Notify Us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill
If you think your billing statement is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your billing statement, write to us (on a separate sheet) at the address shown on the front of your billing statement. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we send you the first billing statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount and date of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.
- Please sign your letter.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice
We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe your billing statement was correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report your account as delinquent. We can continue to charge you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your balance that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your billing statement, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 25 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must report that you are disputing your balance. And, we must tell you the name and address of anyone to whom we reported your account information. We must tell anyone to whom we report that the mailing has been sealed between us when it is finally settled.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your billing statement was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right:

- You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current address; and
- The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or service. A claim under this special rule may not exceed the amount actually billed to your account and does not apply to purchases made outside the United States.

CITIBANK CARD AGREEMENT

This Agreement and the binder containing the card are your Citibank Card Agreement. The binder contains important account information, including the annual percentage rate and an indication whether there is a membership fee. Please read and keep both the binder and this Agreement by your records.

To simplify the rest of this Agreement for you, the following definitions will apply. The words "you", "your", and "yours" mean the person responsible for this Agreement, to whom we direct the billing statement. The word "card" means one or more cards which we have issued with your account number. The words "we", "us", and "our" mean Citibank (South Dakota), N.A. The words "Citibank checks" mean one or more checks that we may provide to satisfy your Citibank card account. This Agreement is binding on you unless you cancel your account within 30 days after receiving the card and you have not used or authorized use of your account.

Credit Line:

Your initial credit line appears on the binder containing the card. A portion of your credit line, called the cash advance limit, is available for cash advances. At our discretion and at any time we may change your credit line or cash advance limit. We will notify you if we do, either by mail or through the billing statement. You may request a change to your credit line or cash advance limit by contacting Customer Service by telephone or mail.

Using Your Account:

The card must be signed to be used. The full amount of your credit line is available to buy or lease goods or services wherever the card is honored. Your cash advance limit is available for cash at any bank or automated teller machine that accepts the card or by use of Citibank checks. The total amount charged on your account, including purchases, cash advances, finance charges, fees, or other charges, must always remain below your credit line.

Additional Cards:

You may request additional cards on your account for yourself or others and you may permit another person to have access to the card or account number. However, if you do, you are liable for all charges made by those persons. You must notify us to revoke permission by any person you previously authorized to use your account. If you tell us to revoke another person's use of your account, we may close the account and issue a new card or cards with a different account number. You are responsible for the use of such card issued on your account according to the terms of this Agreement.

Membership Fees:

The binder containing the card indicates whether your account is subject to a membership fee. If it is, the fee is added to the purchase balance and is non-refundable unless you notify us to cancel your account within 30 days from the mailing date of the billing statement on which the fee is billed.

Billing:

Each month we will send you a billing statement if there is activity on your account. It shows the balance, any finance charges, fees, the minimum payment, and the payment due date. It also shows your current credit line and cash advance limit, an itemized list of current charges, Citibank checks, payments and credits, a summary showing separately the purchase and cash advance balances, finance charges on each balance, and other important information. You must notify us of a change in your account by contacting Customer Service by telephone or mail. We will mail or deliver the billing statement to only one mailing address.

EXHIBIT C

How We Determine the Balance:

The total outstanding balance (the amount you owe us) appears as the "New Balance" on the billing statement. To determine the New Balance, we begin with the outstanding balance on your account at the beginning of each billing period, listed the "Previous Balance" on the billing statement. We add any purchases and cash advances and subtract any payments and credits that we receive. We then add the appropriate finance charges, fees and other applicable adjustments.

Annual Percentage Rate for Purchases and Cash Advances:

Your ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE and the corresponding monthly and daily periodic rates appear on the biller containing the card. The monthly periodic rate is the applicable annual percentage rate divided by 12. The daily periodic rate is the annual percentage rate divided by 365. The annual percentage rate may be variable. Whether or not the rate varies is indicated on the biller containing the card.

Variable Annual Percentage Rate for Purchases and Cash Advances:

If your account has a variable ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE, we calculate the rate by adding the fixed percentage amount that appears on the biller containing the card to the U.S. Prime Rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the first Tuesday of March, June, September, and December of each year. If the first Tuesday is a holiday, we will use the Prime Rate published the next day. If more than one Prime Rate is published, we may choose the highest rate. If The Wall Street Journal ceases publication or to publish the Prime Rate, we may use the Prime Rate published in any other newspaper of general circulation, or we may substitute a similar reference rate at our sole discretion.

Any increase or decrease in the variable annual percentage rate takes effect on the first day of the billing period directly following the month in which we calculate the rate. Each time the variable annual percentage rate changes, we will apply it to any existing purchase and cash advance balances, subject to any introductory or promotional rate offer that may apply. The annual percentage rate in effect and any subsequent changes to it will appear on the billing statement. An increase in the variable annual percentage rate means you will pay a higher finance charge and perhaps a higher minimum payment. If you fail to meet the requirements of this or any other Citibank Card Agreement, we may immediately increase the variable ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (including any introductory rate or promotional rate) on any existing purchase and cash advance balances to a higher rate of 12.8% plus the Prime Rate as determined above. This higher rate will not be lower than 19.8%. Your account may be eligible for the lower variable annual percentage rate on new purchases and cash advances after you have met the terms of this and any other Citibank Card Agreement for six months.

Introductory and Promotional Rate Offers:

At our discretion, we may offer you an introductory annual percentage rate for all or a part of the purchase and/or cash advance balances. The period of time for which the introductory rate applies may be limited. Any introductory rate, the corresponding periodic rates, and the period of time during which it is in effect will appear on the biller containing the card. We may also offer you a promotional annual percentage rate to encourage specific transactions, such as transferring balances from accounts you have with other credit card issuers. Any introductory or promotional rate offer will be subject to the terms of the offer and this Agreement.

Finance Charges on Purchases:

We will charge a finance charge for purchases if you did not pay the total

New Balance listed on the last billing statement in full by the payment date as follows:

- We start with the Previous Balance on purchases at the beginning of the billing period. For finance charge calculation purposes, the billing period begins on the Statement/Closing Date listed on the previous billing statement and varies with the number of days in the billing period.
- On each day of the billing period we subtract payments, add new purchases and fees, and make adjustments. This determines a daily balance. Unless we elect to use a later date, we add a new purchase to the balance at the date of the purchase.
- We total the daily balances (except for the balance on the Statement/Closing Date listed on the current billing statement) and then divide it by the number of days in the billing period. This determines the average daily balance, which is called the "balance subject to finance charge" on the billing statement.
- We multiply the balance subject to finance charge by the applicable periodic rate. The resulting amount is your FINANCE CHARGE on purchases.
- If the purchase balance is subject to more than one rate (for example, because of purchases made during a promotional or introductory rate), we will separately calculate the balance subject to finance charge and resulting finance charge in the same manner as described above.

Finance Charges on Cash Advances:

We will charge a finance charge on cash advances from the day you take them until the day we receive payment in full as follows:

- We start with the Previous Balance on cash advances at the beginning of the billing period. For finance charge calculation purposes, the billing period begins on the Statement/Closing Date listed on the previous billing statement and varies with the number of days in the billing period.
- On each day of the billing period we subtract payments, add new cash advances and fees, and make adjustments. This determines a daily balance. Unless we elect to use a later date, we add cash advances to the balance at the date they are taken.
- We total the daily balances (except for the balance on the Statement/Closing Date listed on the current billing statement) and then divide it by the number of days in the billing period. This determines the average daily balance, which is called the "balance subject to finance charge" on the billing statement.
- We multiply the balance subject to finance charge by the applicable daily periodic rate and then multiply the resulting amount by the number of days in the billing period. This resulting amount is your FINANCE CHARGE on cash advances.
- If the cash advance balance is subject to more than one rate (for example, because of cash advances made during a promotional or introductory rate offer), we will separately calculate the balance subject to finance charge and the resulting finance charge in the same manner as described above.

Cash Advance Transaction Fees:

For each cash advance obtained at an automated teller machine (ATM), through a Citibank check, or at a financial institution (without using an ATM) we will add an additional FINANCE CHARGE of 2.0% of the advance, not less than $2. We will add this fee to the cash advance balance. The cash advance transaction fee may cause the annual percentage rate on the bill statement on which the cash advance first appears to exceed the nominal annual percentage rate.

Minimum Finance Charge:

We assess a minimum FINANCE CHARGE of £50 if your finance charge

Interest Rate

for purchases or cash advances is less than $50. We add the amount to either the purchase or cash advance balance at our discretion.

Credit Balance:

You may not maintain a credit balance on your account in excess of your assigned credit limit. We will return to you any credit amount over $1,000 if the amount has been on your account longer than three months. You may request a refund of a credit balance at any time. We may reduce the amount of any credit balance by the amount of new charges billed to your account.

Security Interest for Secured Accounts:

The holder containing the card indicates if your account is a secured account. If it is, you have given us a security interest in a certificate of deposit or a savings account to secure repayment of your account. If you withdraw your funds from the certificate of deposit or savings account, we will close your card account.

Charges Made in Foreign Currencies:

FOR VISA® ACCOUNTS: If a charge is incurred in a foreign currency, Visa International will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount using its most recently published procedures set forth in its Operating Regulations in effect at the time the transaction is processed. Currently, those Regulations provide that the currency conversion rate to be used is either (1) a wholesale market rate or (2) a government-mandated rate in effect one day prior to the processing date, increased by an international reimbursement rate in each case. Visa retains this international reimbursement rate as compensation for performing the currency conversion service. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

FOR MASTERCARD® ACCOUNTS: If a charge is incurred in a foreign currency, MasterCard International, Inc. will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount using its most recently published conversion procedures in effect at the time the transaction is processed. Currently, the currency conversion rate used to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars is either (1) a wholesale market rate or (2) a government-mandated rate in effect one day prior to the processing date, increased by one percent in each case. MasterCard retains this one percent as compensation for performing the currency conversion service. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

Minimum Amount Due:

Each month you must pay a minimum amount that is the total of two figures. The first is any previous amount that is past due plus any amount in excess of your credit line. The second is the greater of the amount of your billed finance charges or one of the following:

- The New Balance on the billing statement if it is less than $50; or
- $50, if the New Balance is at least $50 and not greater than $2,400; or
- if the New Balance exceeds $2,400, 1/48 of the New Balance (rounded down to the nearest dollar).

You must pay at least the minimum amount due each month, but you may pay more at any time without a penalty. If you pay more than the minimum, we will allocate the excess amount to the purchase or cash advance balance at our discretion. The sooner you pay the New Balance, the less you will pay in finance charges. We may also allow you to skip a payment. If we do, we will notify you on the billing statement. If you choose to skip a payment when offered, we will continue to assess finance charges.

Payments:

Do not send cash payments. We can accept full or partial payments, as well as payments that reflect "paid in full" or other restrictive endorsements.

without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. There may be a delay of up to five days in crediting a payment if it is received at an address other than the address provided on the billing statement. You must pay us in U.S. dollars drawn on banks on deposit in the United States. However, we reserve the right to accept payment made in foreign currency. If we do, we will charge a currency conversion fee based upon the conversion rates existing at the time of conversion.

Over-the-Credit Line Fee:

We will add a $20 fee to the purchase balance for each billing period that the New Balance exceeds your credit line.

Late Fee:

We will add a $20 fee to the purchase balance for each billing period you fail to make the minimum payment by its due date.

Returned Payment Fee:

We will add a $20 fee to the purchase balance when a payment check or similar instrument is not honored, when we must return it because it cannot be processed, or when an automatic debit is returned unpaid. At our option, we will assess this fee the first time your check is not honored, even if it is paid upon resubmission.

Citibank Checks:

Citibank checks may be used to purchase goods and services or to obtain cash up to the amount of your available cash advance limit unless that amount will cause the balance to exceed your credit line. We will treat Citibank checks as a cash advance and charge them against your cash advance limit. Each Citibank check must be in the form we have issued and must be used according to any instructions we give you. Citibank checks may be used only by the person whose name is printed on them. Citibank checks may not be used to pay any amount owed to us under this or any other Citibank Card Agreement. We will not cash any Citibank checks, nor will we return paid Citibank checks.

Returned Citibank Check Fee:

We will add a $20 fee to the cash advance balance if we decline to honor a Citibank check. Among the reasons for our decline are that the check would cause the balance to exceed your cash advance limit or credit line, that you are in default, that you did not comply with our instructions regarding the check, that your account has been closed, or that the card has expired.

Stop Payment Fee:

We will add a $20 fee to the cash advance balance when payment of a Citibank check is stopped at your request. You may stop payment on a Citibank check by notifying us in writing at P.O. Box 6500, Sioux Falls, South Dakota 57117 or by calling us at the telephone number listed on the billing statement. If you call, you must confirm the call in writing within 14 days. A written stop payment order will remain in effect for six months unless renewed in writing.

Once a charge is made through the use of the card or account number we cannot "stop payment" on the charge. If there is a dispute involving a charge on your account, please refer to the section entitled "What To Do If There's An Error In Your Bill."

Lost or Stolen Cards, Account Numbers or Citibank Checks:

If any card, account number or Citibank check is lost or stolen or if you think someone used or may use them without your permission, notify us at once by calling the telephone number shown on the billing statement or the number contained by calling toll-free or local Directory Assistance. We may require you to provide certain information in writing to help us find out what happened. Don't use the card or the Citibank checks after we've been notified, even if they are found or returned. You may be liable for unauthorized use of the card, but not for more than $50. You won't be liable for any unauthorized purchases or cash advances made after we've been notified of the loss or the theft; however, you must identify to us the charges on the billing statement that were not made by you, or someone authorized by you, and from whom you received no benefit.

Default:

You are in default if you fail to pay the minimum payment listed on each billing statement on time, file for bankruptcy, exceed your credit line without our permission, or default on any other Citibank Card Agreement. If you are in default, we may close your account and demand immediate payment of the balance. If you have given us a security interest in a savings account or certificate of deposit, we may use the deposit amount to pay any amount you owe us. But of course, you don't want this to happen. Call us first and let us try to help you.

Collection Costs:

If we have to refer collection of your account to a lawyer (who is not our salaried employee), to the extent permitted by law, you will have to pay our attorney's fees plus court costs by any other fees. If we sue to collect and you win, we will pay your reasonable legal fees and court costs.

Customer Privacy:

We will not sell information about you or your account to non-Citcorp companies. On occasion, however, we will allow certain companies to offer specially selected products and services to you through the mail or by telephone. These companies will not be allowed to retain any information about you or your account unless you agree to purchase their products or services. If you do not want to receive these offers, write or call us at the address or telephone number listed on the billing statement. Be sure to include your name, address, and account number. We will remind you at least once each year of your right to be excluded from these offers.

Telephone Monitoring:

From time to time we may monitor telephone calls regarding your account with us to ensure the quality of our service.

Information Reporting:

We may report your performance under this Agreement to credit reporting agencies including your failure to make minimum payments on time. A negative credit report may significantly harm your ability to obtain credit from other sources. We may also obtain follow-up credit reports on you (for example, when we review your account for a credit line increase). We may exchange information about your account with our Citcorp affiliates, and our Citcorp affiliates may perform certain customer service and payment processing functions for your account. Otherwise, no one else will be given information about your account without your permission or proper legal authority. We will try to notify you by telephone or by mail of any legal process served on us in order to give you an opportunity to object to it unless the law prohibits the notice.

Correcting Your Credit Report:

If you think we reported erroneous information to a credit reporting agency or wish to learn the names of the agencies we contacted, write us at the address listed on the billing statement. We will promptly investigate the matter, and if our investigation shows you are right, we will contact such credit reporting agency to whom we reported and will request they correct the report. If we disagree with you after our investigation, we will tell you in writing or by telephone and instruct you how to obtain a statement of your position to those agencies. Your statement will become a part of your credit report there.

Closing Your Account:

You may close your account at any time by notifying us in writing. If you remain responsible to pay the balance according to the terms of this Agreement, we may close your account or suspend your account, or Citibank checks at any time without prior notice. We may also issue different bank account number, or different checks at any time. You can return the card or the Citibank checks to us upon request.

Refusal of the Card:

We are not responsible if we do not approve a purchase or cash from your account or a third party refuses to accept or honor the card if you have sufficient credit available. We may limit the number of frequent cash advances which may be approved in one day. If we detect unusual suspicious activity on your account, we may temporarily suspend your privileges until we can verify the activity. We may approve purchases or advances which cause the balance to exceed your credit line without any of our rights under this Agreement.

Changing this Agreement:

We can change this Agreement, including all fees and the annual percentage rate, at any time. However, if the change will cause a fee, rate or minimum payment to increase, we will mail you written notice at least 15 days before the beginning of the billing period in which the change becomes effective. If you do not agree to the change, you must notify us in writing within 21 days after the effective date of the change and pay us the balance, either in full or under the terms of the unchanged Agreement. Otherwise, the change is binding on you. Use of the card after the effective date of change shall be deemed acceptance of the new terms, even if the 21 days have not expired.

Delay in Enforcement:

We may need time to look into certain matters and can delay enforcement rights under this Agreement without losing them.

Applicable Law:

The terms and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by its law and the law of South Dakota, where we are located.

For Further Information:

Call us at the telephone number shown on the front of the billing statement. You can also call toll-free or local Directory Assistance to get our telephone number.

DEFENDANT'S PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

Pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. No. 1028(c), Defendant Jo A. Shugarts, by and through her attorneys, Robin Jean Foor, and MidPenn Legal Services preliminarily objects to Plaintiff's Complaint and moves for its dismissal as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS RAISING FAILURE OF A PLEADING TO CONFORM TO LAW OR RULE OF COURT Pa. R.C.P. 1028 (a)(2)

1. Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1019(i) states that "when a claim is based on upon a writing, the pleader shall attach a copy of the writing or the material part thereof..."
2. Plaintiff claims to be the assignee of the assignee of the original creditor.
3. Plaintiff has failed to attach any documentation of the assignment of the Ms. Shugarts specific account.

4. Plaintiff filed a Complaint demanding damages in the amount of $ 13, 934.95 plus attorney fees and costs.

5. Plaintiff has failed to attach to the Complaint a signed written contract between Plaintiff and Defendant. Such writing would form the very core of Plaintiff's case, but such writing has not been appended to the Complaint, nor its absence explained, as required by Pa.R.C.P. No. 1019(h) and (i).

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that the Court sustain Defendant's Preliminary Objections and dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint.

II. PRELIMINARY OBJECTION RAISING INSUFFICIENT SPECIFICITY IN A PLEADING Pa. R.C.P. 1028 (a)(3)

1. The Complaint contains alleged claims for money owed but fails to provide adequate documentation or accounting of charges allegedly made by Defendant, which would support Plaintiff's claim of damages, such as a breakdown of charges, payments, and interest, so that Defendant can properly formulate a response and assert any counterclaims.

2. The Complaint is deficient in reciting factual averments and Defendant is without information upon which she can premise a meaningful response and formulate a defense.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that the Court sustain Defendant's Preliminary Objections and dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint.

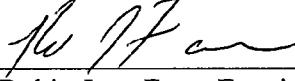

Respectfully submitted,
