MOTION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

And now comes the undersigned, Edward E. Knauss, IV, of the law firm of Metzger, Wickersham, Knauss & Erb, P.C. and respectfully moves the Court as follows:

1. The above case arises out of a motor vehicle accident which occurred in Clearfield County on October 14, 2006 when plaintiff Julie Lee allegedly suffered injuries in a motor vehicle accident while a passenger in a car which was struck by another car driven by defendant Pamela Spenik and owned by defendant Dennis Crawford.
2. At the time of the accident, both defendants were uninsured for liability, and therefore plaintiffs have filed an uninsured motorist claim with their own car insurance company, Goodville Mutual, which claim is still pending.
3. The uninsured motorist limits under the Goodville Mutual policy are substantial and adequate, and the undersigned counsel has advised the plaintiffs Julie and Roger Lee that there is no necessity or purpose in pursuing the above case, and that it should be voluntarily discontinued.
4. Contrary to the advice of the undersigned counsel, who is also representing the plaintiffs the uninsured motorist claim with Goodville, plaintiffs refuse to allow the above case to be discontinued and wish to proceed pro se with the above case.

5. The undersigned counsel has advised his clients that the pursuit of this case to attempt to recover damages, which are the same damages which can be recovered in the uninsured motorist claim with Goodville, would be futile and a waste of money and resources.

6. The attorney representing Goodville in the uninsured motorist claim has also advised the undersigned counsel that Goodville does not wish to pursue any subrogation claim against the defendants and is agreeable to allowing this case to be discontinued. (See attached letter of June 4, 2013 from Attorney Stephen L. Banke, Jr., Exhibit "A")

7. No other activity in this case has taken place other than the issuance of a Writ of Summons against the defendants.

8. The undersigned counsel therefore has an irreconcilable disagreement with his clients, the plaintiffs in this case, and wishes to withdraw as counsel with the Court's permission.

9. The Court has scheduled a status conference in this case for June 27, 2013 at 1:30 p.m. The undersigned counsel respectfully requests that such conference be canceled in view of the filing of this motion and further requests that a rule to show cause be issued and entered upon the plaintiffs and both defendants to show cause why this Motion should not be granted by the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

METZGER, WICKERSHAM, KNAUSS & ERB, P.C.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

And now comes the undersigned, Edward E. Knauss, IV, of the law firm of Metzger, Wickersham, Knauss & Erb, P.C. and respectfully moves the Court as follows:

1. The above case arises out of a motor vehicle accident which occurred in Clearfield County on October 14, 2006 when plaintiff Julie Lee allegedly suffered injuries in a motor vehicle accident while a passenger in a car which was struck by another car driven by defendant Pamela Spenik and owned by defendant Dennis Crawford.
2. At the time of the accident, both defendants were uninsured for liability, and therefore plaintiffs have filed an uninsured motorist claim with their own car insurance company, Goodville Mutual, which claim is still pending.
3. The uninsured motorist limits under the Goodville Mutual policy are substantial and adequate, and the undersigned counsel has advised the plaintiffs Julie and Roger Lee that there is no necessity or purpose in pursuing the above case, and that it should be voluntarily discontinued.
4. Contrary to the advice of the undersigned counsel, who is also representing the plaintiffs the uninsured motorist claim with Goodville, plaintiffs refuse to allow the above case to be discontinued and wish to proceed pro se with the above case.

5. The undersigned counsel has advised his clients that the pursuit of this case to attempt to recover damages, which are the same damages which can be recovered in the uninsured motorist claim with Goodville, would be futile and a waste of money and resources.
6. The attorney representing Goodville in the uninsured motorist claim has also advised the undersigned counsel that Goodville does not wish to pursue any subrogation claim against the defendants and is agreeable to allowing this case to be discontinued. (See attached letter of June 4, 2013 from Attorney Stephen L. Banko, Jr., Exhibit "A")
7. No other activity in this case has taken place other than the issuance of a Writ of Summons against the defendants.
8. The undersigned counsel therefore has an irreconcilable disagreement with his clients, the plaintiffs in this case, and wishes to withdraw as counsel with the Court's permission.
9. The Court has scheduled a status conference in this case for June 27, 2013 at 1:30 p.m. The undersigned counsel respectfully requests that such conference be canceled in view of the filing of this motion and further requests that a rule to show cause be issued and entered upon the plaintiffs and both defendants to show cause why this Motion should not be granted by the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Ted:

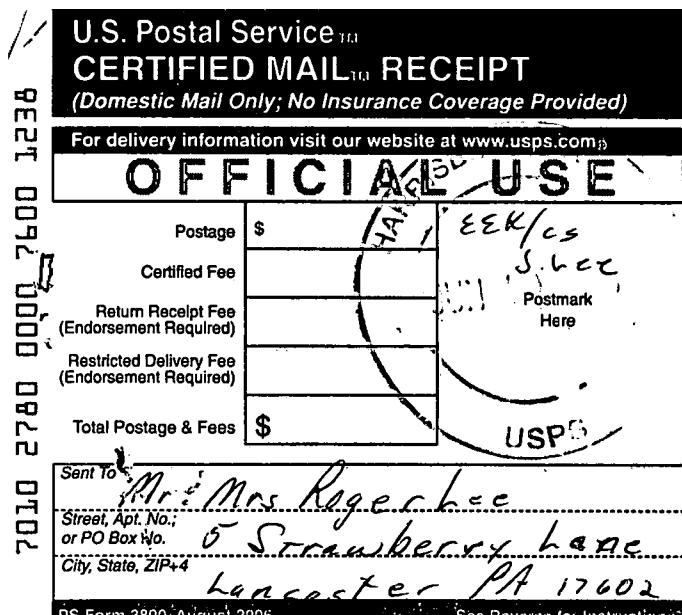

In response to your most recent correspondence, my client, Goodville Mutual Casualty Company, is not interested in pursuing any subrogation against the driver and owner of the other vehicle involved in the accident with your clients. Accordingly, please feel free to discontinue the action as you see fit.

Should you have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,
