No 270 February Term, 1961

IN ASSUMPSIT

COMPLAINT

1. The Plaintiffs are LEON D. BROWN and ERMA BROWN, who reside at R. D. Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in the Township of Lawrence, Clearfield County.

2. The Defendant is the PENNSYLVANIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, a corporation, having its principal place of business at 150 Williams Street, New York City, New York, and duly registered to do business in Pennsylvania.

3. The Defendant has and is presently doing insurance business at the offices of Moore, Wilson & Eshelman, Inc., its agent in Clearfield, Pennsylvania.

4. On November 10, 1958, the Defendant, by its agent, Moore, Wilson & Eshelman, Inc., executed and delivered to the Plaintiffs, a Home Owners' Policy insuring the Plaintiffs' premises, more fully described in said policy. A copy of the said policy being No. HOA 201391, being in the possession of the Defendants or its agent and made a part hereof.

5. The said policy insured against the loss by the perils defined therein and which includes the peril of explosion as follows:

"Explosion, but the following are not explosions within the intent or meaning of this provision:

(a) concussion, unless caused by explosion,
(b) electrical arcing, (c) water hammer and
(d) rupture or bursting of water pipes; this Company shall not be liable for rupture, bursting, cracking, burning or bulging of steam boilers or steam pipes, located in buildings on the premises of the described dwelling."

6. The said policy of insurance has been effective since November 19, 1958 and the premiums have been paid by the said Plaintiffs and is acknowledged in the said policy.

7. On or about June 10, 1960, the premises insured in the said policy of insurance were damaged and destroyed by an explosion on the lands of Maple Hill Coal Company situate to the East of the insured property.

8. The Plaintiffs thereafter gave notice to the Defendant of the loss caused by the said explosion on or about June 10, 1960 and delivered to the agent of the Defendant an account of the Plaintiffs' loss and damage.

9. The Plaintiffs have performed all things on their part to be performed, but the Defendant has broken its covenant relating to the insuring of the premises against loss by explosion.

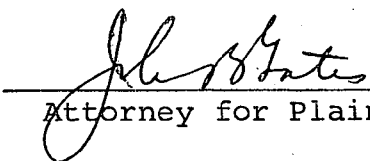

10. That by reason of said explosion incurred herein, the rear wall of the basement was cracked from the door head to the window sill; the front foundation wall was cracked from joist line down six courses in two places and in one place from the top of the foundation to the basement floor; Partition block wall in basement was knocked down; numerous small cracks in the flue; plaster cracks in the bedroom; crack in brick foundation; and plaster cracks in the bathroom and at the window casing.

11. As a result of the said explosion the Plaintiffs sustained the loss for and the necessary repairs in the sum of $424.25 and which are itemized and included herein in Exhibit "A".

12. The Defendant has not paid to the Plaintiffs the said sum of the loss, nor repaid nor reimbursed the Plaintiffs for the loss sustained by the explosion although so requested, contrary to the terms and conditions of the policy of insurance.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs demand judgment against the Defendant with interest from July 10, 1960.

(1). The averments of Paragraph 1 are admitted.

(2). The averments of Paragraph 2 are admitted.

(3). The averments of Paragraph 3 are admitted.

(4). The averments of Paragraph 4 are admitted.

(5). The averments of Paragraph 5 are admitted.

(6). The averments of Paragraph 6 are admitted.

(7). The averments of Paragraph 7 are denied, and it is averred that if there has been damage to the property of Plaintiffs, that the same is the result of natural deterioration or other causes unknown to Defendant, and none of said damage was the result or caused by any perils covered by the policy in effect between Plaintiffs and Defendant, and strict proof is demanded of the cause and nature of the damage complained of.

(8). The averments of Paragraph 8 are admitted.

(9). It is admitted the Plaintiffs have complied with the conditions precedent to suit. It is denied, however, there is any liability upon the Defendant to pay for the alleged damage because the damage didnot result from any of the perils covered by the contract of insurance in effect between the Plaintiffs and Defendant.

(10). The averments of Paragraph 10 are denied, and it is averred that any of said damages were not caused by explosion or by any peril covered by Plaintiffs' and Defendant's policy and insofar as the nature of damage, the Defendant after reasonable investigation is without sufficient information to answer the same, and, therefore, the same is denied and strict proof demanded thereof.

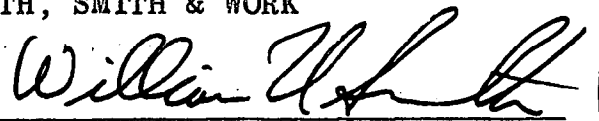

(11). It is denied Plaintiffs suffered any loss as a result of explosion or any peril covered by Plaintiffs'-- Defendant's contract of insurance. As to the amount of damage pleaded, the Defendant, after reasonable investigation, is without sufficient information or belief to answer the same, and the same is, therefore, denied, and strict proof demanded thereof.

(12). It is averred that Defendant has not paid Plaintiffs because the Plaintiffs have not suffered damage covered within the terms of Plaintiffs'--Defendant's insurance policy and, therefore, the Defendant is not liable to Plaintiffs in any sum.

WHEREFORE, it is denied Defendant is indebted to Plaintiffs in any sum.

COMPANY, as Surety, are held and firmly bound in the sum of Five hundred ($500⁰⁰/~~25~~) Dollars lawful money of the United States to be paid to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to which payment to be made, we do bind ourselves and each of us, our successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our hands and seals the day noted hereafter.

NOW THE CONDITION of this obligation is such that if the above burden Principal upon failure in the appeal taken from the Award of Arbitrators in the above entitled action shall pay all costs that may legally be recovered in said appeal, then this obligation to be void and of no effect; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue. And we do hereby authorize any attorney to appear for us and confess judgment against us for the above sum with interest and costs, and we do hereby release all arrears and waive all rights of inquisition and appeal, and to the benefit of all laws exempting real and personal property from levy and sale.
