Information About Your Account

Lost or Stolen Cards: Please report your lost or stolen card immediately by calling the Customer Service number found on the front of your statement. Advisors are always available to assist you. You can reach an Advisor by pressing 0 after you enter your account number.

Crediting of Payments: For payments by regular U.S. mail, send at least your minimum payment due to our post office box designated for payments shown on this statement. Your payments by mail must comply with the instructions on this statement, and must be made by check or money order, payable in U.S. Dollars, and drawn on or payable through a U.S. financial institution or the U.S. branch of a foreign financial institution. Do not send cash. Write your account number on your check or money order. Payments must be accompanied by the payment coupon in the envelope provided with our address visible through the envelope window; the envelope cannot contain more than one payment or coupon; and there can be no staples, paper clips, tape or correspondence included with your payment. If your payment is in accordance with our payment instructions and is made available to us on any day except December 25 by 1:00 p.m. local time at our post office box designated for payments on this statement, we will credit the payment to your account as of that day. If your payment is in accordance with our payment instructions, but is made available to us after 1:00 p.m. local time at our post office box designated for payments on this statement, we will credit it to your account as of the next day. If you do not follow our payment instructions or if your payment is not sent by regular U.S. mail to our post office box designated for payments, crediting of your payment may be delayed for up to 5 days. Payments made electronically through our automated telephone service, Customer Service advisors, or our web site will be subject to any processing times disclosed for those payments.

Account Information Reported to Credit Bureaus: We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report. If you think we have reported inaccurate information to a credit bureau, you may write to us at the Cardmember Service address listed on your billing statement.

Notice About Electronic Check Conversion: When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution. Call the customer service number on this statement if you have questions about electronic check collection or do not want your payments collected electronically.

Conditional Payments: Any payment check or other form of payment that you send us for less than the full balance due that is marked "paid in full" or contains a similar notation, or that you otherwise tender in full satisfaction of a disputed amount, must be sent to Card Services, P.O. Box 15049, Wilmington, DE 19850-5049. We reserve all our rights regarding these payments (e.g., if it is determined there is no valid dispute or if any such check is received at any other address, we may accept the check and you will still owe any remaining balance). We may refuse to accept any such payment by returning it to you, not cashing it or destroying it. All other payments that you make should be sent to the appropriate payment address.

Annual Renewal Notice: If your account has an annual fee, it will be billed each year or in monthly installments, whether or not you use your account, and you agree to pay it when billed. The annual fee is non-refundable unless you notify us that you wish to close your account within 30 days of the date we mail your statement on which the annual fee is charged and at the same time, you pay your outstanding balance in full. Your payment of the annual fee does not affect our rights to close your account and to limit your right to make transactions on your account. If your account is closed by you or us, we will continue to charge the annual fee until you pay your outstanding balance in full and terminate your account relationship.

Explanation of Finance Charges: We calculate periodic finance charges, using the applicable periodic rates shown on this statement, separately for each feature (e.g., balance transfer/convenience checks and cash advance checks ("check transaction"), purchases, balance transfers, cash advances, promotional balances or overdraft advances). These calculations may combine different categories with the same daily periodic rates. If there is a "V" next to a periodic rate on this statement, that rate may vary, and the index and margin used to determine that rate and its corresponding APR are described in your Cardmember Agreement, as amended. There is a minimum finance charge in any billing cycle in which you owe any periodic finance charges, and a transaction finance charge for each balance transfer, cash advance, or check transaction, in the amounts stated in your Cardmember Agreement, as amended.

To get the daily balance for each day of the current billing cycle, we take the beginning balance for each feature, add any new transactions or other debits (including fees, unpaid finance charges and other charges), subtract any payments or credits, and make other adjustments. Transactions are added as of the transaction date, the beginning of the billing cycle in which they are posted to your account, or a later date of our choice (except that check transactions are added as of the date deposited by the payee or a later date of our choice). Fees are added either on the date of a related transaction, the date they are posted to your account, or the last day of the billing cycle. This gives us that day's daily balance. A credit balance is treated as a balance of zero. If a daily periodic rate applies to any feature, we multiply the daily balance by the daily periodic rate to get your periodic finance charges for that day. We then add these periodic finance charges to your daily balance to get the beginning balance for the next day. (If more than one daily periodic rate could apply based on the average daily balance, we will use the daily periodic rate that applies for the average daily balance amount at the end of the billing cycle to calculate the daily periodic finance charge each day.)

To get your total periodic finance charge for a billing cycle when a daily periodic rate(s) applies, we add all of the daily periodic finance charges for all features. To determine an average daily balance, we add your daily balances and divide by the number of the days in the applicable billing cycle(s). If you multiply the average daily balance for each feature by the applicable daily periodic rate, and then multiply each of these results by the number of days in the applicable billing cycle(s), and then add all of the results together, the total will also equal the periodic finance charges for the billing cycle, except for minor variations due to rounding. To get your total periodic finance charge for a billing cycle when a monthly periodic rate(s) applies, multiply the average daily balance for each feature by the applicable monthly periodic rate and add the results together. The total will equal the periodic finance charges for the billing cycle, except for minor variations due to rounding.

Grace Period (at least 20 days):

We accrue periodic finance charges on a transaction, fee, or finance charge from the date it is added to your daily balance until payment in full is received on your account. However, we do not charge periodic finance charges on new purchases billed during a billing cycle if we receive both payment of your New Balance on your current statement by the date and time your payment is due and also payment of your New Balance on your previous statement by the date and time your payment was due. There is no grace period for balance transfers, cash advances, check transactions, or overdraft advances.

In addition, if there is a "Qualifying Promotional Financing" section on this statement, you will not incur periodic finance charges on any Remaining Balance that appears in that section if you pay that balance in full by the applicable Expiration Date. To avoid finance charges on new purchases when your New Balance includes any Remaining Balance(s) in the Qualifying Promotional Financing section, pay your full New Balance minus the total of those Remaining Balance(s) by the date and time your payment is due. However, if your statement shows that a minimum payment is due, we must receive at least that minimum payment by the date and time specified on your statement, even if your New Balance consists only of Qualifying Promotional Financing balances.

Also, for some Qualifying Promotional Financing balances, periodic finance charges accrue during the promotional period but are not added to your account balance. Instead, they accumulate from billing cycle to billing cycle. This is referred to as "deferred interest." If a deferred interest Qualifying Promotional Financing balance is not paid in full by the applicable Expiration Date, the deferred finance charges will be added to your account as soon as the first day after the Expiration Date. Further, if you default under the terms of your Cardmember Agreement, the deferred finance charges will be added to your account as soon as the date of default.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill: If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write Cardmember Service on a separate sheet at P.O. Box 15299 Wilmington, DE 19850-5299 as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information.

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are unsure about.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take action to collect the amount you question. If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment, your letter or call (using the Cardmember Service address or telephone number shown on this statement) must reach us at least three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases: If you have a problem with the quality of goods or services that you purchased with a credit card (excluding purchases made with a check), and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may not have to pay the remaining amount due on the goods or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

Cardmember Agreement

ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT

This agreement governs your credit card account with us referenced on the card carrier containing the card for this account. Any use of your account is covered by this agreement. Please read the entire agreement and keep it for your records. You authorize us to pay for and charge your account for all transactions made on your account. You promise to pay us for all transactions made on your account, as well as any late or finance charges. If this is a joint account, each of you, together and individually, is responsible for paying all amounts owed, even if the account is used by only one of you. Please sign the back of your credit card when you receive it. You will be bound by this agreement if you or anyone authorized by you use your account for any purpose, even if you don't sign your card. Whether you use your account or not, you will be bound by this agreement unless you cancel your account within 30 days after receiving your card and you have not used your account for any purpose.

Throughout this agreement, the words "we", "us" and "our" mean Chase Bank USA, N.A., the issuer of your credit card and account. The words "you", "your" and "yours" mean all persons responsible for complying with this agreement, including the person who applied for the account and the person to whom we address billing statements, as well as any person who agrees to be liable on the account. The word "card" means one or more cards or other access devices, such as account numbers, that we have issued to permit you to obtain credit under this agreement.

USING YOUR ACCOUNT

Your account is a consumer account and should be used only for personal, family or household purposes. Unless we agree or it is required by law, we will not be responsible for merchandise or services purchased or leased through use of your account. You promise to use your account only for valid and lawful transactions. For example, internet gambling may be illegal in some places. It is not our responsibility to make sure that you are using your account only for permissible transactions, and you will remain responsible for paying for a transaction even if it is not permissible.

Types of Transactions

- Purchases: You may use your card to pay for goods or services.
- Checks: We may provide you cash advance checks or balance transfer checks as a way to use your account. We also refer to them in this agreement as a check or checks. You may use a check to pay for goods or services, to transfer balances to your account, or for other uses we allow. But you may not use these checks to transfer balances to this account from other accounts with us or any of our related companies. Only the person whose name is printed on the check may sign the check. Cash advance checks are treated as cash advances and balance transfer checks are treated as balance transfers except as noted in this agreement or any other we make to you. We may treat checks that we call convenience checks as balance transfer checks. However, checks that we call convenience checks and that we indicated to you are subject to the terms for cash advances, may be treated as cash advances and assessed cash advance rates and fees.
- Balance Transfers: You may transfer balances from other accounts or loans with other credit card issuers or other lenders to this account, or other balance transfers we allow. But you may not transfer balances to this account from other accounts with us or any of our related companies. If a portion of a requested balance transfer will exceed your available credit line, we may process a partial balance transfer up to your available credit line.
- Cash Advances: You may use your card to get cash from automatic teller machines, or from financial institutions accepting the card, or to obtain travelers checks, foreign currency, money orders, wire transfers or similar cash-like charges, or to obtain lottery tickets, casino gaming chips, race track wagers or for similar betting transactions. You may also use a third-party service to make a payment on your behalf and bill the payment to this account.
- Overdraft Advances: If you have an eligible checking account with one of our related banks, you may link this account to your checking account with our related bank to cover an overdraft on that checking account under the terms of this agreement and your checking account agreement.

Billing Cycle: In order to manage your account, we divide time into periods called "billing cycles". Each billing cycle is approximately one month in length. For each calendar month, your account will have a billing cycle that ends in that month. Your account will have a billing cycle ending in each calendar month whether or not there is a billing statement for that billing cycle.

Authorized Users: If you allow someone to use your account, that person will be an authorized user. You should think carefully before allowing anyone to become an authorized user because you are allowing that person to use the account as you can. You will remain responsible for the use of your account and each card issued on your account according to the terms of this agreement. This includes your responsibility for paying all charges on your account made by an authorized user.

You may request an additional card for use by an authorized user on your account. If you do so, this account may appear on the credit report of that authorized user. You must notify us to terminate an authorized user's permission to use your account. If you notify us, we may close the account and/or issue a new card or cards with a different account number. You should also recover and destroy any cards, checks or any other means of access to your account from that authorized user.

Credit Line: Your credit line appears on your billing statements. We may also refer to the credit line as a credit limit or spending limit. Your billing statement also may show that only a portion of your credit line may be used for cash advances. Cash advances, including cash advance checks, are charged against the cash advance portion of your credit line, and all other transactions are charged against your credit line. You are responsible for keeping track of your account balance, including any fees and finance charges, and making sure it remains below your credit line. If your account balance is over your credit line for any reason, we may charge you an overlimit fee as described in this agreement. We may, but are not required to, authorize charges that go over your credit line. You must pay any amount over your credit line, and you must pay us immediately if we ask you to. This agreement applies to any balance over your credit line, or the cash advance. At our discretion, we may increase, reduce, or cancel your credit line, or the cash advance portion of your credit line, at any time. However, if you have asked us not to do so, we will not increase your credit line. A change to your credit line will not affect your obligation to pay us.

International Transactions: International transactions include any transaction that you make in a foreign currency or that you make outside of the United States of America even if it is made in U.S. dollars. If you make a transaction in a foreign currency, Visa International or MasterCard International, Inc., will convert the transaction into U.S. dollars by using its respective currency conversion procedures. The exchange rate each entity uses to convert currency is a rate that it selects either from the range of rates available in the wholesale currency markets for the applicable processing date (which the rate may vary from the rate the respective entity itself receives), or the government-mandated rate in effect on the applicable processing date. This rate in effect on the applicable processing date may differ from the rate on the date you used your card or account. We reserve the right to charge you an additional three percent (3%) of the U.S. dollar amount of any international transaction, whether that transaction was originally made in U.S. dollars or was made in another currency and converted to U.S. dollars by Visa or MasterCard. In either case, the 3% will be calculated on the U.S. dollar amount provided to us by that entity. The same process and charges may apply if any international transaction is reversed.

Refusal to Authorize Transactions: We may, but are not required to, decline a transaction on your account for any of the following reasons:

- because of operational considerations,
- because your account is in default,
- if we suspect fraudulent or unlawful activity or,
- in our discretion, for any other reason.

We are not responsible for any losses if a transaction on your account is declined for any reason, either by us or a third party, even if you have sufficient credit available.

For online transactions, we may require that you register your account with an authorized system that we select. We will notify you if we want you to register. If you do not register, we may decline your online transactions.

Refusal to Pay Checks: Each check you write is your request for funds. When we receive a check for payment, we may review your account to decide whether to authorize that check. We may, but are not required to, reject and return unpaid a check for any reason, including the following examples:

- We or one of our related companies is the payee on the check.
- Your credit line or cash advance portion of your credit line has been exceeded, or would be exceeded if we paid the check.
- The check is post-dated. If a post-dated check is paid, resulting in another check being returned or not paid, we are not responsible.
- You have used the check after the date specified on it.
- You are in default or would be if we paid the check.

Lost or Stolen Cards, Checks or Account Numbers: If any card, check, account number or other means to access your account is lost or stolen, or you think someone used or may use them without your permission, you must notify us at once by calling the Cardmember Service telephone number shown on your card or billing statement. Do not use your account after you notify us, even if your card, check, account number or other means to access your account is found or returned. We may terminate or suspend your credit privileges when you notify us of any loss, theft or unauthorized use related to your account.

You may be liable if there is an unauthorized use of your account from which you receive no benefit, but you will not be liable for more than $50.00 of such transactions, and you will not be liable for any such transactions made after you notify us of the loss, theft or unauthorized use. However, you must identify for us the unauthorized charges from which you received no benefit.

We may require you to provide us information in writing to help us find out what happened. We may also require you to comply with certain procedures in connection with our investigation.

PAYMENTS

Payment Instructions: Your billing statement and accompanying envelope include instructions you must follow for making payments and sets forth the date and time by which we must receive the payment.

You agree to pay us amounts you owe in U.S. dollars drawn on funds on deposit in a U.S. financial institution or the U.S. branch of a foreign financial institution using a payment check, money order or automatic debit that will be processed or honored by your financial institution. We will not accept cash payments. Your total available credit may not be restored for up to 15 days after we receive your payment.

Any payment check or other form of payment which you send to us for less than the full balance that is marked "paid in full" or with a similar notation or that you otherwise tender in full satisfaction of a disputed amount (conditional payments), must be sent to us at the conditional payments address listed on your monthly statement. We reserve all our rights regarding such payments. For example, if it is determined there is no valid dispute or if any such payment is received at any other address, we may accept the payment and you will still owe any remaining balance. We may refuse to accept any such payment by returning it to you, not cashing it or by destroying it. All other payments that you make should be sent to the regular payment address shown on your monthly statements.

We reserve the right to electronically collect your eligible payment checks, or first presentment and any representation, from the bank account on which the check is drawn. Our receipt of your payment checks is your authorization for us to collect the amount of the check electronically, or, if needed, by a draft drawn against the bank account. Payment checks will be collected electronically by sending the check amount along with the check, routing and account numbers to your bank. Your bank account may be debited as early as the same day we receive your payment. The original payment check will be destroyed and an image will be maintained in our records.

Minimum Payment: You agree to pay at least the minimum payment due, as shown on your billing statement, so that we receive it by the date and time payment is due. You may pay more than the minimum payment due and may pay the full amount you owe us at any time. If you have a balance that is subject to finance charges, the sooner you pay us, the less you will pay in finance charges because finance charges accrue on your balance each day.

Minimum Payment: You agree to pay at least the minimum payment due, as shown on your billing statement, so that we receive it by the date and time payment is due. You may pay more than the minimum payment due and may pay the full amount you owe us at any time. If you have a balance that is subject to finance charges, the sooner you pay us, the less you will pay in finance charges because finance charges accrue on your balance each day.

Your billing statement shows your beginning balance and your ending balance (the "New Balance" on your billing statement). If the New Balance is $10.00 or less, your minimum payment due will be the New Balance. Otherwise, it will be the largest of:

- $10.00;
- 2% of the New Balance; or
- the sum of 1% of the New Balance, the following $10.00, 2% of the New Balance, and any billed late and overlimit fees.

As total billed periodic rate finance charges, and any billed late and overlimit fees. As total billed periodic rate finance charges, we also add any amount past due and any amount past due of the minimum payment due, we also add any amount past due and any amount past due of the minimum payment due.

We are authorized to allocate your payments to pay your credit line.

Payment Allocation: You agree that we are authorized to allocate your payments and credits in a way that is most favorable to or convenient for us. For example, you authorize us to apply your payments and credits to balances with lower APRs (such as revolving balances) before balances with higher APRs.

Credit Balances: You may request a refund of a credit balance at any time. We may reduce the amount of any credit balance by the amount of new charges or fees billed to your account.

Automatic Charges: You may authorize a third party to automatically charge you to your account. Automatic charges (for example, monthly utility charges, membership fees, account for repeat transactions (for example, monthly utility charges, membership fees and insurance premiums)) If automatic charges are stopped for any reason (including because your account is closed or suspended for any reason) or your account number changes, you are responsible for notifying the biller and paying these charges directly. If your account number changes we may, but are not required to, pay for your new account number charges that you authorized to be billed to your old account number. We may also offer special terms for your account. If we do, we will tell you about them when we offer them to you.

Promotions: From time to time we may offer special terms for your account. If we do, we will notify you about the terms of the offer and how long they will be in effect. Any promotion is subject to the terms of this agreement, as modified by the promotional offer.

FINANCE CHARGES

Daily Periodic Rates and Annual Percentage Rates are listed on the Rates and Fees ("APRs") and the corresponding daily periodic rates are listed on the Rates and Fees Table that is at the end of this document or provided separately. To get the daily periodic rate we divide the APR by 365, and in effect always round up at the fifth decimal place to the right of the decimal point. Interest rate on your account may vary with changes periodic rate we divide the APR by 360, and then we place to the right of the decimal point.

Variable Rates: One or more APRs that apply to your account may vary with changes to the Prime Rate. When you have an APR that varies with changes to the Prime Rate published in The Wall Street Journal, we calculate the APR by adding a margin to the Prime Rate published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal. If The Wall Street Journal stops publishing the Prime Rate, we will select a similar reference rate and inform you on your billing statement. The "Prime Rate" is the highest U.S. 1 Prime Rate published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal. If The Wall Street Journal stops publishing the Prime Rate, we will select a similar reference rate and inform you on your billing statement.

the Prime Rate, we will select a single statement or through a separate notice. A "margin" is the percentage we add to the Prime Rate to calculate the APR. The "business day" is any day that is not a weekend or federal holiday. The Rates and Fees Table shows which rates, if any, are variable rates. It also lists the margin for each variable rate and any minimum daily periodic rate and corresponding APR. Two business days before the Closing Date shown on your billing statement we will notify you of the applicable margin to that Prime Rate to post to your account.

Two business days before the closing date, we will determine the applicable Prime Rate for the term of the APPL. The daily periodic rate is calculated as described above. If our calculation results in a change to a daily periodic rate from the previous billing cycle because the Prime Rate has changed, the new rate will apply as of the first day of your billing cycle that ends in the calendar month in which we made the change. If the daily periodic rate increases, you will have to pay a higher periodic rate than the higher minimum payment.

Default Rates: Your APRs also may vary if you are in default under this agreement or any other agreement you have with us or any of our related companies for any of the following reasons:

• We do not receive, for any payment that is owed on this account or any other account or loan with us, at least the minimum payment due by the date and time due.

- You exceed your credit line on this account
- You make a payment to us that is not honored by your bank
- To the extent allowed by law, if, at any time after your account is closed, we demand immediate payment of your outstanding balance and we do not receive payment within the time we specify.

If any of these events occurs, we may increase the APRs (including any promotional APR) on all balances (excluding overdraw advances) up to a maximum of the default APR on all balances as shown in the Rates and Fees Table. We may consider the following factors in determining your default rate: the length of time your account has been open; the existence, seriousness and timing of the defaults on your account; other indicators of your account usage and performance; and information we obtain from consumer credit reports obtained from credit bureaus. The default rate will take effect on the first day of the billing cycle in which the default occurs, and will apply to purchases balances from the previous billing cycle for which periodic finance charges have not been already billed and even though there is a default or if we do not not been adequately funded. If we decide not to increase your APR even though there is a default or if we do not increase your APR up to the maximum default rate stated in the Rates and Fees Table, we reserve our right to increase your APR in the event of any future default. We may, in our discretion, determine to charge reduced default rates or reinstatement rates on delinquent balances on your account.

We may in our discretion determine to calculate finance charges for purchases at standard rates for all or selected balances on your account.

Finance Charge Calculation — Two-Cycle Average Daily Balance Method (Including New Purchases) for Purchases and Average Daily Balance Method (Including New Purchases) for Transactions: We calculate periodic finance charges separately for each balance associated with a different category of transactions (for example, purchases, balance transfers, balance transfer checks, cash advances (or example, purchases, overdraft advances, and each prominent). These calculations may combine different categories with the same daily periodic rates. This is how it works:

Example: Finance charges for purchases in two steps, as follows:

works. Step 1: Compute the periodic finance charges for purchases in two steps, as follows:

- First, for each day of the billing cycle, we multiply the daily balance by the daily periodic rate.
- Second, for each day of the previous billing cycle we multiply the daily balance for purchases made in that billing cycle by the same daily periodic rate. However, we do not do this second step if we received payment in full of the New Balance on your previous billing statement by the date and time the minimum payment was due or if a periodic finance charge was already billed on that balance.

We calculate the periodic finance charges (or purchaser subject to a promotional rate) on your previous billing statement if:

We calculate the periodic interest charge rate the same way, but we use the promotional rate. We calculate periodic finance charges for balance transfers, balance transfer checks, cash advances, cash advance checks, and overdraft advances, by multiplying the daily periodic rate for each of the daily balance for each of those categories by the daily periodic rate for each of those categories, each day you may have overdraft advances only if you have limited those categories, each day you may have overdraft advances only if you have limited those categories to a checking account with one of our related banks. We calculate the periodic finance charges for balance transfers, balance transfer checks, cash advances, and cash advance checks subject to a promotional rate the same way, but we use the promotional rate each day for each category.

but we use the promotional rate
To get the daily balance for each day for each category.

- We take the beginning balance for that day.
- We add to that balance any new transactions, fees, other charges, and debit adjustments that apply to that category. We add a new purchase, cash advance, or overdraft advance, if applicable, to the daily balance as of the transaction date, or a later date of our choice. We add a new cash advance check or balance transfer check to the daily balance as of the date the cash advance check or balance transfer check is deposited by a payee, or a later date of our choice.
- We subtract from that balance any payments, credits, or credit adjustments that apply to that category and that are credited as of that day.
- We treat a credit balance as a balance of zero.
- At the end of each category for the next day, we add the daily balance to the credit balance of the category for the next day.

To get the beginning balance for the next day, we add the daily periodic finance charge to the daily balance. If more than one daily periodic rate could apply to a category because the rate for the category may vary based on the amount of its average daily balance, we will use the daily periodic rate that applies for the average daily balance amount at the end of the billing cycle to calculate the daily periodic finance charge each day. This agreement provides for daily finance charges

To get the total periodic finance charge for the billing cycle, we add all of the daily periodic finance charges for each category for each day during that billing cycle. If we have a purchase, we add the daily periodic finance charge for purchases, plus the daily periodic finance charge on purchases, if any apply, for the previous billing cycle. However, if any periodic finance charge is due, we will charge it at the beginning of the billing cycle. If the minimum periodic finance charge stated in the Rates and Fees Table is less than the amount we add, we will add the minimum periodic finance charge. We will also add an additional amount to reach the minimum finance charge, if needed, during the billing cycle.

The total finance charge on your account for a billing cycle will be the sum of the periodic finance charges plus any transaction fee finance charges.

The total finance charges plus any transaction fee (including new transaction fees) are divided by the number of days in the billing cycle to determine the average daily balance. For each category we calculate an average daily balance (including new transactions) for the billing cycle by adding all your daily balances and dividing that amount by the number of days in the billing cycle. If a periodic finance charge for purchases is made during the previous billing cycle applies, the average daily balance for those purchases is calculated the same way. If you multiply the average daily balance for purchases by the periodic rate, and multiply the result by the number of days in the billing cycle, you will get the finance charge for purchases for the billing cycle.

purchase is calculated the same way. If you are a member of a category that has a special financing rate, we will calculate the finance charge for that category by that category's daily periodic rate, and multiply the result by the number of days in the billing cycle; the total will equal the periodic finance charges for the balance attributable to that billing cycle, except for minor variations due to rounding.

Grace Period and Accrual of Finance Charges. We accrue periodic finance charges on the transaction, fee, or finance charge from the date it is added to your daily balance on a transaction, fee, or finance charge from the date it is added to your daily balance on a transaction, fee, or finance charge from your account. However, we do not charge periodic finance charges on the amount of a purchase that is not subject to a cash advance advance.

Transaction Fees for Cash Advances: We may charge you a cash advance fee, the amount stated in the Rates and Fees Table for each of the following transaction

- cash advance checks
- cash advances

service charges the payment to this account payment. We add the fee to the balance for the related transaction fee

These transaction fees are incurred every time you use your cash advance. For example, a transaction fee of 3% of the transaction date of the cash advance. For example, a transaction fee of 3% of the transaction date of the cash advance.

Transaction Fees for Balance Transfers: We may charge you a balance transfer fee of the amount stated in the Rates and Fees Table for each of the following transactions:

- balance transfer checks.
- balance transfers.

These transaction fees are finance charges. We use the category 05 of the transaction date of the balance transfer. For example, a transaction category 05 balance transfer would be added to your balance transfer balance.

OTHER FEES AND CHARGES

We may charge the following fees. The amount of the fee is shown in the Fee Table. These fees will be added to the balance for purchases made during the billing cycle.

Annual Membership Fee: If you are a member of the Society, you agree to pay the annual membership fee of $100.00 in monthly installments (as stated in the Rules and Bylaws) each year or in monthly installments, you agree to pay it when billed. The annual membership fee is not refundable unless you notify us that you wish to close your account within 30 days of the date we mail your billing statement on which the annual membership fee is charged and at the same time, you pay your outstanding balance in full. Your payment of the annual membership fee does not affect our right to close your account or limit your right to make transactions on your account. If your account is closed by you or us, we will continue to bill you for your annual membership fee until you pay your outstanding balance.

will continue to charge the annual membership fee in full and terminate your account relationship

Late Fee: If we do not receive your payment by the due date shown on your billing statement for any billing cycle, we may charge a late fee. The late fee is shown in the Rates and Fees Table. If the late fee is based on a balance, we will charge the late fee using the Previous Balance on the current month's statement. If the late fee is based on the current month's balance, we will charge the late fee using the Previous Balance on the prior month's statement. This balance is the same as the New Balance shown on the prior month's statement for which we did not receive at least the required minimum payment. We may also charge a late fee on the due date and time it was due.

Overlimit Fee: If your account balance is over your credit limit, we may charge an overlimit fee. We may charge this fee even if only for a day, we may charge an overlimit fee because of a finance charge or fee we imposed.

even if your balance is over the credit limit. We will not charge more than one overlimit fee for a transaction we authorized. We will not charge more than one overlimit fee for a subsequent billing cycle, even if your account balance is over the credit limit during the subsequent billing cycle. But we may charge an overlimit fee if your account balance still is over your credit limit when new transactions are made on your account. If your account balance is over your credit limit at any time during the subsequent billing cycle, we may charge an overlimit fee. If the overlimit fee is not honored, we may charge you a late fee.

Return Payment For: If (a) your payment check or similar instrument is returned to you unpaid, or (b) we must return an automatic debit or other electronic payment to you because it is not signed or cannot be processed, we may charge a payment check because it is not signed or cannot be processed. We may charge a payment check because it is not signed or cannot be processed. We may charge a payment check because it is not signed or cannot be processed.

Return Check For: If (a) we stop payment on a cash advance check or balance transfer check at your request, or (b) we refuse to pay a cash advance check or balance transfer check for record of your account or if you request copies of documents, for example, obtaining cards on an expedited basis, we may charge you for the copies. However, we will not charge you for copies of billing statements, sales drafts or similar documents that you request for a billing dispute you may assert against us under applicable law. We may charge, for any services listed above and other services we provide, charges to come in effect when we offer the service.

Administrative Fees: If you request a copy of a billing statement, sales sheet or other document, we may charge a return check fee. If you request two or more cards or any special services, we may charge two or more cards or any special services.

1885 FROM WHO IS THIS
DEFAULT/COLLECTION

We may consider you to be in default if any of these conditions exist:

- We do not receive interest on your billing statement.
- You exceed your credit line.
- You fail to comply with the terms of this agreement or any agreement with one of our related companies.
- We obtain information that causes us to believe that you may be unwilling or unable to pay your debts to us or to others on time.
- You file for bankruptcy.
- You become incapacitated or in the event of your death.
- You become insolvent or unable to pay your debts. We may close your account without notice.

If we consider your account to be in default, we will immediately require you to pay your unpaid balance in full. We also may require you to pay interest at the rate of two percent (2%) a month on the unpaid balance when we consider your account to be in default. We will bill you for the amount due on the first of the month following the month in which the account was first in default.

To the extent permitted by law, if you are in default because you have failed to pay, you will pay our collection costs, attorneys' fees, court costs, and all other expenses incurred under this agreement.

enforcing our rights under CLOTHING YOUR ACCOUNT

You may close your account at any time. If you cannot do so, we require that you confirm your request in writing.

We may close your account at any time for any reason without prior notice except as required by applicable law. If we close your account, we will not be liable to you for any consequences resulting from closing your account, including but not limited to, loss of credit privileges.

If you or we close your account, you and any authorized users must destroy all cards, checks or other means to access your account. You will continue to be responsible for charges to the account until you return them to us upon request. You will continue to be responsible for charges to the account, even if they are made or processed after your account is closed and you have returned the cards.

be required to pay the outstanding balance on your account according to the terms of this agreement. In addition, to the extent allowed by law, we may require you to pay the outstanding balance immediately or at any time after your account is closed.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. THIS AGREEMENT REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT AND BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BRING A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION IN COURT SUCH AS THAT IN THE FORM OF A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION, NOR WILL YOU BE ABLE TO BRING ANY CLAIM IN ARBITRATION AS A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BE PART OF ANY CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION BROUGHT BY ANYONE ELSE, OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. IN THE ABSENCE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, YOU AND WE MAY OTHERWISE HAVE HAD A RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO BRING CLAIMS IN A COURT, BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CASE FILED IN COURT BY OTHERS (INCLUDING CLASS ACTIONS AND OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTIONS). OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO A COURT, SUCH AS DISCOVERY OR THE RIGHT TO APPEAL THE DECISION MAY BE LIMITED OR LOST IF NOT SET AS FORTH OTHERWISE PROVIDED BELOW. THOSE RIGHTS ARE WAIVED BY YOUR SIGNATURE TO THIS AGREEMENT. THIS AGREEMENT IS A TRANSACTION INVOLVING

Binding Arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to voluntary choice of the parties hereto, and shall be governed by and be enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), 9 U.S.C. § 1-16 as it may be amended. This Arbitration Agreement sets forth the circumstances and procedures under which claims (as defined below) must be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

Parties Covered. For the purposes of this Assignment Agreement, the term "Parties Covered" includes our parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, predecessors, successors, assignees, any purchaser of your Account, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and assigns or any and all of them. Additionally, "we", "us" and "our" shall include any third party providing benefits, services, or products in connection with the Account (including but not limited to credit bureaus, merchants that accept any credit device issued under the Account, rewards programs and enrollment services, credit insurance companies, debt collectors, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and representative agents), and only if such a third party is named by you as a co-defendant in any Claim you assert against us.

CLAIMS. This Arbitration Agreement covers all claims for damages or compensation arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement, whether such Claims are based on law, statute, contract, regulation, ordinance, or common law, constitutional provision, or any legal theory of law such as respondeat superior, or any other legal or equitable ground and whether such Claims seek or request monetary damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims submitted to this Arbitration Agreement include Claims regarding the applicability of this Arbitration Agreement or the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or any prior Cardmember Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement includes Claims that arose in the past, or in the present or the future. As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term Claim shall have the broadest possible meaning.

Claims subject to arbitration include Claims asserted by or on behalf of the third party claimant, interpleaders or otherwise, and a party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any such Claims advanced in the lawsuit by any party or parties.

No arbitration will be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding without your consent of all parties. The only Claims that may be joined in an individual action under this Arbitration Agreement are (i) those brought by us against you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account; or your heirs or your trust.

If you think we have reported inaccurate information to a credit bureau, you may write to us at the Cardmember Service address listed on your billing statement. Please include your name, address, account number, telephone number and a brief description of the problem. If available, please provide a copy of the credit bureau report in question. We will promptly investigate the matter and, if our investigation shows that you are right, we will contact each credit bureau to which we reported the information and will request they correct the report. If we disagree with you after our investigation, we will tell you in writing or by telephone. We will also notify the credit bureau that you dispute the information unless you let us know that you no longer dispute the information.

NOTICES/CHANGE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION
We will send cards, billing statements and other notices to you at the address shown in our files. If this is a joint account, we can send billing statements and notices to any joint account holder. Notice to one of you will be considered notice to all of you and all of you will remain obligated on the account.
If you change your name, address, or home, cellular or business telephone number, or email address (if you elect to receive billing statements or other notices online), you must notify us immediately in writing at the address shown on your billing statement. We may, at our option, accept mailing address corrections from the United States Postal Service. We may contact you about your account, including for customer service or collection, at any address or telephone number as well as any cellular telephone number you provide us.
NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC BILLING AND RECORDING

TELEPHONE MONITORING AND RECORDING
We, and if applicable, our agents, may listen to and record your telephone calls with us. You agree that we, and if applicable, our agents, may do so, whether you or we initiate the telephone call.

INFORMATION SHARING

You authorize us to share certain information about you and your account within our family of companies, and with others outside our family of companies including any family of companies, and with others outside our family of companies including any company or organization whose name or mark may appear on the cards, as permitted by law. Our Privacy Policy, which is provided to you when you first receive on agreement and at least once each calendar year thereafter, describes our information sharing practices and the choices you have and directions you may give us about our sharing of information about you and your account with companies or organizations within and outside of our family of companies.

ILLINOIS CARDMEMBERS

Illinois law provides that we may not share information about you with companies or other organizations outside of our family of companies unless you authorize the disclosure or unless the disclosure falls under another exception in the law (such as sharing information to process your transactions or in response to a subpoena), as sharing information to process your transactions or in response to a subpoena. If you hereby agree that, if you choose not to authorize us to share personal information in our Privacy Policy, you will be deemed to have authorized us to share personal information we have about you (including information related to any of the products or services you may have with any of our companies) with companies or other organizations outside of our family of companies

ENFORCING THIS AGREEMENT
We can delay enforcing or not enforce any of our rights under this agreement without losing our right to enforce them in the future. If any of the terms of this agreement are found to be unenforceable, all other terms will remain in full force.

ASSIGNMENT
We may assign your account, any amounts you owe us, or any of our rights and obligations under this agreement to a third party. The person to whom we make the assignment will be entitled to any of our rights that we assign to that person.

GOVERNING LAW
THE TERMS AND ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT AND YOUR ACCOUNT SHALL BE GOVERNED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW AND, TO THE EXTENT STATE LAW APPLIES, THE LAW OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICT-OF-LAW PRINCIPLES. THE LAW OF DELAWARE, WHERE WE AND YOUR ACCOUNT ARE LOCATED, WILL APPLY NO MATTER WHERE YOU LIVE OR USE THE ACCOUNT.

CHANGES TO THIS AGREEMENT
We can change this agreement at any time, regardless of whether you have access to your account, by adding, deleting, or modifying any provision. Our right to add, delete, or modify provisions includes financial terms, such as the APRs and fees, and other terms such as the nature, extent, and enforcement of the rights and obligations you or we may have relating to this agreement. Modifications, additions, or deletions are called "Changes" or a "Change".

The notice will describe any rights you may have with respect to any changes. You may exercise these rights by writing to us at the address set forth in the notice.

CREDIT INFORMATION

We may periodically review your credit history by obtaining information from credit bureaus and others.

We may report information about you and your account to credit bureaus, including your failure to pay us on time. If you request additional cards on your account later, your failure to pay us on time may be reported on those cards as well. If you are late on payments or do not pay at all, we may report account information in your name as well as in the names of those other people.

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit line. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50.00 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rules for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. This right does not apply to check transactions. There are two limitations on this right:

- (a) You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
  - (b) The purchase price must have been more than $50.00.
- These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

Information About Your Account

Lost or Stolen Cards: Please report your lost or stolen card immediately by calling the Customer Service number found on the front of your statement. Advisors are always available to assist you. You can reach an Advisor by pressing 0 after you enter your account number.

Crediting of Payments: For payments by regular U.S. mail, send at least your minimum payment due to our post office box designated for payments shown on this statement. Your payments by mail must comply with the instructions on this statement, and must be made by check or money order, payable in U.S. Dollars, and drawn on or payable through a U.S. financial institution or the U.S. branch of a foreign financial institution. Do not send cash. Write your account number on your check or money order. Payments must be accompanied by the payment coupon in the envelope provided with our address visible through the envelope window, the envelope cannot contain more than one payment or coupon; and there can be no staples, paper clips, tape or correspondence included with your payment. If your payment is in accordance with our payment instructions and is made available to us on any day except December 25 by 1:00 p.m. local time at our post office box designated for payments on this statement, we will credit the payment to your account as of that day. If your payment is in accordance with our payment instructions, but is made available to us after 1:00 p.m. local time at our post office box designated for payments on this statement, we will credit it to your account as of the next day. If you do not follow our payment instructions or if your payment is not sent by regular U.S. mail to our post office box designated for payments, crediting of your payment may be delayed for up to 5 days. Payments made electronically through our automated telephone service, Customer Service advisors, or our web site will be subject to any processing times disclosed for those payments.

Account Information Reported to Credit Bureaus: We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report. If you think we have reported inaccurate information to a credit bureau, you may write to us at the Cardmember Service address listed on your billing statement.

Notice About Electronic Check Conversion: When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution. Call the customer service number on this statement if you have questions about electronic check collection or do not want your payments collected electronically.

Conditional Payments: Any payment check or other form of payment that you send us for less than the full balance due that is marked "paid in full" or contains a similar notation, or that you otherwise tender in full satisfaction of a disputed amount, must be sent to Card Services, P.O. Box 15049, Wilmington, DE 19850-5049. We reserve all our rights regarding these payments (e.g., if it is determined there is no valid dispute or if any such check is received at any other address, we may accept the check and you will still owe any remaining balance). We may refuse to accept any such payment by returning it to you, not cashing it or destroying it. All other payments that you make should be sent to the appropriate payment address.

Annual Renewal Notice: If your account has an annual fee, it will be billed each year or in monthly installments, whether or not you use your account, and you agree to pay it when billed. The annual fee is non-refundable unless you notify us that you wish to close your account within 30 days of the date we mail your statement on which the annual fee is charged and at the same time, you pay your outstanding balance in full. Your payment of the annual fee does not affect our rights to close your account and to limit your right to make transactions on your account. If your account is closed by you or us, we will continue to charge the annual fee until you pay your outstanding balance in full and terminate your account relationship.

Explanation of Finance Charges: We calculate periodic finance charges, using the applicable periodic rates shown on this statement, separately for each feature (e.g., balance transfer/convenience checks and cash advance checks ("check transaction"), purchases, balance transfers, cash advances, promotional balances or overdraft advances). These calculations may combine different categories with the same daily periodic rates. If there is a "V" next to a periodic rate on this statement, that rate may vary, and the index and margin used to determine that rate and its corresponding APR are described in your Cardmember Agreement, as amended. There is a minimum finance charge in any billing cycle in which you owe any periodic finance charges, and a transaction finance charge for each balance transfer, cash advance, or check transaction, in the amounts stated in your Cardmember Agreement, as amended.

To get the daily balance for each day of the current billing cycle, we take the beginning balance for each feature, add any new transactions or other debits (including fees, unpaid finance charges and other charges), subtract any payments or credits, and make other adjustments. Transactions are added as of the transaction date, the beginning of the billing cycle in which they are posted to your account, or a later date of our choice (except that check transactions are added as of the date deposited by the payee or a later date of our choice). Fees are added either on the date of a related transaction, the date they are posted to your account, or the last day of the billing cycle. This gives us that day's daily balance. A credit balance is treated as a balance of zero. If a daily periodic rate applies to any feature, we multiply the daily balance by the daily periodic rate to get your periodic finance charges for that day. We then add these periodic finance charges to your daily balance to get the beginning balance for the next day. (If more than one daily periodic rate could apply based on the average daily balance, we will use the daily periodic rate that applies for the average daily balance amount at the end of the billing cycle to calculate the daily periodic finance charge each day.)

To get your total periodic finance charge for a billing cycle when a daily periodic rate(s) applies, we add all of the daily periodic finance charges for all features. To determine an average daily balance, we add your daily balances and divide by the number of the days in the applicable billing cycle(s). If you multiply the average daily balance for each feature by the applicable daily periodic rate, and then multiply each of these results by the number of days in the applicable billing cycle(s), and then add all of the results together, the total will also equal the periodic finance charges for the billing cycle, except for minor variations due to rounding. To get your total periodic finance charge for a billing cycle when a monthly periodic rate(s) applies, multiply the average daily balance for each feature by the applicable monthly periodic rate and add the results together. The total will equal the periodic finance charges for the billing cycle, except for minor variations due to rounding.

Grace Period (at least 20 days):

We accrue periodic finance charges on a transaction, fee, or finance charge from the date it is added to your daily balance until payment in full is received on your account. However, we do not charge periodic finance charges on new purchases billed during a billing cycle if we receive both payment of your New Balance on your current statement by the date and time your payment is due and also payment of your New Balance on your previous statement by the date and time your payment was due. There is no grace period for balance transfers, cash advances, check transactions, or overdraft advances.

In addition, if there is a "Qualifying Promotional Financing" section on this statement, you will not incur periodic finance charges on any Remaining Balance that appears in that section if you pay that balance in full by the applicable Expiration Date. To avoid finance charges on new purchases when your New Balance includes any Remaining Balance(s) in the Qualifying Promotional Financing section, pay your full New Balance minus the total of those Remaining Balance(s) by the date and time your payment is due. However, if your statement shows that a minimum payment is due, we must receive at least that minimum payment by the date and time specified on your statement, even if your New Balance consists only of Qualifying Promotional Financing balances.

Also, for some Qualifying Promotional Financing balances, periodic finance charges accrue during the promotional period but are not added to your account balance. Instead, they accumulate from billing cycle to billing cycle. This is referred to as "deferred interest." If a deferred interest Qualifying Promotional Financing balance is not paid in full by the applicable Expiration Date, the deferred finance charges will be added to your account as soon as the first day after the Expiration Date. Further, if you default under the terms of your Cardmember Agreement, the deferred finance charges will be added to your account as soon as the date of default.

BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill: If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write Cardmember Service on a separate sheet at P.O. Box 15299 Wilmington, DE 19850-5299 as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information.

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are unsure about.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take action to collect the amount you question. If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment, your letter or call (using the Cardmember Service address or telephone number shown on this statement) must reach us at least three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases: If you have a problem with the quality of goods or services that you purchased with a credit card (excluding purchases made with a check), and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may not have to pay the remaining amount due on the goods or services. You have this protection only when the purchase price was more than $50 and the purchase was made in your home state or within 100 miles of your mailing address. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT

This agreement governs your credit card account with us referenced on the card carrier containing the card for this account. Any use of your account is covered by this agreement. Please read the entire agreement and keep it for your records. You authorize us to pay for and charge your account for all transactions made on your account. You promise to pay us for all transactions made on your account, as well as any fees or finance charges. If this is a joint account, each of you, together and individually, is responsible for paying all amounts owed, even if the account is used by only one of you. Please sign the back of your credit card when you receive it. You will be bound by this agreement if you or anyone authorized by you use your account for any purpose, even if you don't sign your card. Whether you use your account or not, you will be bound by this agreement unless you cancel your account within 30 days after receiving your card and you have not used your account for any purpose. Throughout this agreement, the words "we", "us" and "our" mean Chase Bank USA, N.A., the issuer of your credit card and account. The words "you", "your" and "yours" mean all persons responsible for complying with this agreement, including the person who applied for the account and the person to whom we address billing statements, as well as any person who agrees to be liable on the account. The word "card" means one or more cards or other access devices, such as account numbers, that we have issued to permit you to obtain credit under this agreement.

USING YOUR ACCOUNT

Your account is a consumer account and should be used only for personal, family or household purposes. Unless we agree or it is required by law, we will not be responsible for merchandise or services purchased or leased through use of your account. You promise to use your account only for valid and lawful transactions. For example, internet gambling may be illegal in some places. It is not our responsibility to make sure that you use your account only for permissible transactions, and you will remain responsible for paying for a transaction even if it is not permissible.

Types of Transactions

- Purchases: You may use your card to pay for goods or services.
- Checks: We may provide you cash advance checks or balance transfer checks as a way to use your account. We also refer to them in this agreement as a check or checks. You may use a check to pay for goods or services, to transfer balances to your account, or for other uses we allow. But you may not use these checks to transfer balances to this account from other accounts with us or any of our related companies. Only the person whose name is printed on the check may sign the check. Cash advance checks are treated as cash advances and balance transfer checks are treated as balance transfers except as noted in this agreement or any other we make to you. We may treat checks that we call convenience checks as balance transfer checks. However, checks that we call convenience checks and that we indicated to you are subject to the terms for cash advances, may be treated as cash advances and assessed cash advance rates and fees.
- Balance Transfers: You may transfer balances from other accounts or loans with other credit card issuers or lenders to this account, or other balance transfers we allow. But you may not transfer balances to this account from other accounts with us or any of our related companies. If a portion of a requested balance transfer will exceed your available credit line, we may process a partial balance transfer up to your available credit line.
- Cash Advances: You may use your card to get cash from automatic teller machines, or from financial institutions accepting the card, or to obtain travelers checks, foreign currency, money orders, wire transfers or similar cash-like charges or to obtain lottery tickets, casino gaming chips, race track wagers or for similar betting transactions. You may also use a third party service to make a payment on your behalf and bill the payment to this account.
- Overdraft Advances: If you have an eligible checking account with one of our related banks, you may link this account to your checking account with our related bank to cover an overdraft on that checking account under the terms of this agreement and your checking account agreement.

Billing Cycle: In order to manage your account, we divide time into periods called "billing cycles". Each billing cycle is approximately one month in length. For each calendar month, your account will have a billing cycle that ends in that month. Your account will have a billing cycle ending in each calendar month whether or not there is a billing statement for that billing cycle.

Authorized Users: If you allow someone to use your account, that person will be an authorized user. You should think carefully before allowing anyone to become an authorized user because you are allowing that person to use the account as you can. You will remain responsible for the use of your account and each card issued on your account according to the terms of this agreement. This includes your responsibility for paying all charges on your account made by an authorized user.

You may request an additional card for use by an authorized user on your account. If you do so, this card may appear on the credit report of that authorized user. You must notify us to terminate an authorized user's permission to use your account. If you notify us, we may close the account and/or issue a new card or cards with a different account number. You should also recover and destroy any cards, checks or any other means of access to your account from that authorized user.

Credit Limit: Your credit line appears on your billing statements. We may also refer to the credit line as a credit limit or spending limit. Your billing statement also may show that credit line as a credit limit or spending limit. Your credit line may be used for cash advances. Cash advances, only a portion of your credit line may be used for cash advances. Cash advances, including cash advance checks, are charged against the cash advance portion of your credit line, and all other transactions are charged against your credit line. You are responsible for keeping track of your account balance, including any fees and finance charges, and making sure it remains below your credit line. If your account balance is over your credit line for any reason, we may charge you an overlimit fee as described in this agreement. We may, but are not required to, authorize charges that go over your credit line. You must pay any amount over your credit line, and you must pay us immediately if we ask you to. This agreement applies to any balance over your credit line, or the cash advance. At our discretion, we may increase, reduce, or cancel your credit line, and the cash advance portion of your credit line, at any time. However, if you have asked us not to do so, we will not increase your credit line. A change to your credit line will not affect your obligation to pay us.

International Transactions: International transactions include any transaction that you make in a foreign currency or that you make outside of the United States of America even if it is made in U.S. dollars. If you make a transaction in a foreign currency, Visa International or MasterCard International, Inc., will convert the transaction into U.S. dollars by using its respective currency conversion procedures. The exchange rate each entity uses to convert currency is a rate that it selects either from the range of rates available in the wholesale currency markets for the applicable processing date (which rate may vary from the rate the respective entity itself receives), or the government-mandated rate in effect on the applicable processing date. The rate in effect on the applicable processing date may differ from the rate on the date you used your card or account. We reserve the right to charge you an additional three percent (3%) of the U.S. dollar amount of any international transaction, whether that transaction was originally made in U.S. dollars or was made in another currency and converted to U.S. dollars by Visa or MasterCard. In either case, the 3% will be calculated on the U.S. dollar amount provided to us by that entity. The same process and charges may apply if any international transaction is reversed.

Related to Authorized Transactions: We may, but are not required to, decline a transaction on your account for any of the following reasons:

- because of operational considerations,
- because your account is in default,
- because you suspect fraudulent or unlawful activity or,
- in our discretion, for any other reason.

We are not responsible for any losses if a transaction on your account is declined for any reason, either by us or a third party, even if you have sufficient credit available.

For online transactions, we may require that you register your account with an authorization system that we select. We will notify you if we want you to register. If you do not register, we may decline your online transactions.

Refusal to Pay Checks: Each check you write is your request for funds. When we receive a check for payment, we may review your account to decide whether to authorize that check. We may, but are not required to, reject and return unpaid a check for any reason, including the following examples:

- We or one of our related companies is the payee on the check.
- Your credit line or cash advance portion of your credit line has been exceeded, or would be exceeded if we paid the check.
- Your credit line or cash advance portion of your credit line has been exceeded, or would be exceeded if we paid the check.
- The check is post-dated. If a post-dated check is paid, resulting in another check being returned or not paid, we are not responsible.
- You have used the check after the date specified on it.
- You are in default or would be if we paid the check.

Lost or Stolen Cards, Checks or Account Numbers: If any card, check, account number or other means to access your account is lost or stolen, or you think someone used or may use them without your permission, you must notify us at once by calling the Cardmember Service telephone number shown on your card or billing statement. Do not use your account after you notify us, even if your card, check, account number or other means to access your account is found or returned. We may terminate or suspend your credit privileges when you notify us of any loss, theft or unauthorized use related to your account.

You may be liable if there is unauthorized use of your account from which you receive no benefit, but you will not be liable for more than $500.00 of such transactions, and you will not be liable for any such transactions made after you notify us of the loss, theft or unauthorized use. However, you must identify for us the unauthorized charges from which you received no benefit.

We may require you to provide us information in writing to help us find out what happened. We may also require you to comply with certain procedures in connection with our investigation.

PAYMENTS

Payment Instructions: Your billing statement and accompanying envelope include instructions you must follow for making payments and sets forth the date and time by which we must receive the payment.

You agree to pay us amounts you owe in U.S. dollars drawn on funds on deposit in a U.S. financial institution or the U.S. branch of a foreign financial institution using a payment check, money order or automatic debit that will be processed or honored by your financial institution. We will not accept cash payments. Your total available credit may not be restored for up to 15 days after we receive your payment.

Any payment check or other form of payment which you send to us for less than the full balance due is marked "paid in full" or with a similar notation or that you otherwise indicate in full satisfaction of a disputed amount (conditional payment). We reserve all our rights regarding such payments. For example, if it is determined there is no valid dispute or if any such payment is received at any other address, we may accept the payment and you will still owe any remaining balance. We may refuse to accept any such payment by returning it to you, not cashing it or by destroying it. All other payments that you make should be sent to the regular payment address shown on your monthly statements.

We reserve the right to electronically collect your eligible payment checks, or first person's name and any representation, from this bank account on which the check is drawn. Our receipt of your payment checks is your authorization for us to collect the amount of

In addition, if you use a third party service to make a payment on your behalf and the service charges the payment to this account, we may charge a transaction fee for the payment.

These transaction fees are finance charges. We add the fee to the balance for the related category as of the transaction date of the cash advance. For example, a transaction fee for a cash advance would be added to your cash advance balance. Transaction Fees for Balance Transfers: We may charge you a balance transfer fee in the amount stated in the Rates and Fees Table for each of the following transactions:

- balance transfer checks.
- balance transfers.

- balance transfer checks;
- balance transfers.

These transaction fees are finance charges. We add the fee to the balance for the relevant category as of the transaction date of the balance transfer. For example, a transaction category would be added to your balance transfer balance.

OTHER FEES AND CHARGES

OTHER FEES AND CHARGES
We may charge the following fees. The amounts of these fees are listed in the Rates and Fees Table. These fees will be added to the balance for purchases made during the billing cycle.

Annual Membership Fee: If your account was an Annual Membership, the Annual Membership Fee is $100.00, which is charged to your account each year or in monthly installments (as stated in the Rules and Fees Table), without regard to whether or not you use your account, and you agree to pay it when billed. The annual membership fee is non-refundable unless you notify us that you wish to close your account within 30 days of the date we mail your billing statement on which the annual membership fee is charged and at the same time, you pay your outstanding balance in full. Your payment of the annual membership fee does not affect our right to close your account or limit your right to make transactions on your account. If your account is closed by you or us, we will continue to charge the annual membership fee until you pay your outstanding balance in full and terminate your account relationship.

Late Fee: If we do not receive all the information required for any billing cycle, we may calculate a late fee. Late fees are shown on your billing statement for the month in which the late fee is assessed. The late fee is based on the balance shown in the Rates and Fees Table. If the late fee is based on the current month's statement balance, the late fee is calculated using the Previous Balance on the current month's statement. If the late fee is based on the New Balance shown on the previous month's statement for which we did not receive all the required minimum payment information, the late fee is based on the New Balance shown on the previous month's statement for which we did not receive all the required minimum payment information. The late fee is assessed by the date and time it was due.

DEFAULT/COLLECTION

DEFAULT/COLLECTION:
We may consider you to be in default if any of these occur:
- Failure to pay the minimum amount due by the due date and time due as shown on the bill.

- We do not receive at least the minimum amount on your billing statement
- You exceed your credit line.
- You fail to comply with the terms of this agreement or any agreement with one of related companies.
- We obtain information that causes us to believe that you may be unwilling or unable to pay your debts to us or to others on time
- You file for bankruptcy
- You become incapacitated or in the event of your death.
- You become insolvent or in default, we may close your account without notice. If you are unable to pay your debt, you may require your lender to pay your debt.

If we consider your account to be in default, we may require you to pay your unpaid balance immediately. We also may require you to pay interest at the rate of two percent (2%) a month on the unpaid balance when we consider your account to be six or more billing cycles past due.

To the extent permitted by law, if you are in default under this agreement, you will pay our collection costs, attorneys' fees, court costs, and all other expenses incurred by us in enforcing this agreement.

CLOSING YOUR ACCOUNT

You may close your account at any time if you can't afford to pay. We will require that you confirm your request in writing.

We may close your account of any time or for any reason without prior notice except as required by applicable law. If we close your account, we will not be liable to you for any consequences resulting from closing your account.

account, we may suspend your credit privileges and/or suspend or suspend your credit privileges. If you or we close your account, you and any authorized users must immediately destroy all cards, checks or other means to access your account and return them to us upon request. You will continue to be responsible for charges or account, even if they are made or processed after your account is closed and your account.

be required to pay the outstanding balance on your account according to the terms of this agreement. In addition, to the extent allowed by law, we may require you to pay the outstanding balance immediately or at any time after your account is closed.

outstanding balance immediately upon receipt of payment.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES THAT ANY DISPUTE MAY BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BRING A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION IN COURT SUCH AS THAT IN THE FORM OF A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION, NOR WILL YOU BE ABLE TO BRING ANY CLAIM IN ARBITRATION AS A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BE PART OF ANY CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION BROUGHT BY ANYONE ELSE, OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CLASS ACTION OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTION. IN THE ABSENCE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT YOU AND WE MAY OTHERWISE HAVE HAD A RIGHT OR OPPORTUNITY TO BRING CLAIMS IN A COURT, BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE OR BE REPRESENTED IN A CASE FILED IN COURT BY OTHERS (INCLUDING CLASS ACTIONS AND OTHER REPRESENTATIVE ACTIONS). OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU WOULD HAVE IF YOU WENT TO A COURT, SUCH AS DISCOVERY OR THE RIGHT TO APPEAL THE DECISION MAY BE MORE LIMITED EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BELOW. THOSE RIGHTS ARE WAIVED.

Binding Arbitration. This Arbitration Agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce, and shall be governed by and be enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act (the "FAA"), 9 U.S.C. § 1-16 as it may be amended. This Arbitration Agreement sets forth the circumstances and procedures under which claims (as defined below) may be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

sets forth the circumstances and procedures by which the dispute may be resolved by arbitration instead of being litigated in court.

Parties Covered. For the purposes of this Arbitration Agreement, "we," "us," and "our" shall include our parent, subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, predecessors, successors, assignees, any purchaser of your Account, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and assigns or any and all of them. Additionally, "we," "us" and "our" shall include any third party providing benefits, services, or products in connection with the Account including but not limited to credit bureaus, merchants that accept any credit device issued and used by you, the Account, rewards programs and enrollment services, credit insurance companies, debt collectors, and all of their officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives. If, and only if, such a third party is named by you as a co-defendant in any Claim you assert against us, we may proceed without the other's consent, elect to litigate the dispute, and may not be bound by the arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

and only if such a third party is named as a party to the arbitration proceeding.

Claims Covered. Either you or we may, without the other's consent, elect mandatory arbitration of any claim, dispute or controversy by either you or us against the other, or against the employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, beneficiaries, agents or assigns of the other, arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement or your Cardmember Account, arising from or relating in any way to the advertising, application or approval of your Account ("Claims"). This Arbitration Agreement governs all Claims or disputes arising from or relating in any way to the Cardmember Agreement, whether such Claims are based on law, statute, contract, regulation, ordinance, or common law, constitutional provision, or any legal theory of law such as respondeat superior or any other legal or equitable ground and whether such Claims seek or remedy damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims covering money damages, penalties, injunctions, or declaratory or equitable relief. Claims covered by this Arbitration Agreement include Claims regarding the applicability of this Arbitration Agreement or the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or any prior Cardmember Agreement or the validity of the entire Cardmember Agreement or any prior Cardmember Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement includes Claims that arose in the past, or are arising now, or may arise in the future. As used in this Arbitration Agreement, the term Claims includes any and all Claims, whether or not they are known to exist at the time of the filing of this Arbitration Agreement.

In the presence of, and to the best of your knowledge and belief, the undersigned hereby certifies that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original document, and that the undersigned is the duly authorized representative of the undersigned.

Claims subject to arbitration include Claims that are made as counterclaims, cross claims, third party claims, interpleaders or otherwise, and a party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any such Claims advanced in the lawsuit.

As an exception to this Arbitration Agreement, you retain the right to pursue in a court any Claim that is within that court's jurisdiction and proceeds on an individual basis. If a party elects to arbitrate a Claim, the arbitration will be conducted on an individual basis. If you have agreed to any arbitration on a class or representative basis, you and the arbitrator shall have no authority to proceed on such basis. This means that only a class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as that in the form of a private class action lawsuit or other representative action, such as that in the form of a private lawsuit, will be subject to an individual arbitration claim if either you or we so elect to litigate the same. If you and we litigate the same claim in an individual action, the claim will be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding without your consent.

No arbitration will be conducted until you have consented to this Arbitration Agreement. The only Claims that may be joined in an individual action with this Arbitration Agreement are (1) those brought by us against you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, or authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy or (2) those brought by you and any co-applicant, joint cardmember, authorized user of your Account, or your heirs or your trustee in bankruptcy against us. These administrators are independent from us. The Arbitration will be conducted under the rules of the selected arbitration administrator. Any arbitration hearing that you attend shall be held at a place chosen by the arbitration administrator within the federal judicial district in which you reside at the time the Claim is filed, or at some other place to which you and we agree in writing. You may obtain copies of the arbitration rules and instructions from the arbitration administrator as follows:

Procedures and how applicable in arbitration. A single, neutral arbitrator will either be a lawyer with at least 10 years experience or a or former judge. The arbitration will be conducted under the applicable procedures and rules of the arbitration administrator that are in effect on the date the arbitration is filed unless those procedures and rules are inconsistent with this Arbitration Agreement, in which case this Agreement will prevail. These procedures and rules may limit the amount of discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law consistent with the FAA and applicable statutes of limitations, and will honor claims of privilege recognized at law. You may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect customer Account information and other confidential information, including the use of protective orders to prohibit disclosure outside the arbitration, if requested to do so by you or us. The arbitrator will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law, and will not have the power to award relief to, against, or for the benefit of any person who is not a party to the proceeding. If the law authorizes such relief, the arbitrator may award punitive damages or attorney fees. The arbitrator will make any award in writing but need not provide a statement of reasons unless requested by a party. Upon a request by you or us, the arbitrator will provide a brief statement of the reasons for the award.

Costs. We will reimburse you for the initial arbitration filing fee paid by you up to the amount of $500 upon receipt of proof of payment. Additionally, if there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration administrator for the first two days of that hearing. The payment of any such hearing fees by us will be made directly to the arbitration administrator selected by you or us pursuant to this Arbitration Agreement. All other fees will be allocated in keeping with the rules of Arbitration Agreement and applicable law. However, we will advance or reimburse filing fees and other fees if the arbitration administrator or arbitrator determines there is good reason for requiring us to do so or you ask us and we determine there is good cause for doing so. Each party will bear the expense of the arbitrator's fees and costs of that party's attorneys, experts, witnesses, documents and other expenses, regardless of which party prevails, for arbitration and any appeal (as permitted below), except that the arbitrator shall apply any applicable law in determining whether a party should recover any or all fees and costs from another party.

Enforcement, finality, appeals. Failure or any delay in enforcing this Arbitration Agreement at any time, or in connection with any particular claim, will not constitute a waiver of any rights to require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other claims. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on the parties, unless a party appeals in writing to the arbitration organization within 30 days of issuance of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of two neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration organization. The panel will reconsider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. Each party will bear their own fees, costs and expenses for any appeal, but a party may recover any or all fees, costs and expenses from another party, if the majority of the panel of arbitrators, applying applicable law, so determines. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the law, so determined. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the law, so determined. An award in arbitration will be enforceable as provided by the law, so determined.

FAA or other applicable law by any court having jurisdiction. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive the termination or severability of this Arbitration Agreement, the Account and the relationship between you and us concerning the Account, such as the closing of a new account number or the transferring of the balance in the Account to another account, or the bankruptcy of any party or any similar proceeding initiated by you or on your behalf, and (iii) payment of the debt in full by you or by a third party. If any portion of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions shall nevertheless remain in force.

CHANGES TO THIS AGREEMENT

We can change this agreement at any time, regardless of whether you have access to your account, by adding, deleting, or modifying any provision. Our right to add, delete, or modify provisions includes financial terms, such as the APRs and fees, and other terms such as the nature, extent, and enforcement of the rights and obligations you or we may have relating to this agreement. Modifications, additions, or deletions are called "Changes" or a "Change".

We will notify you of any Change if required by applicable law. These Changes may be effective with notice only, at the time stated in our notice, in accordance with applicable law. Unless we state otherwise, any Change will apply to the unpaid balances on your account and to new transactions.

The notice will describe any rights you may have with respect to any Change, and the consequences if you do or do not exercise those rights. For example, the notice may state that you may notify us in writing by a specified date if you do not want to accept certain Changes, your account may be closed (if it is not already closed) and you will be obligated to pay your outstanding balance under the applicable terms of the agreement. If you do not notify us in writing by the date stated in the notice, or if you agree to accept all Changes in the notice and to confirm all terms of your agreement and all Changes in prior notices we have sent you regardless of whether you have access to your account.

CREDIT INFORMATION

We may periodically review your credit history by obtaining information from credit bureaus and others.

We may report information about you and your account to credit bureaus, including your failure to pay us on time. If you request additional cards on your account for others, we may report account information in your name as well as in the names of those other people.

If you think we have reported inaccurate information to a credit bureau, you may write to us at the Cardmember Service address listed on your billing statement. Please include your name, address, account number, telephone number and a brief description of the problem. If available, please provide a copy of the credit bureau report in question. We will promptly investigate the matter and, if our investigation shows that you are right, we will contact each credit bureau to which we reported the information and will request they correct the report. If we disagree with you after our investigation, we will tell you in writing or by telephone. We will also notify the credit bureau that you dispute the information unless you let us know that you no longer dispute the information.

NOTICES/CHANGE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will send cards, billing statements and other notices to you at the address shown in our files. Or, if this is a joint account, we can send billing statements and notices to any joint account holder. Notice to one of you will be considered notice to all of you and all of you will remain obligated on the account. If you change your name, address, or home, cellular or business telephone number, or email address (if you elect to receive billing statements or other notices online), you must notify us immediately in writing at the address shown on your billing statement. We may, at our option, accept mailing address corrections from the United States Postal Service. We may contact you about your account, including for customer service or collection, at any address or telephone number as well as any cellular telephone number you provide us.

TELEPHONE MONITORING AND RECORDING

We, and if applicable, our agents, may listen to and record your telephone calls with us. You agree that we, and if applicable, our agents, may do so, whether you or we initiate the telephone call.

INFORMATION SHARING

You authorize us to share certain information about you and your account within our family of companies, and with others outside our family of companies including any company or organization whose name or mark may appear on the cards, as permitted by law. Our Privacy Policy, which is provided to you when you first receive an agreement and at least once each calendar year thereafter, describes our information sharing practices and the choices you have and directions you may give us about our sharing of information about you and your account with companies or organizations within and outside of our family of companies.

ILLINOIS CARDMEMBERS

Illinois law provides that we may not share information about you with companies or other organizations outside of our family of companies unless you authorize the disclosure or unless the disclosure falls under another exception in the law (such as sharing information to process your transactions or in response to a subpoena). You hereby agree that, if you choose not to have authorized us to share personal information we have about you (including information related to any of the products or services you may have with any of our companies) with companies or other organizations outside of our family of companies.

ENFORCING THIS AGREEMENT

We can delay enforcing or not enforce any of our rights under this agreement without losing our right to enforce them in the future. If any of the terms of this agreement are found to be unenforceable, all other terms will remain in full force.

ASSIGNMENT

We may assign your account, any amounts you owe us, or any of our rights and obligations under this agreement to a third party. The person to whom we make the assignment will be entitled to any of our rights that we assign to that person.

GOVERNING LAW

THE TERMS AND ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT AND YOUR ACCOUNT SHALL BE GOVERNED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW AND, TO THE EXTENT STATE LAW APPLIES, THE LAW OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICT-OF-LAW PRINCIPLES. THE LAW OF DELAWARE, WHERE WE AND YOUR ACCOUNT ARE LOCATED, WILL APPLY NO MATTER WHERE YOU LIVE OR USE THE ACCOUNT.

FOR INFORMATION

Please call the Cardmember Service telephone number on your card or billing statement if you have any questions about your account or this agreement.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS

Keep This Notice For Future Use

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us In Case Of Errors Or Questions About Your Bill

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet at the Cardmember Service address shown on your billing statement. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. We can telephone you, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or checking account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment your letter must reach us at least three business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

Your Rights And Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit line. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 90 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50.00 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rules for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. This right does not apply to check transactions. There are two limitations on this right:

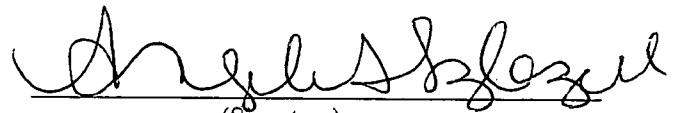

- (a) You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and
  - (b) The purchase price must have been more than $50.00.
- These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

The Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) is an organization of the Department of Defense that maintains the Defense Enrollment and Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) database which is the official source of data on eligibility for military medical care and other eligibility systems.

The Department of Defense strongly supports the enforcement of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act [50 USCS Appx. §§ 501 et seq] (SCRA) (formerly the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940). DMDC has issued hundreds of thousands of "does not possess any information indicating that the individual is currently on active duty" responses, and has experienced a small error rate. In the event the individual referenced above, or any family member, friend, or representative asserts in any manner that the individual is on active duty, or is otherwise entitled to the protections of the SCRA, you are strongly encouraged to obtain further verification of the person's active duty status by contacting that person's Military Service via the "defenselink.mil" URL provided below. If you have evidence the person is on active-duty and you fail to obtain this additional Military Service verification, provisions of the SCRA may be invoked against you.

If you obtain further information about the person ( e.g., an SSN, improved accuracy of DOB, a middle name), you can submit your request again at this Web site and we will provide a new certificate for that query.

This response reflects current active duty status only. For historical information, please contact the Military Service SCRA points-of-contact.

WARNING: This certificate was provided based on a name and Social Security number (SSN) provided by the requester. Providing an erroneous name or SSN will cause an erroneous certificate to be provided.
