Please remember to cut your cards and cancel all charges which automatically bill to your account.

Your account is six payments behind. If we charge off your account due to late payments, we will report this to several national credit bureaus which may have a serious impact on your credit record. Act now to prevent this from happening. Please pay the amount due on your statement or give us a call at 1.800.955.6600. We'll work with you so you can take control of your Capital One account and start rebuilding your credit.

Important Notice Under the terms we previously disclosed to you, your account is now eligible for an increase in Annual Percentage Rates (A.P.R.s) effective immediately. However, Capital One has elected not to raise your A.P.R.s at this time. Please be advised that if you fail to keep your account in good standing, Capital One reserves the right to raise your A.P.R.s in the future.

You were assessed a past due fee of $35.00 on 06/27/2006 because your minimum payment was not received by the due date of 06/27/2006. To avoid this fee in the future, we recommend that you allow at least 7 business days for your payment to reach Capital One.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

b. Assessing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account, or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.

c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.

d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.

b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.

b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.

c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized; finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

your account if it has already been closed. For example, if you authorized a purchase from a merchant and we receive the transaction from the merchant after your account has been closed, your account will be reopened, the amount of the charge will be added to your account, and you will be responsible for payment. If there is a membership fee for your account, the fee will continue to be charged, to the extent permitted by law, until the account balance has been paid in full as defined above.

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any Internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

† Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

† Does not apply to consumer non-credit card accounts

† Does not apply to business non-credit card accounts

b. Assessing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.

c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic interest rate is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (i.e., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.

c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit cards, and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

†, ‡ Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

(If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

b. Assessing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.

c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.

d. Temporary Reduction in Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.

b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.

c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

1. * Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that you are assessed a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- d. Temporary Reduction in Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of the days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.
- c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of our customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any Internet gambling transactions.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- Grace Period. You will have a minimum grace period of 25 days without finance charge on new purchases, new balance transfers, new special purchases and new other charges if you pay your total "New Balance" in accordance with the Important Notice for payments below, and in time for it to be credited by your next statement closing date. There is no grace period on cash advances and special transfers. In addition, there is no grace period on any transaction if you do not pay the total "New Balance."
- Accounting Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge (1) from the date of the transaction or (2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or (3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that you are assessed a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- Temporary Reduction in Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the quoted indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.
- If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the quoted indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit cards and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

1. Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

your account if it has already been closed. For example, if you authorized a purchase from a merchant and we receive the transaction from the merchant after your account has been closed, your account will be reopened, the amount of the charge will be added to your account, and you will be responsible for payment. If there is a membership fee for your account, the fee will continue to be charged, to the extent permitted by law, until the account balance has been paid in full as defined above.

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any Internet gambling transactions.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- † c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- † d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any of all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- b. If the code Z or H appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

- 6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any Internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error, or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

1. † Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

*Important information regarding your checks: The attached checks will be treated as purchases according to the terms of your Customer Agreement and any amendments to it but may not qualify for any reward programs. These checks are subject to credit availability, so you must have the available credit on the day Capital One processes your check. Check acceptance is also subject to the current status of your account, and the check may not be processed at a higher penalty rate if your account is restricted in any way, past due, or in collections at the time it is processed. If the credit is unavailable or your account is not current as stated, your check will be returned unpaid and you may be assessed a Returned Check fee. These checks cannot be used to pay down or pay off any Capital One account. Cashing these checks will qualify as using your account. All other Account terms and conditions remain in full force and effect. © 2004 Capital One Services, Inc. Capital One is a federally registered service mark. All rights reserved.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchases) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- b. If the code Z or H appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the cited indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any Internet gambling transactions.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

 - b. Assessing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
 - c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
 - d. Temporary Reduction in Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.
2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).
- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of the days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.

3. Annual Percentage Rate (APR).
- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
 - c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replaced Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.
4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.
6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.

8. Issues About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

† Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

(If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.
 - b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
 - c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
 - d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.
2. Average Daily Balance (including New Purchases).
 - a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full for if your new balance was zero or a credit amount, new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
 - b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).
 - a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
 - c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.
4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.
6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

† Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Q: Why would I want to use my Purchase Checks to consolidate debt?

A: Your Purchase Check amounts will appear as purchases on your statement. And with both your card and check purchases together on one statement, it will be even easier to track your spending and manage your budget.

Q: Where are Purchase Checks accepted?

A: Purchase Checks are accepted wherever you'd normally use your regular personal checks. You can even use them at places that don't accept credit cards.

Q: Is there a transaction fee?

A: There is no transaction fee for using Purchase Checks to access your Capital One account.

Q: Will my Purchase Checks ever expire?

A: Yes, the expiration date is printed at the top of each Purchase Check. So use them now for greater savings and flexibility!

* The attached checks will be treated as purchases according to the terms of your Customer Agreement and any amendments to it but may not qualify for any reward programs. The attached checks are subject to credit availability, so you must have the available credit on the day Capital One processes your check. Check acceptance is also subject to the current status of your account, and the check may not be processed or may be processed at a higher penalty rate if your account is restricted in any way, past due, or in collections at the time it is processed. If the credit is unavailable or your account is not current as stated, your check will be returned unpaid and you may be assessed a Returned Check Fee. 1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- Grace Period. You will have a minimum grace period of 25 days without finance charge on new purchases, new balance transfers, new special purchases and new other charges if you pay your total "New Balance". In accordance with the Important Notice for payments below, and in time for it to be credited by your next statement closing date. There is no grace period on cash advances and special transfers. In addition, there is no grace period on any transaction if you do not pay the total "New Balance".
 - Accounting Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are associated finance charge (1) from the date of the transaction or (2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or (3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
 - Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
 - Temporary Reduction in Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.
- Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).
 - Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding at a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
 - If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR)

- The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
 - If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the related indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.
 - If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.
- Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.
 - If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

- Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.
- Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

Dear NATHAN L GRICKS,

As a Preferred Plus Cardholder, you deserve to get the most from your Capital One® card. That's why we're offering you the enclosed Purchase Checks,* which allow you to access your account almost anywhere! They carry your purchase APR and there's absolutely no transaction fee.

CapitalOne | what's in your wallet?

Here are some simple ways you can use Purchase Checks:

Transfer higher-interest-rate balances and save money.

Use your Purchase Checks to pay off outstanding balances on other credit cards, department store cards or loans. Simply write a check toward the balance and it will appear on your Capital One account at your purchase APR.

Put them in your wallet and use them to make purchases.

Purchase Checks are especially handy at locations that don't accept credit cards. So whether you're making a big purchase, or just buying groceries at your local wholesale club, your Purchase Checks give you a fast and easy way to pay.

Make a major home improvement.

Remodel your kitchen. Buy new furniture. Build the addition you've always wanted. Whatever you choose, your Purchase Checks can help.

Pay for travel, shopping, bills and more.

Use your checks for anything you'd like and enjoy the flexibility of paying over time if you wish. Just be sure the total of your checks does not exceed your available credit line.

Don't miss out—use your checks before they expire on 07/31/2005 or call us at 1-877-476-7939 to transfer today.

Sincerely,

P. Taylor Jamison

P. Taylor Jamison, Director of Accounts

P.S. Use your Purchase Checks today and take advantage of your great purchase APR. Plus, there's no transaction fee!

Answers to frequently asked questions

Purchase Checks – Great value without the hassles!

Q: What interest rate will apply when I use my Purchase Checks?

A: You will receive the same APR you currently enjoy on purchases.

Q: Can I really use my Purchase Checks any way that I want?

A: Yes, you can use your Purchase Checks for virtually anything — whether you're shopping for new clothes, making a major home improvement or depositing it into your checking account. Another way to take advantage of your Purchase Checks is to consolidate debt from other credit cards and loans.

Q: Why would I want to use my Purchase Checks to consolidate debt?

A: First of all, you can save money by transferring higher-interest-rate balances to your Capital One card at your current purchase APR. Secondly, by consolidating debt, you'll have fewer payments to make for greater ease and convenience.

Q: How are my Purchase Checks billed to my account?

A: Your Purchase Check amounts will appear as purchases on your statement. And with both your card and check purchases together on one statement, it will be even easier to track your spending and manage your budget.

Q: Where are Purchase Checks accepted?

A: Purchase Checks are accepted wherever you'd normally use your regular personal checks. You can even use them at places that don't accept credit cards.

Q: Is there a transaction fee?

A: There is no transaction fee for using Purchase Checks to access your Capital One account.

Q: Will my Purchase Checks ever expire?

A: Yes, the expiration date is printed at the top of each Purchase Check. So use them now for greater savings and flexibility!

* The attached checks will be treated as purchases according to the terms of your Customer Agreement and any amendments to it but may not qualify for any reward programs. The attached checks are subject to credit availability, so you must have the available credit on the day Capital One processes your check. Check acceptance is also subject to the current status of your account, and the check may not be processed or may be processed at a higher penalty rate if your account is restricted in any way, past due, or in collections at the time it is processed. If the credit is unavailable or your account is not current as stated, your check will be returned unpaid and you may be assessed a Returned Check Fee. These checks cannot be used to pay down or pay off any Capital One account. Cashing these checks will qualify as using your account.

b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.

c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.

c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replaced Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding in a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.

b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.

b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated index, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.

c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated index, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

d. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

e. Transferring Your Account. If a membership fee appears on the front of this statement, you have 30 days from the date this statement was mailed to you to avoid paying the fee or to have such fee credited to you if you cancel your account. During this period, you may continue to use your account without having to pay the membership fee. To cancel your account, you must notify us by calling our Customer Relations Department and pay your "New Balance" in full (including the membership fee) prior to the end of the thirty-day period.

f. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. If you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

1. Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) 1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your account.

c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchases) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balance. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.

b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.

b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.

c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

5. Renewing Your Account. If a membership fee appears on the front of this statement, you have 30 days from the date this statement was mailed to you to avoid paying the fee or to have such fee credited to you if you cancel your account. During this period, you may continue to use your account without having to pay the membership fee. To cancel your account, you must notify us by calling our Customer Relations Department and pay your "New Balance" in full (excluding the membership fee) prior to the end of the thirty-day period. If you Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

your account if it has already been closed. For example, if you authorized a purchase from a merchant and we receive the transaction from the merchant after your account has been closed, your account will be reopened, the amount of the charge will be added to your account, and you will be responsible for payment. If there is a membership fee for your account, the fee will continue to be charged, to the extent permitted by law, until the account balance has been paid in full as defined above.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

- Grace Period. You will have a minimum grace period of 25 days without finance charge on new purchases, new balance transfers, new special purchases and new other charges if you pay your total "New Balance", in accordance with the Important Notice for payments below, and in time for it to be credited by your next statement closing date. There is no grace period on cash advances and special transfers. In addition, there is no grace period on any transaction if you do not pay the total "New Balance".
- Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- Temporary Reduction in Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balance. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of the days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.
- If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you unless waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

3.† Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have filed in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- b. Assessing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advances, purchase, special transfer, and special purchases) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

- d. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.
8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- Grace Period. You will have a minimum grace period of 25 days without finance charge on new purchases, new balance transfers, new special purchases and new other charges if you pay your total "New Balance", in accordance with the Important Notice for payments below, and in time for it to be credited by your next statement closing date. There is no grace period on cash advances and special transfers. In addition, there is no grace period on any transaction if you do not pay the total "New Balance".
- Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of the days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- If the code Z or H appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the cited indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.
- If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

6. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account as they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. 1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your account.
- c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- d. Temporary Reduction in Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (including New Purchases).

- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of the days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.
- c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.
- d. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.
- e. Renewing Your Account. If a membership fee appears on the front of this statement, you have 30 days from the date this statement was mailed to you to avoid paying the fee or to have such fee credited to you if you canceled your account. During this period, you may continue to use your account without having to pay the membership fee. To cancel your account, you must notify us by calling our Customer Relations Department and pay your "New Balance" in full (excluding the membership fee) prior to the end of the thirty-day period.
- f. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account in the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

- 7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.
- 8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

4. Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have filed in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

There is no grace period on cash advances and special transfers. In addition, there is no grace period on any transaction if you do not pay the total "New Balance."
- Accounting Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. 1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- † c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- † d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.
- c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

4. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees.

Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.

5. Renewing Your Account.

If a membership fee appears on the front of this statement, you have 30 days from the date this statement was mailed to you to avoid paying the fee or to have such fee credited to you if you cancel your account. During this period, you may continue to use your account without having to pay the membership fee. To cancel your account, you must notify us by calling our Customer Relations Department and pay your "New Balance" in full (excluding the membership fee) prior to the end of the thirty-day period.

6. If You Close Your Account.

You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

your account if it has already been closed. For example, if you authorized a purchase from a merchant and we receive the transaction from the merchant after your account has been closed, your account will be reopened, the amount of the charge will be added to your account, and you will be responsible for payment. If there is a membership fee for your account, the fee will continue to be charged, to the extent permitted by law, until the account balance has been paid in full as defined above.

7. Using Your Account.

Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any Internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion.

When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

(In Case Of Error Or Questions About Your Bill)
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

† Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.

Your request to close your account has been received. Your account will be closed when it reaches a $0 balance. Until then, you will continue to receive statements and must continue to make payments. All terms and conditions of the account will apply while a balance remains. Please remember to cut your cards and cancel all charges which automatically bill to your account.

We'll work with you to resolve this matter.

Important Notice Your account was past due. Under the terms we previously disclosed to you, if your account is past due again in the next 12 billing cycles, your Annual Percentage Rates (A.P.R.s) may increase.

You were assessed a past due fee of $35.00 on 05/27/2006 because your minimum payment was not received by the due date of 05/27/2006. To avoid this fee in the future, we recommend that you allow at least 7 business days for your payment to reach Capital One.

1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.

c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.

d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions and any periodic finance charge calculated on the previous day's balance for that segment. We then subtract any payments or credits posted as of that day that are allocated to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balance. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.

b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.

b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.

c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.

5. Renewing Your Account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, returned payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

your account if it has already been closed. For example, if you authorized a purchase from a merchant and we receive the transaction from the merchant after your account has been closed, your account will be reopened, the amount of the charge will be added to your account, and you will be responsible for payment. If there is a membership fee for your account, the fee will continue to be charged, to the extent permitted by law, until the account balance has been paid in full as defined above.

7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any Internet gambling transactions.

8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. 1. How To Avoid A Finance Charge.

- b. Accruing Finance Charge. Transactions which are not subject to a grace period are assessed finance charge 1) from the date of the transaction or 2) from the date the transaction is processed to your Account or 3) from the first calendar day of the current billing period. Additionally, if you did not pay the "New Balance" from the previous billing period in full, finance charges continue to accrue to your unpaid balance until the unpaid balance is paid in full. This means that you may still owe finance charges, even if you pay the entire New Balance indicated on the front of your statement by the next statement closing date, but did not do so for the previous month. Unpaid finance charges are added to the applicable segment of your Account.
- c. Minimum Finance Charge. For each billing period that your account is subject to a finance charge, a minimum total FINANCE CHARGE of $0.50 will be imposed. If the total finance charge resulting from the application of your periodic rate(s) is less than $0.50, we will subtract that amount from the $0.50 minimum and the difference will be billed to the purchase segment of your account.
- d. Temporary Reduction In Finance Charge. We reserve the right to not assess any or all finance charges for any given billing period.

2. Average Daily Balance (Including New Purchases).

- a. Finance charge is calculated by multiplying the daily balance of each segment of your account (e.g., cash advance, purchase, special transfer, and special purchase) by the corresponding daily periodic rate(s) that has been previously disclosed to you. At the end of each day during the billing period, we apply the daily periodic rate for each segment of your account to the daily balance of each segment. Then at the end of the billing period, we add up the results of these daily calculations to arrive at your periodic finance charge for each segment. We add up the results from each segment to arrive at the total periodic finance charge for your account. To get the daily balance for each segment of your account, we take the beginning balance for each segment and add any new transactions to that segment. This gives us the separate daily balance for each segment of your account. However, if you paid the New Balance shown on your previous statement in full (or if your new balance was zero or a credit amount), new transactions which post to your purchase or special purchase segments are not added to the daily balances. We calculate the average daily balance by adding all the daily balances together and dividing the sum by the number of the days in the current billing cycle. To calculate your total finance charge, multiply your average daily balance by the daily periodic rate and by the number of days in the billing period. Due to rounding on a daily basis, there may be a slight variance between this calculation and the amount of finance charge actually assessed.
- b. If the code Z or N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we multiply the average daily balance of each segment by your monthly

periodic rate. To obtain the average daily balance for the billing period covered by this statement, we take the beginning balance of each segment each day, add any new transactions to each segment, and subtract any payments or credits. (If the code N appears on the front of this statement next to "Balance Rate Applied To," we also subtract any unpaid finance charge included in the balance of each segment.) This gives us the daily balance of each segment. Then, we add up all the daily balances for each segment for the billing period and divide by the total number of days in the billing period. This gives us the average daily balance of each segment.

3. Annual Percentage Rates (APR).

- a. The term "Annual Percentage Rate" may appear as "APR" on the front of this statement.
- b. If the code P (Prime), L (3-mo. LIBOR), C (Certificate of Deposit), or S (Bankcard Prime) appears on the front of this statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary quarterly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period covered by your periodic statement ending in the months January, April, July and October.
- c. If the code D (Prime), F (1-mo. LIBOR) or G (3-mo. LIBOR Replicated Monthly) appears on the front of your statement next to the periodic rate(s), the periodic rates and corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES may vary monthly and may increase or decrease based on the stated indices, as found in The Wall Street Journal, plus the margin previously disclosed to you. These changes will be effective on the first day of your billing period each month.
- d. Assessment of Late, Overlimit and Returned Payment Fees. Your account will be assessed no more than two of the fees listed here that occur during any billing period. Under the terms of your customer agreement, we reserve the right to waive or not to assess any fees without prior notification to you without waiving our right to assess the same or similar fees at a later time.
- e. Renewing Your Account. If a membership fee appears on the front of this statement, you have 30 days from the date this statement was mailed to you to avoid paying the fee or to have such fee credited to you if you cancel your account. During this period, you may continue to use your account without having to pay the membership fee. To cancel your account, you must notify us by calling our Customer Relations Department and pay your "New Balance" in full (excluding the membership fee) prior to the end of the thirty-day period.
- f. If You Close Your Account. You can request to close your account by calling our Customer Relations Department. You must destroy your credit card(s) and account access checks, cancel all preauthorized billing, and cease using your account. If you do not cancel preauthorized billing arrangements, we will consider receipt of a charge your authorization to reopen your account. Additionally, your account will not be closed until you pay all amounts you owe us including: any transactions you have authorized, finance charges, past due fees, overlimit fees, return payment fees, cash advance fees and any other fees assessed to your account. You are responsible for these amounts whether they appear on your account at the time you request to close the account or they are incurred subsequent to your request to close the account. This may result in charges appearing on your account after you have requested the account to be closed or the reopening of

- 7. Using Your Account. Your card or account cannot be used in connection with any internet gambling transactions.
- 8. Notice About Electronic Check Conversion. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your bank account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your bank account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

(In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill)
If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information on a transaction or bill, write to us on a separate sheet as soon as possible at the address for inquiries shown on the front of this statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can call our Customer Relations number, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, a description of the error and an explanation, if possible, of why you believe there is an error; or if you need more information, a description of the item you are unsure about. You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating it, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.

† Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50.00 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. (If we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services, all purchases are covered regardless of amount or location of purchase.) Please remember to sign all correspondence.
