IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT YOUR MASTERCARD® OR VISA® CREDIT CARD ACCOUNT

The Cardholder Agreement governing your Account is being replaced by the new Cardmember Agreement (the "Agreement") included in this Notice. The new terms of the Agreement will be effective for billing cycles beginning on and after May 9, 2002. For your convenience, we have summarized below the most important of those new terms. Those summarized new terms are also underlined in the new Agreement. However, if the new terms involve an entire paragraph or section, we have put an asterisk before the heading and underlined it rather than underlining the entire paragraph or section. Please read the information at the summary below to understand your rights and obligations under the new terms. All other terms in the new Agreement will automatically apply to your Account on the effective date. Once the terms go into effect, they will apply to existing balances and any future balances and transactions on your Account. Please note that some of the terms described in this Notice may already apply to your Account.

New terms.

- Minimum payment. The Minimum Payment will be the greater of 2% of the new balance ($10 minimum) or the total finance charge on your monthly statement.
- Governing law. Your Agreement will be governed by the laws of the United States and the State of Delaware.
- Calculation of Finance Charge for Balance Transfers, Advances and Purchases. Subject to the terms of the Grace Period for Purchases, we have the right to choose when your Finance Charges begin to accrue on Purchases, Advances and Balance Transfers, on the date of each transaction, from the beginning of the billing cycle during which we receive them or the date they are posted to your Account. The Purchases, Advances and Balance Transfers average daily balance (including new transactions) calculations that determine the balances to which the applicable daily periodic rate is applied will provide that an amount equal to the previous day's ending balance multiplied by the applicable daily periodic rate will accrue on and be added to your Account balances each day. Further, unpaid Finance Charges, fees and other charges from previous billing cycles will be included in the appropriate beginning balances in the calculation of daily balances each day.
- Grace period. The grace period to avoid Finance Charges on Purchases will be not less than 22 days.
- Variable rates. For any variable rate on your Account, the variable rate index will be the index disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. This index is tied to the highest prime rate published in the Wall Street Journal on the last business day of each calendar month, and changes in the index are effective from the first day of the billing cycle that closes in the next calendar month.

- Minimum Finance Charge. There is a minimum Finance Charge of 50 cents on Purchases. If a Finance Charge for Purchases is imposed.
- Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility. Your Account will be reviewed monthly to determine if it is in good standing and the interest rates that apply to your Account. The conditions we use to determine if your Account is in good standing are contained in a section of the Agreement called "Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility." When your Account satisfies the conditions, "Preferred" rates may apply; when it does not, a "Non-Preferred" rate applies. Existing and new balances on your Account when a Non-Preferred rate is in effect will remain subject to the Non-Preferred rate until they are paid to full. If your Account meets the conditions for Preferred rates for a time period not to exceed 12 months, it may be eligible for Preferred rates again on new transactions. The Non-Preferred rate is a variable rate fully described in the Pricing Schedule section of the Agreement. Historical information that precedes this change may be used to determine whether or not your Account meets the conditions.
- Serious default rate. Once your Account is considered to be six or more billing cycles past due, you may be required to pay interest at the rate of 2% a month on the unpaid balance.
- Fees.
 - There will be a transaction fee for Advances (3%, $5 minimum) and Balance Transfers ($50 maximum).
 - The late payment fee will be $15, $25 or $35, depending on the previous balance on your monthly statement that shows the late payment fee and also whether or not a Non-Preferred interest rate is in effect.
 - A defined check fee of $28 will be imposed for each Advance or Balance Transfer check that cannot be processed because of an overdue, delinquency or closed condition on your Account. The stop payment fee, overdraft fee and returned payment fee will be $28.
 - The copy fee will be $5 for copies of documents that you request ($10 fee for each original sales slip).
 - A phone pay fee of $12 will be charged for payments on your Account that we make on your behalf, and a card replacement fee of $10 will be charged for special services related to replacement cards such as their expedited delivery.
- Arbitration. The Arbitration Agreement section provides, you and us with a choice of three arbitration administrators, contains a small claims exemption, provides for the advancement of certain costs to file an arbitration, permits a right of appeal in limited circumstances, and contains other differences from your existing arbitration terms. Review the entire Arbitration Agreement to fully understand the differences.
- Your rights regarding the new terms above that you can choose not to accept.

the other new terms listed above (the "Other New Terms"), or both, if the only choice you make is not to accept the new Arbitration Agreement, your Account will remain open. If you do not accept the Other New Terms, your Account will be closed to further use (it is not already closed). In any event, we must receive your letter no later than May 2, 2002. In your letter please include your name, address and a statement that you do not want the Arbitration Agreement, the Other New Terms, or both, to apply to your Account. If you do not specify which new terms you choose not to accept, we will assume that you chose not to accept both the Arbitration Agreement and the Other New Terms and your Account will be closed. Your letter must be mailed to Cardmember Services, P.O. Box 15758, Wilmington, DE 19850-5758. We must receive your written letter by the time indicated and at the address indicated or your choice(s) will not be effective. It is not sufficient to telephone us. If your letter is received by May 2, 2002 and you do not accept the Other New Terms, those new terms will not apply to your Account and you must pay off any outstanding balances on your Account in accordance with the payment and other applicable terms of your existing Cardholder Agreement and this Agreement.

(Actual) MASTERCARD® and VISA® CARDMEMBER AGREEMENT

GENERAL TERMS

- Meaning of Words Used in This Agreement. "Agreement" means this document (which has a binding arbitration provision that may affect your right to go to court, your right to a jury trial and your right to participate in a class action or other representative action) and the Pricing Schedule (which appears at the end of this Agreement), as either may be amended from time to time. In this Agreement, "you," "your" or "yours" means each person who applied for the Visa or MasterCard Account. "We," "us" or "our" means Chase Manhattan Bank USA, National Association. "Account" means the Visa or MasterCard Account for which you were issued cards and checks imprinted with your Account number. "Authorized User" means any person to whom you have given permission to use your Account. "Card" means the Visa or MasterCard card(s) issued in connection with your Account. "Check" means Chase Convenience Checks drawn on us or one of our affiliates. "Seller" means any merchant, insurance company or its agent or broker. "Services of This Account." This Account may be used for Purchases from any Seller that accepts the Card and for legal transactions on your Account through the use of a Card. Advances. You agree not to make or permit to be made any a Check or any other manner. 3. To Use Your Card. You must sign the panel on the back of your Card. Authorized Users of any additional Card(s) should sign their names on the panel on the back of those Cards. For Purchases, you will have to sign a sales slip that has your name, the Seller's name, and your Account number on it, unless you let the Seller complete the sales slip for you.

4. Your Responsibility for This Account. You are responsible for all amounts owed on this Account, whether charged by you, a person whom you permit to obtain credit on your Account (such as by lending a person your Card), or any other person using a Card or your Account with actual, implied or apparent authority. You agree that anyone who is issued a Card for your Account (or anyone to whom you lend or give your Card) is authorized to make charges to your Account to the same extent as you and we are not responsible for controlling such use of your Account. Such authority will continue until you revoke it by notifying us, obtaining the Card in your physical possession, and if it is a Card issued to an Authorized User, by also cancelling it in half. If you receive a benefit from the use of your Card or Account by another person, such use will not be considered unauthorized. We may require Authorized Users to repay the amount owed for the charges they make.

5. Your Credit Line. Your credit line is the most you may owe on your Account at any time. You will be told the amount of your credit line. You may not use your Account in any way that would cause you to go over your credit line. You may also be asked to immediately pay for any amount over your credit line. We may change your credit line or operate the amount of your credit line into available credit for purchases and advances. If the credit line is changed, you will be notified.

6. Payment of Your Account Balance (including any Finance Charge and any fees and charges owed on your Account) is due on your credit line at any time during a billing cycle, that will be imposed only once during the billing cycle, but will be imposed in each billing cycle that you are over your credit line and you have authorized the transaction that caused you to go over the credit line.

7. Annual Fee. If there is an Annual Fee for the Account you will be billed the Annual Fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule whether or not you have used the Account. If your Annual Fee has been waived, it will be billed when the waiver period has ended, and you then continue to be billed on an annual basis. The Annual Fee is non-refundable.

8. Payments. All payments must be made and received by us in accordance with the payment instructions that appear on or with your monthly statements and accompanying envelopes. Payments must be in United States Dollars and drawn on a United States financial institution or the United States Postal Service. In our sole discretion we will decide how to apply your payments. Although we post your payments as of the business day we receive them as described or your statements, your Total Available Credit may not be restored for up to 15 days after we post your payment. Any payment check which you send us for less than the full balance due that is marked "paid in full" or with a similar notation of that you otherwise have no further obligation of a disputed amount (conditional payment), must be sent to us at the conditional payment address listed on your monthly statement. We reserve all our rights regarding such checks. For example, if a conditional payment is not valid despite any such check is received at any other address, we may accept the check and you will still owe any remaining balance. We may refuse to accept any such check by returning it to you, not cashing it or by destroying it. All other payments should be sent to the regular payment address shown on your monthly statements.

9. Immediate Right to Payment Fee. We may in our discretion permit you to make payments by authorizing us on your behalf to transfer funds from a deposit or other account to your Account. For each such payment you will be charged an Immediate Right to Payment Fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. If you do not make a payment by the time the fee is charged, the fee will be charged to your Account.

10. Repayment of Amount Owed. You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each check or payment instrument given in payment which is returned to us or which we cannot process under our normal operating procedures.

11. Minimum Payment. You may pay either the Minimum Payment or any amount over that up to the New Balance. Your Minimum Payment must be in accordance with our payment instructions and reduced by the time or day on the Payment Due Date shown on your statement. Your Minimum Payment is calculated by adding the New Balance and reducing any amounts which you have properly paid us and in dispute (see Billing Error Notice) and multiplying that amount by the minimum payment percentage shown in the Pricing Schedule. If the resulting amount is more than the minimum payment, the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule will be reduced to the lowest dollar amount resulting amount less than that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. It will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount if the Minimum Payment is calculated as a percentage less than the dollar amount shown on your statement. Your Minimum Payment must be made by the time or day on the Payment Due Date shown on your statement. We add to your Minimum Payment any past due amounts and, at our option, any amounts in arrears of your credit line. The Minimum Payment will not be more than the New Balance.

12. Right to Payment Fee. There will be a Late Payment Fee Charge in the amount disclosed in the Pricing Schedule if we do not receive in accordance with our payment instructions the Minimum Payment by the time or day on the Payment Due Date shown on your monthly statement.

13. If Your Card or Checks are Lost or Stolen. If someone uses your Card(s) or Checks without your permission or if they are lost or stolen, contact us immediately. You may call or write, Call toll free 1-800-441-7681 anytime from all 50 states, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. For all other locations call 813-884-2997 collect. Write to: P.O. Box 15919, Wilmington, DE 19850-5919. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your Card(s) in an amount not to exceed $50 in any case where your Card(s) are lost or stolen and you fail to report us within twenty-four (24) hours. You will not be liable for such unauthorized use if you notify us in the manner described in the policy above within the twenty-four (24) hour time limit or before the unauthorized use occurs.

14. Card Replacement Fee. You may be charged a Card Replacement Fee in the amount disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for any special services such as obtaining any Card on an expedited basis.

15. If Your Card or Check is Returned. We are not responsible if a Seller, Bank or ATM refuses to honor your Card or Check. Although you may have credit available, we may not authorize credit for a particular transaction due to operational difficulties or, in our discretion, for any other appropriate reason. Transactions made above a certain dollar amount may require authorization before the transaction is approved. The number of transactions you make in one day may be limited by us. This is done for security reasons, and as such, the details of how the authorization system works are not listed in this Agreement. Neither we nor our agents will be responsible if authorization for a transaction is not given. If your Account is overlimit or delinquent, credit authorization for transactions may be declined.

16. Monthly Statement. Each month there is a debit or credit balance of more than $1 or a Finance Charge has been imposed on your Account, we will mail you a statement.

17. Copy Fee. You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each original or copied sales slip, copied statement, and copy of any other record or document that you request. The fee is not owed if a request for such record or document reveals a billing error or unauthorized use on your Account as defined by the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Z.

18. Billing Error. If you have a dispute about your Account, notify us as soon as possible. Please read the Billing Error notice. This notice explains your legal rights about billing errors and defenses under Federal Law and how you must notify us. If any adjustment is made, we will credit your Account.

19. Currency Conversion. If you effect a transaction with your MasterCard Card or Visa Card in a currency other than U.S. dollars, MasterCard International, incorporated or Visa International, as appropriate, will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount. MasterCard International or Visa International will use its conversion procedure, which is disclosed to institutions that issue MasterCard cards or Visa cards, respectively. Currency, the currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International or Visa International to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars for such transactions is generally either a government-mandated rate or a wholesale rate determined by MasterCard International or Visa International, as appropriate, for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed, increased by an adjustment factor established from time to time by MasterCard International and Visa International, respectively. The currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International or Visa International on the date your transaction is processed by MasterCard International or Visa International may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase or transaction date of the cardholder statement posting date. The adjustment factor that is part of the currency conversion rate is one percent, but may be changed from time to time by MasterCard International or Visa International, respectively. For each such transaction converted into a U.S. Dollar amount that must be converted back into a foreign currency because of a refund or other reversal of the transaction, the same currency conversion rate formula and procedures will be used.

21. Authorization to Provide Information. You authorize us to provide certain information on you and your Account to our affiliates and others, including any company whose name or mark may appear on the Card. Complete details regarding our rights to share information and your right to opt-out of certain information being shared is provided to you when you first receive an Agreement and at least once each calendar year thereafter.

22. Disputing Account Information Reported to Credit Bureaus. We furnish information about your Account to credit bureaus. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of the information reported by writing us at P.O. Box 15823, Wilmington, DE 19860-5823.

23. Changing the Terms of This Agreement. We may change any of the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation by adding new terms or by deleting or modifying existing terms. We will notify you of any such changes as required by law. Any changes to this Agreement can apply to all outstanding unpaid indebtedness and any new transactions on your Account. We may sell or transfer your Account and any amounts owed on your Account to another person at any time. If we do, this Agreement will still be in effect and any successor will have our right in this Agreement to the extent assigned.

24. Default and Collection Costs. Your Account will be in default and we can require that the total outstanding balance be paid if: (1) you fail to pay any amount owed under this Agreement when due; (2) you exceed the credit limit in effect on your Account; (3) you do not follow the terms of this Agreement; (4) your ability to pay us is materially impaired (including, but not limited to, bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings that are initiated by or against you); or (5) you default on any other loan or credit obligation you have with us or another creditor. We do not have to notify you or demand payment in order to take this action. If you are in default, we may as permitted by law: cancel your credit privileges and require you to pay the unpaid balance immediately; require you to pay interest at the rate of two percent (2%) a month on the unpaid balance when we deem your Account to be six or more billing cycles past due; and require you to pay reasonable attorney's fees, any court costs and other collection costs incurred by us in the collection of any amounts you owe under this Agreement.

25. Cancellation. We may close your Account at any time. You will be responsible for repaying any Purchases, Advances or other outstanding charges that are still due on your Account. Your Card is issued as a way of telling you use your Account. It may not be transferred. If we request you use your Account, it return them. Any services not described in this Agreement that may be provided from time to time in connection with the Account are not part of this Agreement and may be changed or cancelled at any time without notice or refund.

26. Grounding Law. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States and the State of Delaware. Any dispute concerning any term in this Agreement will be resolved by these laws.

27. Telephone Monitoring. You agree that your telephone communications with us may be monitored and recorded to improve customer service and security.

28. Delayed Enforcement. We may delay enforcing or not enforce any of our rights under this Agreement without losing any of them.

29. Severability. The invalidity of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity of any other provision.

30. Consumer Reports. We may obtain consumer credit reports from credit bureaus on you at any time in connection with any extension of credit on your Account, to review your Account, or for other permitted purposes.

SPECIAL RATES

1. Special Rates. From time to time, we may offer you special periodic rates and terms on your Account, which for balance transfer transactions, may include special rates or other written request forms we provide or verbal requests for such transfers which we agree to honor. We may also offer special rates for purposes of this Agreement or for other transfers on your Account such as introductory, promotional or other reduced rate offers. If we do, we will advise you of the special rates, how long they will be in effect, the balances to which they will apply, and the terms that will apply to the special rates. The terms of this Agreement apply to all special rates. If a special rate is variable, then the "variable rate" terms of this Agreement (including the Pricing Schedule) will apply. You may lose any special rate that is offered you and regular standard Preferred Pricing will apply. If you fail to make any required minimum payment by the Payment Due Date, you shall lose the regular standard Preferred Pricing and Non-Preferred Pricing will apply. If you fail to make the conditions of the "Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility" section of this Agreement.

2. Balance Transfer Transactions. Balance transfer transactions are made as Purchases, except as noted in this Agreement or any offer we make to you. These transactions will not be eligible for the grace period for Purchases, except as stated in the terms of any Balance Transfer offer made to you. We may identify balance transfers and the related promotional balances by different terms such as "Transferred Balance" or "Balance Transfer." If a check or other form of transfer for a Balance Transfer transaction is used to pay any amounts you owe to any JP Morgan Chase bank or company, is made payable to cash, is received by us and posted to your Account after the expiration date of the offer, is otherwise used in a way that does not transfer balances you owe to other creditors to your Account, or is used in any way not specified in the promotional offer we make to you, we reserve the right to refuse to honor that Balance Transfer transaction or to treat it as an Advance.

3. Transaction Fee for Balance Transfers. For each Balance Transfer transaction described in any offer we may make to you, we may charge a Transaction Fee. The Transaction Fee is the amount disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. This fee may be reduced in our sole discretion in any offer we make to you. Transaction Fees are part of the Finance Charge. The addition of Balance Transfer Transaction Fees may cause the Annual Percentage Rate for Balance Transfer transactions to exceed the nominal Annual Percentage Rate shown on your statement.

TERMS FOR ADVANCES

1. Advance. An Advance is a cash loan or similar transaction. You may take an Advance as follows: (1) Using your Checks. These Checks may only be used by the person(s) whose names are pre-printed on the Checks. We will not cash these Checks. (2) Using any of our ATM's or any ATM which may be provided for your use by another financial institution or company. (3) Using a Cash Advance slip. Cash Advance slips may be obtained from any of our branches or from any bank that accepts the Card. (4) Using the official check mailed to you in response to your request. (5) Using any other service that may be connected to your savings or checking accounts, which may be offered by us, that allows you to take Advances on this Account. (6) Entering into transactions that involve the purchase of items convertible to cash or similar transactions, which we may treat as Advances, including but not limited to wire transfers, money orders, travelers' cheques, gaming transactions, and pay-at-vendors. Advances may also be referred to as Cash Advances or Cash.

2. Delayed Payment. You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each Check or balance transfer check issued which cannot be processed because you are over your credit line, or would be if such check were processed, or your Account is delinquent or closed.

3. Stop Payment Fee. You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each request you make for us to stop payment on a Check or other form of Advance. We must provide us with any information we reasonably require in order to process your stop payment or cancellation request. We do not have to honor any stop payment or cancellation request unless we have a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the Check or other form of Advance is paid or approved for payment. We will not be liable in any way for any stop payment or cancellation request that we honor or fail to honor if we used ordinary care.

4. Limits on Advances. For Advances taken from an ATM, there is a limit for each transaction and a daily limit that you may obtain. 5. Service Charge/Transaction Fee for Advances. For each Advance, there will be a Transaction Fee as disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. Any minimum and maximum Transaction Fees are also disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. The total amount of Transaction Fees will be shown in the descriptive portion of your statement. Transaction Fees are part of the Finance Charge. The addition of Transaction Fees may cause the Annual Percentage Rate on Advances to exceed the nominal Annual Percentage Rate shown on your statement.

Preferred rates. In this event, a Non-Preferred rate up to the maximum Non-Preferred rate (subject to any minimum rate) will apply to all existing and new balances on your Account, and any new balances will remain subject to a Non-Preferred rate until they are paid in full. When we review your Account in connection with our periodic reviews, your Account may again be eligible for Preferred rates for new purchases, new balance transfers and new advances. If, for a time period not to exceed 2 months, the following conditions are met, your Account is on your terms and on all other loans or accounts with us on the same terms, the credit limit on your Account has not been exceeded and any payment on your Account has not been unpaid, notwithstanding the above, we may waive our right to enforce a Non-Preferred rate on all new balances until paid in full or to enforce any rights and there is another occurrence when you do not meet the conditions described above to be eligible for Preferred rates. We may again impose a Non-Preferred rate up to the maximum Non-Preferred rate (subject to any minimum rate) on existing and new balances until they are paid in full. We may obtain consumer credit information from third parties to

We may obtain consumer credit reports from credit bureaus on you at any time in the future. We may use the reports and their contents, as well as information about your Account including the payment and usage history and your other relationships with us and our affiliates, to review your Account in connection with the purpose of determining its eligibility for Preferred rates and/or adjusting the Non-Preferred rates that may apply to your Account.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

IT IS IMPERIAL THAT IF YOU REACH THE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT STAGE OF A DISPUTE THAT YOU MAY BE COVERED TO SETTLE A CLAIM OR DISPUTE THAT IS ARBITRATION EVEN IF YOU WOULD PREFER TO LITIGATE THROUGH A COURT. YOU ARE GIVING UP RIGHTS YOU MIGHT HAVE TO LITIGATE YOUR CLAIMS IN A COURT OR BEFORE A JURY OR TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION WITH RESPECT TO SUCH A CLAIM. OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO COURT SUCH AS DISCOVERY OR THE RIGHT TO APPEAL THE DECISION, MAY NOT BE AVAILABLE IF YOU ARBITRATE OR MAY BE MORE LIMITED. CERTAIN CLAIMS BY EITHER OF US AGAINST THE OTHER SEEKING UP TO $25,000 EXCLUDING INTEREST, COSTS AND FEES, MAY BE RESOLVED BY LITIGATION AND NOT ARBITRATION.

1. Eligible

1. Binding Arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving the purchase of a new car, and shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1. This Arbitration Agreement shall govern the circumstances and conditions of the purchase of the car, and shall be enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1. This Arbitration Agreement shall govern the circumstances and conditions of the purchase of the car, and shall be enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1.

procedures under which claims (as defined below) may be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

2. Claims Covered: Any claim or dispute ("Claim") which term may refer to more than one claim as appropriate for the context in which it is used) by either you or us against the other, or against the employees, agents, or associates of the other arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement, any advertising, solicitation or approval of your credit card Account or selection of either you or us, or resolved by binding arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement governs all Claims, whether such Claims are based on law, statute, contract, regulation, ordinance, tort, common law, constitutional provision, or any legal theory of ground and whether such Claims seek as remedies money damages, penalties, injunctions or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims subject to this Arbitration Agreement include Claims regarding the applicability of this Arbitration Agreement, the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or any prior Cardmember Agreement. As used in this Arbitration Agreement or the term "Claim" is to be given the broadest possible meaning. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Claim may be resolved by litigation and is not subject to arbitration under this Arbitration Agreement if (1) the only remedy that will be sought by the parties is monetary damages; (2) neither party will seek a recovery in excess of $25,000, excluding interest, costs and fees; and (3) the only parties to the litigation will be you and us. If a party brings a Claim to be resolved by arbitration, but the other claims arbitration, the party seeking arbitration may require reasonable assurances from the other party that the conditions are met and that the party wishing to resolve the Claim by litigation will take the action now or in the future to change the nature of the Claim so that it would no longer meet the conditions of the arbitration exception. If such reasonable assurances of the Claim to be resolved by arbitration are not provided, the party seeking such assurance may require the Claim to be resolved by arbitration.

As used in this Agreement:

As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term "Claims" includes claims that arose in the past, or arise in the present or the future. If a party elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration may be conducted as an individual action. The only Claims that may be joined in an individual action under this Arbitration Agreement are (1) those brought by us against you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or (2) those brought by you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or against us. This means that even if a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as those in the form of a private attorney general action, is filed, any Claim between us related to you or we so that the Claims subject to arbitration include Claims that are made as counterclaims, cross-claims, third-party claims, interpleaders or otherwise, and a party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any such Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties "us" means Chase Manhattan Bank U.S.A., N.A., its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, predecessors, successors, directors, any purchaser of your Account, and all of their officers, agents, employees, and assigns of any and all of them. Additionally, we or they shall mean any third party providing any services, products or products in connection with the Account and credit device issued under the Account, merchants that accept and encumbrance issued under the Account, insurance companies, brokers, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives, and, finally, if such a third party is named by us as a co-defendant in any Claim you assert against us, initiation of Arbitration, The name of the arbitrator that chooses the arbitrator shall be chosen by the arbitrator.

3. Initiation of Arbitration. The party filing an arbitration must choose one of the following things: arbitration administrators; American Arbitration Association; JAMS; or National Arbitration Forum. However, if we elect an administrator you will have ten days after receiving notice of our election to request that the arbitration be conducted pursuant to rules of one of the other two arbitration administrators. To exercise your choice, you must notify us of your choice by writing us at P.O. Box 15930, Wilmington, DE 19850-5930. Send us a copy of the notice you received and state which of the other two arbitration administrators you choose. These arbitrators are independent from us. The arbitrator's does not conduct the arbitration. Arbitration is conducted upon the choice of the arbitrator, completed by an impartial third party or the selected arbitrator. Arbitration fees, costs and caps amount shall be paid at a rate chosen by the arbitrator, which you shall be told at a date chosen by the arbitrator, which you decide within the federal judicial district in place you wish to litigate the claim is filed, or at some other place as the arbitrator may determine in writing. You may obtain administrative information about initiation and arbitration fees and amounts due to initiate arbitration by contacting the American Arbitration Association.

waiver of any rights to require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other claims. Any additional or different agreement between you and us regarding arbitration must be in writing. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding, except for any right of appeal under the FAA. In addition, the non-prevailing party may appeal any award that exceeds $100,000 or that includes an award of punitive damages. Any request for an appeal must be filed in writing with the same arbitration administrator within 30 days of the receipt by the non-prevailing party of notice of the original award. The appeal shall be heard before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration administrator. The panel will consider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the majority vote. The cost of the appeal imposed by the arbitration administrator shall be borne by the appealing party. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction.

7. Survivability, survival. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive: (i) termination or changes in the Cardmember Agreement, the Account and the relationship between you and us concerning the Account; such as the issuing of a new account number or the transferring of the balance in the Account to another account; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party; and (iii) any transfer, sale, or assignment of your Account, or any amounts owed on your Account, to any other person. If any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall nevertheless remain in force.

Billing Rights. The Billing Rights notice that contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act will not change from what was disclosed to you under your existing terms, and accordingly that Notice is incorporated herein by reference. 4. Procedures and law applicable in arbitrations. A single, neutral arbitrator will resolve claims. The arbitrator will either be a lawyer with at least ten years experience or a retired or former judge. The arbitrator will be selected in accordance with the rules of the arbitration administrator. The arbitrator will be conducted under the applicable procedures and rules of the arbitration administrator that are in effect on the date the arbitration is filed, unless those procedures and rules are inconsistent with this Arbitration Agreement in which case this Agreement will prevail. These procedures and rules may limit the amount of discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law, and will honor claims of applicable statutes of limitations, and will honor claims of privilege recognized at law. You may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect copyright, accurate information and other confidential information, including the use of protective orders to prohibit disclosure outside the arbitration, if requested to do so by you or us. The arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law, and will not have the power to award relief to, against, or for the benefit of any person who is not a party to the proceeding. The arbitrator may award punitive damages or attorney fees if such damages are authorized by law. The arbitrator will make any award in writing but need not provide a statement of reasons, unless requested by a party. Upon a request by you or us, the arbitrator will provide a brief statement of the reasons for the award.

5. Costs. All your written requests will be charged any reasonable arbitration filing fee, on administrative and hearing fees that you are required to pay to pursue a claim in arbitration up to the amount of $500. We will reimburse you for the initial fee if you paid it and you prevail on your claim. If there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of that hearing. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator and applicable law. However, we will advance or reimburse filing fees and other fees if the arbitration administrator or arbitrator determines there is good reason for requiring us to do so. You ask us and we determine there is good cause for doing so. Each party will bear the expense of the fees and costs of that party's attorneys, experts, witnesses, documents and other expenses, regardless of which party prevails, for arbitration and any appeal (as permitted below), except that the arbitrator shall apply any applicable law in determining whether a party should recover any or all fees and costs from another party.

6. Enforcement, finality, appeals. You or we may bring an action, including a summary or expedited motion to compel arbitration of claims subject to arbitration, or to stay the litigation of any claims pending arbitration, in any court having jurisdiction. Such action may be brought at any time, even if any such claims are part of a lawsuit. Failure or forbearance to enforce this Arbitration Agreement at any particular time, or in connection with any particular claims, will not constitute a

Procedures and law applicable in arbitration. A single, neutral arbitrator will resolve claims. The arbitrator will either be a lawyer with at least ten years experience or a retired or former judge. The arbitration will be conducted under the applicable procedures and rules of the arbitration administrator that are in effect on the date the arbitration is filed unless those procedures and rules are inconsistent with this Arbitration Agreement, in which case this Agreement will prevail. These procedures and rules may limit the amount of discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law consistent with the FAA and applicable statutes of limitations, and will honor claims or privileges recognized at law. You may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect customer Account information and other confidential information, including the use of protective orders to prohibit disclosure outside the arbitration, if requested to do so by you or us. The arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law, and will not have the power to award relief to, against, or for the benefit of any person who is not a party to the proceeding. If the law authorizes such relief, the arbitrator may award punitive damages or attorney fees. The arbitrator will make any award in writing but need not provide a statement of reasons unless requested by a party. Upon a request by you or us, the arbitrator will provide a brief statement of the reasons for the award.

Costs. We will reimburse you for the initial arbitration filing fee paid by you up to the amount of $500 upon receipt of proof of payment. Additionally, if there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of that hearing. The payment of any such hearing fees by us will be made directly to the arbitration administrator selected by you or us pursuant to this Arbitration Agreement. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator and applicable law. However, we will advance or reimburse filing fees and other fees if the arbitration administrator or arbitrator determines there is good reason for requiring us to do so or you ask us and we determine there is good cause for doing so. Each party will bear the expense of the fees and costs of that party's attorneys, experts, witnesses, documents and other expenses, regardless of which party prevails, for arbitration and any appeal (as permitted below), except that the arbitrator shall apply any applicable law in determining whether a party should recover any or all fees and costs from another party.

Enforcement, finality, appeals. Failure of any duty in enforcing this Arbitration Agreement at any time, or in connection with any particular claim, will not constitute a waiver of any rights to require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other claims. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on the parties, unless a party appeals in writing to the arbitration organization within 30 days of issuance of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration organization. The panel will reconsider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. Each party will bear their own fees, costs and expenses for any appeal, but a party may recover any or all fees, costs and expenses from another party, if the majority of the panel of arbitrators, applying applicable law, so determines. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction.
Severability, survival. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive (i) termination or changes in the Cardmember Agreement, the Account, and the relationship between you and us concerning the Account, such as the issuing of a new account number or the transferring of the balance in the Account to another account; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party or any similar proceeding initiated by you or on your behalf;
and (iii) payment of the debt in full by you or by a third party. If any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall nevertheless remain in force.

3. DEFAULT RATES: If your agreement has a section titled either "Default Rate" or "Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility", then the following applies to your account. In that section, if not so already, we are removing the provision that states that the default rate or "non-preferred" rate makes this effect if you fail to make a payment when due to another creditor other than us or one of our related companies. This change does not apply if your account does not have a default or "non-preferred" rate.

If you have questions about these changes, you can call us at the number on the back of your card.

This notice informs you of changes to your agreement.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR CREDIT CARD CUSTOMERS ABOUT CHANGES TO YOUR CARDMEMBER AGREEMENT— PLEASE READ AND RETAIN FOR YOUR RECORDS

Dear Cardmember:

As your credit card company, we value your business. It is important to us that we provide you with timely information regarding your credit card account.

Periodically, we may change various terms and conditions associated with your account. We share this information with you in the form of a Change in Terms disclosure. The Change in Terms disclosure below advises of upcoming changes that will be effective as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2006, except for the Minimum Payment section which will be effective as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2006.
These changes apply to all of your accounts with us, as applicable. We hope that you take the time to review this information carefully. Please keep this notice with your Cardmember Agreement ("agreement") for future reference.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve your credit needs. We look forward to serving those needs in the future.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES:

The changes to your agreement will take effect as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2006, except for the Minimum Payment section which will take effect as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2006. We have summarized below some of these changes. For complete details about all changes, please read the entire amendment. The terms described in this notice that are already in effect on your account will continue to apply. Note that some terms in your agreement may appear with initial capital letters or all lower case letters. Such terms have the same meaning. For example, "Account" means the same as "account."

1. Minimum Payment (if not so already)

The minimum payment calculation will be revised to permit the addition of certain fees and finance charges as part of this minimum payment.

2. Arbitration (if not so already)

The arbitration agreement section provides that arbitration is at the choice of either party, permits the choice of two arbitration administrators, provides for the advancement by us of certain costs to file an arbitration, permits a right of appeal to either party and contains other differences from your existing arbitration terms. Please review the entire arbitration agreement section to fully understand the differences.

3. Default Rate/Non-Preferred Rate (if not so already)

The default rate section or "preferred customer pricing eligibility" section will be revised so that the default rate or "non-preferred" rate will not apply if you fail to make a payment when due to another creditor other than us or one of our related companies.

EFFECTIVE DATE/ANN-ACCEPTANCE INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE ABOVE CHANGES:

The changes summarized above will be effective as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2006, except for the Minimum Payment section that will be effective as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2006. The new terms will apply to current and future balances on your account. You have the right to reject the new terms stated in this Notice. If you wish to reject these terms, you must notify us in writing by December 22, 2005, that you wish to reject them. If you reject these terms, your account will be closed to further use (if it is not already closed). Please include your name, address and account number on the correspondence and mail it to: Cardmember Service, P.O. Box 15089, Wilmington, DE 19850-5089. If you give us notice that you wish to reject these terms, you may not make any more charges to your account. You will, however, be entitled to pay off any outstanding balances on your account in accordance with your applicable account terms. Even if you send us the notice, if you use your Card or account on or after December 22, 2005, you will be deemed to have accepted the new terms and those terms will be applied to you as if you had not sent us any notice. If you send us the notice, please make alternate arrangements to pay any charges you have previously authorized to be made to this account, such as recurring charges.)

AMENDMENTS TO THE AGREEMENT:

In order to implement the above-described change in terms, the following changes, as applicable, will be made to your agreement:

1. MINIMUM PAYMENT: If not so already, the following replaces the section entitled "Minimum Payment":

Minimum Payment: You agree to pay at least the minimum payment due, as shown on your billing statement, so that we receive it by the date and time payment is due. You may pay more than the minimum payment due and may pay the full amount you owe us at any time. If you have a balance that is subject to finance charges, the sooner you pay us, the less you will pay in finance charges because finance charges accrue on your balance each day.

Your billing statement shows your beginning balance and your ending balance (the "New Balance" on your billing statement). If the New Balance is $10.00 or less, your minimum payment due will be the New Balance. Otherwise, it will be the largest of the following: $10.00; 2% of the New Balance; or the sum of 1% of the New Balance, total billed periodic rate finance charges, and any billed late and overlimit fees. As part of the minimum payment due, we also add any amount past due and any amount over your credit line.

Note: If your account has no pre-set spending limit (such as a Visa Signature Card or World MasterCard Card account), then the last two sentences in the second paragraph above are as follows: Otherwise, it will be the largest of the following: $10.00; 2% of the New Balance; or the sum of 1% of the New Balance, total billed periodic rate finance charges, and any billed late fees. As part of the minimum payment due, we also add any amount past due and any amount over your credit access line.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT: PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES THAT ANY DISPUTE MAY BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BRING A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION IN COURT SUCH AS THAT IN THE FORM OF A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION, NOR WILL YOU BE ABLE TO BRING ANY CLAIM IN ARBITRATION AS A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BE PART OF ANY CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION BROUGHT BY ANYONE ELSE, OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. IN THE ABSENCE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, YOU AND WE MAY OTHERWISE HAVE HAD A RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO BRING CLAIMS IN A COURT, BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CASE FILED IN COURT BY OTHERS (INCLUDING CLASS ACTIONS AND OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTIONS). OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO A COURT, SUCH AS DISCOVERY OR THE RIGHT TO APPEAL, THE DECISION MAY BE MORE LIMITED, EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BELOW. THOSE RIGHTS ARE WAIVED. Binding Arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce, and shall be governed by and be enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act (the "FAA"), 9 U.S.C. §1-16 as it may be amended. This Arbitration Agreement sets forth the circumstances and procedures under which claims (as defined below) may be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

Parties Covered. For the purposes of this Arbitration Agreement, "we", "us", and "our" also includes our parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, predecessors, successors, assigns, any purchaser of your Account, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents, and assigns or any and all of them. Additionally, "we", "us" and "our" shall include any third party providing benefits, services, or products in connection with the Account (including but not limited to credit bureaus, merchants that accept any credit device issued under the Account, rewards programs and enrollment services, credit insurance companies, debt collectors, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives) if, and only if, such a third party is named by you as a co-defendant in any claim you assert against us.

Claims Covered. Either you or we may, without the other's consent, elect mandatory, binding arbitration of any claim, dispute or controversy by either you or us against the other, or against the employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, agents or assigns of the other, arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement, any prior Cardmember Agreement, your credit card Account or the advertising, application or approval of your Account ("Claim"). This Arbitration Agreement governs all Claims, whether such Claims are based on law, statute, contract, regulation, ordinance, tort, common law, constitutional provision, or any legal theory of law such as respondent superior, or any other legal or equitable ground and whether such Claims seek remedies money damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims subject to this Arbitration Agreement include Claims regarding the applicability of this Arbitration Agreement or the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or any prior Cardmember Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement includes Claims that arise in the past or arise in the present or the future. As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term Claim is to be given the broadest possible meaning.

Claims subject to arbitration include Claims that are made as counterclaims, cross claims, third party claims, interpleaders or otherwise, and a party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any such Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties.

As an exception to this Arbitration Agreement, you retain the right to pursue in a small claims court any Claim that is within that court's jurisdiction and proceeds on an individual basis. If a party elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration will be conducted as an individual action. Neither you nor we agree to any arbitration on a class or representative basis, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to proceed on such basis. This means that even if a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as that in the form of a private attorney general action, is filed, any Claim between us related to the issues raised in such lawsuits will be subject to an individual arbitration claim if either you or we so elect.

No arbitration will be considered with any other arbitration proceeding without the consent of all parties. The only Claims that may be joined in an individual action under this Arbitration Agreement are (1) those brought by us against you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or (2) those brought by you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy against us.

Initiation of Arbitration. The party filing a Claim in arbitration must choose one of the following two arbitration administrators: American Arbitration Association or National Arbitration Forum. These administrators are independent from us. The arbitrator does not conduct the arbitration. Arbitration is conducted under the rules of the selected arbitration administrator by an impartial third party chosen in accordance with the rules of the selected arbitration administrator and as may be provided in this Arbitration Agreement. Any arbitration hearing that you attend shall be held at a place chosen by the arbitrator or arbitration administrator within the federal judicial district in which you reside at the time the Claim is filed, or at some other place to which you and we agree in writing. You may obtain copies of the current rules of each of the arbitration administrators, information about arbitration and arbitration fees, and instructions for initiating arbitration by contacting the arbitration administrators as follows:

EXHIBIT C

4. Your Responsibility for This Account: You are responsible for all amounts owed on this Account, whether charged by you, a person whom you permit to obtain credit on your Account (such as by lending a person your Card), or any other person using a Card or your Account with actual, implied or apparent authority. You agree that anyone who is issued a Card for your Account (or anyone to whom you lend or give your Card) is authorized to make charges to your Account to the same extent as you and we are not responsible for controlling such use of your Account. Such authority will continue until you revoke it by notifying us, obtaining the Card in your physical possession, and if it is a Card issued to an Authorized User, by also cutting it in half. If you receive a benefit from the use of your Card or Account by another person, such use will not be considered unauthorized. We may require Authorized Users to repay the amount owed for the charges they make.

6. Overdrafts: If you use your Account balance (including any Finance Charge, late fees and charges owed on your Account) to over your credit line at any time during a billing cycle, there will be an Overdraft Fee as disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. This fee will be imposed only once during the billing cycle, but will be imposed in each billing cycle that you are over your credit line. We will authorize the transaction that causes your credit line to be exceeded.

7. Annual Fee: If there is an Annual Fee for the Account you will be billed the Annual Fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. Whether or not you have used the Account, if your Annual Fee has been waived, it will be billed when the waiver period has ended and will then continue to be billed on an annual basis. The Annual Fee is non-refundable.

8. Payments: All payments must be made and received by us in accordance with the payment instructions that appear on or with your monthly statements and accompanying envelopes. Payments must be in United States Dollars and drawn on a United States financial institution or the United States Postal Service. In our sole discretion we will decide how to apply your payments. Although we post your payments as of the business day we receive them as described on your statements, your Total Available Credit may not be restored for up to 15 days after we post your payment. Any payment check which you send us for less than the full balance due that is marked "paid in full" or with a similar notation or that you otherwise tender in full satisfaction of a disputed amount (conditional payments), must be sent to us at the conditional payments address listed on your monthly statement. We reserve the right to void any such check. For example, if it is determined there is no valid dispute, if any such check is received at any other address, we may accept the check and you will still owe any remaining balance. We may refuse to accept any such check by returning it to you, not cashing it or by destroying it. All other payments should be sent to the regular payment address shown on your monthly statements.

9. Immediate Phone Payment Fee: We may, in our discretion, permit you to make payments by authorizing us on your behalf to transfer funds from a deposit or other account to your Account. For each such payment, you will be charged an immediate phone payment processing fee in the amount disclosed in the Pricing Schedule.

10. Account Payment Fee: You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each check or payment instrument given in payment which is returned to us or which we cannot process under our normal operating procedures.

11. Minimum Payment: You may pay either the Minimum Payment or any amount over that up to the New Balance. Your Minimum Payment must be in accordance with our payment instructions and received by the time of day on the Payment Due Date shown on your statement. Your Minimum Payment is calculated by taking the New Balance and deducting any amounts which you have properly notified us in accordance with Billing Error Notice and multiplying that amount by the minimum payment percentage shown in the Pricing Schedule. If the resulting amount is more than the minimum payment, the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date.

12. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is less than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

13. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is more than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

14. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is more than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

15. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is more than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

16. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is more than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

17. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is more than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

18. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is more than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

19. Minimum Payment: If the resulting amount is more than the minimum dollar amount shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be required to be paid by the time of day on the Payment Due Date. If the minimum payment is less than the minimum dollar amount, it will be increased to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount. If the minimum payment is more than the minimum dollar amount, it will be reduced to that minimum payment minimum dollar amount.

any special services such as obtaining any Card on an expedited basis. 16. If Your Card or Check is Returned: We are not responsible if a Seller, Bank or ATM refuses to honor your Card or Check. Although you may have credit available, we may not authorize credit for a particular transaction due to operational difficulties or, in our discretion, for any other appropriate reason.

Transactions made above a certain dollar amount may require authorization before the transaction is approved. The number of transactions you make in one day may be limited by us. This is done for security reasons, and as such, the details of how the authorization system works are not listed in this Agreement. Neither we nor our agents will be responsible if authorization for a transaction is not given. If your Account is overlimit or delinquent, credit authorization for transactions may be declined.

18. Monthly Statement: Each month there is a debit or credit balance of more than $1 or a Finance Charge has been imposed on your Account, we will mail you a statement.

17. Copy Fee: You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each original or copied sales slip, copied statement, and copy of any other record or document that you request. The fee is not owed if a request for such record or document reveals a billing error or unauthorized use on your Account as defined by the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Z.

18. Billing Error: If you have a dispute about your Account, notify us as soon as possible. Please read the Billing Error notice. This notice explains your legal rights about billing errors and defenses under Federal Law and how you must notify us. If any adjustment is made, we will credit your Account.

19. Currency Conversion: If you effect a transaction with your MasterCard card or Visa card in a currency other than U.S. dollars, MasterCard International Incorporated or Visa International, as appropriate, will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount. MasterCard International or Visa International will use its conversion procedure, which is disclosed to institutions that issue MasterCard cards or Visa cards, respectively. Currently, the currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International or Visa International to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars for such transactions is generally either a government-mandated rate or a wholesale rate determined by MasterCard International or Visa International, as appropriate, for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed, increased by an adjustment factor established from time to time by MasterCard International and Visa International, respectively. The currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International or Visa International on the date your transaction is processed by MasterCard International or Visa International may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase or transaction date of the cardholder statement posting date. The adjustment factor that is part of the currency conversion rate is one percent, but may be changed from time to time by MasterCard International or Visa International, respectively. For each such transaction converted into a U.S. Dollar amount that must be converted back into a foreign currency because of a refund or other reversal of the transaction, the same currency conversion rate formula and procedures will be used.

21. Authorization to Provide Information. You authorize us to provide certain information on you and your Account to our affiliates and others, including any company whose name or mark may appear on the Card. Complete details regarding our rights to share information and your right to opt-out of certain information being shared is provided to you when you first receive an Agreement and at least once each calendar year thereafter.

22. Disputing Account Information Reported to Credit Bureaus. We furnish information about your Account to credit information reported by writing us at P.O. Box 15623, Wilmington, DE 19850-5623.

23. Changing the Terms of This Agreement. We may change any of the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation by adding new terms or by deleting or modifying existing terms. We will notify you of any such changes as required by law. Any changes to this Agreement can apply to all outstanding unpaid indebtedness and any new transactions on your Account. We may seek or transfer your Account and any amounts owed on your Account will still be in effect and any time, if we do, this Agreement will still be in effect and any successor will have our rights in this Agreement to the extent assigned.

24. Default and Collection Costs. Your Account will be in default and we can require that the total outstanding balance be paid if: (1) you fail to pay any amount owed under this Agreement when due; (2) you exceed the credit limit in effect on your Account; (3) you do not follow the terms of this Agreement; (4) your ability to pay us is materially impaired (including, but not limited to, bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings that are initiated by or against you); or (5) you default on any other loan or credit obligation you have with us or another creditor. We do not have to notify you or demand payment in order to take this action. If you are in default, we may as a remedy: cancel your credit privileges and require you to pay the unpaid balance immediately; require you to pay interest at the rate of two percent (2%) a month on the unpaid balance when we deem your Account to be six or more billing cycles past due; and require you to pay reasonable attorney's fees, any court costs and other collection costs incurred by us in the collection of any amounts you owe under this Agreement.

25. Cancellation. We may close your Account at any time. You will be responsible for repaying any Purchases, Advances or other outstanding charges that are still due on your Account. Your Card is issued as a way of letting you use your Account. It may not be transferred. If we request the Card(s), you must return them. Any services not described in this Agreement that may be provided from time to time in connection with the Account are not part of this Agreement and may be changed or cancelled at any time without notice or refund.

26. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States and the State of Delaware. Any dispute concerning any item in this Agreement will be resolved by those laws.

27. Telephone Monitoring. You agree that your telephone communications with us may be monitored and recorded to improve customer service and security.

28. Delayed Enforcement. We may delay enforcing or not enforce any of our rights under this Agreement without losing any of them.

29. Severability. The invalidity of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity of any other provision.

30. Consumer Reports. We may obtain consumer credit reports from credit bureaus on you at any time in connection with any extension of credit on your Account, to review your Account, or for other permitted purposes.

SPECIAL RATES

1. Special Rates. From time to time, we may offer you special periodic rates and terms on your Account, either for balance transfer transactions, using special checks, or other written request forms we provide or verbal requests for such transfers which we agree to honor (referred to as "Balance Transfers" for purposes of this Agreement) or for other offers on your Account such as introductory, promotional or other discounted rate offers. If we do, we will advise you of the special rates, how long they will be in effect, the balances to which they will apply, and the terms that will apply when the special rates expire. The terms of this Agreement apply to any such special rates. If a special rate is variable, then the "variable rate" terms of this Agreement (including the Pricing Schedule) will apply. You may lose any special rate that is offered you and regular standard Preferred Pricing will apply, if you fail to make any required minimum payment by the "Payment Due" date. You may lose regular standard Preferred Pricing if you fail to make any required minimum payment by the "Payment Due" date. You may lose regular standard Preferred Pricing if you fail to make any required minimum payment by the "Payment Due" date. You may lose regular standard Preferred Pricing if you fail to make any required minimum payment by the "Payment Due" date.

2. Balance Transfers. Balance Transfers are transactions that are treated as Purchases, even as noted in this Agreement or any other offer we make to you. These transactions will not be eligible for the price period for Purchases, except as stated in the terms of the price period for Purchases. Except as stated in the terms of any Balance Transfer offer made to you, we may identify balance transfers and the related promotional balances by different terms such as "Transferred Balance" or "Balance Transfer." If a check or other form of transfer for a Balance Transfer transaction is used to pay any amounts you owe to any Morgan Chase bank or company, is made payable to cash, is received by us and posted to your Account after the expiration date of the offer, is otherwise used in a way that does not regular balances you owe to other creditors, to your Account or is used in any way not specified in the promotional offer we make to you, we reserve the right to refuse to honor that Balance Transfer transaction or to treat it as an Advance.

3. Transfers for Balance Transfers. For each Balance Transfer transaction described in any offer we may make to you, we may charge a Transaction Fee. The Transaction Fee is the amount disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. This fee may be reduced in our sole discretion in any offer we make to you. Transaction Fees are part of the Finance Charge. The addition of Balance Transfer Transaction Fees may cause the Annual Percentage Rate for Balance Transfer transactions to exceed the nominal Annual Percentage Rate shown on your statement.

TERMS FOR ADVANCES

1. Advance. An Advance is a cash loan or similar transaction. You may take an Advance as follows: (1) Using your Checks. These Checks may only be used by the person(s) whose names are pre-printed on the Checks. We will not cash these Checks. (2) Using any of our ATM's or any ATM, which may be provided for your use by another financial institution or company. (3) Using a Cash Advance slip. Cash Advances may be obtained from any of our branches or from any bank that accepts the Card. (4) Using the official check mailed to you in response to your request. (5) Using any other service that may be connected to your savings or checking accounts, which may be offered by us, that allows you to take Advances on this Account. (6) Entering into transactions that involve the purchase of items convertible to cash or similar transactions, which we may treat as Advances, including but not limited to wire transfers, money orders, travel tickets, cheques, gaming transactions, and back payments. Advances may also be referred to as Cash Advances or Cash.

2. Delayed Check. You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each Check or balance transfer check issued which cannot be processed because you are over your credit line, or would be if such check were processed, of your Account is delinquent or closed.

3. Stop Payment Fee. You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each request you make for a stop payment on a Check or other form of payment. You must provide us with any information we reasonably require in order to process your stop payment or cancellation request. We do not have to honor any stop payment or cancellation request unless we have a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the Check or other form of Advance is paid or approved for payment. We will not be liable in any way for any stop payment or cancellation request that we honor or fail to honor if we used ordinary care.

4. Limits on Advances. For Advances taken from an ATM, there is a limit for each transaction and a daily limit that you may obtain. (5) Service Charge/Transaction Fee for Advances. For each Advance, there will be a Transaction Fee as disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. Any minimum and maximum Transaction Fees are also disclosed in the Pricing Schedule. The total amount of Transaction Fees will be shown in the descriptive portion of your statement. Transaction Fees are part of the Finance Charge. The addition of Transaction Fees may cause the Annual Percentage Rate on Advances to exceed the nominal Annual Percentage Rate shown on your statement.

8. : Our Responsibilities to You or Checks. We may not accept your checks if: 1) by paying a Check or our check you would over your credit line; 2) your Check or payment check is postdated; 3) your Cards or Checks have been reported lost or stolen; 4) your Account has been cancelled or has expired; if a returned check is paid and as a result any other check is not paid, we are not responsible. You may not use a check to pay any amount you owe under this Agreement.

TERMS FOR PURCHASERS

You may use your Account to purchase or lease goods and services or for loading services when making guaranteed reservations or advance deposits.

TERMS FOR BALANCE TRANSFERS, ADVANCES AND PURCHASES

[illegible]

The accounting each of the average daily balances as follows: 500 each day in the billing cycle, we have 100 days' outstanding balance for Balance Transfer. Advances and Purchases (an amount that includes interest, advances and finance charges, fees and other charges from optional billing services), and add any new balance transfers, advances, purchases, or other debts to the appropriate balance. We also add the balance of Balance Transfers, Advances or Purchases made by the applicable daily periodic rate for it more than 25 days after the closing date of the account. We then subtract from the appropriate balance any payments or credits made after the closing date. This gives us the daily balances for Advances, Advances and Purchases. We then add all of the daily balances, separately for Balance Transfers, advances and purchases, including days which end with a credit balance, and we get a sum by the number of days in the billing cycle. This is the average daily balance for the billing cycle. This is used to calculate the finance charges for the billing cycle and to the appropriate purchases balance, except for any

 Then we multiply each applicable fee

Then we multiply each average daily balance by the applicable daily Periodic Rate, and then by the number of days in the billing cycle. The daily Periodic Rate will equal 1/365th of the Annual Percentage Rate. The daily Periodic Rate and Annual Percentage Rate are disclosed in the applicable portion of the Pricing Schedule as may be amended from time to time. These FINANCE CHARGES determined by Periodic Rate for Balance Transfers, Advances and Purchases are added to any Transaction Fees to get the combined amount of Finance Charge shown on your monthly statement. There is no charge for a late payment. There is a minimum FINANCE CHARGE of one percent (1%) of the Finance Charge for Purchases is imposed.

There will not be a cash advance Finance Charge imposed.

as well as the amount of any cash advance. Finance charges on purchases if we receive payment for this "New Balance" by the first day of the "Payment Due Date" shown on the statement. (This is known as the "grace period.") By the second Finance Charges for new purchases for the monthly cycle in which they are posted to your Account. You may also repay with a "Previous Balance" or zero at the end of the cycle. The time of day in the "Payment Due Date" shown on your previous monthly statement. Payments must be in accordance with our payment instructions. There will be no charge for late payments unless the terms of the Balance Transfer offer Period. After the early reduction period, the early reduction will be applied to the balance of the account.

Some "Preferred" rates may include Rates applied to the balances and the outstanding balance of the "Preferred" rate in the Pricing Schedule. Where the Pricing Schedule includes a "Variable Rate Index and Margin" information for a particular rate that applies to your Account, that rate is a variable rate and the disclosure below regarding variable rates apply for that rate. Where the Pricing Schedule does not include such "Variable Rate Index and Margin" information for any particular rate (as indicated by an "X" for "not applicable" of the balance sheet) for any particular rate in the Pricing Schedule, that rate is fixed and the terms "Preferred" or "Non-Preferred" that rate is subject to below. "Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility" section that appears below. When your Account satisfies the "Preferred Customer Pricing" conditions, the "Preferred" rates may apply; when it does not, the "Non-Preferred" rates may apply; when it Rates apply to balances incurred before and after a certain date or transaction, we may identify such balances in promotional offers, on statements or otherwise using terms such as "Current" or "New" to refer to balances subject to promotional rates or new transactions, and "Prior" or "Old" to refer to balances subject to regular rates. For example, different rates may apply to balances incurred before and after the first a balance transfer subject to a promotional rate offer posted to your Account, or to balances incurred before and after your Account becomes eligible for Preclaim rates after a Non-Preclaiming year in effect. If the Periodic Rule for one type of balance on your Account is the same as the Periodic Rule for another, balances, we may combine them and refer to those combined balances as Purchases, Balance, and refer to those balances as Veritas as applicable.

3. Variable Rates. Accounts receivable ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE that apply to your rate are variable rates (see the Pricing Schedule) they may increase or decrease from one billing cycle to another. These rates are based on the value of an index (the "index") to which we add a margin. The index and margin are in the Pricing Schedule. The index plus the margin determine the ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. If this index increases, the margin and rate to those increases. Balance transfers of funds as applicable.

INTEREST RATE. The Index Rate is not published on the relevant date, the Index Rate will be set on the next business day. The Index Rate is the Prime Rate published in The Wall Street Journal, New York, New York, plus 1.00%.

ADJUSTMENT. The Index Rate will be adjusted for any change in the Prime Rate published in The Wall Street Journal, New York, New York, plus 1.00%.

TERMINATION. The Index Rate will be terminated if the Index Rate is not published on the relevant date, the Index Rate will be set on the next business day.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION. The Index Rate is not published on the relevant date, the Index Rate will be set on the next business day.

The daily Periodic Rate for Balloons Trademark Purchases is the rate a particular bank at any given time. The daily Periodic Rate for Balloons Trademark Purchases increases and decreases when the index increases on the relevant date and decreases when the index increases on the following date. An increase in the rate may cause you to pay a higher rate than a higher minimum monthly payment and may cause you to pay a lower rate than a lower minimum monthly payment. Although the rate may cause you to pay a smaller amount, you must pay the minimum monthly payment. Any limit on the amount of the Periodic Rate may change at any time. The minimum monthly payment is set forth in the Pricing Schedule, under which it may change.

4. Preferred and Non-Preferred Paying Eligibility. "Preferred" and "Non-Preferred" rates appear in the "Paying Schedule," and every month on your account. Your account will be reviewed each month to determine if the Preferred or Non-Preferred rates will be revised. If a Non-Preferred rate is revised, we may change your interest rate (subject to any minimum rate) described in your Agreement for each occurrence when you do not meet the conditions described below to be eligible for Preferred rates. Any changes in your interest rates as a result of the monthly reviews cycle ending on the review date. To be eligible for the

Preferred rates. In this event, a Non-Preferred rate up to the maximum Non-Preferred rate (subject to any minimum rate) will apply to all existing and new balances on your Account and subsequent monthly reviews. When we review your Account in 12 months, the following conditions will apply: your Account may again be open, you have made the required minimum payments when due on your Account and on all other loans or accounts with us, and your other creditors, the credit report on your Account has not been updated and any payment on your Account has been returned unpaid. If any of the above, we may waive our rights, such as our right to enforce a Non-Preferred rate on existing and new balances until paid in full or to enforce any minimum Non-Preferred rate. However, if we do waive any of our rights and there is another occurrence when you do not meet the conditions described above to be eligible for Preferred rates, we may again impose a Non-Preferred rate up to the maximum Non-Preferred rate (subject to any minimum rate) on all existing and new balances until they are paid in full.

We may obtain consumer credit reports from credit bureaus on you at any time in the future. We may use the reports and their contents, as well as information about your other relationships with us and our affiliates, history and your Account including for the purpose of determining eligibility for Preferred rates and for establishing the Non-Preferred rates that may apply to your Account.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

IT IS AGREED THAT YOU HAVE READ THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT CAREFULLY AND UNDERSTAND THAT YOU MAY BE REQUIRED TO SETTLE A CLAIM OR DISPUTE THAT IS COVERED BY THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, THAT AN ARBITRATION EVEN IF YOU WOULD PREFER TO LITIGATE YOUR CLAIM IN COURT, YOU ARE GIVING UP RIGHTS YOU MIGHT HAVE OR TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION OR BEFORE A JURY OR TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION WITH RESPECT TO SUCH A CLAIM. OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO COURT SUCH AS DISCOVERY OR THE RIGHT TO APPEAL THE DECISION, MAY NOT BE AVAILABLE BY EITHER OF US AGAINST THE OTHER SEEKING UP TO $25,000 EXCLUDING INTEREST, COSTS AND FEES. MAY BE RESOLVED BY LITIGATION AND NOT ARBITRATION.

1. Summary Arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. and the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. This Arbitration Agreement shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. and the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.

procedures under which claims (as defined below) may be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

2. Claims Covered. Any claim or dispute ("Claim") which term may refer to more than one claim as appropriate for the context in which it is used) by either you or us against the other, or against the employees, agents, or assigns of the other arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement, any advertising, application or approval of your credit card Account or this selection of either you or us, be resolved by binding arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement governs all Claims, whether such Claims are based on law, statute, contract, regulation, ordinance, tort, common law, constitution, provision, or any legal theory or ground and whether such Claims seek as remedies money damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims subject to this Arbitration Agreement include money damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims subject to this Arbitration Agreement include Claims regarding the applicability of this Arbitration Agreement or the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or the Cardmember Agreement. As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term "Claim" is to be given the broadest possible meaning. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Claim may be resolved by litigation and is not subject to arbitration under the Arbitration Agreement if (1) the only party to the litigation is the other party to the parties is monetary damages; (2) neither party will seek a recovery in excess of $25,000, excluding interest, costs and fees; and (3) the only parties to the litigation will be you and us. If one party brings a Claim to be resolved by arbitration, but the other party brings a Claim to be resolved by litigation, the Claim will be resolved by arbitration. The party seeking arbitration may require the other party to waive its right to litigate the Claim by filing the Claim in court or in the future to change the nature of the Claim to that it would be subject to arbitration. If such reasonable assurance is not provided, the party seeking such assurance may require the Claim to be resolved by arbitration.

As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term "Claims" includes claims that arise in the past, or arise in the present or the future. If a party elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration will be conducted as an individual action. The only Claims that may be joined in an individual action under this Arbitration Agreement are (1) those brought by us against you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or (2) those brought by you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or (3) those brought against us. This means that even if a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as those in the form of a private attorney general action, is filed, any claim between us related to the dispute raised in such lawsuit will be subject to arbitration. If you or we object, the claim subject to arbitration will be resolved by arbitration. Claims subject to arbitration include Claims for breach of contract, tort, fraud, or other claims. Third-party claims, interpleader or other claims, and a party who brings a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any such Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties. For the purposes of this Arbitration Agreement, "we" means Chase Manhattan Bank USA, N.A., its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, predecessors, successors, assignees, any purchaser of your Account, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents, and assigns or any and all of them. Additionally, "we" or "us" shall mean any third party providing services, services, or products in connection with the Account (including but not limited to credit bureaus, merchants that accept our credit cards, third parties that provide services to the Account, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents, and assigns or any and all of them). You agree to arbitrate any Claims you assert against us.

3. Initiation of Arbitration. The party filing an arbitration must choose one of the following: (a) arbitration administered by the National Arbitration Association; (b) arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association; (c) arbitration administered by the JAMS; or (d) arbitration administered by the Arbitration Forum. However, if we elect an arbitration procedure, you will have ten days after receiving notice of our election to request that the arbitration be conducted pursuant to the rules of one of the other two arbitration administrators to exercise your choice. You must notify us of your choice by writing us at P.O. Box 15533, Minneapolis, DE 19850-5333. Send us a copy of the notice you received and state which of the administrator you have chosen. The administrator does not conduct the arbitration. Arbitration is conducted under the rules of the administrator chosen by an impartial third party chosen by the administrator. Any arbitration hearing that you attend shall be held at a place chosen by the arbitrator or arbitrators, which may be in the federal judicial district in which you reside at the time the Claim is filed or at some other place to which you and the arbitrator agree in writing. You may obtain copies of the arbitration rules of each of the three arbitration administrators by writing to the administrator of your choice. You may obtain copies of the arbitration rules of each of the three arbitration administrators by writing to the administrator of your choice.

Procedures and law applicable in arbitrations. A single, neutral arbitrator will resolve claims. The arbitrator will either be a lawyer with at least ten years experience or a retired or former judge. The arbitration will be conducted under the applicable procedures and rules of the arbitration administrator that are in effect on the date the arbitration is filed unless those procedures and rules are inconsistent with this Arbitration Agreement, in which case this Agreement will prevail. These procedures and rules may limit the amount of discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law consistent with the FAA and applicable statutes of limitations, and will honor claims of privilege recognized at law. You may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect customer Account information and other confidential information, including the use of protective orders to prohibit disclosure outside the arbitration, if requested to do so by you or us. The arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law, and will not have the power to award relief to, against, or for the benefit of any person who is not a party to the proceeding. If the law authorizes such relief, the arbitrator may award punitive damages or attorney fees. The arbitrator will make any award in writing but need not provide a statement of reasons unless requested by a party. Upon a request by you or us, the arbitrator will provide a brief statement of the reasons for the award.

Costs. We will reimburse you for the initial arbitration filing fee paid by you up to the amount of $500 upon receipt of proof of payment. Additionally, if there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of that hearing. The payment of any such hearing fees by us will be made directly to the arbitration administrator selected by you or us pursuant to this Arbitration Agreement. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator and applicable law. However, we will advance or reimburse filing fees and other fees if the arbitration administrator or arbitrator determines there is good reason for requiring us to do so or you ask us and we determine there is good reason for doing so. Each party will bear the expense of the fees and costs of that party's attorneys, experts, witnesses, documents and other expenses, regardless of which party prevails, for arbitration and any appeal (as permitted below), except that the arbitrator shall apply any applicable law in determining whether a party should recover any or all fees and costs from another party.

Enforcement, finality, appeals. Failure or any delay in enforcing this Arbitration Agreement at any time, or in connection with any particular claims, will not constitute a waiver of any rights to require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other claims. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on the parties, unless a party appeals in writing to the arbitration administrator within 30 days of issuance of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration organization. The panel will reconsider all factual and legal issues anew, below the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. Each party will bear their own fees, costs and expenses for any appeal, but a party may recover any or all fees, costs and expenses from another party, if the majority of the panel of arbitrators, applying applicable law, so determines. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction. Severability, survival. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive (i) termination or changes in the Cardmember Agreement, the Account and the relationship between you and us concerning the Account, such as the issuing of a new account number or the transferring of the balance in the Account to another account; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party or any similar proceeding initiated by you or on your behalf; and (iii) payment of the debt in full by you or by a third party, if any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall nevertheless remain in force.

2. DEFAULT RATES: If your agreement has a section titled either "Default Rate" or "Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility," then the following applies to your account. In that section, if not so already, we are removing the provision that states that the default rate or "non-preferred" rate shall take effect if you fail to make a payment when due to another creditor other than us or one of our related companies. This change does not apply if your account does not have a default or "non-preferred" rate.

If you have questions about these changes, you can call us at the number on the back of your card.

This notice informs you of changes to your agreement. Please keep it with your original Cardmember Agreement.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR CREDIT CARD CUSTOMERS ABOUT CHANGES TO YOUR CARDMEMBER AGREEMENT— PLEASE READ AND RETAIN FOR YOUR RECORDS

Dear Cardmember:

As your credit card company, we value your business. It is important to us that we provide you with timely information regarding your credit card account.

Periodically, we may change various terms and conditions associated with your account. We share this information with you in the form of a Change in Terms disclosure. The Change in Terms disclosure below describes all upcoming changes that will be effective as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2006, except for the Minimum Payment section which will be effective as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2006. These changes apply to all of your accounts with us, as applicable. We hope that you take the time to review this information carefully. Please keep this notice with your Cardmember Agreement ("agreement") for future reference.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve your credit needs. We look forward to serving those needs in the future.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES:

The changes to your agreement will take effect as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2006, except for the Minimum Payment section which will take effect as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2006. We have summarized below some of these changes. For complete details about all changes, please read the entire amendment. The terms described in this notice that are already in effect on your account will continue to apply. Note that some terms in your agreement may appear with initial capital letters or all lower case letters. Such terms have the same meaning. For example, "Account" means the same as "account."

1. Minimum Payment (if not so already)

The minimum payment calculation will be revised to permit the addition of certain fees and finance charges as part of the minimum payment.

2. Arbitration (if not so already)

The arbitration agreement section provides that arbitration is at the choice of either party, permits the choice of two arbitration administrators, provides for the advancement by us of certain costs to file an arbitration, permits a right of appeal to either party and contains other differences from your existing arbitration terms. Please review the entire arbitration agreement section to fully understand the differences.

3. Default Rate/Non-Preferred Rate (if not so already)

The default rate section or "preferred customer pricing eligibility" section will be revised so that the default rate or "non-preferred" rate will not apply if you fail to make a payment when due to another creditor other than us or one of our related companies.

EFFECTIVE DATE/NON-ACCEPTANCE INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE ABOVE CHANGES:

The changes summarized above will be effective as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2008, except for the Minimum Payment section that will be effective as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2008. The new terms will apply to current and future balances on your account. You have the right to reject the new terms stated in this Notice. If you wish to reject these terms, you must notify us in writing by December 31, 2008, that you wish to reject them. If you reject these terms, your account will be closed to further use (if it is not already closed). Please include your name, address and account number on the correspondence and mail it to: Cardmember Service, P.O. Box 15088, Wilmington, DE 19850-5088. If you give us notice that you wish to reject these terms, you may not make any more charges to your account. You will, however, be entitled to pay off any outstanding balances on your account in accordance with your applicable account terms. Even if you send us the notice, if you use your Card or account on or after December 22, 2008, you will be deemed to have accepted the new terms and those terms will be applied to you as if you had not sent us any notice. (If you send us the notice, please make alternate arrangements to pay any charges you have previously authorized to be made to this account, such as recurring charges.)

AMENDMENTS TO THE AGREEMENT:

In order to implement the above-described changes in terms, the following changes, as applicable, will be made to your agreement:

- 1. MINIMUM PAYMENT: If not so already, the following replaces the section entitled "Minimum Payment":
Minimum Payment: You agree to pay at least the minimum payment due, as shown on your billing statement, so that we receive it by the date and time payment is due. You may pay more than the minimum payment due and may pay the full amount you owe us at any time. If you have a balance that is subject to finance charges, the sooner you pay us, the less you will pay in finance charges because finance charges accrue on your balance each day.
Your billing statement shows your beginning balance and your ending balance (the "New Balance" on your billing statement). If the New Balance is $10.00 or less, your minimum payment due will be the New Balance. Otherwise, it will be the largest of the following: $10.00; 2% of the New Balance; or the sum of 1% of the New Balance, total billed periodic rate finance charges, and any billed late and overpaid fees. As part of the minimum payment due, we also add any amount past due and any amount over your credit line.
Note: If your account has no pre-set spending limit (such as a Visa Signature Card or World MasterCard account), then the last two sentences in the second paragraph above are as follows: Otherwise, it will be the largest of the following: $10.00; 2% of the New Balance; or the sum of 1% of the New Balance, total billed periodic rate finance charges, and any billed late fees. As part of the minimum payment due, we also add any amount past due and any amount over your credit access line.

2. ARBITRATION: If not so already, the following replaces the section entitled "ARBITRATION" or "ARBITRATION AGREEMENT":

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT: PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES THAT ANY DISPUTE MAY BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BRING A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION IN COURT SUCH AS THAT IN THE FORM OF A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION. NOR WILL YOU BE ABLE TO BRING ANY CLAIM IN ARBITRATION AS A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BE PART OF ANY CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION BROUGHT BY ANYONE ELSE, OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. IN THE ABSENCE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, YOU AND WE MAY OTHERWISE HAVE HAD A RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO BRING CLAIMS IN A COURT, BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CASE FILED IN COURT BY OTHERS (INCLUDING CLASS ACTIONS AND OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTIONS). OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO A COURT, SUCH AS DISCOVERY OR THE RIGHT TO APPEAL THE DECISION MAY BE MORE LIMITED. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BELOW, THOSE RIGHTS ARE WAIVED.
Binding Arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving insurance contracts, and shall be governed by and be enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act (the "FAA"), 9 U.S.C. §1-16 as it may be amended. This Arbitration Agreement sets forth the circumstances and procedures under which claims (as defined below) may be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

Parties Covered. For the purposes of this Arbitration Agreement, "we," "us," and "our" also includes our parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, predecessors, successors, assigns, any purchaser of your Account, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents, and assigns or any and all of them. Additionally, "we," "us" and "our" shall include any third party providing benefits, services, or products in connection with the Account (including but not limited to credit bureaus, merchants that accept any credit device issued under the Account, rewards programs and enrollment services, credit, insurance companies, debt collectors, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives) if, and only if, such a third party is named by you as a co-defendant in any claim you assert against us.

Claims Covered. Either you or we may, without the other's consent, elect mandatory, binding arbitration of any claim, dispute or controversy by either you or us against the other, or against the employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, beneficiaries, agents or assigns of the other, arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement, any prior Cardmember Agreement, your credit Card Account or the advertising, application or approval of your Account ("Claim"). This Arbitration Agreement governs all Claims, whether such Claims are based on law, statute, contract, regulation, ordinance, tort, common law, constitutional provision, or any legal theory of law such as respondeat superior, or any other legal or equitable ground and whether such Claims seek to remedy money damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims subject to this Arbitration Agreement include Claims regarding the applicability of this Arbitration Agreement or the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or any prior Cardmember Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement includes Claims that arise in the past, or arise in the present or the future. As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term Claim is to be given the broadest possible meaning.

Claims subject to arbitration include Claims that are made as counterclaims, cross claims, third party claims, interpleaders or otherwise, and a party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any such Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties.

As an exception to this Arbitration Agreement, you retain the right to pursue in a small claims court any Claim that is within that court's jurisdiction and proceeds on an individual basis. If a party elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration will be conducted as an individual action. Neither you nor we agree to any arbitration on a class or representative basis, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to proceed on such basis. This means that even if a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as that in the form of a private attorney general action, is filed, any Claim between us related to the issues raised in such lawsuits will be subject to an individual arbitration claim if either you or we so elect.

No arbitration will be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding without the consent of all parties. The only Claims that may be joined in an individual action under this Arbitration Agreement are (1) those brought by us against you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or (2) those brought by you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy against us.

Selection of Arbitration. The party filing a Claim in arbitration must choose one of the following two arbitration administrators: American Arbitration Association or National Arbitration Forum. These administrators are independent from us. The administrator does not conduct the arbitration. Arbitration is conducted under the rules of the selected arbitration administrator by an impartial third party chosen in accordance with the rules of the selected arbitration administrator and as may be provided in this Arbitration Agreement. Any arbitration hearing that you attend shall be held at a place chosen by the arbitrator or arbitration administrator within the federal judicial district in which you reside at the time the Claim is filed, or at some other place to which you and we agree in writing. You may obtain copies of the current rules of each of the arbitration administrators. Information about arbitration and arbitration fees, and instructions for initiating arbitration by contacting the arbitration administrators as follows:

Holder Agreement governing your Account is being replaced by the new Cardmember Agreement (the "Agreement") set forth in this Notice. The new terms of the Agreement will be effective for billing cycles beginning on and after May 9, 2002. For your convenience, we have summarized below the most important changes to the Agreement. These summarized new terms apply to those new terms. However, if the new terms are not outlined in an entire paragraph or section, we have put an asterisk (*) before the heading and underlined it rather than the entire paragraph or section. Please read the new terms carefully before the new terms take effect. If you do not agree to accept those new terms, you may close your Account. The Agreement will automatically apply to your Account on the date of the new terms. Once the terms go into effect, they will apply to all future balances and any future balances and transactions on your Account. Please note that some of the terms described in the Agreement are new to your Account.

Minimum Payment. The Minimum Payment will be the greater of 2% of the new balance ($10 minimum) or the total amount of any past due amounts.

of the United States and the State of Delaware. Transfers, Calculation of Finance Charges for Balances Transferred, and Purchases: Subject to the terms of the Grace Period and the Finance Charge Period, you have the right to choose when your Finance Charges for purchases will be due. Advances and Balances Transferred: Balances transferred from the Finance Charge Period begin to accrue on the date of each transaction. Balances Transferred: Balances transferred from or to your Account, including the Finance Charge Period, are posted to your Account. The Finance Charges and Balances Transferred average daily balance (including new transactions) calculations, that determine the balances to which the applicable daily periodic rate is applied, will provide that an amount equal to the previous day's ending balance multiplied by the applicable daily periodic rate will accrue on and be added to your Account balances each day. Further, unpaid Finance Charges, fees and other charges from previous billing cycles will be included in the appropriate beginning balances in your Account balances each day.

- Grace period. The grace period to avoid finance charges cycles will be increased from 25 to 26 days.

- Grace Period. Any on Purchases will be not less than 22 days.
- Variable Rate. For any variable rate on your Account, the Variable Rate, as determined by the Pricing

In your letter, please include your name, address, and a statement that you do not want the Arbitration Agreement; the Other New Terms, or both, to apply to your Account. If you do not specify which new terms you choose not to accept, we will assume that you choose not to accept both the Arbitration Agreement and the Other New Terms and your Account will be closed. Your letter must be mailed to Cardmember Services, P.O. Box 15769, Wilmington, DE 19850-5768. We must receive your written letter by the limit indicated and at the address indicated or your choice(s) will not be effective. It is not sufficient to telephone us. If your letter received by May 2, 2002 and you do not accept the Other New Terms, those new terms will not apply to your Account and you must pay off any outstanding balances on your Account in accordance with the payment and other applicable terms of your account.

cardholder Agreement and this Agreement
(Actual) MASTERCARD® and VISA®
CARDMEMBER AGREEMENT

GENERAL TERMS

GENERAL TERMS

Meaning of Words Used in This Agreement. "Agreement" means this document (which has a binding arbitration provision) which you agree to sign; "you," "your" or "yours" means each person who applied for the Visa or MasterCard Bank USA, National Association, "Account" means the Visa or MasterCard Account for which you were issued cards and checks imprinted with your Account number. "Authorized User" means any person to whom you have given permission to use your Account. "Card" means the Visa or MasterCard card(s) issued in connection with your Account. "Check" means Check Convenience Checks drawn on us or one of our affiliates. "Seller" means any merchant on us or one of our affiliates.

2. Sellers of This Account. This Account may be used for purchases from any Seller that accepts the Card and for Advances. You agree not to make or permit to be made any illegal transactions on your Account through the use of a Card.

3. To Use Your Cards. You must sign the panel on the back of each Card. Authorized Users of any additional Cards should sign their names on the panel on the back of those Cards. For purchases, you will have to sign a sales slip that has your name, the Seller's name, and your account number on it, unless you let the Seller sign for you.

6. Have: Personal History

4. Full Responsibility for This Account. You are responsible for all amounts owed on this Account, whether charged by you, a person whom you permit to obtain credit on your Account (such as by sending a person your Card), or any other person using a Card or your Account with actual, implied or apparent authority. You agree that anyone who is issued a Card for your Account (or anyone to whom you lend or give your Card) is authorized to make charges to your Account to the same extent as you and we are not responsible for controlling such use of your Account. Such authority will continue until you revoke it by notifying us obtaining the Card in your physical possession and if it is a Card issued to an Authorized User, by also cutting it in half. If you receive a benefit from the use of your Card or Account by another person, such use will not be considered unauthorized. We may require Authorized Users to repay the amount owed for the charges they make.

5. Your Credit Line. Your credit line is the most you may owe on your Account at any time. You will be told the amount of your credit line. You may not use your Account in any way that would cause you to go over your credit line. You may also be asked to immediately pay for any amount over your credit line. We may change your credit line or operate the amount of your credit line (not available credit, for Purchases and Advances. If the credit line is changed or limited, you will be notified.

Annual Overdraft Fee: If your Account balance (including any Finance Charge, Interest, and charges) goes on your Account for over your credit limit at any time during a billing cycle, then your Annual Overdraft Fee is disclosed in the Billing Schedule. This fee will be imposed only once during the billing cycle, but will be imposed in each billing cycle that you are over your credit limit. We hereby authorize the Institution that issues your credit line to be assessed.

7. Annual Fee: If there is an Annual Fee for this Account, you will be billed the Annual Fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule, whether or not you have used the Account. If your Annual Fee has been waived, it will be billed when the waiver period has ended, and you will then continue to be billed on an annual basis. The Annual Fee is non-refundable.

6. Payments. All payments must be made and received by us in accordance with the payment instructions that appear on or with your monthly statements and accompanying envelopes. Payments must be in United States Dollars and drawn on a United States financial institution or the United States Postal Service. In our sole discretion we will decide how to apply your payments. Although we post your payments as of the business day we receive them as described or your statements, your Total Available Credit may not be restored for up to 15 days after we post your payment. Any payment check which you send us for less than the full balance due that is marked "paid in full" or with a similar notation or that you otherwise tender in full satisfaction of a defaulted amount (conditional payments), must be sent to us at the conditional payments address listed on your monthly statement. We reserve the right to void any such payment. For example, if it is determined there is no valid dispute and any such check is received at any other address, we may accept the check and you will still owe any remaining balance. We may refuse to accept any such check by returning it to you, not cashing it or by destroying it. All other payments should be sent to the regular payment address shown on your monthly statements.

2. Immediate Phone Payment Fee. We may in our discretion permit you to make payments by authorizing us on your behalf to transfer funds from a deposit or other account to your Account. For each such payment, you will be charged an Immediate Phone Payment processing fee in the amount published in our Pricing Schedule.

10. Redemption Payment. You will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each check or payment instrument given in payment which is returned to us or which we cannot process under our normal operating procedures.

Minimum Payment. You may pay either the Minimum Payment or any amount over that up to the New Balance. Your Minimum Payment must be in accordance with our payment instructions and received by the time of day on the Payment Due Date.

your Minimum Payment is calculated by taking the New Balance and reducing it by amounts which you have properly paid in advance (see the table after table 1) and multiplying the amount by the minimum payment percentage shown in the Pricing Schedule. If the resulting amount is more than the minimum payment (minimum dollar amount) shown in the Pricing Schedule, it will be reduced to the lesser of the two. If the resulting amount is less than the minimum payment (minimum dollar amount), it will be increased to that minimum payment (minimum dollar amount). If this Minimum Payment is calculated at a rate less than the Total Amount Due, you will be allowed to prepay your minimum payment but that payment instead will apply to the total finance charge (rounded up to the nearest dollar). We add to your Minimum Payment any Past Due Amounts and, at our option, any amounts in arrears of your credit line. (The Minimum Payment will never be more than the New Balance.)

NO PAYMENT CHARGE: There will be a late payment charge if the amount disclosed in the Pricing Schedule is not received in accordance with our payment instructions; the minimum payment by the time of day on the Payment Due Date shown on your monthly statement.

3. If Your Card(s) or Check(s) are Lost or Stolen. If someone uses your Card(s) or Checks without your permission or if they are lost or stolen, contact us immediately. You may call or write, toll free 1-800-441-7681 anytime from all 50 states, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. For all other locations call 813-884-2997 collect. Write to: P.O. Box 55919, Wilmington, DE 19850-5919. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your Card(s) in an amount not to exceed $50 in any case where your Card(s) are lost or stolen and you are able to contact us within twenty-four (24) hours. You will not be liable for such unauthorized use if you contact us in the manner prescribed immediately above within the twenty-four (24) hour time frame or before the unauthorized use occurs.

City Hall You may be charged a Card Application Fee in the amount disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for 15. If Your Card or Check is Refused. We are not responsible if a Seller, Bank or ATM refuses to honor your Card or Check. Although you may have credit available, we may not authorize credit for a particular transaction due to operational difficulties or, in our discretion, for any other appropriate reason. Transactions made above the limit are subject to a 2% penalty.

When above a certain dollar amount may require authorization before the transaction is approved. The number of transactions you make in one day may be limited by us. This is one of our security reasons, and as such, the details of how the authorization system works are not listed in this Agreement. Neither we nor our agents will be responsible if authorization for a transaction is not given, if your Account is overlimit or delinquent, credit authorization for transactions may be declined.

8. Monthly Statement. Each month there is a debit or credit balance of more than $1 or a Finance Charge has been imposed on your Account, we will mail you a statement.

9. Copy Fee. You will pay a fee for each copy of this Agreement.

Billing Error. If you have a billing error, you will be charged the fee disclosed in the Pricing Schedule for each original or copied sales slip, copied statement, and copy of any other record or document that you request. The fee is not owed if a request for such record or document reveals a billing error or unauthorized use on your account as defined by the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation Z.

starCard card or visa card in currency other than U.S. dollars, will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount. starCard International or visa International will issue the variation procedure, which is disclosed to institutions that issue starCard cards or visa cards.

currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International or Visa International to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars for such transactions is generally either a government-mandated rate or a wholesale rate determined by MasterCard International or Visa International, as appropriate, for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed, increased by an adjustment factor established from time to time by MasterCard International and Visa International, respectively. The currency conversion rate used by MasterCard International or Visa International on the date your transaction is processed by MasterCard International or Visa International may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase or transaction date of the cardholder statement posting date. The adjustment factor that is part of the currency conversion rate is one percent, but may be changed from time to time by MasterCard International or Visa International, respectively. For each such transaction converted into a U.S. Dollar amount that must be converted back into a foreign currency because of a refund or other reversal of the transaction, the same currency conversion rate formula and procedures will be used.

*20. Foreign Currency Transaction Fee. For each transaction in a foreign currency, we will charge a foreign transaction fee equal to the percentage amount shown in the Pricing Schedule multiplied by the converted transaction amount. This fee may be abbreviated as "For. Tran. Fee."

22. Authorization to Provide Information. You authorize us to provide certain information on you and your Account to our affiliates and others, including any company whose name or rights may appear on the Card. Complete details regarding our right to share information and your right to opt-out of certain information being shared is provided to you when you first receive an Agreement and at least once each calendar year thereafter.

Dispute Information Reported to Credit Bureaus. We furnish information about your Account to credit bureaus. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of the information reported by writing us at P.O. Box 15823, Wilmington, DE 19860-5823.

3. Changing the Terms of This Agreement. We may change any of the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation by adding new terms or by deleting or modifying existing terms. We will notify you of any such changes as required by law. Any changes to this Agreement can apply to all outstanding unpaid addresses and any new transactions on your Account. We may sell or transfer your Account and any amounts owed on your Account to another person at any time. If we do, this Agreement will still be in effect and any successor will have our full and complete approval. We will not be responsible for any terms in this Agreement to the extent assigned to a successor.

Payment and Collection Costs. Your Account will be in default and we can require that the total outstanding balance be paid in full if: (1) you fail to pay any amount owed under this Agreement when due; (2) you exceed the credit limit in effect on your Account; (3) you do not follow the terms of this Agreement; (4) your ability to pay us is materially impaired (including, but not limited to, bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings that are initiated by or against you); or (5) you default on any other loan that we have to notify you or demand payment in order to take this Account. If you are in default, we may as permitted by law, cancel or credit privileges and require you to pay the unpaid balance immediately, require you to pay interest at the rate of two percent (2%) a month on the unpaid balance at the rate of two percent (2%) a month on the unpaid balance when we demand payment, and require you to pay attorney's fees, any court costs and other collection costs incurred by us in the collection of any amounts you owe under this Agreement.

Cancellation. We may close your Account at any time. We will be responsible for repaying any Purchases, Advances or outstanding charges that are still due on your Account. A Card is issued as a way of letting you use your Account. It must not be transferred. If we request the Card(s), you must return them. Any services not described in this Agreement that are provided from time to time in connection with the Card are not part of this Agreement and may be changed or terminated at any time without notice or refund.

26. Grounding Law: This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States and the State of Delaware. Any dispute concerning any item in this Agreement will be resolved by those laws.

27. Telephone Monitoring: You agree that your telephone communications with us may be monitored and recorded to improve customer service and security.

28. Delayed Enforcement: We may delay enforcing or not enforce any of our rights under this Agreement without notifying any of them.

28. Severability. The invalidity of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity of any other provision.

SPECIAL ADVERTISING

Special Rates. From time to time, we may offer you special "periodic rates" and terms on your Account, either for balance transfer transactions, using special checks or other written request forms we provide, or verbal requests for such transfers when we agree to honor (referred to as "Balance Transfers" for purposes of this Agreement) or for other offers on your Account such as introductory, promotional or other reduced rate offers. If we do, we will advise you of the Special Rates, how long they will be in effect, the balances to which they will apply, and the rates that will apply (the "Special Rates") to which they will apply. The agreement apply to any such Special Rates, then the "Variable Rate" terms of this Agreement (including the Pricing Schedule) will apply. You may lose any special rate that is offered and our standard Preferred Pricing will apply. If you fail to make any required minimum payment by the Payment Due Date, You shall lose your standard Preferred Pricing and may be charged with a late fee. If you fail to make the conditions of the "Preferred Pricing" or any other Special Rates of this Agreement.

[illegible]

Our value is not to be compared in any other way.

Make to you, we may charge a Transaction Fee. FINANCE CHARGES in the amount disclosed in the African Schedule. This fee may be reduced in our sole discretion in any other we make to you. Transaction Fees are part of the Finance Charge. The addition of a Balance Transfer Transaction Fee may cause the Annual Percentage Rate for Balance Transfer transactions to exceed the nominal Annual Percentage Rate shown on your statement.

TERMS FOR ADVANCE

Advance. An Advance is a cash loan or similar transaction. You may take an Advance as follows: 1) Using your Checkbook. These Checks may only be used by the person(s) whose names are pre-printed on the Checks. We will not certify these Checks. 2) Using any of our ATM's or any ATM, which may be provided for your use by another financial institution or company. 3) Using a Cash Advance slip. TERMS FOR BALANCE TRANSFERS, ADVANCES
AND PURCHASES

1. Calculation of Finance Charge for Balance Transfers, Advances and Purchases. The portion of the Finance Charge separately for Balance Transfers, Advances and Purchases is calculated using the same method (generally known as the "average daily balance" method) generally known as the "average daily balances" and each such balance is multiplied by the applicable Periodic Rate, then subject to the credit earned for applicable purchases and transfers. Finance Charges are then computed on such computation, except that the first day of the Billing Cycle on the date the account is opened is used, if it is not the first day of the Billing Cycle. The Finance Charge is based on the actual number of days the account is open and is rounded to your account. Finance Charges continue to accrue until payment in full is received.

Following the determining each of the average daily balances as explained above, the average daily balance for the billing cycle, we then add the purchases, advances, and amount due included therein, and/or unreturned checks, and add any new balance transfers, advances, purchases, or other debts to the appropriate balance. We also add to each such balance an amount equal to the previous billing balance. We also add to each such balance an amount equal to the previous days ending balance of balance transfers, advances or purchases at the rate equal to the applicable daily periodic rate (or if more than one rate could apply, the lowest applicable rate). We then subtract from the appropriate balance any payments or credits applied that day. This gives us the daily balances for balance transfers, advances and purchases. We then add all of the daily balances, excluding days which will be credit balances, and divide each sum by the number of days in the billing cycle, and we get the average daily balance for balance transfers, advances and purchases. All fees charged to your account are added to the appropriate purchase balance, except for any Transaction Fee that is added to the appropriate Purchase, Advance or Balance Transfer balance. This Amount applies for the completion of Finance Charges.

Then we multiply each average daily balance by the applicable daily Periodic Rate, and then by the number of days in the billing cycle. The daily Periodic Rate will equal 1/365th of the Annual Percentage Rate. The daily Periodic Rate and Annual Percentage Rate are disclosed in the applicable portion of the Pricing Schedule as may be amended from time to time. These FINANCE CHARGES determined by Periodic Rate for Balance Transfers, Advances and Purchases are added to the Transaction Fees to get the combined amount of Finance Charge shown on your monthly statement. Amount of Finance Charge is a minimum FINANCE CHARGE of one percent (1%) of the Finance Statement balance for purchases or advances only.

Purchases will not be subject to finance charges if they are paid within 25 days of the date of purchase.

Then, you will not be a "periodic" card. Finance Charges on time of day on the "Payment Due Date" shown on the statement. (This is known as the "grace period" on the monthly cycle in which they are posted to your Account if that cycle began with a "Previous Balance" of zero or the "Previous Balance" is reduced to zero by the time of day on the "Payment Due Date".) Payments we receive with our monthly statement. Payments must be in accordance with the balance transfer instructions. Interest is not charged on your time of day there will be no grace period and no grace period. You Periodic card. The daily balance transfer order balance transfer order.

balance transfers, the daily periodic rates, applied to the balances and the corresponding annual percentage rate (APR) in the Pricing Schedule. Where the Pricing Schedule includes a Variable Rate Index and Margin, information for a particular rate that applies to your account, that rate is a variable rate and the disclosures below regarding variable rates apply for that rate. Where the Pricing Schedule does not include such a Variable Rate Index and Margin, information for any particular rate (as indicated by an "X" for "not applicable" of the associated disclosure in the Pricing Schedule) that rate is fixed and the disclosures below regarding variable rates do not apply. Further, the terms "Preferred" or "Non-Preferred" that is preceded by the "Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility" section that appears below. When your Account satisfies the "Preferred Customer Pricing" conditions, the "Preferred" rates may apply. The Rates apply to balances incurred before and after a certain date or transaction. We may identify such balances in promotional rates or statements or otherwise using terms such as balances subject to regular rates, or "Prom" or "Old" to refer to, and after the other a balance transfer subject to a promotional rate offer post to your Account, or to balances incurred before and after your Account becomes eligible for Preferred rates after a Non-Preferred rate has in effect. If the Periodic Rate for one type of balance on your Account is the same as the Periodic Rate for another balance, we may combine them and refer to those combined balances as Purchases, Balance Transfers or Advances as applicable.

3. Variable Rates If the daily Periodic Rate corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE that apply to your Account is a variable rate, the Pricing Schedule may increase or decrease from one billing cycle to another. These rates are based on the value of an index (the "Index") to which we add a margin. The index and margin are in the Pricing Schedule. The index, plus the margin, are in the Pricing Schedule. The index, plus the margin, are in the Pricing Schedule.

INTEREST RATE. If the Index is not published on the relevant date, the Index we use in setting the daily Periodic Rate for Purchases and/or Advances on your Account will be the Prime Rate published in The Wall Street Journal for the next business day. For purposes of this Agreement, the Index is hereby a pricing index. It is not, and should not be considered, an indicator of any particular rate, the lowest or the best interest rate available to a borrower. Advances made on your Account will be made at the daily Periodic Rate for the day of the advance.

4. Preferred Guarantee Paying Eligibility. If "Non-Preferred" rates appear in the Pricing Schedule, all second mortgages to your Account in the Pricing Schedule, this continued eligibility for the Preferred or Non-Preferred rates each monthly review, we may change your interest rates and impose a Non-Preferred rate up to the maximum Non-Preferred rate (subject to any minimum rate) described below in your Agreement for each occurrence when you do not meet the conditions described below to be eligible for Preferred rates. Any changes in your interest rates as a result of the monthly reviews for Preferred or Non-Preferred rates will be effective with the next cycle ending on the review date.

To be eligible for Preferred rates, the following conditions must be met as of the review date: you have made at least one required minimum payments when due on your Account and on all other loans or accounts with us and your other creditors; the credit limit on your Account has not been exceeded; and on payment on your Account has not been returned unpaid. If you do not meet all of these conditions, then you will be in default under this Agreement and your Account may lose its Procedures and law applicable in arbitration. A single, final arbitrator will resolve claims. The arbitrator will either be an attorney with at least ten years experience or a retired or former judge. The arbitrator will be selected in accordance with the rules of the arbitration administrator. The arbitrator will be selected under the applicable procedures and rules of the arbitration administrator that are in effect on the date the claim is filed, unless these procedures and rules are inconsistent with this Arbitration Agreement, in which case this Agreement will prevail. These procedures and rules may limit the arbitrator's power to award damages or interest. The arbitrator will have the power to award damages or interest to a party who has the power to award relief to, that, or for the benefit of any person who is a party to the arbitration. The arbitrator may award punitive damages or attorney's fees if such damages are authorized by law. The arbitrator will make any award in writing but need not provide a statement of reasons unless requested by a party. Upon a request by you or us, the arbitrator will provide a brief statement of the reasons for the award.

Costs. A written request for costs will advance any costs. Arbitration fees and administrative fees and the arbitrator's fee are required to pay to pursue a claim in arbitration. If you are the claimant, you will advance the fee. If you are the respondent, you will advance the fee. If you are the claimant and you prevail on your claim, the arbitrator will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of the hearing. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator and applicable law. However, we will advance or reimburse filing fees and other fees if the arbitration administrator or arbitrator determines there is good reason for requiring us to do so or you ask us and we determine there is good cause for doing so. Each party will bear the expense of the fees and costs of that party's attorneys, experts, witnesses, documents and other expenses, regardless of which party prevails for arbitration and any appeal (as permitted below), except that the arbitrator shall apply any applicable law in determining whether a party should recover any or all fees and costs from another party.

Enforcement. Finally, appeals. You or we may bring an action, including a summary or expedited motion to compel arbitration of claims subject to arbitration, or to stay the litigation of any claims pending arbitration, in any court having jurisdiction. Such action may be brought at any time, even if any such claims are part of a lawsuit. Failure or forbearance to enforce this Arbitration Agreement at any particular time, or in connection with any particular claims, will not constitute a walver of any rights to require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other claims. Any additional or different agreement between you and us regarding arbitration must be in writing. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding, except for any right of appeal under the FAA. In addition, the non-prevailing party may appeal any award that exceeds $100,000 or that includes an award of punitive damages. Any request for an appeal must be filed in writing with the same arbitration administrator within 30 days of the receipt by the non-prevailing party of notice of the original award. The appeal shall be heard before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration administrator. The panel will consider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the majority vote. The cost of the appeal imposed by the arbitration administrator shall be borne by the appealing party. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction.

7. Survivorship. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive: (i) termination or changes in the Cardmember Agreement, the Account and the relationship between you and us concerning the Account such as the issuing of a new account number or the transferring of the balance in the Account to another account; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party; and (iii) any transfer, sale, or assignment of your Account or any amounts owed on your Account to any other person. If any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall nevertheless remain in force.

Billing Rights. The Billing Rights notice that contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act will not change from what was disclosed to you under your existing terms, and accordingly that Notice is incorporated herein by reference. Your monthly billing statements also contain a Billing Rights notice.

Procedures and law applicable in arbitrations. A single, neutral arbitrator will resolve claims. The arbitrator will either be a lawyer with at least ten years experience or a retired or former judge. The arbitration will be conducted under the applicable procedures and rules of the arbitration administrator that are in effect on the date
the arbitration is filed unless those procedures and rules are inconsistent with this Arbitration Agreement, in which case this Agreement will prevail. These procedures and rules may limit the amount of discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law consistent with the FAA and applicable statutes of limitations, and will honor claims of privilege recognized at law. You may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect customer Account information and other confidential information, including the use of protective orders to prohibit disclosure outside the arbitration, if requested to do so by you or
us. The arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law, and will not have the power to award relief to, against, or for the benefit of any person who is not a party to the proceeding. If the law authorizes such relief, the arbitrator may award punitive damages or attorney fees. The arbitrator will make any award in writing but need not provide a statement of reasons unless requested by a party. Upon a request by you or us, the arbitrator will provide a brief statement of the reasons for the award.

Costs. We will reimburse you for the initial arbitration filing fee paid by you up to the amount of $500 upon receipt of proof of payment. Additionally, if there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of that hearing. The payment of any such hearing fees by us will be made directly to the arbitration administrator selected by you or us pursuant to this Arbitration Agreement. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of the arbitration administrator and applicable law. However, we will advance or reimburse filing fees and other fees if the arbitration administrator or arbitrator determines there is good reason for requiring us to do so or you ask us and we determine there is good cause for doing so. Each party will bear the expenses of the fees and costs of that party's regardless of which party prevails, for arbitration and any appeal (as permitted below), except that the arbitrator shall apply any applicable law in determining whether a party should recover any or all fees and costs from another party.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR CREDIT CARD CUSTOMERS ABOUT CHANGES TO YOUR CARDMEMBER AGREEMENT— PLEASE READ AND RETAIN FOR YOUR RECORDS

Dear Cardmember:

As your credit card company, we value your business. It is important to us that we provide you with timely information regarding your credit card account.

Periodically, we may change various terms and conditions associated with your account. We share this information with you in the form of a Change in Terms disclosure. The Change in Terms disclosure below advises of upcoming changes that will be effective as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2006, except for the Minimum Payment section which will be effective as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2006.
These changes apply to all of your accounts with us, as applicable. We hope that you take the time to review this information carefully. Please keep this notice with your Cardmember Agreement ("Agreement") for future reference.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve your credit needs. We look forward to serving those needs in the future.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES:

The changes to your agreement will take effect as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2006, except for the Minimum Payment section which will take effect as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2006. We have summarized below some of these changes. For complete details about all changes, please read the entire amendment. The terms described in this notice that are already in effect on your account will continue to apply. Note that some terms in your agreement may appear with initial capital letters or all lower case letters. Such terms have the same meaning. For example, "Account" means the same as "account."

1. Minimum Payment (if not so already)
The minimum payment calculation will be revised to permit the addition of certain fees and finance charges as part of the minimum payment.

2. Arbitration (if not so already)
The arbitration agreement section provides that arbitration is at the choice of either party, permits the choice of two arbitration administrators, provides for the advancement by us of certain costs to file an arbitration, permits a right of appeal to either party and contains other differences from your existing arbitration terms. Please review the entire arbitration agreement section to fully understand the differences.

3. Default Rate/Non-Preferred Rate (if not so already)
The default rate section or "preferred customer pricing eligibility"
section will be revised so that the default rate or "non-preferred" rate will not apply if you fail to make a payment when due to another creditor other than us or one of our related companies.

Enforcement, finality, appeals, awards. Failure or any delay in enforcing this Arbitration Agreement at any time, or in connection with any particular claim, will not constitute a waiver of any rights to require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other claims. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on the parties, unless a party appeals in writing to the arbitration organization within 30 days of issuance of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration organization. The panel will reconsider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. Each party will bear their own fees, costs and expenses for any appeal, but a party may recover any or all fees, costs and expenses from another party, if the majority of the panel of arbitrators, applying applicable law, so determines. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction.
Severability, survival. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive (i) termination or changes in the Cardmember Agreement, the Account and the relationship between you and us concerning the Account, such as the setting of a new account number or the transferring of the balance in the Account to another account; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party or any similar proceeding initiated by you or on your behalf;
and (iii) payment of the debt in full by you or by a third party, if any portion of the Arbitration Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall nevertheless remain in force.

2. DEFAULT RATE/ Non-Preferred Rate If your agreement has a section titled either "Default Rate" or "Preferred Customer Pricing Eligibility", then the following applies to your account. In that section, if not so already, we are removing the provision that states that the default rate or "non-preferred" rate may take effect if you fail to make a payment when due to another creditor other than us or one of our related companies. This change does not apply if your account does not have a default or "non-preferred" rate.

If you have questions about these changes, you can call us at the number on the back of your card.

This notice informs you of changes to your agreement.
Please keep it with your original Cardmember Agreement.

EFFECTIVE DATE/NON-ACCEPTANCE INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE ABOVE CHANGES:

The changes summarized above will be effective as of the first day of your billing cycle that includes February 1, 2008, except for the Minimum Payment section that will be effective as early as the first day of your billing cycle that includes January 1, 2008. The new terms will apply to current and future balances on your account. You have the right to reject the new terms stated in this Notice. If you wish to reject these terms, you must notify us in writing by December 22, 2008, that you wish to reject them. If you reject these terms, your account will be closed to further use (if it is not already closed). Please include your name, address and account number on the correspondence and mail it to: Cardmember Service, P.O. Box 15098, Wilmington, DE 19850-5098. If you give us notice that you wish to reject these terms, you may not make any more charges to your account. You will, however, be entitled to pay off any outstanding balances on your account in accordance with your applicable account terms. Even if you send us the notice, if you use your Card or account on or after December 22, 2008, you will be deemed to have accepted the new terms and those terms will be applied to you as if you had not sent us any notice. If you send us the notice, please make alternate arrangements to pay any charges you have previously authorized to be made to this account, such as recurring charges.)

AMENDMENTS TO THE AGREEMENT:

In order to implement the above-described change in terms, the following changes, as applicable, will be made to your agreement:

1. MINIMUM PAYMENT: If not so already, the following replaces the section entitled "Minimum Payment":

Minimum Payment: You agree to pay at least the minimum payment due, as shown on your billing statement, so that we receive it by the date and time payment is due. You may pay more than the minimum payment due and may pay the full amount you owe us at any time. If you have a balance that is subject to finance charges, the sooner you pay us, the less you will pay in finance charges because finance charges accrue on your balance each day.

Your billing statement shows your beginning balance and your ending balance (the "New Balance" on your billing statement). If the New Balance is $10.00 or less, your minimum payment due will be the New Balance. Otherwise, it will be the largest of the following:

- $10.00; 2% of the New Balance; or the sum of 1% of the New Balance, total billed periodic rate finance charges, and any billed late and overlimit fees. As part of the minimum payment due, we also add any amount past due and any amount over your credit line.

Note: If your account has no pre-set spending limit (such as a Visa Signature Card or World MasterCard account), then the first two sentences in the second paragraph above are as follows: Otherwise, it will be the largest of the following: $10.00; 2% of the New Balance; or the sum of 1% of the New Balance, total billed periodic rate finance charges, and any billed late fees. As part of the minimum payment due, we also add any amount past due and any amount over your credit access line.

2. ARBITRATION: If not so already, the following replaces the section entitled "ARBITRATION" or "ARBITRATION AGREEMENT":

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT: PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES THAT ANY DISPUTE MAY BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BRING A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION IN COURT SUCH AS THAT IN THE FORM OF A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION. NOR WILL YOU BE ABLE TO BRING ANY CLAIM IN ARBITRATION AS A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BE PART OF ANY CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION BROUGHT BY ANYONE ELSE, OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION, IN THE ASSENCE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, AND WE MAY OTHERWISE HAVE HAD A RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO BRING CLAIMS IN A COURT, BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CASE FILED IN COURT BY OTHERS (INCLUDING CLASS ACTIONS AND OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTIONS). OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO A COURT, SUCH AS DISCOUNT OR THE RIGHT TO APPEAL THE DECISION MAY BE MORE LIMITED, EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BELOW. THOSE RIGHTS ARE WAIVED.

Binding Arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce, and shall be governed by and be enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act (the "FAA"), 9 U.S.C. §1-16 as it may be amended. This Arbitration Agreement sets forth the circumstances and procedures under which claims (as defined below) may be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

Parties Covered. For the purposes of this Arbitration Agreement, "we", "us", and "our" also includes our parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, predecessors, successors, assigns, any purchaser of your Account, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents, and assigns or any and all of them. Additionally, "we", "us" and "our" shall include any third party providing benefits, services, or products in connection with the Account (including but not limited to credit bureaus, merchants that accept any credit device issued under the Account, rewards programs and emailment services, credit insurance companies, debt collectors, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives) if, and only if, such a third party is named by you as a co-defendant in any claim you assert against us.

Claims Covered. Either you or we may, without the other's consent, elect mandatory, binding arbitration of any claim, dispute or controversy by either you or us against the other, or against the employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, beneficiaries, agents or assigns of the other, arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement, any prior Cardmember Agreement, your credit card Account, or the advertising, application or approval of your Account ("Claim"). This Arbitration Agreement governs all Claims, whether such Claims are based on law, statute, contract, regulation, ordinance, tort, common law, constitutional provision, or any legal theory of law such as respondeat superior, or any other legal or equitable ground and whether such Claims seek to remedy money damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims subject to this Arbitration Agreement include Claims regarding the applicability of this Arbitration Agreement or the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or any prior Cardmember Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement includes Claims that arise in the past, or arise in the present or the future. As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term Claim is to be given the broadest possible meaning.

Claims subject to arbitration include Claims that are made as counterclaims, cross claims, third party claims, interpleader or otherwise, and a party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any such Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties.

As an exception to this Arbitration Agreement, you retain the right to pursue in a small claims court any Claim that is within that court's jurisdiction and proceeds on an individual basis. If a party elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration will be conducted as an individual action. Neither you nor we agree to any arbitration on a class or representative basis, and the arbitrator shall have no authority to proceed on such basis. This means that, even if a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as that in the form of a private attorney general action, is filed, any Claim between us related to the issues raised in such lawsuit will be subject to an individual arbitration claim if either you or we so elect.

No arbitration will be conducted with any other arbitration proceeding without the consent of all parties. The only Claims that may be joined in an individual action under this Arbitration Agreement are (1) those brought by us against you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or (2) those brought by you or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy against us.

Selection of Arbitrator. The party filing a Claim in arbitration must choose one of the following two arbitration administrators: American Arbitration Association or National Arbitration Forum. These administrators are independent from us. The administrator does not conduct the arbitration. Arbitration is conducted under the rules of the selected arbitration administrator by an impartial third party chosen in accordance with the rules of the selected arbitration administrator and as may be provided in this Arbitration Agreement. Any arbitration hearing that you attend shall be held at a place chosen by the arbitrator or arbitration administrator within the federal judicial district in which you reside at the time the Claim is filed, or at some other place to which you and we agree in writing. You may obtain copies of the current rules of each of the arbitration administrators; information about arbitration and arbitration fees, and instructions for initiating arbitration by contacting the arbitration administrators as follows:
