COMPLAINT IN CIVIL-ACTION

1. Plaintiff is a debt buyer and successor in interest to the original creditor as set forth in the caption of this Complaint.

2. At all times relevant hereto, the defendant(s) was the holder of a credit card, which at the request of the defendant(s) was issued to the defendant(s) by the plaintiff under the terms of which the plaintiff agreed to extend to defendant(s) the use of plaintiff's credit facilities.

3. Defendant(s) accepted and used the aforesaid credit card so issued and by so doing agreed to perform the terms and conditions prescribed by the plaintiff for the use of said credit card.

4. The defendant(s) received and accepted goods and merchandise and/or accepted services or cash advances through the use of the credit card issued by the Plaintiff. A true and correct copy of the Statement of Account, if available, is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

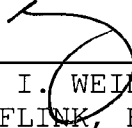

5. All the credits to which the defendant(s) is entitled have been applied and there remains a balance due in the amount of $2,413.08.

6. Plaintiff has made demand upon the defendant(s) for payment of the balance due of $2,413.08 but the defendant(s) has failed and refused and still refuses to pay the same or any part thereof.

SANDRA L BRESSLER

AFFIDAVIT OF DEBT AND VERIFIED BILL OF PARTICULARS

The undersigned being first duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that she is familiar with the policies and practices, as well as the books and records of the Plaintiff with respect to the matters stated herein, and based on information and belief states as follows:

1. Plaintiff's principal business consists of purchasing charged off receivables.
2. The Defendant defaulted on HOUSEHOLD BANK Account No. 5408010031912658. Said Account was charged off on February 28, 2007 and subsequently sold to Atlantic Credit & Finance, Inc with a balance of $2,413.08.
3. Plaintiff purchased or was otherwise assigned this charged off account along with other debts. As a result of the foregoing sale and assignment, the Plaintiff succeeded to all right, title and interest in the charged off account, and it now owns the account.
4. Plaintiff conducted a due diligence investigation to determine, among other things, the accuracy of the account information provided to ascertain whether the statute of limitations was a bar to demand or institution of suit. Further, Plaintiff and/or its predecessor entered into a contract where the predecessor made representations and warranties that 1) it had clear right, title and interest in the account; 2) the account was free and clear of all liens and encumbrances; and 3) it had the power, authority, and full right to sell and convey its interest in the account.
5. According to Plaintiff's records, the last payment date was June 21, 2006. After application of all payments, credits, adjustments, and lawful offsets, if any, there is still a balance due and owing on this indebtedness of $2,413.08.
6. The internal Account Statement of Plaintiff is attached hereto as Exhibit A and displays the account information that was provided to Plaintiff at the time of purchase and assignment.

The foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

The Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) is an organization of the Department of Defense (DoD) that maintains the Defense Enrollment and Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) database which is the official source of data on eligibility for military medical care and other eligibility systems.

The DoD strongly supports the enforcement of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 USC App. § 501 et seq, as amended) (SCRA) (formerly known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940). DMDC has issued hundreds of thousands of "does not possess any information indicating that the individual is currently on active duty" responses, and has experienced only a small error rate. In the event the individual referenced above, or any family member, friend, or representative asserts in any manner that the individual was on active duty for the active duty status date, or is otherwise entitled to the protections of the SCRA, you are strongly encouraged to obtain further verification of the person's status by contacting that person's Service via the "defenseink.mil" URL: <http://www.defenselink.mil/faq/pls/PC09SLDR.html>. If you have evidence the person was on active duty for the active duty status date and you fail to obtain this additional Service verification, punitive provisions of the SCRA may be invoked against you. See 50 USC App. § 521(c).

This response reflects the following information: (1) The individual's Active Duty status on the Active Duty Status Date (2) Whether the individual left Active Duty status within 367 days preceding the Active Duty Status Date (3) Whether the individual or his/her unit received early notification to report for active duty on the Active Duty Status Date.

More information on "Active Duty Status"

Active duty status as reported in this certificate is defined in accordance with 10 USC § 101(d) (1). Prior to 2010 only some of the active duty periods less than 30 consecutive days in length were available. In the case of a member of the National Guard, this includes service under a call to active service authorized by the President or the Secretary of Defense under 32 USC § 502(f) for purposes of responding to a national emergency declared by the President and supported by Federal funds. All Active Guard Reserve (AGR) members must be assigned against an authorized mobilization position in the unit they support. This includes Navy Training and Administration of the Reserves (TARs), Marine Corps Active Reserve (ARs) and Coast Guard Reserve Program Administrator (RPAs). Active Duty status also applies to a Uniformed Service member who is an active duty commissioned officer of the U.S. Public Health Service or the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA Commissioned Corps).

Coverage Under the SCRA is Broader in Some Cases

Coverage under the SCRA is broader in some cases and includes some categories of persons on active duty for purposes of the SCRA who would not be reported as on Active Duty under this certificate. SCRA protections are for Title 10 and Title 14 active duty records for all the Uniformed Services periods. Title 32 periods of Active Duty are not covered by SCRA, as defined in accordance with 10 USC § 101(d)(1).

Many times orders are amended to extend the period of active duty, which would extend SCRA protections. Persons seeking to rely on this website certification should check to make sure the orders on which SCRA protections are based have not been amended to extend the inclusive dates of service. Furthermore, some protections of the SCRA may extend to persons who have received orders to report for active duty or to be inducted, but who have not actually begun active duty or actually reported for induction. The Last Date on Active Duty entry is important because a number of protections of the SCRA extend beyond the last dates of active duty.

Those who could rely on this certificate are urged to seek qualified legal counsel to ensure that all rights guaranteed to Service members under the SCRA are protected

WARNING: This certificate was provided based on a last name, SSN/date of birth, and active duty status date provided by the requester. Providing erroneous information will cause an erroneous certificate to be provided.
