DEFENDANT'S ANSWER AND NEW MATTER TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

AND NOW, comes Defendant, Erma Almeda Elnicki, by and through her attorney, Jeffrey S. DuBois, Esquire, who files this Answer and New Matter to Plaintiff's Complaint, and in support thereof avers the following:

COUNT I

1. Admitted.
2. Admitted.
3. Denied. It is denied on March 1, 2006, the parties ever agreed to rent the premises at 100 North Brady Street, as Defendant had been in said building for several years prior to that time and the parties had already agreed that no rent would be due by Defendant to Plaintiff because of the services and concessions Defendant gave to Plaintiff.
4. Denied. As set forth above, there was never any rent owed by Defendant to Plaintiff.
5. Denied. As set forth in paragraphs 3 and 4 herein, there was never an agreed upon lease between the parties.
6. Denied. It is denied that Defendant took possession of the premises at that time, as she had been in said building for several years prior to this operating her furniture business.
7. Admitted.

8. Denied. It is denied that Defendant has failed to pay Plaintiff, as there was no rent between the parties, and Defendant has paid Plaintiff in other ways including, but not limited to services, furniture, and concessions.
9. Denied. It is denied any rental monies are owed by Defendant to Plaintiff.
10. Denied. It is denied there was ever such an agreement between the parties. By way of further answer, however, Defendant did pay the utilities at said premises.
11. Defendant is without sufficient information as to if there was an outstanding gas bill at said property, as Plaintiff never presented any such bill to Defendant and said information is known only by Plaintiff, and therefore the same is denied and strict proof thereof is demanded at Trial. By way of further answer, Plaintiff had continually been delinquent in his gas bill, even prior to the time Defendant took possession of the premises, and Plaintiff was continually in arrears with said gas company.
12. (Mistaken Paragraph 11) Denied. It is denied Defendant breached any contract, and as a result, Plaintiff is not entitled to any damages.

COUNT II

13. No responsive pleading is required.
14. Denied. It is denied that Defendant requested Plaintiff loan Defendant money. It is admitted that Plaintiff gave some money to Defendant, but the same was not a loan, but it was a payment by Plaintiff to Defendant for Defendant to agree to close her business in Clarion and move her business to DuBois so as to fill up Plaintiff's store.

15. Denied. It is denied any loans were made by Plaintiff to Defendant. By way of further answer, the Twenty Five Thousand ($25,000.00) dollars referenced in Plaintiff's paragraph 15, was a check in said amount was given to by Plaintiff by Defendant, but the same check was immediately given back to Plaintiff by Defendant, and Defendant never received any of these monies. By way of further answer, the Three Thousand ($3,000.00) dollar payment referenced in Plaintiff's paragraph 15 is admitted was given by Plaintiff to Defendant. Finally, with respect to the Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) dollars also referenced in Plaintiff's paragraph 15, this was given by Plaintiff to Defendant as consideration for Defendant agreeing to close her business in Clarion and open the store in DuBois. By way of further answer, in light of all of the items, services, and concessions given by Defendant to Plaintiff, no further monies are owed by Defendant to Plaintiff.

16. Denied. As set forth above, because of the services, furniture, and concessions given by Defendant to Plaintiff, Defendant does not owe any monies to Plaintiff.

17. Denied for the reasons set forth herein.

18. Denied. It is denied Defendant breached any contract between the parties.

COUNT III

19. No responsive pleading is required.
20. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that when Defendant took possession of the property there were some chandeliers and one (1) rung that was in said store. It is denied that these were the property of Plaintiff, but were to be items which could be sold by Defendant.
21. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that some of the chandeliers were sold by Defendant in the regular course of business. By way of further answer, Defendant does not have any records to verify the amount set forth in Plaintiff's paragraph 21, therefore the same are denied, and strict proof thereof is demanded at Trial. By way of further answer, Defendant did sell some of these items to a Dr. Gregory Roscoe, a friend and client of Plaintiff, for the approximate price of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) dollars. By way of further answer, Plaintiff was completely aware of, and agreed to, the sale of the chandeliers to his friend and client.
22. Denied for the reasons set forth herein.
23. Denied for the reasons set forth herein.
24. Denied for the reasons set forth herein.
25. Denied for the reasons set forth herein. Further, said amounts were sold as part of items in the store, with the full knowledge and consent of Plaintiff, and therefore no monies are owed by Defendant to Plaintiff.

26. Denied. In light of the fact said items were sold in the regular course of business, as well as were sold with the knowledge and consent of Plaintiff, there was no such intentional tort, and therefore punitive damages are not recoverable.

NEW MATTER

27. Defendant hereby incorporates paragraphs 1 through 26 as if set forth in full herein.

28. During the latter part of 2002 and the first part of 2003, Plaintiff approached Defendant, who was operating a furniture and antique store in Clarion, Pennsylvania, to start a business in one of his stores located at 100 North Brady Street, DuBois, Pennsylvania.

29. Defendant informed Plaintiff that she would possibly be interested, but would need compensated if she were to make the move from Clarion to DuBois.

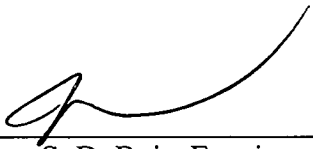

30. Plaintiff agreed to said compensation, and as a result, gave Ten Thousand ($10,000.0) dollars to Defendant.

31. When Defendant moved into the store, it was agreed to by the parties that Defendant would not have to pay rent for the building, as Plaintiff's main objective was to have someone occupy the store.

32. In addition, with respect to their agreement, Defendant agreed that in lieu of rent, Plaintiff would receive a number of items from Defendant's store at no cost, not only for his own personal use, but also for the use in his construction business.
33. In addition, one of the other reasons the parties agreed was that Defendant would not have to pay rent was for Plaintiff to be allowed to run part of his construction business through Defendant's business.
34. It was for all of the above reasons that no rent was due by Defendant to Plaintiff.
35. As a result of the above, there are no monies owed by Defendant to Plaintiff.
36. Plaintiff's claim and assertion of a lease is barred by the statute of frauds.
37. Plaintiff's claim fails to set forth a cause of action to which relief can be granted.
38. Plaintiff's case fails to state a claim.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests this Honorable Court to dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint and to award judgment in favor of Defendant.
