

DOCKET NO. 174

Number	Term	Year
281	September	1961

Sears Roebuck & Co.

Versus

Lewis Fenush

Mary Fenush

$ 989⁰⁰

Sept 26 1961

one day after date promise to pay to the order of Lears Barbuch & Co.

Nine Hundred Eighty Nine & Dollars
Payable at 240 E. Market St, Springfield

Without defalcation, value received, with interest

And further, us do hereby empower any Attorney of any Court of Record within the United States or elsewhere to appear for us and after one or more declarations filed, confess judgment against us as of any term for the above sum with costs of suit and Attorney's commission of 10 per cent for collection and release of all errors, and without stay of execution and inquisition and extension upon any levy on real estate is hereby waived, and condemnation agreed to and the exemption of personal property from levy and sale on any execution hereon, is also hereby expressly waived, and no benefit of exemption be claimed under and by virtue of any exemption law now in force or which may be hereafter passed.

Witness _____ hand and seal

10/1 X Lears Barbuch (SEAL)

No. _____ Due SEPT. 1964

X Mary Fenush (SEAL)

DRIFTING DR

281 Sep 1961

PPH 556

4-50 By PPH