COMPLAINT

1. The Plaintiff is Emma Lucille Nadvit and the Defendant is Mike Nadvit.

2. The Plaintiff resides at 228 Curtin Street, Osceola Mills, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

3. The Defendant is a citizen of the United States and resides at 228 Curtin Street, Osceola Mills, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

4. The Plaintiff has resided in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania continuously for more than one (1) full year immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint.

5. The parties hereto were lawfully joined in marriage on July 6, 1946, in Covington, Kentucky.

6. There were no children born to this marriage.

7. In violation of his marriage vows and of the laws of this Commonwealth, the Defendant has over a period of time from July, 1960, and divers times thereafter, offered such indignities to the person of the Plaintiff as to render her condition intolerable and her life burdensome.

8. This action is not collusive.

9. No prior actions for divorce or annulment of the marriage between the parties has ever been instituted in this or any other jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff brings this action and prays that a Decree be issued divorcing her, the said Emma Lucille Nadvit from the bonds of matrimony existing between her and the said

Mike Nadvit as if they had never been married, or as if the said Mike Nadvit were naturally dead.

CAUSE OF DIVORCE

The cause of Divorce alleged in Plaintiff's Complaint is indignities.

V.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. MARRIAGE: The Plaintiff, Emma Lucille Nadvit, and the Defendant, Mike Nadvit, were married on July 6, 1946 in Covington, Kentucky.
2. RESIDENCE: The Plaintiff and Defendant were residents of 228 Curtin Street, Oseeola Borough, Clearfield, County, Pennsylvania.
3. CITIZENSHIP: The Defendant husband, Mike Nadvit, is a native born resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is therefore a citizen of the United States of America. The Plaintiff wife, Emma Lucille Nadvit, has resided in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania continuously for more than one (1) full year immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint in Divorce and is a citizen of the United States of America.
4. AGES AND OCCUPATIONS: The Plaintiff, Emma Lucille Nadvit, is thirty-eight (38) years of age and is a housewife and waitress by occupation. The Defendant, Mike Nadvit, is forty-two (42) years of age and is a bartender by occupation.
5. CHILDREN: There were no children born to this marriage.
6. MILITARY SERVICE: The Plaintiff, Emma Lucille Nadvit, was never a member of the Armed Forces of the United States; and the Defendant, Mike Nadvit, was never a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.
7. FINDINGS ON THE MERITS: A summary of the facts which are clearly substantiated by the testimony in the case at bar establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the Plaintiff-wife has substantiated her alleged causes for divorce based upon the cause of indignities:
 1. The Plaintiff, Emma Lucille Nadvit, always conducted herself in a proper manner and gave the Defendant, Mike Nadvit, no cause to complain.
 2. That in violation of his marriage vows and the laws of this Commonwealth, the Defendant, Mike Nadvit, has over a period of time from July 1960, and divers times thereafter, offered such indignities to the person of the Plaintiff as to render her condition intolerable and her life burdensome.

3. That no action in divorce has been commenced, or is pending between the parties in this or any other jurisdiction other than this Complaint and the present controversy at bar.

4. That there is no collusion between the parties with reference to the procuring of this divorce.

5. Neither party hereto is now or ever has been a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

6. That this Complaint is not filed out of levity or without just legal cause.

8. DISCUSSION: The testimony in the case at bar which was likewise substantiated by the corroborating testimony of the two witnesses present at the time of hearing reveals that the Defendant-husband openly consorted with other women in public places causing great shame and embarrassment to his wife. In addition, thereto, the husband habitually treated the Plaintiff-wife very cruelly and constantly used abusive language in addressing her. He displayed little regard for either his wife's physical, emotional, social, or economic needs or desires. There was an utter lack of any love or affection toward his wife; as a matter of fact, if there was ever any love or affection displayed, it was replaced in the terminal stages of their marriage by hatred and disdain. The testimony in the present case, as well as the Pennsylvania Case Law applicable, thereto, clearly substantiates the Plaintiff-wife's divorce based or predicated upon the cause of indignities.

The Pennsylvania case law is rampant with authority substantiating the indignities set forth in the testimony in the case at bar.

In view of the testimony which has been rendered in this case, the Master is of the opinion that the Plaintiff-wife has sustained her allegations of indignities set forth in her Complaint.

The following cases or citations substantiate the granting of a divorce in the ^{case} at bar on grounds of indignities, since the cases cited are parallel and analogous to the case at bar and sustain the Plaintiff-wife's position or averments of indignities in the case at bar: In Hurley v.

Hurley, 119 A 2d 634, 180 Pa. Super, 364, 1956, the Court states - "The essential feature of the offense of "indignities" as grounds for divorce is that it must consist of a course of conduct or continued treatment which renders the condition of the innocent party intolerable and his or her life burdensome." In Portzline v. Portzline, 26 Northumb. L.J. 74, 1956, the Court states - "Continuous unfounded accusations of infidelity, accompanied by other degrading conduct, are sufficient to make out a case of "indignities" to the person as grounds for divorce. To amount to "indignities" justifying a divorce, charges of infidelity made by defendant not only must be false but must have been without reasonable grounds for believing it to be true; in an action for divorce from bed and board on the grounds of indignities, the law contemplates a course of conduct or continued treatment manifesting settled hate and estrangement.

In Moyer v. Moyer, 124 A2d, 632, 181 Pa. Super. 400, 1956, the Court states - "To support a charge of indignities there must be evidence from which an inference of settled hate and estrangement may be deduced."

In DeFrancesco v. DeFrancesco, 115, A 2d 411, 179 Pa. Super, 106, 1955, the Court states - "In support of the charge of indignities, there must be evidence from which an inference of settled hate and estrangement on the part of the defendant in a divorce action may be inferred."

VI.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The plaintiff and Defendant contracted a legal marriage; the marriage relation still exists between them.

2. The parties are properly before the Court; certified copy of the original Complaint having been accepted and acknowledged by the Defendant. So answers Charles G. Ammerman, Sheriff of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, who handed to the Defendant, personally, a true and correct copy of the original Complaint in Divorce and made known to him the contents thereof. Notice of the Master's Hearing and Service thereof was made upon the Defendant, Mike Nadvit, on the 5th day of December, 1961; and Plaintiff's Counsel accepted service of the Notice of Master's Hearing on the 5th day of December, 1961; said notices and acceptances thereof being attached to this report and made an integral part thereof.

3. The Court has jurisdiction over both of the parties and the subject matter. The Defendant husband, Mike Nadvit, is a native born resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is therefore a citizen of the United States of America. The Plaintiff wife, Emma Lucille Nadvit, has resided in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania continuously for more than one (1) full year immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint in Divorce and is a citizen of the United States of America.

4. The facts in the case at bar established the grounds of indignities within the meaning of the Act of Assembly; Defendant's course of conduct toward Plaintiff was such that it clearly sustains the indignities. The facts corroborated by the testimony at the Master's Hearing are such as to sustain the averments of indignities.

5. There has been no collusion, connivance or levity between the parties in this case.

6. The Plaintiff, Emma Lucille Nadvit, was never a member of the Armed Forces of the United States; and the Defendant, Mike Nadvit, was never a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

It is unquestionable, from the facts and testimony of the case at bar substantiated by the plaintiff wife and her witnesses and the Pennsylvania Case Law applicable thereto, that the Plaintiff wife is without doubt entitled to the divorce based upon the allegations of indignities as set forth in her Complaint. The testimony of the Plaintiff wife in the case at bar was likewise substantiated, as a persual of the testimony will reveal, by the witnesses who have testified in her behalf and corroborated the averments and evidence of Plaintiff.

A. Emma Lucille Nadvit.

Q. And where do you reside, Mrs. Nadvit?

A. 228 Curtin Street, Osceola Mills, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. How old are you, Mrs. Nadvit?

A. Thirty-eight (38).

Q. When and where were you born?

A. Sunrise, Harrison County, Kentucky.

Q. And on what date?

A. June 24, 1922.

Q. You are the plaintiff in this action?

A. Yes.

Q. And what is your husband's name?

A. Mike Nadvit.

Q. And how old is he?

A. He was born on October 19, 1918.

Q. Making him forty-two (42) years old?

A. Right.

Q. And where was he born?

A. Smoke Run, Bigler Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

Q. And were there any children born of this marriage?

A. No, sir.

Q. When and where were you married?
A. We were married first by a Justice of the Peace in Covington, Kentucky.

Q. And what date?
A. July 6, 1946.

Q. Now, you said you were married first; what do you mean by that?
A. We were married later in church.

Q. In other words you were remarried, but there was never an intervening divorce, though?
A. Right.

Q. And where were you remarried?
A. In the St. Mary's Catholic Church in Ramey, Clearfield County, in 1948.

Q. At the time of your marriage, where did you reside?
A. In Cleveland, Ohio.

Q. And where did Mike Nadvit reside? . . . at that time?
A. Cleveland, Ohio, also.

Q. Subsequent to your marriage, where did you take up housekeeping?
A. In Cleveland.

Q. How long did you continue to live in Cleveland?
A. 1956.

Q. And where did you move at that time?
A. We first moved to Philipsburg.

Q. How long did you stay in Philipsburg?
A. A couple months until we moved to Osceola Mills.

Q. In other words, you have continuously resided in Pennsylvania since 1956?
A. Right.

Q. Do you know where the present address of Mike Nadvit is?
A. At this time?

Q. Yes.
A. No, I don't.

Q. Do you know that he live in or around Osceola Mills?
A. Yes.

Q. In Decatur Township, Clearfield County?
A. Right.

Q. When is the last that you had lived together? . . . that you knew where he lived?
A. August, 1961.

Q. Are both you and your husband citizens of the United States?
A. Yes.

Q. What is your occupation?
A. Waitress in a restaurant and house wife.

Q. Do you know the occupation of your husband?
A. Bar tender.

Q. Were you ever a member of ^{the} Armed Services of the United States?
A. No.

Q. Was your husband ever a member of the Armed Services of the United States?
A. No.

- Q. Is there any collusion or agreement between you and your husband to obtain this divorce action?
- A. No.
- Q. Have either you or your husband begun another ~~action~~ divorce in any other county of this commonwealth or outside this commonwealth, other than the present one?
- A. No.
- Q. Mrs. Nadvit, I believe you said that you were married in July of 1946 and took up housekeeping in Cleveland at that time and moved to Pennsylvania, and more particularly, to Osceola Mills in August of 1956, is that right?
- A. Yes.
- Q. During this interval of time, for approximately the first ten years of your marriage, did you have anything particularly unusual that took place or did you get along relatively good with your husband?
- A. Real good during this time.
- Q. And when did your difficulty start? . . . or what you have complained about in this divorce action?
- A. Approximately July, 1960.
- Q. And about this time; that is, July 1960, would you explain to them as to what took place, what troubles you had?
- A. This had been going on for some time. I would say the fellow she was living with. . . .
- Q. You say the fellow she was living with - who are you referring to?
- A. Clyde Williams..
- Q. Who are you referring to as she?
- A. Isabelle Selfridge.
- Q. Now, when this started out, did this start out just with your husband running around with another woman or did it start out more innocently than that?
- A. Well, he was leaving and she was leaving at the same time and they were both coming in at practically the same time.
- Q. Coming in where, Mrs. Nadvit?
- A. The Hotel and they would both come in practically the same time, other than that, he would just make it back in time for work, in time to get her home before Clyde came home.
- Q. And when you refer to Clyde once aggin, you refereto Clyde Williams?
- A. Right.
- Q. I believe you stated, however, that it started out as a foursome, didn't you to me at one time?
- A. Well, at one time, we chumed around together.
- Q. And it grew into more than this?
- A. Right.
- Q. Now can you recall any specific instances in order that the Master may have an idea of what took place here - for instance, did your husband ever at any time beat you or anything of that nature?
- A. Many times.

Q. Well, can you refer to a particular incident, for instance, did he beat you and pull your hair or anything of that nature?

A. He did.

Q. Would you explain that to the Master?

A. He went to bed real late; I was up early; he has to be at work at 8:00 o'clock and I know he was still up at five so I let him sleep until 7:30. He came down stairs; he said "I said to get me up at a certain time;" I was doing my book work. He took the papers and threw them all over the floor, grabbed me by the hair of my head and made me get on my hands and knees and pick them up. That was in the fall of last year.

Q. In other words, that was in the fall of 1960?

A. Right.

Q. Do you recall a particular incident in which he accused you of slashing his automobile tires?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. Would you explain that to the Master?

A. Well, I was up stairs all morning . . .

Q. When was this?

A. Well, this was approximately the same time of last year.

Q. Did this all take place at the Hotel? . . . in Osceola Mills?

A. Right. And he thought I was in Philipsburg that morning. I don't know who was with him, but he was parked in front of the Passmore Hotel. When he came out, his tires were slashed. So when he came in in the afternoon, he came up stairs after me and I took a heck of a beating over that. He accused me of being in Philipsburg and slashing his tires. And the bar tender and everyone on the premises knew I wasn't outside the building.

Q. Did he later come and tell you that he knew it wasn't you?

A. Right, he did. He said, "I know it wasn't you because, because in the first place you weren't down there and a woman couldn't slash tires. But I got a beating over it."

Q. Now, when you say you got a beating, will you go into a little more detail for the Master's benefit? What would he do - slap you or hit you, pull your hair or what would he do?

A. In fact, I was lying down and I got hit right on the head and I still have scars to prove it.

Q. Now, can you explain any other incidents about possibly ripping telephones out or anything to that nature?

A. Yes, I can. Many times. Well, at one time, I had opened in the morning - on a Saturday - and a couple had come in. At the time I had a phone up stairs. So while I was busy doing the work inside, she goes to the lobby phone and dials up stairs.

Q. Who is she?

A. Isabelle Selfridge. So I had to run for change, and when I did, she was on the lobby phone and he was on the up stairs phone. So that was one time the phone was ripped. But he had ripped the one from the kitchen that was connected to the bar room in order that I wouldn't pick it up and listen to his conversation.

Q. In other words, the reason for this was that he thought that you were trying to listen in some way to his conversation with Mrs. Selfridge?

A. Right.

Q. Now, for the benefit of the record and the Master, you and your husband conducted the operation known as the Osceola House in Osceola Mills as a hotel and bar?

A. Right.

- Q. And when you talk about lobby phones and phones upstairs etc., it is in connection with the operation of the Osceola House?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Now, can you relate to the Master, what effect this relationship with the other woman had, as far as the work and business was concerned,; would it mean that you had to run the business?
- A. Well, he would leave; if he wasn't there five days at a time, somebody had to run the place.
- Q. Now, what do you mean if he wasn't there nine days at a time?
- A. He had ~~been~~ on a Saturday and didn't come back until the following Monday.
- Q. Was there times when he was not there all day long?
- A. Many times.
- Q. Did that mean that you had to completely run the place?
- A. Many times.
- Q. Did he explain where he was going?
- A. No, he did not.
- Q. Do you recall a specific incident of July 29, 1961?
- A. Yes, I do.
- Q. Would you explain to the Master what that is?
- A. I had gone home with my mother for a week and he told me to stay for a while; but in the meantime, something told me that I should come back, so I was going to fly back, but my neice said she would driveme back. So when she did, we left on Saturday and got her Sunday morning. Everything was locked. After we got in, the two of them were sitting at the bar. That was on a Sunday, July 29.
- Q. You mean, your husband and Mrs. Selfridge?
- A. Yes, She was dressed; he was just in his bedroom slippers and his trousers. The night before they had had a big scuffle. And undoubtedly, she stayed there for the night.
- Q. Just what took place when you were there?
- A. Well, he went upstairs to my apartment and took her clothes from upstairs which I knew were left on the kitchen table, because I had seen them when we went through the kitchen widdow to get in. He went upstairs, got her clothes, brought them down, and after staying inside for, I would say, a half an hour, he went up, got dressed and the two of them left out the back door.
- Q. Was there any towels or anything laying around?
- A. Yes, there were.
- Q. What was the condition of these?
- A. Well, they were pretty bloody. Clyde Williams had beaten her and that's why she didn't go home. It happened on a Saturday night and I wasn't there. But I knew about it.
- Q. Were there ever any occasions when Clyde Williams would come into the Osceola House looking for Mrs. Selfridge?
- A. Yes, there were. There was a time ^{at the bar} and that's when it first started. And there were quite a few at the bar and I was working and Clyde came in and he asked me where Mike was and I said "I don't know." He said he was going to go find him because Isabelle was with him.
- Q. To the best of your knowledge, was Mrs. Selfridge living with Clyde Williams? . . . at the time this started? She is not married to Clyde Williams?
- A. Right.

Q. And she is not married to your husband, Mike Nadvit, either?
A. Right.

Q. Was this, more or less, a course of conduct between your husband and Miss Selfridge, as far as their being together in and about the Osceola House - was it a consistent thing - how often would you see them in there together in there, etc.?
A. Practically every day.

Q. Wasn't it quite consistent for the two of them to at least be talking together or something right in front of you?
A. I would say so.

Q. Now, you made reference previously to a nine-day-jault, what do you have reference to when you say nine-day-jault?
A. That's when I said he left with her and the two of them were gone for nine days.

Q. When was this?
A. That was the sixth day of August.

Q. In other words, it was the nine previous days before that?
A. That he wasn't at the Hotel.

Q. That's when he came back, picked up some things and left?
A. Yes, and he hasn't been the House since, except in and out; he worked maybe three or four hours a day, maybe five hours a day, but he never stayed there since he closed the bar. He would take off up there or wherever he might have gone and he would come back the next morning; sometimes he wouldn't come back.

Q. Now, you say he would take off up there - what do you have reference to?
A. Well, I had reference to that he would load himself up a little package, beer or whatever he wanted to take from the bar, and he would leave. So he had to sleep somewhere; I don't know where, though.

Q. Have you seen his car as to where he might be at the present time?
A. Yes, I have seen it.

Q. Where is this?
A. Frenchtown.

Q. And who lives in Frenchtown? . . . Decatur Township?
A. Isabelle Selfridge.

Q. To your knowledge is Clyde Williams still living there?
A. No, sir, he isn't.

Q. Now, Mrs. Nadvit, have you ever been beaten to the extent of having black eyes or anything like that?
A. Yes, I have.

Q. Would you explain this?
A. I was put upstairs, I would say, at least three times with black eyes.

Q. Now, you say you were put upstairs, what do you mean?
A. That I wasn't allowed out. The first occasion was - that's why I have my witness here - he wouldn't allow me downstairs; he told them I was sick. And he wouldn't allow them in the room.

Q. What had taken place as to why you got these black eyes?
A. Well, it was all over Miss Selfridge. Any time we ever had an argument was over her. So the first time, he wouldn't allow me downstairs, but the second and the third, I made sure that people saw me.

Q. When did the first time occur? . . . approximately?

A. I would say December 1960.

Q. But it was subsequent to this trouble that was starting last year and over this other woman, is that right? .

A. Yes.

Q. And as you say, every time you got it, it was a result of an argument that you were having over her?

A. Right.

Q. Did he use obscene language?

A. He certainly did.

Q. In front of other people?

A. Right. I was always a "damn liar", then I was also a "drunken pig" regardless of how drunk he got, and I was everything.

Q. Did you make every effort to correct the situation and do everything possible to save your marriage?

A. I certainly did. In fact, his parents did also.

BY THE MASTER, EUGENE L. CIMINO, ESQUIRE:

Q. Mrs. Nadvit, did this course of cruel and barbarous treatment toward you, did that become persistent and habitual on his part - I mean his beating you etc., did that become habitual persistent?

A. Yes, it did.

Q. And his use of abusive and blasphemous and vulgar language towards you, did that become habitual?

A. Yes, it did.

Q. Did he display any love or affection towards you whatsoever?

A. No, sir.

Q. Was it rather than an attitude of hatred and disdain rather than love and affection?

A. Right.

Q. Instead of treating you as his wife, he treated you as the chare lady?

A. Right.

Q. And this course of indecent conduct and being in the company of this Miss Isabelle Selfride, did that become habitual on his part, too? . . . constant?

A. Yes.

Q. And were they often seen in public together?

A. Right.

Q. And was this a source of great embarrassment and shame to you?

A. It certainly was.

Q. And was it impossible for you to remedy the situation by talking it over with him?

A. I tried, very much.

Q. And the situation became utterly impossible?

A. Right.

BY JOHN J. McCAMLEY, ESQUIRE:

Q. Has this course of conduct on the part of your husband resulted in any physically wrongs with you; by that I mean, have you had to have any medical treatment for anything?

A. I did. My nerves. Dr. McClung in Houtzdale took care of me.

Q. And this is because of your nerves as a result of the pressure that was being put upon you?

A. Right. And the same day I came back, he insists that he brings her and sits and talks to me.

Q. In other words, the same day that you had come back from seeing the doctor, your husband insists on bringing Miss Selfridge in to discuss the situation over with you?

A. Right.

Harry B. Witherite, witness in behalf of the plaintiff, being duly sworn according to law, testifies as follows:

Q. Your name, sir?

A. Harry B. Witherite.

Q. And where do you reside?

A. At the Osceola House.

Q. How long have you known the Nadvits?

A. Since last August.

Q. They were what, more or less, your landlords?

A. That's right.

Q. Since August of 1960, is that correct?

A. That's right.

Q. Then you have known them better than a year?

A. That's right.

Q. Now, during this period of time that you have known them, have you ever observed anything that took place relative to this matter that involved any incidents in the winter of 1960 at the bar?

A. I saw him give her a black eye and knocked her down and called her a "drunken pig" and a "damn liar".

Q. This was right in the public bar of the Osceola House?

A. Yes, and he told her if she didn't get out of the bar, he would throw her out.

Q. And did you notice any action on her part that justified him in adopting this attitude toward her?

A. Absolutely not.

Q. Did you ever hear any fights that might have taken place?

A. Yes.

Q. Would you explain these for the Master's benefit?

A. He called her a "damn liar" and a "drunken pig" and told her to get out of the bar and if she didn't, he would throw her out.

Q. Did you hear any fights over Miss Selfridge?

A. One night, I couldn't see it but I heard it; it was right under my room in the lobby, she was crying and kids crying - I didn't see them, I just heard them, because it was noisy.

Q. Did you ever see him talking to Miss Selfridge?

A. Many times.

Q. Right in the Hotel in front of everybody?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever see Mrs. Nadvit when she had a blackeye or bruises or anything like that?

A. The only time I saw her with a black eye was the night he knocked her down in the bar.

Q. I believe you did say you heard him curse her many times?

A. Many times.

Q. This was in front of you, as well as in front of other people?

A. Yes.

Q. To your observations, Mr. Witherite, do you feel that Mrs. Nadvit did everything possible to save this marriage?

A. I don't know how she could have done anything more.

Q. Did she try to keep the business going and run the business even though he wasn't there?

A. That's right, she did.

Q. Do you know of any collusion or agreement that might have been made between Mr. or Mrs. Nadvit relative to obtaining this divorce?

A. No, I do not.

Q. And you are here of your own free will to testify to matters that you know of your own knowledge?

A. That's right.

Leona Teresa Reams, witness in behalf of the plaintiff, being duly sworn according to law, testified as follows:

Q. Your name please?

A. Leona Teresa Reams.

Q. And where do you reside?

A. 609 Blanchard Street, Osceola Mills.

Q. And where do you work, Mrs. Reams?

A. At the Osceola House.

Q. Who is your present employer?

A. Nathan Finocchio.

Q. And previous to that?

A. Mike and Lucille Nadvit.

Q. In other words, you worked for the Nadvits' at the Osceola House.

A. That is right - for two and a half years, or better.

Q. And in what capacity?

A. As waitress and cook, or anything that needed done.

Q. And in the capacity of working in and around the Osceola House, did you observe anything relative to the married life of the Nadvits?

A. Well, when I first started to work for them, they got along real good; and then, as Lucille said, they started to be together all the time and she was there all the time . . .

Q. Now, when you say they started, . . .

A. Mike and Isabelle Selfridge and Isabelle was at the Hotel all the time, and when Isabelle was there, Mike would be working and talking to her all the time. And then it was around December was the first time I noticed that Lucille had taken a beaten over her . . .

Q. Would you explain that to the Master?

A. Well, when I came into work Monday morning, Lucille wasn't around, and that was very unusual, because she always had the food and that started for me. So, I asked Mike where she was and she said she was sick, so I waited until dinner time and she didn't show up so I figured she should have something to eat, so I took her soup and coffee up, knocked on the door and Lucille talked through the door and didn't open the door and well, that struck me funny. So, that night Mike said, "don't you take anything up to her, I'll fix her something to eat." So he did, he fixed her things to eat and he would take it up. So every night when I would go home from work, I would go up to ask her how she was. And so that proceeded for three days. She said she would come down that night then, that would be on a Wednesday. So I didn't see her until Thursday and she came down and she was wearing her glasses and I could see that she had had black eyes. And when I asked her, she said "no, I was sick." Then later on she told me what had happened. She was ashamed that he had beat her like he did.

Q. Did you see this subsequent to this as well, in other words, others times?

A. I didn't see it happen, but after that I saw that she had several marks on her and that she had a black eye. Just this past spring I had to take her to Dr. McClung in Houtzdale and went with her. She just about had a nervous breakdown. Dr. McClung said she needed a rest and he advised her to be away from here, but Lucille still stayed and tried to save their marriage.

Q. Now were you ever present when there were any arguments or whenever he actually slapped her?

A. Yes, just recently I was there when they had an argument and he slapped her.

Q. Do you know of any agreement or collusion between these parties relative to obtaining this divorce?

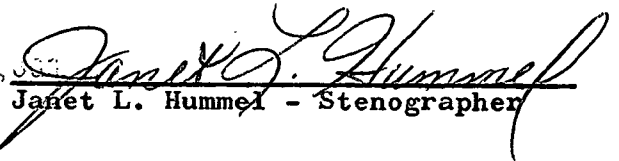

A. No.

Q. Are you here of your own free will to testify to matters that you know of your own knowledge?

A. Yes, I am.
