH LYNMARIE SHEPLER, turns eighteen (18) years of age, graduates from high school or the mortgage upon the home conveyed to WIFE pursuant to Paragraph 6 of this Agreement has been satisfied, whichever shall occur first. Should the satisfaction of said mortgage obligation occur prior to the youngest child reaching eighteen (18) years of age or graduating from high school, HUSBAND'S support obligation shall be redetermined by a Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND. All payments made by HUSBAND shall be paid directly to WIFE at an address to be provided to HUSBAND by WIFE.

HUSBAND agrees that the aforesaid child support obligation shall not be reduced during the period set forth herein, however, should HUSBAND'S income increase, WIFE shall be permitted to seek a modification of said support obligation through the Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND.

Should HUSBAND become delinquent in the payment of his support obligation, WIFE shall be permitted to apply for child support through a Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND, said child support to be under the terms and conditions as set forth in this paragraph.

Upon youngest child of the parties reaching eighteen (18) years of age or graduating from high school, whichever shall occur last, HUSBAND shall cease paying child support but shall continue to pay the monthly mortgage payment due and owing on the parties marital residence on a monthly basis until such mortgage is fully satisfied, and shall pay all costs incurred in the satisfaction of said mortgage. Should WIFE sell the aforesaid property during said period of time, HUSBAND'S obligation to make mortgage payments as set forth hereunder shall be relieved. Further, WIFE may seek to refinance the said mortgage and the principle amount then due and owing for an interest rate no greater than the present interest rate of said mortgage and HUSBAND'S obligation to pay said mortgage shall not be diminished. WIFE, however, may not increase the principle amount owing on said mortgage as a result of said refinancing, and should WIFE incur any other encumbrances on the marital residence, such as home equity loans or other loans encumbering the marital residence, said further encumbrances shall be the sole responsibility of WIFE.

12. COUNSEL FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES: Neither party shall pay to the other party counsel fees, costs or expenses, and each party shall be responsible for the same and does release the other from any obligation to pay the same.

13. FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: The parties confirm that each has relied on the substantial accuracy of the financial disclosure of the other as an inducement to the execution of this Agreement. In the event that it subsequently appears that any asset or income of significant value has been omitted, the other party may, as to that asset or income, claim an equitable share thereof, and the reasonable attorneys' fees, expert fees, costs and disbursements incurred in establishing such an omission shall be borne in full by the party having failed to make such an disclosure.

14. ADVICE OF COUNSEL: The provisions of this Agreement and their legal effect have been explained to the parties by their respective counsel. The parties acknowledge that they have received independent legal advice from counsel of their selection, that they fully understand the facts and have been fully informed as to their legal rights and obligations, and that they acknowledge and accept that this Agreement is, in the circumstances, fair and equitable and that it is being entered into freely and voluntarily after having received such advice and with such knowledge, that execution of this Agreement is not the result of any duress or undue influence, and that it is not the result of any collusion or any improper or illegal agreement or agreements.

Each party acknowledges having had adequate time, opportunity, and financial wherewithal with which to obtain advice from a lawyer of his or her choice on all aspects of this Agreement, and of their possible divorce, including, but not limited to, all applicable law, the statutory rights of the parties and everything considered in this Agreement; and no presumption shall arise for or against either party with regard to the drafting of this Agreement. Each party further acknowledges having had adequate time, opportunity and financial wherewithal with which to retain any other tax, accounting and other professional advice that he or she might need or desire in considering whether to enter into this Agreement. Whether or not HUSBAND or WIFE has chosen to obtain such professional advice, each hereby waives any right to claim that any lack of an opportunity to obtain such professional advice shall be any reason to question the validity and enforceability of this Agreement.

15. WAIVER OF CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE: Except as herein otherwise provided, each party may dispose of his or her property in any way, and each party hereby waives and relinquishes any and all rights he or she may now have or hereafter acquire, under the present or future laws of any jurisdiction, to share in the property or in the estate of the other as a result of marital relationship, including, without limitation, dower, courtesy, statutory allowance, widow's allowance, right to take property under equitable distribution, right to take in intestacy, right to take against the Will of the other, and right to act as administrator or executor of the other's estate, and each will, at the request of the other, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments which may be necessary or advisable to carry into effect this mutual waiver and relinquishment of all such interest, rights and claims.

16. BREACH: If either party breaches any provision of this Agreement, except those provisions dealing with custody of the parties' minor children, the other party shall have the right, at his or her election, to sue for damages for such breach, or to seek such other remedies or relief as may be available to him or her, and the party breaching this contract shall be responsible for payment of legal fees and costs incurred by the other in enforcing their rights under this Agreement.

All remedies provided by law and all remedies provided for above for the enforcement of the Agreement shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of one remedy shall not bar or prevent the pursuit of any other remedy, and either party may elect to pursue such remedies simultaneously, and the exercise of a remedy one or more times shall not exhaust its use nor prevent further pursuit of such remedy.

17. AFTER ACQUIRED PROPERTY: Each of the parties shall hereafter own and enjoy, independently of any claim or right of the other, all items of personal property, tangible or intangible, hereafter acquired by him or her, with full power in him or her to dispose of the same as fully and effectively in all respects and for all purposes as though he or she were unmarried.

18. ADDITIONAL INSTRUMENTS: Each of the parties shall, from time to time, at the request of the other, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the other party any and all further instruments that may be reasonably required to give full force and effect to the provisions of this Agreement.

19. VOLUNTARY EXECUTION: The provisions of this Agreement and their legal effect have been fully explained to the parties by their respective counsel, and each party acknowledges that the Agreement is fair and equitable, that it is being entered into voluntarily and that it is not the result of any duress or undue influence.

20. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties and there are no representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein.

21. MODIFICATION AND WAIVER: A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this Agreement. The failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same or similar nature.

22. DESCRIPTIVE HEADINGS: The descriptive headings used herein are for convenience only. They shall have no effect whatsoever in determining the rights or obligations of the parties.

23. INDEPENDENT SEPARATE COVENANTS: It is specifically understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that each paragraph hereof shall be deemed to be a separate and independent covenant and agreement.

24. APPLICABLE LAW: This Agreement shall be construed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

25. VOID CLAUSE: If any term, condition, clause or provision of this Agreement shall be determined or shall be declared to be void or invalid in law or otherwise, then only that term, condition, clause or provision shall be stricken from this Agreement, and in all other respects this Agreement shall be valid and shall continue in full force, effect and operation.

26. ENTRY AS PART OF DECREE: It is the intention of the parties that this instrument shall survive the action for divorce which has been instituted by the parties and that no order, judgment or decree of divorce, whether temporary, interlocutory, final or permanent, shall affect or modify the financial terms of this Agreement. It is also the intention of the parties that this Agreement shall survive any periods of reconciliation of the parties and that no attempt at reconciliation of the parties nor cohabitation by the parties hereinafter shall be assumed to cause the property as so divided in this Agreement to become marital property for the purposes of equitable distribution under the Divorce Code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The parties agree that all property divided by this Agreement shall remain the property of that party as specified within this agreement unless this Agreement is rescinded by the parties by a writing in similar form to this Agreement. If the parties are ever divorced, this Agreement shall be embodied in and made part of any such judgment or decree of final divorce.

The parties agree to execute an Affidavit of Consent for a No-fault Divorce under Section 3301(c) of the Divorce Code, in the event that either party shall file for divorce.

EACH OF THE PARTIES REPRESENTS THAT THEY HAVE CAREFULLY
READ AND UNDERSTOOD EACH AND EVERY PAGE OF THIS AGREEMENT PRIOR TO SIGNING BELOW.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals

Site Description & Observations Loc Landing is located off Bear Ridge Road. Loc Landing is rutted. Two main skid/haul roads lead out of Loc Landing into woods. These two skid trails (and others) are deeply rutted from skidder wheels. Followed a rutted skid trail down to main branch of Little Anderson Creek. Several large trees are marked with blue paint along stream bank. Also trees are marked across the stream on the Shepsher property. An old stream crossing was witnessed where a black plastic pipe was used in the past but now it is washed out. A general permit (Chapter 105 for stream encroachments) will be required for any ^{BRIDGE OR} pipes to be placed or replaced in this or any stream where >100 acres is in drainage area above pipe or bridge. Drainage area at old crossing is 125 acres.

Re: Smith Logging v. Shepler

Dear Ms. Shepler:

Please be advised that this office represents Wesley D. Smith the owner of Smith Logging. As you know, Smith Logging entered into an agreement with you and your former husband and pursuant thereto paid you $38,000.00 for timber located upon your property in Bloom Township. To date you, through your father Glen Hartsfeld, have frustrated Smith Lumber's attempt to cut and remove the timber from your property.

My client has complied with all of the requirements of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Department of Environmental Protection. Please be advised that on Monday, January 22, 2007, my client will be at your property where he will commence working to cut and remove timber. You have installed a gate and that gate must be unlocked or it will be removed. Be advised that under the terms of the contract only you are permitted to contact and interact with Smith Logging because you are the landowner. Your father is not the landowner and he may have no further contact with Smith Logging.

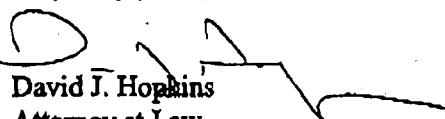

If you undertake any action to frustrate my client's removal of the timber, I will immediately file a lawsuit against you obtaining access to your property and sue you for damages which are substantial at this point and which will grow each day. You will further be obligated to pay my legal fees for this unnecessary equitable action.

Please guide yourself accordingly and expect my client at your property on Monday,

PETITION FOR EX-PARTE PRELIMINARY INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Petitioners/Plaintiffs, by and through their attorney, James A. Naddeo, Esq., petition this Court for the issuance of a preliminary injunction pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1531, and in support allege as follows:

1. Petitioners/Plaintiffs, filed a verified Complaint in equity with the Prothonotary of this Court on January 22. 2007. A true and correct copy of the Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."
2. The plaintiff, Traci A. Shepler, to this action holds equitable title to property which is located in the Township of Brady and Bloom, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
3. As set forth in their complaint Defendant has trespassed, and cut down trees from the property to which he had no lawful right.
4. Plaintiffs have brought their complaint, and seek this preliminary injunction, on thier own behalf against Respondent/Defendant, to enjoin his continuing acts which violate Petitioners/Plaintiffs rights as the owner of the property described in the Complaint.

5. That Petitioner/Plaintiff, Traci A. Shepler, as the owner of unique land situate in Brady and Bloom Township seeks this injunction to prevent irreparable harm to her land.

6. That the land as it presently exists with the timber thereon has a personal value to Ms. Shepler which cannot be replaced monetarily.

7. That Petitioners/Plaintiffs will suffer immediate and irreparable harm if an injunction is not granted enjoining defendant from entering upon the land of Plaintiffs and enjoining the defendant from removing or harvesting any trees from the land of Plaintiffs.

8. The Petitioner/Plaintiff is likely to succeed on the merits of its claim. The timber agreement is ambiguous but the intention of the parties is clear and defendant has breached said agreement and trespassed and took timber to which he had no lawful right.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners/Plaintiffs, request that this Court grant a preliminary injunction based upon the facts set forth in

COMPLAINT

NOW COMES the Plaintiffs, TRACI A. SHEPLER AND HARRY E. SHEPLER, III, and by their attorney, James A. Naddeo, Esquire, set forth the following:

1. That Plaintiff, Traci Shepler is an adult individual residing at 475 Cabin Lane, Luthersburg, Pennsylvania.
2. That Plaintiff, Harry E. Shepler, III, is an adult individual residing at 2560 Steamille Road, Odessa, New York 14869.
3. That the Plaintiff, Traci A. Shepler (hereinafter Ms. Shepler), is the equitable title holder of property situate in Brady Township and Bloom Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, which Plaintiff acquired by an agreement made pursuant to a marriage settlement dated April 29, 2006. A true and correct copy of Separation, Custody and Support Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

4. That contained in the marriage settlement agreement at paragraph six, Ms. Shepler, was granted all of her husband's, Mr. Shepler's, right title and interest in and to the marital residence located at 475 Cabin Lane, Luthersburg, Pennsylvania. See Exhibit A, at page 3.

5. That it was known and understood by the parties to the marriage settlement agreement that the grant of property as contained in paragraph 4 above to Ms. Shepler included the lot and land upon which the marital residence was and is located.

6. Further, that Ms. Shepler and Mr. Shepler agreed that in consideration for such grant of the lot and all land owned by the couple at that time being granted to Ms. Shepler, Mr. Shepler received the sum of $33,500.00, said sum being tendered to Mr. Shepler from the monies paid to the couple in exchange for the signing of a Timber Agreement.

7. That the marriage settlement agreement provided that the Mr. Shepler execute all deeds and documents necessary to effectuate his grant of the marital property to Ms. Shepler.

8. That subsequent to the signing of the marriage settlement agreement no deed has been executed from Mr. Shepler and Ms. Shepler to Ms. Shepler individually.

9. That deed to the property and land upon which the marital residence is located is presently recorded in Clearfield County Deeds and Records Books to Volume 1801, Page 73 and describes the land owned by Ms. Shepler and Mr. Shepler as follows:

ALL that certain piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Township of Brady and Bloom, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

BEGINNING at a pin at the N.W. corner of lands now or late of Clifford Serene; thence by lands of said Serene South 30 degrees 00 minutes East 392 feet; thence along Donald Miller lot and Robert Miller lot South degrees 30 minutes East 560 feet; thence along Robert Miller lot North 86 degrees 07 minutes East 232 feet; thence along residue of Elizabeth Miller and Garnett Morgan land South 2 degrees 30 minutes East 50 feet and South 4 degrees 25 minutes West 425 feet; thence along center of Little Anderson Creek the following general courses and distances: North 60 degrees 50 minutes West 60 feet; South 43 degrees 15 minutes West 150 feet; South 67 degrees 35 minutes West 280 feet; North 38 degrees West 300 feet; South 77 degrees 30 minutes West 520; North 50 degrees West 240 feet; North 76 degrees 30 minutes West 150 feet and south 40 degrees 55 minutes West 580 feet; thence along Everett Cramer land North 58 degrees 45 minutes West 485 feet; thence along Schaffer land North 80 degrees 30 minutes West 450 feet; thence along Raymond Berkey lot North 8 degrees 25 minutes East 1,529 feet; thence along Fred Rafferty land South 81 degrees 35 minutes East 1,130 feet; thence along the remaining lands of the Grantors herein, 600 feet to place of beginning, containing more or less 69.846 acres of land.

A true and correct copy of said deed is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

10. That Plaintiff, Mr. Shepler, has joined in this lawsuit as a necessary part, although he acknowledges he is not the owner of the property as described in paragraph 9 of this Complaint.

11. That a timber agreement was entered into by and between Ms. Shepler and Mr. Shepler and Wesley D. Smith t/d/b/a Smith Logging and Timber Sales. A true and correct copy of said agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

12. That the timber agreement involves the harvesting of timber from the land as described in paragraph 9 of this Complaint.

13. That the timber agreement provides for a specified wooded area from which the timber is to be harvested and that only certain species of trees were to be cut and these trees had been previously selected and marked.

14. That in addition to the terms as specified in paragraph 13 above, that in any case, no trees under 12 inches in diameter chest high were to be harvested. That is, even though said smaller trees may have been marked or selected they would not be harvested if they did not meet this measurement.

15. That despite the limitation in the timber agreement to a certain designated and agreed upon wooded area from which the trees were to be harvested the defendant has cut down trees outside of this wooded area.

16. That despite the limitation in the timber agreement that only trees within a certain designated and agreed upon wooded area would be harvested the defendant has marked trees outside of this designated area to be harvested by defendant.

17. That despite the limitation in the timber agreement that only trees 12 inches diameter chest high or greater would be harvested the defendant has cut down trees that are not 12 inches diameter chest high or greater.

18. That subsequent to the agreement between plaintiffs and defendant, defendant marked additional trees within the designated area and has harvested some of these additional trees and some remain marked for harvesting.

19. That defendant has failed to comply with the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and has caused reports to be issued regarding his failure to comply from this department. True and correct copies of DEP inspection reports are collectively attached hereto as Exhibit "D."

20. That defendant has breached the timber agreement as agreed upon by the parties.

21. That plaintiff, Ms. Shepler, has made repeated demands that defendant cease his unlawful actions and the harvesting of timber to which he has no lawful right.

22. That plaintiffs' consider defendant to be in material breach of the contract and have attempted to prevent defendant from entering upon the property. Furthermore, the same (preventing the defendant from entering upon Plaintiff's property) is necessary to ensure the defendant does not damage the land beyond repair.

23. That despite Ms. Shepler's demands that defendant cease harvesting and cease from entering upon the property defendant continues to make attempts to come onto plaintiffs' property and harvest trees.

24. That specifically defendant has stated his full intent to enter upon Ms. Shepler's property on Monday, January 22, 2007. A true and correct copy of letter received from defendant's counsel is attached hereto as Exhibit "E."

25. That Ms. Shepler's land is unique as it stands including the timber thereon.

26. That absent an equitable remedy Plaintiffs will be required to file a multiplicity of suits.

27. That Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs, pray for relief from Defendant's actions and the entry of an order preliminarily, and after final hearing, permanently:

a. Enjoining the Defendant from entering upon Plaintiff's property;

- b. Enjoining the Defendant from removing any timber from the property herein involved;
- c. Awarding damages for the trespass and taking of timber which defendant had no lawful right to harvest;
- d. Awarding other damages as the Court deems just and proper;
- e. Granting any other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

SEPARATION, CUSTODY AND SUPPORT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made this 29th day of April, 2006,

by and between HARRY ELMER SHEPLER, III, Social Security No. 186-60-5621, an individual hereinafter referred to as "HUSBAND";

A N D

TRACI ANN SHEPLER, Social Security No. 191-66-9106, an individual hereinafter referred to
as "WIFE".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the parties are husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, there were three (3) minor children born of their marriage, namely,
LACEY KAYE SHEPLER, date of birth November 21, 1990, KAILYN NICOLE SHEPLER, date of birth April 28, 1995, and FAITH LYNMARIE SHEPLER, date of birth July 29, 2002;
and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to provide for the custody and support of their minor children; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to settle their property rights permanently and for all time; and

WHEREAS, both parties agree to relinquish any and all claims which either may have against any property now owned or belonging to the other or which may hereafter be acquired by either of them by purchase, gift, devise, bequest, inheritance and otherwise, except as to the obligations, covenants and agreements contained herein; and

5-1-1-1-11

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have each had the benefit of competent and independent legal advice by separate counsel.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties intending to be legally bound hereby do covenant and agree:

1. SEPARATION: It shall be lawful for each party at all times hereafter to live separate and apart from the other party at such place as he or she may from time to time choose or deem fit. The foregoing provisions shall not be taken as an admission on the part of either party of the lawfulness or unlawfulness of the causes leading to their living apart.
2. INTERFERENCE: Each party shall be free from interference, authority, and contract by the other, as fully as if he or she were single and unmarried, except as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement. Neither party shall molest the other or attempt to endeavor to molest the other, nor compel the other to cohabit with the other, nor in any way harass or malign the other, nor in any way interfere with the peaceful existence, separate and apart from the other, and each of the parties hereto completely understands and agrees that neither shall do nor say anything to the children of the parties at any time which might in any way influence the children adversely against the other party.
3. DESIRE OF THE PARTIES: It is the desire of the parties, after long and careful consideration, to amicably adjust, compromise and settle all property rights and all rights in, to or against each other's property or estate, including property heretofore or subsequently acquired by either party, and to settle all disputes existing between them, including any and all claims for WIFE'S and/or HUSBAND'S maintenance and/or for support, alimony, counsel fees and costs, equitable distribution, and custody.

4. DEBTS: HUSBAND and WIFE represent and warrant to each other that neither one has contracted any debt or debts, charges, or liabilities whatsoever, except as herein expressly set forth, for which the other party or their property or their estates shall or may be or may become liable or answerable, and they covenant that they will at all times keep each other free, harmless and indemnified against and from any and all debts and liabilities heretofore or hereafter contracted or incurred by either of them, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

5. MUTUAL RELEASE: Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, each party has released and discharged, and by this Agreement does for himself or herself and for his or her heirs, legal representatives, executors, administrators and assigns, release and discharge the other of and from all causes of action, claims, rights or demands whatsoever, in law or equity, which either of the parties ever had or now has against the other, except any or all cause or causes of action for breach of any provisions of this Agreement.

6. DIVISION OF REAL PROPERTY: HUSBAND agrees and by these presents does convey to WIFE all of his right, title and interest in and to the marital residence of the parties located at 475 Cabin Lane, Luthersburg, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and agrees to execute all deeds or other documents necessary to effectuate such transfer. The parties stipulate that the value of the parties' marital residence is approximately One Hundred Fifty Thousand and no/100 ($150,000.00) Dollars, as shown by the appraisal of Michele A. Dennison dated August 28, 2002, a copy of which is attached hereto. The parties further waive the right to seek a current appraisal of the real property, they being satisfied with the valuation as set forth above.

WIFE further agrees to assume sole responsibility for the payment of an outstanding mortgage taken for the purchase of said property through Washington Mutual, the same having an approximate balance of Ninety-seven Thousand One Hundred Eighty-six and 71/100 ($97,186.71) Dollars as of December 29, 2005. WIFE'S obligation to assume responsibility for the said outstanding mortgage is expressly conditioned on HUSBAND'S continued payment of child support as hereinafter set forth. Should HUSBAND cease to pay child support for whatever reason, HUSBAND shall assume responsibility for the payment of the outstanding mortgage and hold WIFE harmless from same. WIFE shall be permitted to refinance the aforesaid mortgage as she deems appropriate. In consideration thereof, WIFE waives any and all right and entitlement to support for the minor children, with the parties stipulating that HUSBAND's payment of such mortgage obligation shall be in lieu of child support. The parties further agree, however, that, should WIFE sell the subject premises, or should HUSBAND discontinue making payments upon said mortgage obligation, thereby obligating WIFE to make the same, or should the parties no longer be obligated on such Mortgage obligation during the minority of their children, WIFE shall be at will to seek child support from HUSBAND through a Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND.

7. DIVISION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY: The parties hereby divide their personal property, including but not limited to all household goods and furnishings, personal effects and all other items of personal property used by them in common as follows:

- a. WIFE agrees and by these presents does convey to HUSBAND all of her right, title and interest in and to a 1984 GMC pickup truck and to an 1987 GMC pickup truck and agrees to execute all titles or other documents necessary to effectuate such transfer. In consideration thereof, HUSBAND agrees and by these presents does convey to WIFE all of his right, title and interest in and to a 1995 Dodge Ram 1500 pickup and agrees to execute all titles or other documents necessary to effectuate such transfer.

b. HUSBAND agrees and by these presents does convey to WIFE all of his right, title and interest in and to a 401(k) savings plan acquired by HUSBAND as the result of his employment through Penn Traffic Company, DuBois, Pennsylvania, the same having an approximate market value of Eleven Thousand Three Hundred Sixty-two and 03/100 ($11,362.03) Dollars, the same to become the sole property of WIFE, free from the claims of HUSBAND. The parties further agree to execute all Qualified Domestic Relations Orders or other documents necessary to effectuate said transfer.

c. All household goods and furnishings which are in the possession of the individual parties at the time of their execution of this Agreement, shall become the sole property of that party, holding the same free from the claims of the other.

d. HUSBAND and WIFE agree that the aforesaid agreement is in lieu of any and all claims for equitable distribution of said property.

8. CHECKING AND SAVINGS ACCOUNTS: Except as otherwise provided herein, the parties agree that there are no checking or savings accounts in the name of HUSBAND and WIFE and that each has his or her own separate such accounts, with respect to which the other will make no claim.

9. MUTUAL DEBTS: Except as otherwise provided herein, the parties further agree that all debts incurred by the individual parties as of the date of the parties' execution of this Agreement shall become the sole obligation of that party incurring the same, with the debtor party holding the non-debtor party harmless upon the said debt or debts and with the debtor party agreeing to indemnify the non-debtor party for any damages or liability incurred by the non-debtor as a result of the debtor party's failure to satisfy such debts.

10. CUSTODY: WIFE shall have full legal and physical custody of the parties' minor children subject to rights of visitation in HUSBAND at such times and places as may be agreed upon by the parties.

11. CHILD SUPPORT: HUSBAND agrees to pay for the support of his children the sum of One Thousand One Hundred Sixty-Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($1,162.50) per month commencing on March 1, 2006, and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter until the oldest child of the parties, LACEY KAYE SHEPLER, turns eighteen (18) years of age or graduates from high school, whichever shall occur last. Upon the happening of such event, HUSBAND'S support obligation shall be reduced to Nine Hundred Fifty and no/100 ($950.00) Dollars per month commencing with the first day of the month following the parties' oldest child reaching the age of eighteen (18) or graduating from high school, and continuing on the first day of the month thereafter until the youngest child of the parties, FAITH LYNMARIE SHEPLER, turns eighteen (18) years of age, graduates from high school or the mortgage upon the home conveyed to WIFE pursuant to Paragraph 6 of this Agreement has been satisfied, whichever shall occur first. Should the satisfaction of said mortgage obligation occur prior to the youngest child reaching eighteen (18) years of age or graduating from high school, HUSBAND'S support obligation shall be redetermined by a Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND. All payments made by HUSBAND shall be paid directly to WIFE at an address to be provided to HUSBAND by WIFE.

HUSBAND agrees that the aforesaid child support obligation shall not be reduced during the period set forth herein, however, should HUSBAND'S income increase, WIFE shall be permitted to seek a modification of said support obligation through the Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND.

Should HUSBAND become delinquent in the payment of his support obligation, WIFE shall be permitted to apply for child support through a Domestic Relations Section then having jurisdiction over HUSBAND, said child support to be under the terms and conditions as set forth in this paragraph.

Upon youngest child of the parties reaching eighteen (18) years of age or graduating from high school, whichever shall occur last, HUSBAND shall cease paying child support but shall continue to pay the monthly mortgage payment due and owing on the parties marital residence on a monthly basis until such mortgage is fully satisfied, and shall pay all costs incurred in the satisfaction of said mortgage. Should WIFE sell the aforesaid property during said period of time, HUSBAND'S obligation to make mortgage payments as set forth hereunder shall be relieved. Further, WIFE may seek to refinance the said mortgage and the principle amount then due and owing for an interest rate no greater than the present interest rate of said mortgage and HUSBAND'S obligation to pay said mortgage shall not be diminished. WIFE, however, may not increase the principle amount owing on said mortgage as a result of said refinancing, and should WIFE incur any other encumbrances on the marital residence, such as home equity loans or other loans encumbering the marital residence, said further encumbrances shall be the sole responsibility of WIFE.

12. COUNSEL FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES: Neither party shall pay to the other party counsel fees, costs or expenses, and each party shall be responsible for the same and does release the other from any obligation to pay the same.

13. FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: The parties confirm that each has relied on the substantial accuracy of the financial disclosure of the other as an inducement to the execution of this Agreement. In the event that it subsequently appears that any asset or income of significant value has been omitted, the other party may, as to that asset or income, claim an equitable share thereof, and the reasonable attorneys' fees, expert fees, costs and disbursements incurred in establishing such an omission shall be borne in full by the party having failed to make such an disclosure.

14. ADVICE OF COUNSEL: The provisions of this Agreement and their legal effect have been explained to the parties by their respective counsel. The parties acknowledge that they have received independent legal advice from counsel of their selection, that they fully understand the facts and have been fully informed as to their legal rights and obligations, and that they acknowledge and accept that this Agreement is, in the circumstances, fair and equitable and that it is being entered into freely and voluntarily after having received such advice and with such knowledge, that execution of this Agreement is not the result of any duress or undue influence, and that it is not the result of any collusion or any improper or illegal agreement or agreements.

Each party acknowledges having had adequate time, opportunity, and financial wherewithal with which to obtain advice from a lawyer of his or her choice on all aspects of this Agreement, and of their possible divorce, including, but not limited to, all applicable law, the statutory rights of the parties and everything considered in this Agreement; and no presumption shall arise for or against either party with regard to the drafting of this Agreement. Each party further acknowledges having had adequate time, opportunity and financial wherewithal with which to retain any other tax, accounting and other professional advice that he or she might need or desire in considering whether to enter into this Agreement. Whether or not HUSBAND or WIFE has chosen to obtain such professional advice, each hereby waives any right to claim that any lack of an opportunity to obtain such professional advice shall be any reason to question the validity and enforceability of this Agreement.

15. WAIVER OF CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE: Except as herein otherwise provided, each party may dispose of his or her property in any way, and each party hereby waives and relinquishes any and all rights he or she may now have or hereafter acquire, under the present or future laws of any jurisdiction, to share in the property or in the estate of the other as a result of marital relationship, including, without limitation, dower, courtesy, statutory allowance, widow's allowance, right to take property under equitable distribution, right to take in intestacy, right to take against the Will of the other, and right to act as administrator or executor of the other's estate, and each will, at the request of the other, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments which may be necessary or advisable to carry into effect this mutual waiver and relinquishment of all such interest, rights and claims.

16. BREACH: If either party breaches any provision of this Agreement, except those provisions dealing with custody of the parties' minor children, the other party shall have the right, at his or her election, to sue for damages for such breach, or to seek such other remedies or relief as may be available to him or her, and the party breaching this contract shall be responsible for payment of legal fees and costs incurred by the other in enforcing their rights under this Agreement.

All remedies provided by law and all remedies provided for above for the enforcement of the Agreement shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of one remedy shall not bar or prevent the pursuit of any other remedy, and either party may elect to pursue such remedies simultaneously, and the exercise of a remedy one or more times shall not exhaust its use nor prevent further pursuit of such remedy.

17. AFTER ACQUIRED PROPERTY: Each of the parties shall hereafter own and enjoy, independently of any claim or right of the other, all items of personal property, tangible or intangible, hereafter acquired by him or her, with full power in him or her to dispose of the same as fully and effectively in all respects and for all purposes as though he or she were unmarried.

18. ADDITIONAL INSTRUMENTS: Each of the parties shall, from time to time, at the request of the other, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the other party any and all further instruments that may be reasonably required to give full force and effect to the provisions of this Agreement.

19. VOLUNTARY EXECUTION: The provisions of this Agreement and their legal effect have been fully explained to the parties by their respective counsel, and each party acknowledges that the Agreement is fair and equitable, that it is being entered into voluntarily and that it is not the result of any duress or undue influence.

20. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties and there are no representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings other than those expressly set forth herein.

21. MODIFICATION AND WAIVER: A modification or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this Agreement. The failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same or similar nature.

22. DESCRIPTIVE HEADINGS: The descriptive headings used herein are for convenience only. They shall have no effect whatsoever in determining the rights or obligations of the parties.

23. INDEPENDENT SEPARATE COVENANTS: It is specifically understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that each paragraph hereof shall be deemed to be a separate and independent covenant and agreement.

24. APPLICABLE LAW: This Agreement shall be construed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

25. VOID CLAUSE: If any term, condition, clause or provision of this Agreement shall be determined or shall be declared to be void or invalid in law or otherwise, then only that term, condition, clause or provision shall be stricken from this Agreement, and in all other respects this Agreement shall be valid and shall continue in full force, effect and operation.

26. ENTRY AS PART OF DECREE: It is the intention of the parties that this instrument shall survive the action for divorce which has been instituted by the parties and that no order, judgment or decree of divorce, whether temporary, interlocutory, final or permanent, shall affect or modify the financial terms of this Agreement. It is also the intention of the parties that this Agreement shall survive any periods of reconciliation of the parties and that no attempt at reconciliation of the parties nor cohabitation by the parties hereinafter shall be assumed to cause the property as so divided in this Agreement to become marital property for the purposes of equitable distribution under the Divorce Code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The parties agree that all property divided by this Agreement shall remain the property of that party as specified within this agreement unless this Agreement is rescinded by the parties by a writing in similar form to this Agreement. If the parties are ever divorced, this Agreement shall be embodied in and made part of any such judgment or decree of final divorce.

The parties agree to execute an Affidavit of Consent for a No-fault Divorce under Section 3301(c) of the Divorce Code, in the event that either party shall file for divorce.

EACH OF THE PARTIES REPRESENTS THAT THEY HAVE CAREFULLY
READ AND UNDERSTOOD EACH AND EVERY PAGE OF THIS AGREEMENT PRIOR TO SIGNING BELOW.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

P.O. Box 163
Luthersburg, Pennsylvania 15848

Re: Smith Logging v. Shepler

Dear Ms. Shepler:

Please be advised that this office represents Wesley D. Smith the owner of Smith Logging. As you know, Smith Logging entered into an agreement with you and your former husband and pursuant thereto paid you $38,000.00 for timber located upon your property in Bloom Township. To date you, through your father Glen Hartsfeld, have frustrated Smith Lumber's attempt to cut and remove the timber from your property.

My client has complied with all of the requirements of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Department of Environmental Protection. Please be advised that on Monday, January 22, 2007, my client will be at your property where he will commence working to cut and remove timber. You have installed a gate and that gate must be unlocked or it will be removed. Be advised that under the terms of the contract only you are permitted to contact and interact with Smith Logging because you are the landowner. Your father is not the landowner and he may have no further contact with Smith Logging.

If you undertake any action to frustrate my client's removal of the timber, I will immediately file a lawsuit against you obtaining access to your property and sue you for damages which are substantial at this point and which will grow each day. You will further be obligated to pay my legal fees for this unnecessary equitable action.

Please guide yourself accordingly and expect my client at your property on Monday,

ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

AND NOW, comes Defendant, Wesley D. Smith, t/d/b/a Smith Logging Timber Sales, by and through his attorneys, Hopkins Heltzel LLP, and answers Plaintiffs' Complaint as follows:

1. Admitted.
2. Admitted.
3. Admitted.
4. Admitted.
5. Admitted.
6. Admitted.
7. Admitted.
8. Admitted.
9. Admitted.
10. Admitted.
11. Admitted.
12. Admitted.

13. Admitted in part and denied in part. Defendant admits trees to be cut had previously been selected and marked. Defendant denies the timber agreement provides for any specified area of the Shepler property that was to be cut. Rather, the entire property had been marked and was to be cut. Defendant further denies that only certain species of trees were to be cut. The contract provides miscellaneous trees that had previously been selected and marked.

14. Admitted in part and denied in part. Defendant admits the contract provides that no trees under 12 inches in diameter, chest high, would be harvested. However, in the event a tree less than 12 inches was part of a cluster, then it would be harvested. No stand alone trees under 12 inches were to be harvested unless a smaller tree was damaged when a larger tree was cut as was agreed by Defendant and Harry Shepler.

15. Denied. The entire property was subject to cutting. Defendant has not cut any trees that were not previously marked.

16. Denied. As set forth above, there was no designated area. In addition thereto, all trees had been pre-marked prior to the execution of the contract.

17. Denied. Defendant has only cut trees that are 12 inches in diameter, chest high, or in a cluster that had previously been marked or had been damaged when a larger tree was cut.

18. Denied. No additional trees within the Shepler property have been marked. Defendant had not been on the property from the time of the execution of the contract until they began harvesting timber. Defendant marked every tree that was 12 inches in diameter, chest high, and greater when they initially cruised the property.

19. Denied. The report of the Department of Environmental Protection did not issue any citations to Defendant.

20. Denied. Defendant has not breached the timber agreement. By way of further answer, Plaintiffs have breached the timber agreement by denying Defendant access to the property.

21. Denied. Defendant has had one (1) conversation with Ms. Shepler after the contract was signed and it was unrelated to logging activities.

22. No answer is required of this paragraph inasmuch as it calls for a legal conclusion. To the extent an answer is required, Plaintiffs have breached the contract rather than Defendant.

23. Denied. Ms. Shepler has never specifically advised Defendant not to come onto her property. Ms. Shepler, by and through her father and boyfriend, have frustrated Defendant's attempts to execute Defendant's rights under the timber agreement.

24. Admitted.

25. Denied. Timber is a fungible product.

26. Denied.

27. Denied. In the event Defendant fails to comply with the terms of the contract, fails to remove ruts and hydroseed the landing areas, then Plaintiffs will have a cause of action at law for damages.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests the Court to dismiss Plaintiffs Complaint should be dismissed with prejudice.

Respectfully submitted,

HOPKINS HELTZEL LLP

David J. Hopkins, Esquire

ORDER

NOW, this 7th day of February, 2007, following evidentiary hearing on the Plaintiffs' Petition for Injunctive Relief it is the finding of the Court that the Plaintiffs may suffer irreparable harm in the event that the injunction is removed. Accordingly, it is the ORDER of this Court that the Court's injunction issued on January 23, 2007 shall continue to be in effect.

The Court recommends that the Plaintiff attempt to make appropriate arrangements with the Defendant for the removal of the Defendant's log skidder from the premises in the event that the Defendant should wish to remove this same. In addition, the Court recommends that the Plaintiff make arrangements with the Defendant in order that the Defendant may remove any previously cut logs from the premises which are 12 or more inches in diameter in order that there be no spoilage or waste.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, Wesley D. Smith, by and through his counsel of record, Theron G. Noble, Esquire, of Ferraraccio & Noble, who avers as follows in support of his MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION:

Background

1. This matter was commenced by the filing of a Petition for Ex-Parte Preliminary Injunctive Relief on January 23, 2007.
2. Plaintiffs obtained an ex-parte injunction on the date of filing said request for relief, denying Defendant any access to Plaintiffs' property.
3. That a hearing was originally scheduled within the five (5) days as required by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1531, but was continued at the request of Defendant's then counsel of record.
4. That hearing was then scheduled for February 6, 2007, was commenced but then continued by the Court to perform a plea and sentencing on a criminal case scheduled for trial the next day and hearing on the Preliminary Injunction continued until the next day.

5. That hearing on Plaintiffs' request for injunctive relief re-commenced at 1:30 P.M.

and lasted until approximately 4:00 P.M..

6. That following hearing, the Court advised that it would take the matter "under advisement" and would issue an ORDER the following day.

7. That an ORDER, sustaining the Preliminary Injunction, was entered of record on February 9th but dated for February 7th.

8. At no time was an argument given concerning the evidence presented, the requirements of the law nor were briefs requested concerning Plaintiffs' request.

9. That this Honorable Court can not have fully considered all of the legal and factual issues without benefit of the adversarial process given the lack of argument and/or briefs.

10. That at hearing, Plaintiffs produced three witnesses, Defendant Wesley D. Smith, Plaintiff Traci Shepler and Forrester Keith Conrad.

11. That Defendant testified, as on cross examination, that he purchased and marked with blue paint trees on the Plaintiffs' premises, having paid $38,000 to Plaintiffs.

12. That Plaintiff Traci Shepler testified that she was not very involved in the contract process as that was done by her then husband, Plaintiff Harry E. Shepler, III, however she believed that trees "below her house" were not included in said sale which had then been subsequently marked (after the contract) with blue paint (indicating an intent by Defendant to convert said trees).

13. That Forrester Conrad testified that he found "young growth" had been damaged; that standing trees smaller than 12" in diameter had been marked; and in a few instances trees smaller than 12" in diameter had been cut.

14. That Forrester Conrad is a "part-time forrester", working with Plaintiff Traci Shepler as a furniture salesman.

15. That Forrester Conrad testified the damage to the "young growth" was excessive, but on cross examination admitted that it was only slightly more than unreasonable damage which would be caused by any timber harvesting operation but since his interpretation of the contract between the parties called for no damage any damage would be "excessive".

16. That Plaintiffs pled essentially four issues in support of their request for injunctive relief, which are as follows: (i) trees have been marked which were not included in the sale; (ii) Defendant's timber harvesting operation is causing environmental issues; (iii) trees smaller than 12" have been cut; and (iv) Defendant has damaged "young growth".

17. At hearing, Plaintiffs did not produce any evidence of environmental issues.

18. The only evidence presented as to the remaining issues is as herein described.

19. That Plaintiff Harry E, Shepler, III, did not testify, was not present to testify, and is as per the record not amenable to subpoena as he now resides in the State of New York.

Count I: Failure to Consider the Requirements for Injunctive Relief

20. That the averments of paragraphs 1 - 19, inclusive, are hereby incorporated as if again fully set forth at length.

21. In order to issue a preliminary injunction, it has been determined (see All-Pak, Inc. v. Johnston, 694 A.2d. 347 (1997)), the following elements must be established: (i) necessary to prevent immediate and irreparable harm which can not be compensated by damages; (ii) greater injury would result in refusing rather than granting the requested relief; and (iii) it properly restores the parties to their status immediately prior to the alleged wrongful conduct.

22. In addition, unless a plaintiff's right is clear and the wrong is manifest, a preliminary injunction will not be awarded. All-Pak.

23. As a matter of law, Plaintiffs' request for injunctive relief failed in that (i) damages were/are capable of being reduced to monetary amounts; (ii) the injunction failed to restore Defendant to his position prior to the alleged wrongful conduct; and (iii) Plaintiffs' right to relief was not clear.

(a) Monetary Damages

24. Immediately following Plaintiffs' "case-in-chief", Defendant moved for dismissal of Plaintiff's complaint and dissolution of the ex-parte injunction citing Martindale Lumber Company v. Trusch, 681 A.2d 803 (1996).

25. Martindale Lumber Company states that in that case, as in the case at hand, Plaintiffs failed to establish that the timber was unique and therefore not entitled to equitable relief.

26. That Martindale Lumber Company also established that timber is "goods" also supporting the principle of law not afforded equitable protection.

27. In denying Defendant's Motion to Dismiss and to Dissolve the Ex-Parte Injunction this Honorable Court stated that Martindale Lumber Company did not involve "standing timber" as in the case at hand but only logs, which this Honorable Court stated would be more akin to "goods".

28. That this Honorable Court erred, as a matter of law, as to the its interpretation of Martindale Lumber Company case and as its application to the case at hand.

28A. Because all of the issues presented by Plaintiffs, even if true, are capable of being reduced to monetary value, i.e. per Martindale Lumber Company they are “goods”, Plaintiffs can not establish and did not establish irreparable harm.

(b) Injunction Failed to Restore the Parties to Prior Position

29. Notwithstanding the previous issue, the injunction issued and upheld in this case (denying Defendant access to his timber) wholly failed to restore the parties to their position prior to alleged wrongful conduct.

30. As the evidence demonstrated, Defendant paid Plaintiffs $38,000 in 2005 for certain trees (although the exact ones might be in dispute) to which he had the right to remove through the spring of 2007.

31. The evidence also established that there are numerous trees which have been purchased by the Defendant which remain on the premises owned by Plaintiffs. See testimony of Traci Shepler, Defendant Wes Smith and Forrester Conrad.

32. Given this Court’s ORDER denying Defendant access to Plaintiff’s land, thus preventing Defendant from removing his property¹ bought and paid for, the Court did not restore Defendant to his position prior to the alleged wrongful act and has in essence converted his timber for Plaintiff once summer 2007 is reached in that Defendant can not remove his timber prior to expiration of the contract.

32A. An ORDER not permitting Defendant to cut any trees less than 12” in diameter and trees “below the Shepler house”² would amply cover the alleged wrongs complained of by Plaintiffs, while preserving Defendant’s right to retrieve his property, leaving substantially less litigation and harm in this case.

(c) Plaintiffs Right to Relief was not Clear

33. As before stated, Plaintiff alleged four harms (intent to cut trees less than 12" in diameter; cutting trees less than 12" in diameter; environmental issues and damage to "young growth").

34. As to these issues, Plaintiff Traci Shepler was not in position to know what was or was not included in the sale to Defendant in that matter, according to her own testimony, which knowledge remains almost exclusively with her then husband, Plaintiff Harry E. Shepler, III and Defendant.

35. Her testimony on this point was that she did not believe the trees "below the house" were marked prior to execution of the contract, but was not there at least three days prior to execution of the contract.

36. Defendant himself and with three other witnesses each testified that trees "below the Shepler house" were marked as part of the timber cruise performed prior to execution of the contract.

37. Plaintiffs' right to relief on this issue is certainly not clear to support an injunction.

38. That standing trees less than 12" in diameter are of no import in this case because (i) they have not been harmed (which is why they are standing) and (ii) were in an area already harvested (negating an intent to so harvest).

39. Plaintiffs failed to produce any evidence as to alleged environmental issues.

40. As before, although Forrester Conrad testified that the damage to "young growth" was excessive, he did admit that any harvesting is going to damage the property to some degree and in this instance such damage was only slightly in excess of the typical amount of damage he would expect.

41. There was only evidence of one tree less than 12" in diameter which had been harvested³ and the photograph of that tree showed it measured about 11.75 inches with an issue as to whether it was measured at its broadest point.

Count II: Missing Material Witness

42. That the averments of paragraphs 1 - 41, inclusive, are incorporated as if again fully set forth at length.

43. That Harry E. Shepler, III, is a plaintiff in this case and he failed to attend or participate in the hearing on this matter.

44. In addition to being a party, he is also a material witness in that, according to the testimony of Plaintiff Traci A. Shepler, he did all of the contractual arrangements with Defendant.

45. In that Plaintiff has the burden of proof, which is heightened arguably to a "clear and convincing standard" (see All-Pak), Plaintiff can not prevail in her request without the testimony of Plaintiff Harry E. Shepler, III, and Defendant is entitled to every reasonable inference which could be possibly drawn from that testimony including that the trees below the Shepler house were included in the sale to Defendant.

46. Likewise, as a former timberer, Plaintiff Harry E. Shepler, III, most likely would have testified, and to which inference Defendant is entitled given his absence, that the contract only required that there would not be unreasonable damage to "young growth", not that there would no damage to young growth as asserted.

47. In fact, given the testimony of Forrester Conrad, it is a factual impossibility to harvest without any damage and as such the contract must be interpreted to mean that there would not be unreasonable damage to young growth⁴.

48. Nonetheless, Plaintiff can not meet its burden in this case without the presence of Plaintiff Harry E. Shepeler, III, given his unique position in the contract formation.

WHEREFORE, as a matter of law, Defendant requests that this Honorable Court reconsider its ORDER sustaining the Ex-Parte Preliminary Injunction and dissolve the same.

that are more like the large-scale natural disturbances caused by fire, wind, or insect epidemics, while tolerant species benefit from smaller disturbances, similar to those caused by the death of an individual tree or a small group of trees. In Pennsylvania, some of the most important economic assets of forests are produced by species that are intolerant of shade.

Both clear-cutting and selection cutting are acceptable silvicultural practices for managing Pennsylvania's forests. Clear-cutting, in which an entire timber stand is cut, is one of the silvicultural systems used by foresters to regenerate, or renew, forests. Like large-scale natural disturbances, clear-cutting promotes the establishment and growth of intolerant and intermediate species, such as black cherry and oak. It is used when landowners have a reason to harvest the existing trees, and when the seedlings that will become the future forest are already present or the area is to be replanted. Reasons to harvest might include the financial maturity of most of the trees or a desire to create temporary open habitat for certain wildlife species.

Clear-cutting is appropriate for Pennsylvania's two major forest types, northern hardwood and oak/hickory. It creates a new forest with trees of roughly the same age, or an even-aged forest. Another way to promote the establishment of seedlings is with a technique called shelterwood, which temporarily retains 30 to 70 percent of the forest canopy. Without clear-cutting or other even-aged management and harvesting techniques, the proportion of black cherry and oak in Pennsylvania forests will be reduced in the future.

Selection cutting, a regeneration technique in which trees are removed singly or in small groups, is appropriate for forests comprised of trees of different ages, or uneven-aged forests. Properly applied, selection cutting will remove not only some larger, higher-quality trees, but also many smaller, lower-quality ones. This will increase the growing space for the remaining trees and create areas where new seedlings can become established. The intent is to retain a full range of trees, from large old trees to seedlings. This process is designed to control species composition, age structure, and tree quality. Since the forest canopy remains largely intact, selection cutting is best used on shade-tolerant species, such as sugar maple, beech, and hemlock.

Diameter-limit cutting generally is a destructive practice. It is well known that high-grading (also referred to as "selective cutting"), or taking only the largest, best trees of the most valuable species, leads to a progressive deterioration of forest variety and quality. However, many people do not realize that diameter-limit cutting can be almost as destructive. When all trees above a certain diameter (measured at 4.5 feet above the ground) are removed, the smaller, slower-growing specimens are left. In Pennsylvania's even-aged forests, small trees are usually about the same age as large ones. However, these small trees may be (1) a different species; (2) genetically inferior; or (3) in a poor location. Diameter-limit cutting shifts the composition of the forest toward slower-growing, less valuable shade-tolerant species, and it may degrade the quality of the forest by promoting inferior trees. It may also limit future options for the forest and slow down recovery from disturbance by eliminating the sources of seed for the species removed.

Tree planting (artificial regeneration) generally is not necessary in Pennsylvania. Through the use of acceptable silvicultural practices, most of Pennsylvania's forests will regenerate naturally from seeds or sprouts. Studies show that naturally regenerated trees usually grow faster and survive better than planted trees. However, trees may have to be planted to reforest former strip mine sites, old fields, conifer plantations, and areas where insects or diseases have killed all the seed-producing trees.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO PERMIT INSPECTION OF PREMISES

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, Wesley D. Smith, by and through his counsel of record, Theron G. Noble, Esquire, of Ferraraccio & Noble, who avers as follows in support of his MOTION TO PERMIT INSPECTION OF PREMISES:

Background

1. This matter was commenced by the filing of a Petition for Ex-Parte Preliminary Injunctive Relief on January 23, 2007.
2. Plaintiffs obtained an ex-parte injunction on the date of filing said request for relief, denying Defendant any access to Plaintiffs' property.
3. That a hearing was originally scheduled within the five (5) days as required by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1531, but was continued at the request of Defendant's then counsel of record.
4. That hearing was then scheduled for February 6, 2007, was commenced but then continued by the Court to perform a plea and sentencing on a criminal case scheduled for trial the next day and hearing on the Preliminary Injunction continued until the next day.

5. That hearing on Plaintiffs' request for injunctive relief re-commenced at 1:30 P.M. and lasted until approximately 4:00 P.M..
6. That following hearing, the Court advised that it would take the matter "under advisement" and would issue an ORDER the following day.
7. That an ORDER, sustaining the Preliminary Injunction, was entered of record on February 9th but dated for February 7th.
8. That since the issuance of the Ex-Parte Injunction, and affirmation of the same, Defendant has not been permitted on Plaintiff's property, excepting for arrangements to remove the logs previously harvested and to get his personal property.
9. That the issues raised by the Plaintiff, i.e. trees smaller than 12" diameter being marked and cut, environmental issues and damage to "young growth" are issues which Defendant was not aware prior to this litigation.
10. That Defendant needs to gather evidence on his behalf which evidence is solely on the Plaintiff's premises.
11. In addition to the issues raised by Plaintiffs, Defendant will have a significant issues as to the value of the trees which he can not harvest and which he purchased.

WHEREFORE, Defendant requests that this Honorable Court permit him and any lawful agents, servants or independent contractors to have access to Plaintiff's land in order to gather evidence relating to (i) diameter of trees cut; (ii) evidence of markings on trees; (iii) value of remaining timber; and (iv) environmental issues relating to harvesting of timber and (v) any other relevant and material issue raised in this case; and that Plaintiffs be prevented from altering any of the above until.

Defendant is permitted to collect such evidence.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO INCREASE BOND

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, Wesley D. Smith, by and through his counsel of record, Theron G. Noble, Esquire, of Ferraraccio & Noble, who avers as follows in support of his MOTION TO INCREASE BOND:

Background

1. This matter was commenced by the filing of a Petition for Ex-Parte Preliminary Injunctive Relief on January 23, 2007.
2. Plaintiffs obtained an ex-parte injunction on the date of filing said request for relief, denying Defendant any access to Plaintiffs' property.
3. That a hearing was originally scheduled within the five (5) days as required by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1531, but was continued at the request of Defendant's then counsel of record.
4. That hearing was then scheduled for February 6, 2007, was commenced but then continued by the Court to perform a plea and sentencing on a criminal case scheduled for trial the next day and hearing on the Preliminary Injunction continued until the next day.

5. That hearing on Plaintiffs' request for injunctive relief re-commenced at 1:30 P.M.

and lasted until approximately 4:00 P.M..

6. That following hearing, the Court advised that it would take the matter "under advisement" and would issue an ORDER the following day.

7. That an ORDER, sustaining the Preliminary Injunction, was entered of record on February 9th but dated for February 7th.

8. That at the time Plaintiffs received the Ex-Parte Preliminary Injunction, upon information and belief, a bond in the amount of $10,000 was filed with the Prothonotary.

Count I: Motion to Increase Bond

9. Contemporaneously herewith, Defendant has filed a MOTION TO RECONSIDER as to this Honorable Court keeping in place the Preliminary Injunction.

10. That in the event this Honorable Court should decide that the Preliminary Injunction, in its opinion, should remain in full force and effect, then pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P.

1531(b)(1) &(2), a bond should be deposited such that all damages caused by the issuance of the injunction are covered and therefore recoverable by the Defendant.

11. In this case, there is no record as to how or why the sum of $10,000 was determined and more important said sum is wholly inadequate for the reasons herein detailed.

12. That in the event Defendant is correct as to the timbering operations at issue, his damages will be (i) failure to remove Defendant's trees which have been bought and paid for and which remain on Plaintiffs' land; and (ii) loss of use of his skidder which was "trapped" on Plaintiff's land by issuance of the injunction between January 23, 2007 (date of the injunction) and February 14th (date access permitted by agreement of the parties).

13. That as to the timber which remains on the Plaintiffs' premises, the evidence produced at hearing clearly demonstrated that there was an estimated 130,000 - 140,000 board feet of timber on the premises at the inception of this contract, purchased by Defendant.

14. That of this timber, only about 40,000 board feet has been harvested, leaving 90,000 - 100,000 board feet remaining on Plaintiffs' land.

15. That Defendant estimated the value to be realized from his harvesting efforts was $80,000.

16. That to fully protect Defendant pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1531, the amount of $57,000 would need to be posted to cover the value of the trees, purchased by Defendant, not harvested, and which remain on Plaintiffs' land. (The mathematics are ((140,000-40,000)/140,000)x$80,000; or percentage of unharvested timber multiplied by expected value.)

17. That as to the skidder, the fair rental rate of such a skidder is $5,000 per month.

18. That the skidder was "trapped" for 20 days or 2/3rds of a month and as such Defendant potentially lost $3,333.33 for its inability to use its skidder.

WHEREFORE, as a matter of law, Defendant requests that this Honorable Court increase the bond required to be posted by Plaintiffs to $60,000, which would not be a hardship given its title to the subject premises.

2. Admitted.
3. Admitted.
4. Admitted.
5. Admitted.
6. Admitted.
7. Admitted.
8. Admitted and in further answer thereto, this is consistent with this Court's Order as dated February 7, 2007.

As well, Defendant has never asked Plaintiffs permission to inspect the premises.

9. Denied.

10. After reasonable investigation, Plaintiffs are without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of said paragraph 10.

11. To the extent that the word "issues" is interpreted to mean "damages" paragraph 11 states a conclusion of law to which no answer is required.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that this Court deny Defendant's request to inspect the premises and in the alternative that Defendant only be permitted access to the property for inspection purposes and only so long as Defendant is supervised by Plaintiffs.

11. No answer is required, the record and Defendant's testimony speak for themselves.

12. No answer is required, the record and Plaintiff Traci Shepler's testimony speak for themselves. To the extent an answer may be required it is denied that Ms. Shepler merely "believed" that the trees "below her house" were not included, but that Ms. Shepler in fact made certain that this was understood and part of the deal. Admitted that defendant subsequently marked trees that were not initially agreed to be sold to him.

13. No answer is required, the record of Mr. Conrad's testimony speaks for itself.

14. Admitted, in so far as it states the present status of Mr. Conrad's working arrangements.

15. No answer is required, the record of Mr. Conrad's testimony speaks for itself.

16. No answer is required, Plaintiffs' pleading speaks for itself. To the extent an answer may be required, paragraph 16 is denied as it understates the facts as pled by Plaintiffs.

17. No answer is required, the record and evidence submitted speak for themselves.

18. No answer is required, the record and evidence submitted speak for themselves. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 18 is denied in that Defendant is claiming to represent what is approximately a four hour record along with several pleadings in a few short paragraphs.

19. Admitted that Mr. Shepler did not testify and presently resides in New York.

21. States a conclusion of law, to which no answer is required.

22. States a conclusion of law, to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required Plaintiffs respond with the fact that the requirement of a clear right to relief does not require the party seeking a preliminary injunction to demonstrate an absolute right to relief. Philips Gas and Oil Co. v. People's Natural Gas Co., 89 Pa. Commonwealth Ct. 377, 383, 492 A.2d 776, 780 (1985).

23. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required, it is denied. In further answer thereto, damages to Plaintiffs' land is irreparable as land is unique and the damage by Defendant will not be able to be compensated through monetary damages; the injunction restores Defendant to the position prior to the wrongful conduct. Prior to the wrongful conduct Defendant had the right to harvest certain trees upon the subject property.

Today Defendant retains the right to harvest certain trees upon the property. The trees that Defendant is entitled to harvest are not being altered or removed, whatsoever the court deems him to be the owner of he will have the right to harvest after judgment. Lastly, Plaintiffs' right to relief is clear as sufficient evidence was presented to demonstrate a material breach of the contract by Defendant.

(a) Monetary Damages

24. No answer is required, the record speaks for itself.

25. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 25 is denied. In further answer thereto, Martindale Lumber Company is not on point. In that case, the harvester of the timber was requesting an injunction permitting it to harvest the timber. Matindale Lumber Company v. Trusch, 681 A.2d 803 (1996). The Court found that the timber to be harvested was not something that could not be compensated by monetary damages. The case stands for the premise that the Defendant in the case at bar could not obtain injunctive relief to permit him to harvest timber located on Plaintiffs' property. In contrast, the Plaintiffs are not asking for an injunction to harvest timber, they are asking for an injunction that will maintain their land as they desire to have it maintained. Their land as it sits is unique, has an aesthetic value and creates an environment they desire for themselves and their family. Altering it by harvesting timber Plaintiffs did not agree to allow harvested will be irreparable and the loss will not be able to be compensated by monetary damages.

26. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer maybe required paragraph 26 is irrelevant to Plaintiffs request to have the Defendant enjoined from destroying the subject property beyond repair and compensation.

27. State a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required, Plaintiffs incorporate their answer to paragraph 26 above as if set forth more fully herein.

28. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 28 is unequivocally denied.

28A. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 28A is unequivocally denied.

(b) Injunction Did Not Fail to Restore Parties to Prior Position

29. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required, it is denied. Defendant is in the same position as prior to the issuing of the injunction. That position is, Defendant owns some amount of timber upon the subject property which he has the right to harvest.

30. No answer is required the record and evidence speak for themselves. To the extent an answer may be required dit is admitted, however in any case, Plaintiffs request that the evidence submitted speak for itself.

31. No answer is required the record and evidence speak for themselves.

32. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 32 is denied and it is noted that it is a moot point by admission of Defendant.

32A. Denied.

(c) Plaintiffs' Right to Relief Is Clear

33. No answer is required, the facts as pled and evidence presented speak for themselves.

34. Denied as stated. Ms. Shepler testified to the best of her knowledge what the agreement included based on her own personal knowledge prior to and attendance at the final signing of the agreement.

35. No answer is required; testimony of the witness speaks for itself.

36. No answer is required; testimony of the witness speaks for itself.

37. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 37 is denied. In further answer thereto, Plaintiffs made a clear showing that Defendant materially breached the contract and Plaintiffs are entitled to relief.

38. Denied. Whether or not Defendant is to be believed regarding the fact that trees less than 12" in diameter that were marked and still standing would not have ever been harvested is a question of credibility.

39. No answer is required, the record and evidence speak for themselves.

40. No answer is required, the testimony of Mr. Conrad speaks for itself. Plaintiffs respectfully request this court not to consider Defendant's potentially erroneous manner of conveying what was stated during testimony.

41. No answer is required, the evidence speaks for itself. In further answer thereto, the claim that the trees which were removed because of damaged parts or clusters were not of any value is just that "a claim." No unequivocal proof of this fact was evidenced.

Count II: Missing Material Witness

42. No answer is required.

43. Admitted.

44. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required it is denied that Mr. Shepler is a material witness. In further answer thereto, the evidence and testimony submitted is sufficient and the Court's decision is proper. In so far as paragraph 44 speaks to the testimony of Ms. Shepler, no answer is required. The testimony of Ms. Shepler speaks for itself.

45. States a conclusion of law, to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required, the burden of proof cannot be "arguably" heightened to "clear and convincing standard." The standard to be met for a preliminary injunction to be granted is that the plaintiff's right to relief is clear and the wrong is manifest. All-Pak, Inc. v. Johnston, 694 A.2d 347 (Pa.Super.Ct. 1997). Nowhere in the All-Pak case are the words or the standard "clear and convincing" mentioned. Id. Defendant is not entitled to every reasonable inference. Defendant is stating the rule required for the Court to grant a demur, this is not applicable in a request for a preliminary injunction.

46. Denied. Defendant is attempting to state what a witness had he been present would have testified too. This is a ludicrous attempt by the Defendant and makes a mockery of the heart of our judicial system. Plaintiffs request that paragraph 46 be stricken.

47. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 47 is denied. In further answer thereto, Defendant is attempting to offer additional evidence with his attached Exhibit "A," the record on this matter is closed and Plaintiffs ask this Court not to consider Defendant's Exhibit A and that it be stricken from the record.

48. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 48 is denied.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that this Court deny Defendant's request for reconsideration and uphold this Court's prior Order granting a preliminary injunction.

PLAINTIFFS' REPLY TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO INCREASE BOND

Plaintiffs, by and through their attorney, James A. Naddeo, Esq., file the following reply in response to Defendant's Motion to Increase Bond and in support allege as follows:

Background

1. Admitted.
2. Admitted.
3. Admitted.
4. Admitted.
5. Admitted.
6. Admitted.
7. Admitted.
8. No answer is required, the Bond posted and pleadings in this case speak for themselves.

Count I - Motion to Increase Bond

9. Admitted.
10. Denied. The Pa.R.Civ.P. 1531(b)(1) states as follows:

(1) the plaintiff files a bond in an amount fixed and with security approved by the court, naming the Commonwealth as obligee, conditioned that if the injunction is dissolved because improperly granted or for failure to hold a hearing, the plaintiff shall pay to any person injured all damages sustained by reason of granting the injunction and all legally taxable costs and fees, or

(2) the plaintiff deposits with the prothonotary legal tender of the United States in an amount fixed by the court to be held by the prothonotary upon the same condition as provided for the injunction bond.

The Court fixes and approves the amount and that amount is conditioned upon the understanding by the plaintiff that all damages will be should the injunction have been improperly granted. In addition, it is virtually impossible to know the exact damages that may or may not be determined in any case. Therefore, in any case the Court assesses and fixes what it deems to be a sufficient amount.

11. No answer is required, the record speaks for itself. To the extent an answer may be required there is no requirement in the rules as quoted herein in paragraph 10 that an explanation be given by the Court for the amount it fixes.

12. States conclusions of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required, any loss that Defendant might prove will be the difference between the market value of the timber Defendant had a right to harvest at the time he would have harvested less the market value of the timber at the time and adjudication of the case. Said amount may be zero if the timber rates remain constant. As well, even if Defendant can prove that he did not have access to his skidder and that it was "trapped" from January 23, 2007 until February 14, 2007 (23 days) the total amount of damages for this as admitted by Defendant would be $3,333.33. Said amount is sufficiently less than the amount of the bond posted and leaves a sufficient amount to cover other potential damages.

13. Denied.

14. Denied, after reasonable investigation Plaintiffs are without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the amount of timber that has been harvested. That there is 90,000 - 100,000 board feet remaining on Plaintiffs' land to be timbered by Defendant pursuant to the agreement is denied.

15. After reasonable investigation Plaintiffs are without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of paragraph 15 and therefore it is denied.

16. Denied, said amount assumes the conclusion of law that Defendant would be able prove such damages. In addition, the injunction in fact protects whatever trees Defendant ultimately is able to prove are his to harvest as it maintains the status quo. In the end, if Defendant is entitled to harvest trees from Plaintiffs' land the only measure of damages will be any loss in the market value of that which is harvested.

17. After reasonable investigation Plaintiffs are without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of paragraph 15 and therefore it is denied.

18. Denied.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that this Court deny Defendant's request to have the bond amount increased.

ORDER

NOW, this 14th day of March, 2007, following argument on the Defendant's Motions, it is the ORDER of this Court as follows:

1. Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration is hereby denied;
2. Relative the Motion to Increase Bond, the same is denied. Upon the agreement of counsel, it is the further ORDER of this Court that the Plaintiffs are precluded from removing or causing to be removed any trees on the subject property. In addition, in the event the Defendant would prevail relative the litigation, Plaintiffs agree Defendant shall have a reasonable period of time to remove any trees on the property subject to the contract; and
3. The Motion to Permit Inspection is hereby granted. Defendant shall advise Plaintiff at least 30 days in advance as to the identity of its' expert, when the inspection shall occur and how long the expert will be on the property.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, Wesley D. Smith, by and through his counsel of record, Theron G. Noble, Esquire, of Ferraraccio & Noble, who avers as follows in support of his MOTION TO COMPEL:

Background

1. This matter was commenced by the filing of a Petition for Ex-Parte Preliminary Injunctive Relief on January 23, 2007.
2. Plaintiffs obtained an ex-parte injunction on the date of filing said request for relief, denying Defendant any access to Plaintiffs' property.
3. That a hearing was originally scheduled within the five (5) days as required by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1531, but was continued at the request of Defendant's then counsel of record.
4. That an ORDER, sustaining the Preliminary Injunction, was entered of record on February 9th.

5. That the parties have presented and argued, and the Court had entered ORDERS concerning Defendant's MOTION TO INCREASE BOND, PERMIT INSPECTION OF PREMISES and RECONSIDERATION (as to injunction).

6. That on or about March 4, 2007, Defendant propounded his first set of REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS (attached hereto in pertinent part as Exhibit "A").

7. That Plaintiffs timely filed a response thereto (attached hereto as Exhibit "B").

Count I: Motion to Compel

8. That the averments of paragraphs 1 - 8, inclusive, are hereby incorporated as if again fully set forth at length.

9. That Defendant sought documents relative to Plaintiffs' bankruptcy filing concerning the valuation of their "real property" (attached hereto as Exhibits "C" and "D"; respectively, are documents showing that (i) Plaintiffs' valued their real property at $129,000 for bankruptcy purposes (Exhibit "C"); and (ii) did not have their bankruptcy adjudicated until October 26, 2005.

10. Although Defendant is attempting to ascertain the date (and document the same) in which the $38,000 cash payment was given to Plaintiffs for the purchase of the timber, it is believed that the same was while Plaintiffs' bankruptcy was pending.

11. That Defendant has met with bankruptcy counsel to determine what if any responsibilities he has concerning the purchase of the timber from Plaintiffs in this matter with such circumstances.

12. At the outset, Defendant needs to know whether (i) Plaintiffs were in bankruptcy when the purchase was completed; (ii) whether the timber was disclosed in the bankruptcy process; and if so, (iii) whether Plaintiffs used their personal exemption to protect the value of the timber.

13. In addition, Plaintiffs sought and have received an equitable remedy in this matter (injunctive relief).

14. In the event that Plaintiffs have not fully disclosed the timber value in the bankruptcy case then there is certainly an issue as to whether Plaintiffs had "unclean hands" and are entitled to an equitable remedy.

15. As such, Defendant is absolutely entitled to the documents requested, which are relevant and material to the case at hand.

WHEREFORE, Defendant requests that this Honorable Court compel production of the documents sought in Defendants' REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS.

Respectfully Submitted,

PLAINTIFFS' REPLY TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Plaintiffs, by and through their attorney, James A. Naddeo, Esq., present the following reply in response to Defendant's Request for Production of Documents:

1. Objection. This requests records unrelated and not relevant to this matter. The information requested is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendant is searching for information relative to a bankruptcy proceeding that is wholly irrelevant to this matter. This request is sought in bad faith. Therefore his request for such causes unreasonable annoyance, is oppressive and burdensome.

2. Objection. This requests personal records unrelated and not relevant to this matter. The information requested is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendant is searching for information relative to a bankruptcy proceeding that is wholly irrelevant to this matter.

This request is sought in bad faith. Therefore his request for such causes unreasonable annoyance, is oppressive and burdensome. Furthermore, insofar as United States Bankruptcy Court records are public Defendant can obtain the same by his own efforts.

3. Objection. This requests personal records and information relative to a bankruptcy proceeding. The same is unrelated and not relevant to this matter. The information requested is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. This request is sought in bad faith. Therefore his request for such causes unreasonable annoyance, is oppressive and burdensome.

PLAINTIFFS' REPLY TO MOTION TO COMPEL

Plaintiffs, by and through their attorney, James A. Naddeo, Esq., file the following reply in response to Defendant's Motion to Compel and in support allege as follows:

Background

1. Admitted.
2. Admitted.
3. Admitted.
4. Admitted.
5. Admitted.
6. Denied as stated; the date Defendant propounded his first set of Request for Production of Documents was March 7, 2007 not March 4, 2007.
7. Admitted.

Count I - Motion to Compel

8. No answer is required.

9. No answer is required. All documents referenced in paragraph nine speak for themselves, including Defendant's Request for Production of Documents, Plaintiffs' Response to Request for Production of Documents, and Defendant's Exhibit C to his Motion to Compel.

10. Denied, that the date on which the $38,000 cash payment was given to Plaintiffs is able to be ascertained. Both Defendant and Plaintiff, Traci Shepler, have testified before this Court that the date is unknown. In further answer thereto, Defendant will not be able to prove any date he now conjures up before this Court.

11. Denied after reasonable investigation, Plaintiffs are without knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of said averment.

12. Denied, whether the Plaintiffs were or were not in bankruptcy has no relevance to the transaction between Plaintiffs and Defendant. The doctrine upon which Defendant is relying to request this discovery, the doctrine of unclean hands, only applies to the transaction vis-à-vis the Plaintiffs and Defendant. No collateral transaction such as a bankruptcy is relevant to this doctrine or this litigation.

13. Admitted.

14. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required Plaintiffs incorporate their answer to paragraph number 12 above as if set forth in full herein.

15. States a conclusion of law to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer may be required paragraph 15 is specifically denied on the grounds stated in paragraph 12 above which Plaintiffs incorporate herein by reference.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that this Court deny Defendant's request to compel production of documents that are wholly irrelevant to the transaction at hand and therefore not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible information.
