ANSWER TO PETITION

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN J. PENTZ, PRESIDENT JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Now comes the County National Bank at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, and answers the Petition filed to the above term and number and respectfully sets forth as follows:

(1). The averments contained in Paragraph 1 are admitted however, in further answer thereto, it is averred that the said note was taken by your respondent in good faith and by giving valuable consideration therefor, and that the respondent had no notice of any defect existing in the said note.

(2). The facts as averred in Paragraph 2 are admitted, however in further answer thereto it is averred that your respondent took said note in good faith and by giving valuable consideration therefor, and was aware of no defect in the endorsement thereon.

(3). Your respondent being without sufficient information after reasonable investigation to either affirm or deny the facts as set forth in Paragraph 3, they are, therefore denied and strict proof is demanded.

(4). The averments of Paragraph 4 are neither affirmed or denied. The respondent after reasonable investigation being without sufficient information to either affirm or deny and strict proof thereof is demanded. It is further averred, however, that the facts as set forth therein are in direct conflict with the facts as set forth in Paragraph 5 therein.

(5). The averments set forth in Paragraph 5 of the Petition are denied and on the contrary it is averred that at the time the said Roy I. Fulton took the said note to the Petitioner's home the sole purpose was to discuss the said note with them and that the Petitioners stated that the signatures thereon were forgery and at no time did the said Roy I. Fulton state that he knew the signatures of the Petitioners were forged.

WHEREFORE, the respondent herein sets forth that as the note was taken by it in good faith and for valuable consideration that the Petitioners be required to offer proof of all the averments in their said Petition and that otherwise the judgment be reaffirmed and the rule to open be discharged.

No. 368 November Term, 1961

PETITION

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN J. PENTZ, PRESIDENT JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

The Petition of Preston Rishel and Daisy Rishel
respectfully represents:

(1). That on the 29th day of December, 1961, the County National Bank at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, confessed judgment against your Petitioners in the amount of $1,800.00, plus attorney's commission of $180.00, and interest from November 10, 1961, referring to a note on which judgment was entered by said County National Bank at Clearfield against Ashley L. Rishel and Lillian R. Rishel to No. 368 November Term, 1961.

(2). Examination of the original note entered to No. 366 November Term, 1961, shows a note dated the 10th day of November, 1961, payable six months after date, on which note there is an alleged endorsement purportedly signed by Preston Rishel and Daisy Rishel.

(3). That your Petitioners aver that the signature are not their signatures nor did they authorize any other person to place their names thereon.

(4). That your Petitioners had no knowledge of said indebtedness until advised by letter from the law firm of Smith, Smith & Work.

(5). That about two months ago, Roy I. Fulton brought said note to your Petitioners' home and stated that he knew the signatures of your Petitioners were a forgery.
