STATEMENT OF MATTERS COMPLAINED OF ON APPEAL

TO THE HONORABLE, Paul E. Cherry, THE JUDGE OF THE SAID COURT:

Appellant, LEE R. HARRIS, Pro se, complains of the following matters on appeal:

1. The Trial Court dismissed the Appellants motion for return of property without a hearing.

2. The Trial Court failed to respond to the Appellant's motion for appointed Counsel.

3. The Trial Court failed to transport the appellant for the purpose of the forfeiture Hearing as the Appellant is an incarcerated person.

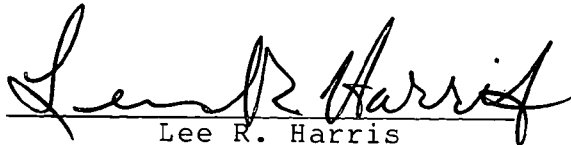

4. The Trial Court denied the appellant's Motion to suppress property / evidence unlawfully seized when testimony was not given on behalf of the Defendant / Property for reasons contained in issue number 3 of this statement.

5. The Defendant / Property was obtained illegally and in violation of the Appellant's rights under Article 1, Section of the Pennsylvania Constitution, and under the fourth and fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution when the Police conducted a warrantless, consentless search and seizure of the Defendant / Property outside 500 Blanchard Street, Osceola Mills, Pennsylvania on December 6, 2005. Both the Federal and State Constitutions required a warrant to search the Defendant / Property, and none of the circumstances providing the limited exceptions to the warrant requirement were present in this case.

#116

6. Appellant respectfully requests that permission be granted to supplement this Statement of Matters Complained of on Appeal, if necessary, when the notes of testimony from the relevant proceedings are obtained.

Respectfully submitted,

Lee R. Harris

MOTION FOR ORDER DIRECTING CLERK OF COURTS TO TRANSMIT LEE ROBERT HARRIS' NOTICE OF APPEAL TO THE COMMONWEALTH COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

TO THE HONORABLE PAUL E. CHERRY:

NOW COMES the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by and through its attorneys, who presents this motion for an order directing the Clearfield County Clerk of Courts to transmit Lee Robert Harris' June 20, 2008 notice of appeal to the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania, and in support thereof, avers:

1. On February 1, 2007, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, through the Office of Attorney General ("OAG") filed a petition for forfeiture and condemnation of: 1) $970.00 in United States Currency ("$970.00"); and 2) a 1996 Chevrolet Tahoe, VIN #1GNEK13R1TJ306498 ("Chevy Tahoe"), which were seized by law enforcement officials on December 6, 2005 pursuant to the Controlled Substances Forfeitures Act found at 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 6801-6802.

2. The owner of $350.00 in United States Currency was listed as Lee Robert Harris ("Harris") who is currently incarcerated at the State Correctional Institution at Albion following his 2006 convictions of possession with intent to deliver a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance.

#42

3. The owner of $620.00 in United States Currency was listed as Marc Anthony Frederic ("Frederic")

4. The owner of the Chevy Tahoe was listed as Jai Freeman ("Freeman").

5. In its forfeiture petition, the OAG averred that the defendant/property $970.00 was furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance, or were proceeds traceable to such an exchange. It was further averred that the defendant/property Chevy Tahoe was used, or intended for use, to transport, or in any manner facilitate the transportation, sale, receipt possession or concealment of drug paraphernalia, controlled substances, or other drugs.

6. On February 1, 2007, this Court issued a rule upon Harris, Frederic and Freeman to show cause why the prayer and order of the forfeiture petition should not be granted.

7. On April 11, 2007, Harris filed an answer wherein he requested that the Chevy Tahoe be returned to Freeman because Freeman had no knowledge of the contraband and/or controlled substances found in the vehicle and was not charged with any crimes relating to possession of contraband and/or controlled substances.

8. On September 14, 2007, Harris filed objections to the OAG's forfeiture petition.

9. Harris also filed a motion on September 21, 2007 wherein he sought to suppress evidence seized from his residence and vehicle.

10. On November 1, 2007, the Honorable Judge Ammerman entered an order terminating all claims of right, title or interest of Frederic in the defendant/properties and forfeiting such interest to the OAG.

11. On November 21, 2007, Judge Ammerman entered an order dismissing Harris' objections to the forfeiture petition. A hearing on the Commonwealth's forfeiture petition and Harris' motion to suppress evidence was ultimately scheduled for May 19, 2008.

12. On May 13, 2008, Harris filed a motion requesting that the hearing be continued due to the fact that he was unable to locate Freeman, his necessary witness.

13. The hearing commenced on May 19, 2008 as scheduled and Harris did not appear. At the conclusion of the hearing, this Court entered an order terminating all claims of right, title and interest of Harris and Freeman in the defendant/properties. The properties were subsequently condemned and forfeited to the OAG.

14. On June 20, 2008, Harris' notice of appeal was received by the Clearfield County Clerk of Courts along with an application to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP"). This Court denied the application to proceed IFP that same day.

15. Harris' notice of appeal was never transmitted to the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania.¹

16. Your undersigned contacted the Clearfield County Clerk of Courts office and was advised that the appeal was not forwarded to the appellate court because Harris failed to pay the filing fee.

¹ In his notice of appeal, Harris indicated that he was appealing to the Pennsylvania Superior Court. However, since the order appealed from is a final order in a forfeiture proceeding, proper jurisdiction lies with the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania. See 42 Pa.C.S. § 762 (vesting jurisdiction in the Commonwealth Court in appeals from final orders of the courts of common pleas in civil actions commenced by the Commonwealth government); see also Sugalski v. Cochran, 529 A.2d 1104, 1107 (Pa. Super. 1987) ("[f]orfeiture proceedings have been held to be civil in rem proceedings, which are quasi criminal in nature").

17. Rule 905(b) of the Pennsylvania Rules of Appellate Procedure directs the Clerk of Courts to "immediately transmit to the prothonotary of the appellate court named in the notice of appeal a copy of the notice of appeal showing the date of receipt, the related proof of service and a receipt showing collection of any docketing fee in the appellate court required under Subdivision (c)." Pa.R.A.P. 905(b).

18. Although Harris did not pay the filing fee, payment is not required in order to perfect an appeal. See First Union National Bank v. F.A. Realty Investors Corp, 812 A.2d 719 (Pa. Super. 2002)). In First Union, the Pennsylvania Superior Court stated:

The Trial Court and Appellee contend that this provision establishes that the appeal is not perfected until the fee is paid. We must disagree. While we agree that Rule 905(c) imposes an absolute duty on an appellant to either pay the required filing fee, or to attempt to obtain leave to proceed in forma pauperis at the time when the notice of appeal is filed, a breach of that duty does not automatically render the appeal invalid. Under Pa.R.A.P. 902, an appeal is perfected merely if it is filed within the time period allowed for filing an appeal under Pa.R.A.P. 903. The date of the appeal's filing, for purposes of Pa.R.A.P. 903, is established by Pa.R.A.P. 905(a). Thus, the perfection of the appeal does not depend in any way on the payment of the filing fee.

Indeed, Pa.R.A.P. 902 specifically states that "Failure of an appellant to take any step other than the timely filing of a notice of appeal does not affect the validity of the appeal, but it is subject to such action as the appellate court deems appropriate" Reading all of these provisions together compels the conclusion that an appeal will not be rendered automatically invalid by an Appellant's initial failure to comply with the financial obligations of Pa.R.A.P. 905 and Pa.R.A.P. 2701. An appeal filed within the allowed time period without the requisite fee will still be considered valid.

Id. at 722-723.

19. Based on the foregoing, the Commonwealth submits that the Clerk of Courts should be instructed to transmit Harris' notice of appeal to the Commonwealth

Court of Pennsylvania despite his failure to initially comply with the financial obligations of Pa.R.A.P. 905 and Pa.R.A.P. 2701.

20. This Court has authority pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. 1701 to direct the Clerk of Courts to transmit Harris' notice of appeal to the appellate court. The Rule provides in relevant part that:

(b) Authority of a trial court or agency after appeal. After an appeal is taken or review of a quasijudicial order is sought, the trial court or other government unit may:

(1) Take such action as may be necessary to preserve the status quo, correct formal errors in papers relating to the matter, cause the record to be transcribed, approved, filed and transmitted, grant leave to appeal in forma pauperis, grant supersedeas, and take other action permitted or required by these rules or otherwise ancillary to the appeal or petition for review proceeding.

Pa.R.A.P. 1701(b)(1).

WHEREFORE, the Commonwealth respectfully requests this Court to enter an order directing the Clearfield County Clerk of Courts to transmit Harris' notice of appeal to the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania for further action.

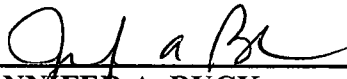

Respectfully submitted,

ORDER

NOW, this 1st day of November, 2007, the Court being in receipt of the Notice of Appeal Nunc Pro Tunc filed by Respondent Lee Harris; along with documents also submitted by Lee Harris requesting to proceed in forma pauperis and for the court reporter to transcribe the proceedings; the Court notes that no evidentiary hearing has yet been held in the above-captioned matter and that the forfeiture action is still pending decision by the Court. As such, there is no final Order from which Lee Harris can appeal and his attempt at an interlocutory appeal is misplaced and frivolous. Therefore, it is the ORDER of this Court that the application to proceed in forma pauperis and request for a transcript (which does not exist) be and is hereby denied.

ANSWER TO OBJECTIONS TO FORFEITURE MOTION AND MOTION TO SUPPRESS PHYSICAL EVIDENCE

AND NOW, this 11th day of October, 2007, comes the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General, by and through Letty A. Kress, Chief Deputy Attorney General, and avers the following in response to Lee R. Harris' Objections to Forfeiture Motion and Motion to Suppress Physical Evidence:

ANSWER TO OBJECTIONS TO FORFEITURE MOTION:

9. Denied. The time period between the seizure of the defendant/property in this matter and the filing of the Commonwealth's Petition for Forfeiture did not violate Harris' right to a speedy trial, privilege, equal protection and due process of law. The Commonwealth must file a Petition for Forfeiture under the Controlled Substances Forfeitures Act, 42 Pa. C.S.A. Section 6801(c) in a "forthwith" manner or within the applicable statute of limitations, which is two years. 42 Pa. C.S.A. Section 5524(5). The period of time in this case is fourteen (14) months, well within the applicable time period.

ANSWER TO MOTION TO SUPPRESS PHYSICAL EVIDENCE:

1. Admitted.

2. Admitted that evidence was seized from the defendant's residence. Also admitted the cocaine was seized from two vehicles parked outside of the defendant's residence. Denied, however, that the defendant is the only owner of the vehicle in question, the 1996 Chevrolet Tahoe, VIN #: 1GNEK13R1TJ306498. Said vehicle is titled in the name of Jai Freeman also of 500 Blanchard Street, Osceola, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania; the residence in question.

3. Denied. The search of the 1996 Chevrolet Tahoe, VIN #: 1GNEK13R1TJ306498, was lawful due to the consent of Jai Freeman.

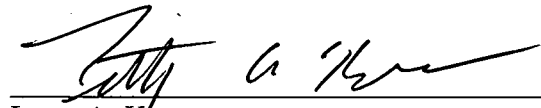

4. Denied. Jai Freeman specifically gave consent to search said vehicle and in fact produced the keys to said vehicle.

5. Admitted the search of the vehicle was not pursuant to a search warrant. Denied it was an illegal search as consent was given by the owner.

6. Denied as a conclusion of law.

WHEREFORE, the Commonwealth requests respondent Harris' Objections to the Forfeiture Motion and Motion to Suppress Physical Evidence be denied.

OBJECTIONS TO FORFEITURE MOTION

William A. Shaw
Prothonotary/Clerk of Courts

To the Honorable Judges of said Court:
Respondent, LEE R. HARRIS, hereby answers and opposes the August 7, 2007 Order by the President Judge Frederic J. Ammerman, as It relates to the Attorney General's Forfeiture action regarding the Respondent's (Harris') 1996 chevrolet tahoe and other items ($350.00 U.S. CURRENCY taken from respondent's girlfriend's person).

1. It is admitted that Law Enforcement seized the above Property.
2. It is denied that any Cocaine was contained in the above mentioned Vehicle.
3. It is denied that the car and/or cash had anything to do with any crime.
4. It is admitted that the property belongs to the respondent and his girlfriend.
5. Denied as a conclusion of law. It is denied that any of the property referenced above was used or intended to be used in violation of the Pennsylvania Controlled Substance Drug Device and Cosmetic act, or that it constituted the proceeds of a violation of "The Act".
6. Denied as a conclusion of Law. It is deneid that any of the subject property is derivative contraband subject to forfeiture pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S.A § 6801.

7. The forfeiture action is barred because the 1996 Cheverolet Tahoe was Obtained as the result of an unconstitutional search and seizure and in violation of article I § 8, Pa.Const., and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments, U.S. Constitution.

8. The said forfeiture is constitutionally prohibited where under the circumstances of this case it would constitute an excessive fine for an alleged criminal activity for which the Defendant neither plead nor was found guilty of and is in violation of Article 1. § 18 Pa.Const. and the 8th and 14th Amendments, of the U.S. Constitution. There is no significant relationship between the property seized and any alleged criminal activity and / or forfeiture of the property would be a disproportionate penalty for the alleged criminal activity for which the charge was dropped.

OBJECTIONS TO ATTORNEY GENERAL'S LATE FILING

9. The Attorney General's inordinate delay violated the respondent's due process rights to a speedy trial, privilage, equal protection and Due process of law. The Commonwealth waited 13 Months, before it filed for a forfeiture action. In COMMONWEALTH V. SETZER, 258 Pa.Super. 236, 392 A.2d 772 (1978), the court required a motion regarding forfeitures to be filed no later than at the sentencing stage, in cases of a criminal prosecution arising out of the incedent involving the seizure. see also ,COMMONWEALTH V. ONE 1990 Dodge Van, 751 A.2d 1235 (Pa. Commonwealth 2000).

WHEREFORE, Respondent, (Harris), requests that Forfeiture be denied and that the subject property be returned to it's rightful Owners forthwith.

AND NOW, to wit, this 27, day of, MARCH, 2007, Comes the Defendant, $ 970.00 U.S. CURRENCY AND A 1996 CHEVROLET TAHOE, VIN # 1GNEK13RITJ306498, LEE ROBERT HARRIS, residing at SCI/Dallas, 1000 Follies Road, Dallas, Pa. 18612, @ Inmate Number, GP-3749, who forthwith sua sponte Files Defendant's Answer To Petition For Forfeiture And Condemnation setting forth Defendant's Title in, and right to possession of, said Property as captioned-above, and in support thereof Defendant avers the following:

SPECIFICATION OF FACTS AND LAW MISAPPREHENDED AND/OR OVERLOOKED
VIA PLAINTIFF'S PETITION FOR FORFEITURE AND CONDEMNATION

(3). Defendant herein maintains Plaintiff failed to acknowledge the fact that Property, specifically, 1996 Chevrolet Tahoe, VIN #1GNEK 13RITJ306498, (hereinafter-CHEVROLET TAHOE), is not only Registered/Titled in Defendant Lee Robert Harris's name, but also is registered in Jai Freeman's name. Defendant, Jai Freeman, was not in fact found to be in possession of any contraband narcotics and in fact was not charged with any crimes relating to possession of contraband and/or narcotics. Defendant, Lee Robert Harris, entered a guilty plea on March 21st, 2006, in the Court of Common Pleas, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, before the Honorable Judge, Paul E. Cherry, @ C.P. NO., 17-CR-1168-2005, to the charges of Possession with intent to deliver a controlled substance, namely marijuana, an ungraded felony; and possession of a controlled substance, an ungraded misdemeanor. Vividly, the alleged 112 grams of cocaine found in the (Chevrolet Tahoe), was not charged.

(4). Defendant, Jai Freeman, had no knowledge of any contraband and/or controlled or uncontrolled substances being present in the vehicle.

(5). As indicated by the Plaintiff contained at paragraph 7d via Plaintiff's (PFFAC), Plaintiff states the following : "Troopers approached Jai Freeman and asked if they could search her blue Chevrolet Tahoe. Ms. Freeman gave consent to search. Found inside the glove box was a zip lock baggie with approximately 112 grams of cocaine inside a brown paper bag". As stated supra., Defendant Jai Freeman had no knowledge of the contraband drugs being placed in her property (Chevrolet-Tahoe).

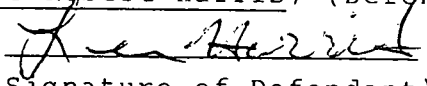

(6). Defendant maintains based on the foregoing facts supra., present in the instant case sub judice Forfeiture and Condemnation of Property (Chevrolet-Tahoe) pursuant to, (42 Pa. C.S.A. § 6801) is considered and/or rendered void pursuant to the dictates of Commonwealth vs. Buckingham, 578 A.2d 40 (1990), which held the following ; " The trial court held that real property owned by a common-law husband and wife as tenants by the entirety could not be forfeited under the Act where the husband was not engaged in the unlawful activity and lacked knowledge of the unlawful use of the premises. Id. The Pennsylvania Superior Court affirmed in an unpublished opinion.

(7). Defendant herein submits and maintains Buckingham, supra., is binding authority on the case sub judice where the elements are verbatim as contained in Buckingham, 578 A.2d 40 (1990).

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing facts in the case now before this Honorable Court, with supporting case law, Defendant respectfully requests this Court to refute The Commonwealth's Petition for Forfeiture And Condemnation of property (Chevrolet-Tahoe).

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

By, Lee Robert Harris, -(Defendant).

Commonwealth Court No. 417 CD 2009
Clearfield County No. 07-157-CD

Dear Mr. Harris:

We received today from our Middle District Office your "Notice of Appeal" and related documents referencing the matter identified above. The documents were received in that office on July 21st, having been forwarded by the Commonwealth Court prothonotary's office, which had received them on July 16th. It appears from the envelopes that accompanied the documents that your initial mailing, postmarked July 6th, was returned to you for additional postage; the second mailing was postmarked July 14th.

A notice of appeal filed with the intermediate appellate court prothonotary is not the appropriate means of seeking further review in the Supreme Court. Rather, a petition for allowance of appeal conforming to Pennsylvania Rules of Appellate Procedure 1111-1115 is to be filed with this office. Although we are able to treat an erroneously filed notice of appeal as a petition for allowance of appeal, subject to correction of the defects, this is only permitted where the document would have been timely filed. Pa. R.A.P. 1102.

Pursuant to Pa. R.A.P. 1112(c), the date a document is received in the prothonotary's office is considered the filing date unless it is accompanied by a U.S. Postal Service Form 3817 or similar form from which the date of deposit in the mail can be verified. Your initial mailing was not accompanied by a form from which the date of deposit can be verified. It was also returned for additional postage and thus had to be deposited in the mail a second time. For either reason, the July 6th postmark cannot be recognized as the "filing" date and thus your document must be considered untimely.

Mr. Lee R. Harris

Commonwealth v. $970.00 U.S. Currency, etc. (Harris)

Very truly yours,

Office of the Prothonotary

PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS AND / OR EXTRAORDINARY RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE, THE CHIEF JUSTICE AND JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT:

Petitioner, LEE R. HARRIS, by and through this Pro Se
Petition, respectfully requests this Court to issue a writ of mandamus or other extraordinary relief, and represents:

1. The instant petition requests this Court to grant a writ of mandamus pursuant to this Court's jurisdiction under 42 Pa. C.S.A § 721(2) and or pursuant to this Court's power to grant extraordinary relief under 42 Pa.C.S.A §§502 and 726.

2. On March 27, 2006 the Petitioner was sentenced to 2
½ (Two and One Half) to 5 (five) years incarceration for the charge of P.W.I.D. (Marijuana) and 6 (Six) to 12 (Twelve) Months incarceration for the Charge of Possession of a Controlled Substance (simple), (Cocaine).

3. On March 27, 2006 a oral motion for return of property was made to the Sentencing Court in regards to the Petitioner's Property.

4. On December 26, 2006 A subsequent motion for return of property was filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County.

5. On August 7, 2007. The Petitioner's motion for return of property was dismissed without a Hearing.

6. On September 6, 2007 a Notice of Appeal was filed in regards to the matter and ultimately denied.

7. On May 19, 2008 a Hearing on a Petition for forfeiture and Condemnation was held in the Petitioner's absence.

8. The Clearfield County Court of Common Pleas has refused to Transport the Petitioner as He is an Incarcerated individual.

9. The Petitioner had a Clear right to be present at the Proceeding held for the purpose of forfeiture and as a Incarcerated person has the right to be transported by the Court of Common Pleas for said Hearing.

10. On June 13, 2008 The Petitioner filed a timely Notice of Appeal in the matter (enclosed). Although the appended application to proceed In Forma Pauperis had been filed the Clerk of Court has refused to file the Petitioner's notice of Appeal.

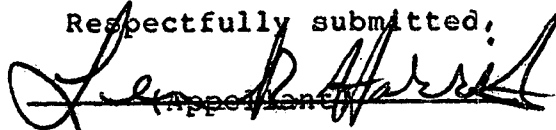

11. The Petitioner has been denied a clear and definite Appeal as of right in this matter as the Petitioner has the right to further review.

12. The petitioner's right to due process of law, as guaranteed by the State and Federal Constitutions, will be violated if he is denied his right to Appeal. The Petitioner was denied the right to be present at the initial proceeding, was denied the right to present evidence and give testimony on his own behalf and in the petitioner's absence his Motion to Suppress alleged evidence by the Commonwealth was denied.

13. Petitioner has no appropriate and adequate remedy if this Court denies relief. The Common Pleas Court has refused to transport the Petitioner for the purpose of the Hearing, has refused to file the Petitioner's Notice of Appeal and has failed to transmit the notice of appeal to the Superior Court for further review.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, it is requested that this Honorable Court grant this petition and direct the lower Court to transmit the Petitioner's Notice of Appeal to the Superior, reinstate the petitioner's Appellate Rights or allow the petitioner to resubmit the prior Notice of Appeal as timely, reverse and remand forfeiture order for further proceedings.

Respectfully submitted,

Appellant
