No Sheriff shall be required to render any service in any civil proceedings until he receives indemnity satisfactory to him for the payment of his official fees, mileage, expenses, and legal costs or payment of same, from the party at whose instance or for whose benefit such service is to be performed, but any money advanced for his charges, and not earned or expended shall be refunded to the payer thereof. And in case he does not receive his charges in advance or upon demand, he may file with his return an itemized list of unpaid fees, mileage, costs and expenses respecting the services to which such return relates, and if no exceptions are filed to the same within thirty days, from the time of making such return, the items included in such list shall be considered taxed, and confirmed as fees and costs due such Sheriff and become a judgment in law against the party for whose benefit the services were rendered as well as against any other party who may be or become liable for such fees and costs by law; and the said Sheriff may issue an execution for the amount so taxed, and collect the same from any party so chargeable therewith without further suit, and shall not be disqualified to enforce such execution by reason of his interest therein.

of the first payment shall be $ 26.84, and the amount of each of the succeeding monthly payments

shall be $ 26.84; provided that the final payment, whether made before, at, or after the date when it is due, shall be equal to all principal then remaining unpaid plus interest then accrued and unpaid and no more. Every payment shall be applied first to interest computed in full to the date payment is actually made and the remainder to principal. Notwithstanding any provision hereof, after the expiration of twenty-four (24) months from the date hereof, interest on any then unpaid principal balance shall accrue and be payable at the rate of six (6%) per centum per annum.

The principal amount hereof or any part hereof may be paid in advance at any time with interest as above to the date of payment.

Default in making any payment or any part thereof shall, at the option of the holder hereof and without notice or demand, render the entire unpaid balance of the principal hereof and accrued interest thereon at once due and payable.

The undersigned and each of them hereby constitute and appoint the attorney for said lender, or any attorney of any Court of Record of Pennsylvania, or elsewhere, their true and lawful attorney in fact, for them and in their name and stead, to appear for and confess and enter judgment against them, or any of them, for the above sum, with or without declaration filed; and also waive the right of inquisition of any real estate that may be levied upon to collect this note and do hereby voluntarily condemn the same and authorize the prothonotary to enter upon any writ of fi. fa. issued on said judgment their said voluntary condemnation; and further agree that said real estate may be sold on a fi. fa.; and also waive and release all benefit of relief from any and all appraisement, stay, or exemption laws of any State now in force or hereafter to be passed in so far as the same can be waived by them.

The parties hereto and sureties, endorsers and guarantors hereby severally waive demand and presentment for payment, notice of non-payment, notice of protest and protest of this note.

The payee herein named is a licensee under Chapter 432, Laws of Pennsylvania, 1915, as amended. The undersigned acknowledges the receipt of a statement in English as required by Section 3 of Chapter 432, as amended.

In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
