REPLY TO PETITION TO STRIKE DEED AND FOR DAMAGES

1. Denied. On the contrary, after reasonable investigation Respondent, Karen J. Kephart (hereinafter, Respondent or Kephart) is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of this averment. Strict proof thereof is demanded at trial if relevant. If a response is deemed necessary, Respondent avers that she by her counsel, sent the original recorded deed and correspondence to the Petitioner (d/b/a Beneficial Mortgage Co. of Pennsylvania) at the address listed above on March 10, 2008 and it came back on March 15, 2008 marked, "Return to Sender, Not Deliverable as Addressed, Unable to Forward."
2. Admitted that Respondent is Karen J. Kephart, but denied that her address is as stated. On the contrary, Respondent resides at 422 South Second Street, Philipsburg, PA 16866.
3. Admitted that the property which is the subject of this Petition is located in the Borough of Chester Hill, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania with a street address of 613 DeCatur Street, but contrary to the averment of Beneficial, this action is designated, marked, and packaged as a, "Petition" not a "Complaint in Equity". There has been no complaint filed, only a petition.

4. Admitted. In further answer however it is averred that Beneficial Consumer Discount Company d/b/a Beneficial Mortgage Co. of Pennsylvania as Mortgagee under a certain 30 year mortgage in the initial amount of $75,722.14 which was filed on September 18, 2001 as Clearfield County Instrument No. 200114752 had for many years prior to the recording of the deed excluded Respondent and all others from 613 DeCatur Street and engaged a person or persons believed to be, Mark A. Wolf, trading and doing business as Mark's Repairs of 1750 Bush Hollow Road, Julian, PA 16844 to board up all the windows and padlock the doors and entry ways and to exert defacto ownership over the Respondent's former residence at 613 DeCatur Street.

5. Denied. Contrary to the implied position stated herein, Respondent had no duty to give Petitioner any advance notice of her intention to file the Quit Claim Deed since the same was merely a confirmation of the position already taken by Petitioner in the unilateral taking of exclusive possession and control of the subject premises on or about September of 2003 as set out at more length hereafter. Furthermore, Respondent did notify Petitioner after the filing that the Quit Claim Deed had been filed as set out in paragraph 36 of the New Matter hereafter.

6. Denied. On the contrary this is a conclusion of law and no answer is required. But to the extent that an answer may be required, Respondent avers, that her actions were entirely appropriate and legal for the reasons set out above in paragraph 4 and below in New Matter. Respondent unified the title and benefitted Petitioner who had taken exclusive possession of the premises since approximately September 2003.

7. Denied. On the contrary, after reasonable investigation Respondent is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of this averment. Proof is demanded at trial if relevant. Furthermore this allegation is a conclusion of law and for that reason no answer is required. To the extent that an answer may be required or appropriate it is averred that a party in exclusive control and possession of a property is responsible for the condition of the property and Petitioner was the defacto owner of the property in December of 2006 for the reasons as set out in this Reply and New Matter.

8. Admitted. In further explanation however, this is merely the result of Petitioner's failure to bear the burden of an owner, i.e. one who takes possession of real estate must maintain it. Regardless of whether the deed was in Petitioner's name or not, Respondent actually controlled the property exclusively and kept all others (including Respondent) out for almost 5 years prior to the code or ordinance enforcement action brought by Chester Hill.

9. Denied. On the contrary, after reasonable investigation Respondent is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of this averment. Proof is demanded at trial if relevant. If Petitioner has been caused to incur legal fees and costs in the defense of the second code enforcement action this is merely the result of Petitioner's failure to bear the burden of an owner, i.e. one who takes possession of real estate must maintain it. Regardless of whether the deed was in Petitioner's name or not, Respondent actually controlled the property exclusively and kept all others (including Respondent) out for almost 5 years prior to the code or ordinance enforcement action brought by Chester Hill.

10. Denied. On the contrary, Respondent knew that she had no control or beneficial interest in the subject premises and that she could not sell the premises due to the existing mortgage but she believed the mortgage holder could sell the property if they had paper title and by this means the untenable situation which had existed for almost five years would be resolved. Petitioner had steadfastly evidenced its unwillingness to help her resolve the unmarketable nature of the premises so Respondent took the matter in hand and cleared any title interest she may have had by recording and delivering the deed to Petitioner at no charge to them.

11. Denied. On the contrary, as set out in New Matter, Respondent had previously tried to obtain release of the property from Petitioner but none of Petitioner's agents were willing to help nor were they willing to relinquish actual control of the premises. Code violations should be borne by the entity who exercises sole and exclusive control over the property. Petitioner took exclusive control over the premises utilizing self help and without the consent of Respondent or the aid of the courts.

12. Admitted. Denied however that Respondent had any duty to strike or otherwise remove the deed for the reasons as set out in this Reply and New Matter.

13. Denied. On the contrary, after reasonable investigation Respondent is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of this averment. If Petitioner has been caused to incur legal fees and costs in the defense of the second code enforcement action this is merely the result of Petitioner's failure to bear the burden of an owner, i.e. one who takes possession of real estate must maintain it. Regardless of whether the deed was in Petitioner's name or not, Respondent actually controlled the property exclusively and kept all others (including Respondent) out for almost 5 years prior to the code or ordinance enforcement action brought by Chester Hill.

14. Denied. On the contrary this is a conclusion of law and no answer is required. But to the extent that an answer may be required, Respondent avers, that Petitioner sought to have and did obtain, defacto ownership, possession, control and dominion of the premises and yet sought to have no responsibility to the community with regard to taxes, safety or blight. It is clear Respondent has no legal or economic interests in the subject premises which Petitioner took from her more than four years prior to her relinquishment of paper title by quit claim deed of April 3, 2008. Respondent's actions were not done secretly but quite openly and the recorded deed was promptly forwarded to the Mortgage holder who had by self help "taken" the property.

15. Denied. On the contrary this is a conclusion of law and no answer is required. But to the extent that an answer may be required, Respondent avers, that her actions were entirely appropriate and legal for the reasons set out above in paragraph 4 and below in New Matter. Respondent unified the title and benefitted Petitioner who had taken exclusive possession of the premises since approximately September 2003.

NEW MATTER

16. Paragraphs 1-15 of Respondents' Reply are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth at length.

17. The subject property at 613 DeCatur Street vested in Respondent by deed dated September 9, 1994 from Robert D. Conklin and Billie Rae Conklin and was recorded in the Clearfield County Recorder's Office in Deed and Records Book Volume 1630 at page 438 on September 12, 1994.

18. Petitioner granted Respondent a 30 year Mortgage in the initial amount of $75,722.14 with the same being filed in the Clearfield County Recorder's Office as Instrument No. 200114752 on September 18, 2001.

19. On July 23, 2003 Respondent's residence at 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania was destroyed by a fire and rendered uninhabitable.

20. As required by Petitioner, Respondent had fire insurance in an amount satisfactory to Petitioner. The insurer was National Grange Mutual Insurance Company.

21. For reasons unknown to Respondent, Petitioner by it's agents initially refused to accept the insurance proceeds. After persistence and insistence by Respondent, Petitioner in or about November 2003 agreed to accept the net proceeds of the fire insurance.

22. On or about September of 2003 Petitioner caused the subject premises to be both boarded-up and locked-up (by padlocks) and thus totally unaccessible to Respondent. This exclusive possession was accomplished without prior notice to or consent by Respondent and during a time when she still retained personal property inside the residence. From that day to the present Respondent has not been able to obtain her personal property nor to enter into the subject premises. Such personal property, if it still exists in the premises, has by now become valueless.

23. Petitioner has effectively exercised total dominion, control and ownership of the subject premises from the day of the boarding up of the property until the present.

24. Petitioner has not paid any real estate taxes on the premises nor has it complied with the Chester Hill Borough ordinance requirements pertaining to proper maintenance of the premises.

25. Petitioner has retained its mortgage lien upon the subject premises with the consequence that the Clearfield County Tax Claim Bureau has been unable to sell the property at its upset sale and the unpaid taxes continue to accumulate. No buyer has been/is willing to buy 613 DeCatur Street subject to the unsatisfied mortgage.

26. In or about June 2005 Respondent went to the State College office of Petitioner and asked them to tell her what amount of money they would require to release the property so she could sell it but they informed her that they could not help her.

27. On or about December 2005 Respondent filed a Voluntary Chapter 7 Bankruptcy action to Case No. 05-73280-BM in the Western District of Pennsylvania, naming, inter alia the Petitioner and her obligations under the Petitioner's aforementioned Mortgage.

28. Respondent was discharged of all personal responsibility under the mortgage when the bankruptcy was finalized by "DISCHARGE OF DEBTOR" signed by Judge Bernard Markovitz on May 23, 2006.

29. Petitioner by its actions has evidenced for a period of more than five years that it is willing to allow the subject property to: deteriorate; become unsafe; violate Borough ordinances; be a visual and economic blight to the community; remain off of the real estate tax rolls; be a burden to the citizens of Chester Hill Borough and be of absolutely no economic value even to Respondent's own shareholders.

30. Petitioner's refusal to cooperate with the Respondent and its actions in this matter are an egregious display of bad faith and cause them to be before this court with unclean hands all the while asking for equity to be done.

31. Respondent has by her actions merely placed the paper title in the same location and with the same entity which has exercised defacto ownership and exclusive possession, control and dominion since on or about September 2003.

32. Respondent has unified the title, removed a cloud on the title, and given the Petitioner the opportunity to sell the premises which had heretofore been unsaleable unless Petitioner would first have undergone the delay and expense of a foreclosure action.

33. Respondent has by her actions benefitted Petitioner at no cost to Petitioner.

34. As a result of the exclusion from the premises and then the filing of the Bankruptcy petition, Respondent retains no economic interest the subject premises.

35. Petitioner has acted in bad faith by filing this vexatious suit which has no merit and thereby has caused Respondent to expend funds to pay her attorney in a matter which can clearly be seen to have benefitted Petitioner not harmed it.

36. After recording the deed, Respondent mailed the original to the Petitioner's last known address, i.e to 1995 South Atherton Street, State College, PA 16801 which is the address shown on the subject Mortgage and also the address used by Petitioner in the instant "Petition To Strike Deed, etc" it was returned as undeliverable and then re-mailed as set out below.

37. After mailing original recorded deed to Petitioner on March 10, 2008 it was returned on March 15, 2008 by US Postal Service marked, "Return to Sender, Not Deliverable as Addressed, Unable to Forward". Respondent then re-mailed the recorded deed and forwarding letter with original envelope by first class mail to Petitioner at, "Beneficial" with the address of 325 Benner Pike, State College, Pennsylvania 16801. Following the second mailing of the original deed it was never returned to Respondent or her counsel and is thus presumed to have been delivered. A copy of the front of envelope in which the original deed was first mailed and the envelope in which the original deed was secondly mailed is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "1".

38. Petitioner never corresponded with Respondent or sent the deed back to her and was apparently satisfied to have the paper title until such time as Petitioner was served with a citation from Chester Hill Borough for failing to meet their ownership obligations.

COUNTER CLAIM

39. Paragraphs 1-38 of Respondents' Reply and New Matter are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth at length.

40. Petitioner has brought this action in bad faith and has engaged in conduct which is vexatious to Respondent and serves no legitimate purpose except to punish the Respondent who now has no personal liability to them under the mortgage described above. Petitioner was satisfied to let the property go to waste and ruin and see if they could wait out Respondent with Chester Hill Borough left to do the heavy lifting by filing of citations.

41. Petitioner acted as the owner in taking exclusive possession and now has a unified and marketable title and has decided to sue the person who unified their title

42. Whereas Petitioner previously had possession and an unenforceable mortgage, it now has a unified marketable title.

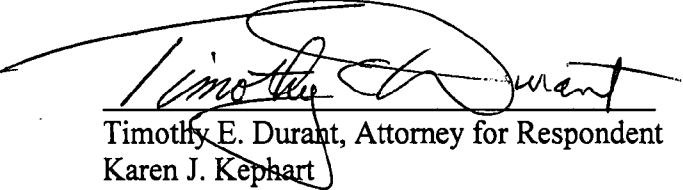

43. Petitioner's actions herein suffice to qualify Respondent to collect counsel fees pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S.A. § 2503 (9), i.e. because their conduct in commencing the matter or otherwise was arbitrary, vexatious or in bad faith.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that:

- (i) this Honorable Court dismiss the Petition with prejudice, and
- (ii) Order Beneficial Consumer Discount Company to pay counsel fees to Respondent that were incurred by Petitioner in the defense against this litigation.

Respectfully submitted,

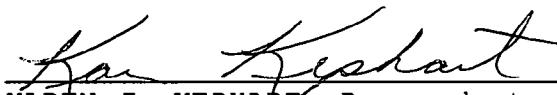

December 10, 2008

PETITION TO STRIKE DEED AND FOR DAMAGES

1. Petitioner is Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, a corporation duly organized and doing business at the above captioned address.
2. The Respondent is Karen J. Kephart, whose last-known address is 12 Hudson Street, Phillipsburg, Pennsylvania 16866.
3. The property that is the subject of this Complaint in Equity is 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania.
4. On or about March 4, 2008, Respondent, Karen J. Kephart, without the knowledge of Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, recorded a Quit Claim Deed identified as Instrument Number 200802897 in favor of Petitioner. A true and correct copy is attached and marked as Exhibit "A."

5. Respondent gave Petitioner no notice whatsoever of her intention to file the Quit Claim Deed nor did Respondent ever notify Petitioner thereafter that the Quit Claim Deed had been filed.

6. The Respondent filed the Quit Claim Deed because of the deteriorated condition of the property located at 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania and in an effort to avoid responsibility for conditions of the real estate that violate local codes.

7. On December 5, 2006, Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company was cited for the condition of the property due to damage. Petitioner incurred legal fees and costs in the defense of that action which was subsequently dismissed as Petitioner had no obligation as a mortgagee to cure or correct any conditions that violated local codes. A true and correct copy of the citation for that code enforcement complaint is attached and marked as Exhibit "B."

8. On or about August 14, 2008, another citation was filed against Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, again for a code violation and seeking $1,000.00 fine plus costs. A copy of the citation is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "C."

9. Petitioner Beneficial has again been required to defend this second code enforcement action and has incurred attorney's fees and costs as a direct result of the wrongful filing of the Quit Claim Deed by Respondent Karen J. Kephart. Again,

Defendant Kephart's actions have exposed Petitioner to claims and liabilities in her effort to avoid her own responsibilities to maintain the subject property.

10. Respondent Karen J. Kephart knew that by transferring ownership to Petitioner that she would be avoiding responsibility and shifting liability to Petitioner.

11. Respondent transferred the title without giving Petitioner notice or requesting permission, thus exposing Petitioner to code violations and other liabilities without its knowledge or consent.

12. Respondent, through her counsel, was notified of Beneficial's request to strike or otherwise remove the deed and has failed and/or refused to take the necessary action. (See letter dated September 16, 2008, courtesy copy of which was addressed to Defendant's counsel and marked as Exhibit "D.")

13. Petitioner has been caused to incur legal fees and costs in the defense of the second code enforcement action filed on or about August 14, 2008. (See letter to District Justice Rudella of advising of representation in said action attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "D.")

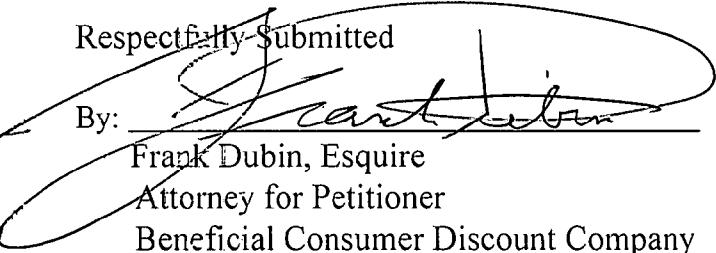

14. Respondent's actions are outrageous in that they seek to surreptitiously shift her responsibility for the property to Petitioner in an effort to protect her own interests and illegally escape responsibility.

15. Respondent's actions were improper and illegal and, accordingly, the Petitioner seeks the equitable remedy of striking and declaring null and void the Quit Claim Deed recorded March 4, 2008 as Instrument Number 200802897, and in addition, Petitioner seeks damages incurred as a result of the wrongfully recording of the Quit Claim Deed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that: (i) this Honorable Court issue an Order striking and declaring null and void the Quit Claim Deed from Karen J. Kephart, as grantor, to Beneficial Consumer Discount Company d/b/a Beneficial Mortgage Co. of Pennsylvania, as grantee, dated March 3, 2008 and recorded March 4, 2008 as Instrument Number 200802897 and directing the Recorder of Deeds to mark the records accordingly; and (ii) Order Karen J. Kephart to pay counsel fees to Petitioner that were incurred by Petitioner in the defense of the code enforcement action filed on August 14, 2008, as well as costs and fees incurred in the prosecution of this litigation.

Respectfully Submitted

UNDER AND SUBJECT, NEVERTHELESS, to all existing easements, restrictions, covenants and conditions of record

BEING the same premises conveyed to Grantor by Deed dated September 9, 1994 from Robert D. Conklin and Billie Rae Conklin, husband and wife and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds for Clearfield County in Deed Book Volume 1630, at page 438 on September 12, 1994.

The purpose of this deed is to extinguish any interest which Grantor may have had in the premises and is an Excluded transaction per the Pennsylvania Realty Transfer Tax Act at 61 Pa. Code §91.193(b)(16), i.e. a transfer to a holder of a bona fide mortgage in default since the transfer is being made in lieu of foreclosure under Clearfield County Instrument No. 200114752, as recorded on September 18, 2001.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said grantor has hereunto set her hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Re: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v.
Beneficial Consumer Discount Company
Docket No.: NT-0000339-08
Property Address: 613 DeCatur Street, Clearfield County, PA

Dear Judge Rudella:

Thank you for your time on the telephone during our conversation yesterday. I have again been retained to represent Beneficial Consumer Discount Company with respect to the citation issued for the property located at 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania. I enclosed a copy of the Summons and on behalf of my client, I have entered a not guilty plea. I am writing to request that you stay this matter from any further proceedings, pending the results of an action in equity to strike a Quit Claim Deed filed by Karen J. Kephart.

As I advised you in our conversation, Ms. Kephart filed a Quit Claim Deed, which is dated March 3, 2008 (a copy of the Quit Claim Deed is enclosed). I am uncertain as to the date that the Quit Claim Deed was filed with the Recorder of Deeds, but it was filed without my client's knowledge and without my client's consent. Accordingly, Ms. Kephart's effort to direct responsibility for the condition of the property to someone other than herself is not only improper, but illegal and actionable.

I telephoned John Sobel, Esquire and informed him of these developments and have not yet received a return call. Under the circumstances and considering the history of this matter, I trust that this matter can be deferred until the Court of Common Pleas has an opportunity to act on our motion to strike the improperly filed Deed.

Re: Commonwealth of PA v.

Beneficial Consumer Discount Co.

I have also discussed this matter with Timothy Durant, Esquire. Mr. Durant may be representing Ms. Kephart in this matter. We are discussing a possible resolution whereby Ms. Kephart will voluntarily agree to take back title to the property.

Would you please advise at your earliest convenience if you will stay this matter pending the equity action?

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

EDWARD D. CONWAY

No.

PETITION TO STRIKE DEED AND FOR DAMAGES

1. Petitioner is Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, a corporation duly organized and doing business at the above captioned address.
2. The Respondent is Karen J. Kephart, whose last-known address is 12 Hudson Street, Phillipsburg, Pennsylvania 16866.
3. The property that is the subject of this Complaint in Equity is 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania.
4. On or about March 4, 2008, Respondent, Karen J. Kephart, without the knowledge of Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, recorded a Quit Claim Deed identified as Instrument Number 200802897 in favor of Petitioner. A true and correct copy is attached and marked as Exhibit "A."

5. Respondent gave Petitioner no notice whatsoever of her intention to file the Quit Claim Deed nor did Respondent ever notify Petitioner thereafter that the Quit Claim Deed had been filed.

6. The Respondent filed the Quit Claim Deed because of the deteriorated condition of the property located at 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania and in an effort to avoid responsibility for conditions of the real estate that violate local codes.

7. On December 5, 2006, Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company was cited for the condition of the property due to damage. Petitioner incurred legal fees and costs in the defense of that action which was subsequently dismissed as Petitioner had no obligation as a mortgagee to cure or correct any conditions that violated local codes. A true and correct copy of the citation for that code enforcement complaint is attached and marked as Exhibit "B."

8. On or about August 14, 2008, another citation was filed against Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, again for a code violation and seeking $1,000.00 fine plus costs. A copy of the citation is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "C."

9. Petitioner Beneficial has again been required to defend this second code enforcement action and has incurred attorney's fees and costs as a direct result of the wrongful filing of the Quit Claim Deed by Respondent Karen J. Kephart. Again,

Defendant Kephart's actions have exposed Petitioner to claims and liabilities in her effort to avoid her own responsibilities to maintain the subject property.

10. Respondent Karen J. Kephart knew that by transferring ownership to Petitioner that she would be avoiding responsibility and shifting liability to Petitioner.

11. Respondent transferred the title without giving Petitioner notice or requesting permission, thus exposing Petitioner to code violations and other liabilities without its knowledge or consent.

12. Respondent, through her counsel, was notified of Beneficial's request to strike or otherwise remove the deed and has failed and/or refused to take the necessary action. (See letter dated September 16, 2008, courtesy copy of which was addressed to Defendant's counsel and marked as Exhibit "D.")

13. Petitioner has been caused to incur legal fees and costs in the defense of the second code enforcement action filed on or about August 14, 2008. (See letter to District Justice Rudella of advising of representation in said action attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "D.")

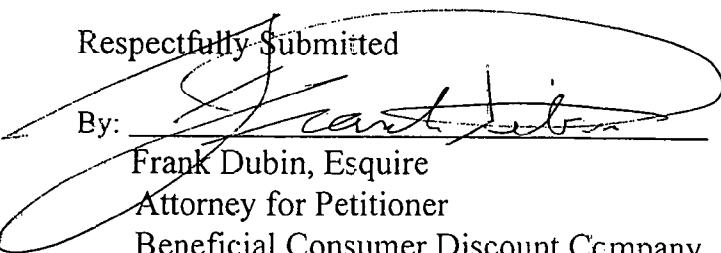

14. Respondent's actions are outrageous in that they seek to surreptitiously shift her responsibility for the property to Petitioner in an effort to protect her own interests and illegally escape responsibility.

15. Respondent's actions were improper and illegal and, accordingly, the Petitioner seeks the equitable remedy of striking and declaring null and void the Quit Claim Deed recorded March 4, 2008 as Instrument Number 200802897, and in addition, Petitioner seeks damages incurred as a result of the wrongfully recording of the Quit Claim Deed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that: (i) this Honorable Court issue an Order striking and declaring null and void the Quit Claim Deed from Karen J. Kephart, as grantor, to Beneficial Consumer Discount Company d/b/a Beneficial Mortgage Co. of Pennsylvania, as grantee, dated March 3, 2008 and recorded March 4, 2008 as Instrument Number 200802897 and directing the Recorder of Deeds to mark the records accordingly; and (ii) Order Karen J. Kephart to pay counsel fees to Petitioner that were incurred by Petitioner in the defense of the code enforcement action filed on August 14, 2008, as well as costs and fees incurred in the prosecution of this litigation.

Respectfully Submitted

QUIT-CLAIM DEED

MADE the 3rd day of March in the year Two Thousand Eight (2008).

KAREN J. KEPHART, not stated, of 12 Hudson Street, Philipsburg, Pennsylvania 16866, party, of the first part, Grantor

AND

BENEFICIAL CONSUMER DISCOUNT COMPANY d/b/a BENEFICIAL MORTGAGE CO. OF PENNSYLVANIA, with offices at 1995 South Atherton Street, State College, Pennsylvania 16801, party of the second part, Grantee

WITNESSETH, that in consideration of the sum of One ($1.00) DOLLAR, in hand paid, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said grantor does hereby release and quit claim to the said grantee

ALL that certain message, tenement, and tract of land situate, lying and being in Foster's Addition to Chester Hill Borough, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

BEGINNING at the Northwestern corner of Lot No. 30 and situate in Decatur Street; thence along the western line of Decatur Street in a northerly direction a distance of fifty (50) feet to the Northeastern corner of Lot No. 34, now or formerly owned by Community Action; thence in a westerly direction along the line of Lot No. 34, a distance of seventy-two (72) feet to lands now or formerly of Lockey; thence along the said lands of Lockey in a southeasterly direction a distance fifty (50) feet to the line of Lot No. 30; thence in a northeasterly direction along Lot No. 30 a distance of seventy-two (72) feet to the point and place of beginning.

BEING Lot No. 32 in the plan or plot of Foster's Addition and being further known as 613 Decatur Street.

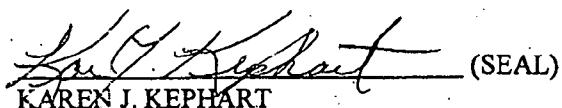

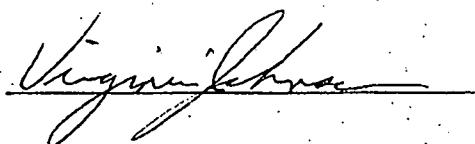

UNDER AND SUBJECT, NEVERTHELESS, to all existing easements, restrictions, covenants and conditions of record

BEING the same premises conveyed to Grantor by Deed dated September 9, 1994 from Robert D. Conklin and Billie Rae Conklin, husband and wife and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds for Clearfield County in Deed Book Volume 1630, at page 438 on September 12, 1994.

The purpose of this deed is to extinguish any interest which Grantor may have had in the premises and is an Excluded transaction per the Pennsylvania Realty Transfer Tax Act at 61 Pa. Code §91.193(b)(16), i.e. a transfer to a holder of a bona fide mortgage in default since the transfer is being made in lieu of foreclosure under Clearfield County Instrument No. 200114752, as recorded on September 18, 2001.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said grantor has hereunto set her hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Re: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v.
Beneficial Consumer Discount Company
Docket No.: NT-0000339-08
Property Address: 613 DeCatur Street, Clearfield County, PA

Dear Judge Rudella:

Thank you for your time on the telephone during our conversation yesterday. I have again been retained to represent Beneficial Consumer Discount Company with respect to the citation issued for the property located at 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania. I enclosed a copy of the Summons and on behalf of my client, I have entered a not guilty plea. I am writing to request that you stay this matter from any further proceedings, pending the results of an action in equity to strike a Quit Claim Deed filed by Karen J. Kephart.

As I advised you in our conversation, Ms. Kephart filed a Quit Claim Deed, which is dated March 3, 2008 (a copy of the Quit Claim Deed is enclosed). I am uncertain as to the date that the Quit Claim Deed was filed with the Recorder of Deeds, but it was filed without my client's knowledge and without my client's consent. Accordingly, Ms. Kephart's effort to direct responsibility for the condition of the property to someone other than herself is not only improper, but illegal and actionable.

I telephoned John Sobel, Esquire and informed him of these developments and have not yet received a return call. Under the circumstances and considering the history of this matter, I trust that this matter can be deferred until the Court of Common Pleas has an opportunity to act on our motion to strike the improperly filed Deed.

Re: Commonwealth of PA v.

Beneficial Consumer Discount Co.

I have also discussed this matter with Timothy Durant, Esquire. Mr. Durant may be representing Ms. Kephart in this matter. We are discussing a possible resolution whereby Ms. Kephart will voluntarily agree to take back title to the property.

Would you please advise at your earliest convenience if you will stay this matter pending the equity action?

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

EDWARD D. CONWAY

No.

PETITION TO STRIKE DEED AND FOR DAMAGES

1. Petitioner is Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, a corporation duly organized and doing business at the above captioned address.
2. The Respondent is Karen J. Kephart, whose last-known address is 12 Hudson Street, Phillipsburg, Pennsylvania 16866.
3. The property that is the subject of this Complaint in Equity is 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania.
4. On or about March 4, 2008, Respondent, Karen J. Kephart, without the knowledge of Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, recorded a Quit Claim Deed identified as Instrument Number 200802897 in favor of Petitioner. A true and correct copy is attached and marked as Exhibit "A."

5. Respondent gave Petitioner no notice whatsoever of her intention to file the Quit Claim Deed nor did Respondent ever notify Petitioner thereafter that the Quit Claim Deed had been filed.

6. The Respondent filed the Quit Claim Deed because of the deteriorated condition of the property located at 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania and in an effort to avoid responsibility for conditions of the real estate that violate local codes.

7. On December 5, 2006, Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company was cited for the condition of the property due to damage. Petitioner incurred legal fees and costs in the defense of that action which was subsequently dismissed as Petitioner had no obligation as a mortgagee to cure or correct any conditions that violated local codes. A true and correct copy of the citation for that code enforcement complaint is attached and marked as Exhibit "B."

8. On or about August 14, 2008, another citation was filed against Petitioner, Beneficial Consumer Discount Company, again for a code violation and seeking $1,000.00 fine plus costs. A copy of the citation is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "C."

9. Petitioner Beneficial has again been required to defend this second code enforcement action and has incurred attorney's fees and costs as a direct result of the wrongful filing of the Quit Claim Deed by Respondent Karen J. Kephart. Again,

Defendant Kephart's actions have exposed Petitioner to claims and liabilities in her effort to avoid her own responsibilities to maintain the subject property.

10. Respondent Karen J. Kephart knew that by transferring ownership to Petitioner that she would be avoiding responsibility and shifting liability to Petitioner.

11. Respondent transferred the title without giving Petitioner notice or requesting permission, thus exposing Petitioner to code violations and other liabilities without its knowledge or consent.

12. Respondent, through her counsel, was notified of Beneficial's request to strike or otherwise remove the deed and has failed and/or refused to take the necessary action. (See letter dated September 16, 2008, courtesy copy of which was addressed to Defendant's counsel and marked as Exhibit "D.")

13. Petitioner has been caused to incur legal fees and costs in the defense of the second code enforcement action filed on or about August 14, 2008. (See letter to District Justice Rudella of advising of representation in said action attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "D.")

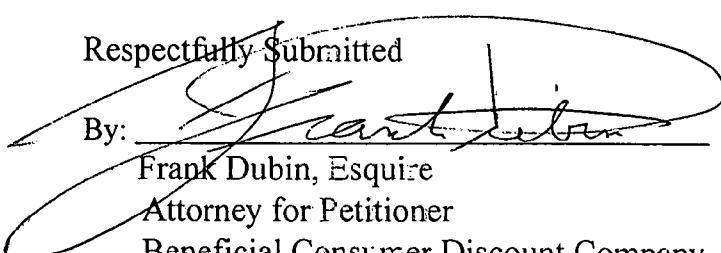

14. Respondent's actions are outrageous in that they seek to surreptitiously shift her responsibility for the property to Petitioner in an effort to protect her own interests and illegally escape responsibility.

15. Respondent's actions were improper and illegal and, accordingly, the Petitioner seeks the equitable remedy of striking and declaring null and void the Quit Claim Deed recorded March 4, 2008 as Instrument Number 200802897, and in addition, Petitioner seeks damages incurred as a result of the wrongfully recording of the Quit Claim Deed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that: (i) this Honorable Court issue an Order striking and declaring null and void the Quit Claim Deed from Karen J. Kephart, as grantor, to Beneficial Consumer Discount Company d/b/a Beneficial Mortgage Co. of Pennsylvania, as grantee, dated March 3, 2008 and recorded March 4, 2008 as Instrument Number 200802897 and directing the Recorder of Deeds to mark the records accordingly; and (ii) Order Karen J. Kephart to pay counsel fees to Petitioner that were incurred by Petitioner in the defense of the code enforcement action filed on August 14, 2008, as well as costs and fees incurred in the prosecution of this litigation.

Respectfully Submitted

Re: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v.
Beneficial Consumer Discount Company
Docket No.: NT-0000339-08
Property Address: 613 DeCatur Street, Clearfield County, PA

Dear Judge Rudella:

Thank you for your time on the telephone during our conversation yesterday. I have again been retained to represent Beneficial Consumer Discount Company with respect to the citation issued for the property located at 613 DeCatur Street, Chester Hill, Pennsylvania. I enclosed a copy of the Summons and on behalf of my client, I have entered a not guilty plea. I am writing to request that you stay this matter from any further proceedings, pending the results of an action in equity to strike a Quit Claim Deed filed by Karen J. Kephart.

As I advised you in our conversation, Ms. Kephart filed a Quit Claim Deed, which is dated March 3, 2008 (a copy of the Quit Claim Deed is enclosed). I am uncertain as to the date that the Quit Claim Deed was filed with the Recorder of Deeds, but it was filed without my client's knowledge and without my client's consent. Accordingly, Ms. Kephart's effort to direct responsibility for the condition of the property to someone other than herself is not only improper, but illegal and actionable.

I telephoned John Sobel, Esquire and informed him of these developments and have not yet received a return call. Under the circumstances and considering the history of this matter, I trust that this matter can be deferred until the Court of Common Pleas has an opportunity to act on our motion to strike the improperly filed Deed.

Re: Commonwealth of PA v.

Beneficial Consumer Discount Co.

I have also discussed this matter with Timothy Durant, Esquire. Mr. Durant may be representing Ms. Kephart in this matter. We are discussing a possible resolution whereby Ms. Kephart will voluntarily agree to take back title to the property.

Would you please advise at your earliest convenience if you will stay this matter pending the equity action?

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter

Respectfully,

EDWARD D. CONWAY

JOINT MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

TO THE HONORABLE FREDERIC J. AMMERMAN, PRESIDENT JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

AND NOW, come the Respondent, KAREN J. KEPHART, and the Petitioner, BENEFICIAL CONSUMER DISCOUNT COMPANY, together with their respective counsel and file this joint motion for continuance for the purposes as hereinafter set out:

1. The undersigned represents KAREN J. KEPHART, Plaintiff in the above action.
2. Eric E. Cummings, Esquire, of 110 North Second Street, Clearfield, PA 16830 is local counsel for BENEFICIAL CONSUMER DISCOUNT COMPANY in the above action.
3. Edward D. Conway, Esquire of McCabe Weisberg & Conway, LLC, 123 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19109 is counsel for BENEFICIAL CONSUMER DISCOUNT COMPANY in the above action.
4. The parties hereto, by their counsel (Timothy E. Durant and Edward D. Conway) have been discussing settlement or resolution of the above captioned matter believe they have basically resolved the dispute but there is a third party whose outlook and involvement in this situation is important (i.e. Chester Hill Borough) which neither party herein controls.
5. Discussions regarding resolution of the said Borough's interests have been initiated by counsel for Petitioner with the Borough's legal counsel and are ongoing.
6. It has been represented to Respondent's counsel that the resolution would involve satisfaction of Petitioner's Mortgage on the subject premises, the striking of the deed from Respondent to Petitioner and acceptance of the property by the Borough from Respondent.

7. Respondent agrees to follow through with this potential arrangement if Chester Hill Borough will consent to accept the property without imposition of fines for code violations upon her.

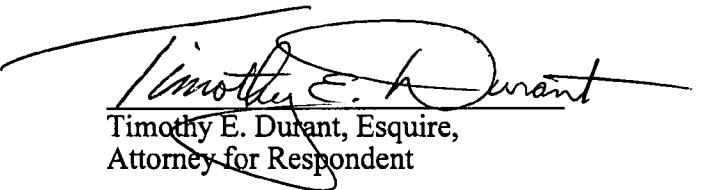

8. Due to the public meeting scheduling requirements the Borough will not be able to meet, discuss or act upon this matter until January or February of 2009.

9. Therefore Respondent and Petitioner ask this court to continue this matter generally until either party files a request to reschedule the matter for a hearing relative to this petition.

10. Upon resolution of this matter between them the parties have agreed to forthwith file a joint consent Order which will fully end this case.

WHEREFORE, Respondent, KAREN J. KEPHART and Petitioner, BENEFICIAL CONSUMER DISCOUNT COMPANY, with their counsel jointly pray that this continue this matter from the hearing schedule and grant them a general continuance in accordance with the reasoning and purposes set out in the above motion.

ORDER

AND NOW, this 17 day of December 2008, upon consideration of Respondent's request for a continuance in the above captioned matter, it is the Order of this Court that the hearing scheduled for December 18, 2008 at 9:30 a.m. is hereby continued generally.

Either party may file a request to reschedule the matter for a hearing relative to this petition.

Upon resolution of this matter between them the parties have agreed to present a joint consent order to this court for consideration and possible signature so as to fully end this case.
