2007-1033-CD

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION
HOUTZDALE PENNSYLVANIA
MEDICAL DEPARTMENT

NOW comes petitioner, JAMES NONNENBERG, seeking court order for compensation for personal property which the medical department of the Houtzdale State Correction Facilities Medical Department, through loss, destruction or miss placement of a personal wheelchair which they took possession of on or about 6 april 2006, for repair or replacement of front wheel bearings, at which time I was given a loaned wheelchair until my personal wheel chair would be returned. My personal wheel chair was made to specific specifications for my height, weight, width and leg length.

However, the medical department neglected to immediately send my wheel chair out of the institution to be repaired, it was stored in the warehouse of the institution until some time in july or august, from where it disappeared.

Your Honor, my personnel wheelchair was heavy duty and made to specific calculations set forth by a representative from the manufacture of said wheelchair, (01KM880614, model T4) which was paid for by Nationwide Insurance Company, because of an auto accident on 19 September 1994.

The medical department now say's that my personal wheel chair was beyond repair and that they notified me that it would be destroyed. I never received any such notification from them. If I had received such a notice, I would have had the wheel chair sent to my church (FIRST MEDTHODIST CHURCH OF TOMPKINSVILLE) who repair old wheel chairs to give to nuseeing homes for the elderly.

Due to the circumstances concerning my personnel wheel chair, I request that this Honorable Court, promptly order restitution in excess of $10,000.00 (TEN-THOUSAND DOLLARS) as the court may seem fit.

US vs WHITE, 222 F3d 363 (7th Cir. 2000)

The government has a special responsibility to ensure the integrity of the criminal judicial process by living up to the code of professional ethics and fair play at all times.

DiDORBO vs HOY, 343 F3d 172 (2nd Cir. 2003)

One purpose of punitive damage is deterrence, and deterrence is directly related to what people can afford to pay.

BEVENS vs UNKNOWN AGENTS, 403 US 388, 29 LEd2d 619, 91 Sct 1999 (1970)

When a government agent acts in an unconstitutional manner he becomes liable for money damages.

DAVIS vs GOORD, F3d 346 (2nd Cir. 2003)

Filing of prison grievances is activity protected by the FIRST AMENDMENT.

PIGGIE vs COTTON, 342 F3d 744 (7th Cir. 2003)

Due process forbids prison officials who are directly or substantially involved in the factual events underlying the disciplinary charges, or the investigation thereof, from serving on the board hearing the charge.

AMENDMENT 7:

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise reexamined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of common law.

vs.	: No. 07 - 1045 C.D.
DAWN RENE STOTT,	:
Defendant	:

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE OF MASTER'S HEARING

TO THE HONORABLE FREDRIC J. AMMERMAN, PRESIDENT JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

AND NOW, comes the undersigned, counsel for Defendant, DAWN RENE STOTT, and moves Your Honorable Court for a continuance of the Master's Hearing scheduled for Friday, November 21, 2008, and, in support of which, avers the following:

1. That Your Honorable Court has previously issued an Order in this case declaring that all discovery was to be completed by October 30, 2008.
2. That the undersigned counsel for Defendant propounded a Request for Production of Documents to Plaintiff specifically requesting information to support the unbelievable amount of debt that Plaintiff contended was marital in nature.
3. That Defendant did not supply any information concerning the debt to Defendant's undersigned counsel until Friday, November 7, 2008, with supplemental information provided on Friday, November 14, 2008.
4. That the information supplied by Plaintiff does not reveal how the money was spent and since the credit cards are in the name of Plaintiff alone, Defendant needs to have additional statements showing actual purchases through the use of the credit cards in order to determine if the debt, which Plaintiff claims is over $110,000.00, is actually marital.

5. That the undersigned has just learned that Plaintiff and his father own competition guns, some of which are valued at $6,000.00 to $8,000.00 each and Plaintiff has wholly failed to declare any of these guns as marital in nature.

6. That the undersigned will have to secure an appraiser to value the guns and will need to engage in additional discovery to determine if Plaintiff purchased any of these guns through the credit cards that are in his name alone.

7. That this has been a 19-year marriage and the parties have only been separated since June of 2007 so there will be no prejudice to the Plaintiff in the granting of this request for continuance to allow Defendant to engage in further discovery made necessary by the fact that Plaintiff's responses were insufficient to satisfy the requirements of full disclosure contained in the Divorce Code.

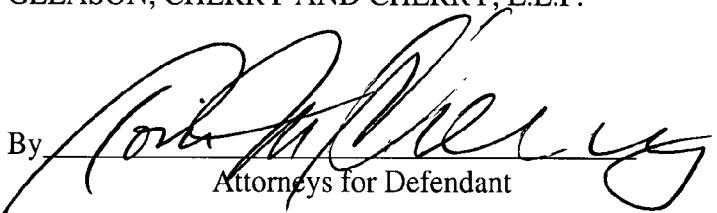

WHEREFORE, the undersigned respectfully requests Your Honorable Court to continue this matter to another date and time to enable Defendant's counsel to complete additional discovery.

Respectfully submitted,

GLEASON, CHERRY AND CHERRY, L.L.P.

INSTITUTION
SUPERINTENDENT PATRICK

REQUEST TO AMEND

— Plaintiff, JAMES NONNENBERG, request for Court's permission to not only amend, but to also add all handicapped individuals which are effected by the alleged abuse which Superintendent Patrick, neglected to correct. Handy capped inmates fall under the ADA (AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT) as does every inch of ever institution erected after 1968 when it took effect. Problems have been on going since the building and establishment of the Houtzdale State Correction Facility. First, there is not one building which adhears to ADA requirements for buildings which were built after the ADA became effective beginning in 1968, which states "THE ARCHITECTURAL BARRIERS ACT (ABA) REQUIRES THAT BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES THAT ARE DESIGNED, CONSTRUCTED, OR ALTERED WITH FEDERAL FUNDS, OR LEASED BY A FEDERAL AGENCY, COMPLY WITH FEDERAL STANDARDS FOR PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY, INCLUDING EMERGENCY EXITS."

This institution was built well after 1968, its EMERGENCY EXITS are not handy capped accessible and now certain staff members within the institution are violating the ADA within the handy capped dining area, by separating wheel chair confined inmates from the person assigned to pushing their wheel chair along with blocking aisles preventing the handy capped from exiting with or without an emergency, with or without the assistance of their wheel chair pusher.

For these violations, compensation in excess of $10,000.00 for each handicapped inmate involved plus finds and court costs must be adheared to.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

James Nonnenberg, CLA

HOW DOES THE ADA AFFECT EXISTING STATE AND LOCAL BUILDING CODES?

Existing codes remain in effect. The ADA allows the Attorney General to certify that a state law, local building code, or similar ordinance that establishes accessibility requirements for public accommodations and commercial facilities. Any State or local government may apply for certification of its code or ordinances. The Attorney General can certify a code or ordinance only after prior notice and a public hearing at which interested people, including individuals with disabilities, are provided an opportunity to testify against certification.

Laws reaffirming ADA requirements confirmed January 26, 1992 and remain in effect, even stronger at present.
