RE: CAPITAL ONE BANK vs. MICHAEL J COUDRIET
NO: 08-514-CD

My defense to the above court case is my wife attempted to work directly with Capital One Bank due to a near fatal diagnosis which required me to be hospitalized. I was unable to work steady for a significant period of time. Capital One Bank would not work with my wife to resolve the balance or offer a conceivable agreement. Due to this, I was required to work with an alleged credit management company, which failed to make the required payments. When I began to work directly with Capital One Bank again, I offered a payment agreement that would meet my budget and this was rejected by Capital One Bank. At this time, I do not have the letters mailed to Capital One Bank due to computer failure, which erased my hard drive, and a backup was not saved. However, Capital One Bank should have the agreement letters on file. I feel I have made every possible effort to resolve this problem and received no assistance from the Plaintiff. Therefore, I believe this lawsuit should be dismissed.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Coudriet
