THE KINNARD PATENT FLAT-OPENING BLANK BOOK

The simplicity of construction and thoroughly practical operation of this book demonstrate its superiority over those made by any other method The patent back causes the book to be perfectly flat when open, without any strain upon the binding It secures flexibility and durability that will resist the roughest possible usage. This book can be duplicated by giving the following numbers.

Pro. by Aff 2.00

Jan. 17. 1946. No Lien Agreement filed.

This Agreement made the second day of January in the year 1946 by and between George K. Carns and Robert K. Carns, doing business under the firm name of Carns Brothers, a partnership duly created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and having its principal place of business in Clearfield (Clearfield) Clearfield, Centre County, Pennsylvania, hereinafter called the Contractor, and the Wolf Furniture Co. of Clearfield, a partnership duly created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and having its principal place of business in Clearfield (Clearfield) Centre County, Pennsylvania, hereinafter called the owners, Witnesseth, that the Contractor and the Owners, for the considerations hereinafter named agree as follows:

Article 1. The Contractor agrees to provide all the materials and to perform all the work shown on the drawings and described in the specifications entitled: "Alterations, Clearfield Store for Wolf Furniture Company, 1501 Eleventh Avenue, Altoona, Pa.", prepared by Hunter and Caldwell, Architects, Altoona, Pa., acting as and in these contract documents entitled the Architects, and to do everything required by the General Conditions of the Contract, the specifications and the drawings.

Article 2. The Owner agrees to pay the Contractor in current funds for the performance of the contract Sixteen Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Three and no/100 ($16,993.00) Dollars, subject to additions and deductions as provided in the General Conditions of the Contract, and to make payments on account thereof as provided therein, as follows: On or about the Tenth day of each month, eighty-five (85%) percent of the value proportionate to the amount of the contract, of the labor and materials incorporated in the work up to the first day of that month as estimated by the Architect, less the aggregate of previous payments. On completion of the entire work, provided the work be fully completed and the contract fully performed, the balance due under the contract will be paid.

Article 3. The Contractor and the Owner agree that the General Conditions of the Contract, the specifications, and the drawings, together with this agreement, form the contract, and that they are as fully a part of the contract as if hereto attached or herein repeated.

Article 4. No lien shall be filed against the building by the Contractor, or any sub-contractor nor by any of the material men or other person for any labor or material.

The Contractor and the Owner for themselves, their successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, hereby agree to the full performance of the covenants herein contained.

A. H. Bowers
Contractor

Pro. By Peff 3.00

April 23. 1948. Stipulation against Liens filed

This Agreement, made this 21st day of April, A.D. 1948, between The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, a corporation created under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and having its principal office in the City of Philadelphia, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hereinafter called Telephone Company, party of the first part, and A. H. Bowers, of the Borough of Clearfield, County of Clearfield, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hereinafter called Contractor, party of the second part.

Witnesseth: that the Contractor hereby agrees to furnish all labor and materials required for the erection and completion of the Frenchville Community Dial Office Building of Telephone Company situate along the southerly side of Pennsylvania State Highway Route #879, in the Village of Frenchville, County of Clearfield, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with Drawing numbered 1120/48, Specifications 1120-A-48, including Detail Sheets 1 to 7, and Bulletin Number 1, all as prepared by Telephone Company, copies of which are hereto attached and made a part hereof; Subject, however, to the following covenants, terms and conditions:

1. All the material used in the work shall be the best of their several kinds and qualities and all work shall be done in the most skillful and workmanlike manner.

2. Telephone Company shall have the right to add to, change or modify the said Drawing, Specifications, and Bulletin #1 during the progress of the work. Credit or debit amounts shall be made, based upon the market value of labor and materials added or omitted; but under no circumstances, except upon the written order of the Engineer of Building of Telephone Company, is any additional expense to be incurred for which Telephone Company will be liable.

3. No lien or claim of any kind whatever shall be filed by Contractor, or by any sub-contractor, or by any other person, firm or corporation, against the said building or against any property belonging to Telephone Company, for work done under this agreement or for materials furnished in connection therewith.

4. Contractor hereby assumes all responsibility for any and all loss of life or property, injuries to any person or persons, and damage to property, arising out of and resulting from the performance or non-performance of the work covered by this agreement or due to imperfect construction after completion of the said work or for any damage resulting from the use or infringement of patent rights. Such responsibility shall include any liability of Telephone Company under Workmen's Compensation Laws and Contractor hereby agrees to reimburse Telephone Company for any and all payments made by it to its employees under said Laws, on account of such loss or injury. Contractor shall carry insurance to protect the parties hereto from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, judgments, costs, expenses and liabilities of every name and nature which may arise or result, directly or indirectly, from or by reason of such loss, injury or damage. The amount of such insurance, the company or companies in which it is to be carried and the form and term of the policy or policies shall be approved by Telephone Company. Contractor shall also carry such insurance as will protect him from all claims under any Workmens Compensation Laws in effect.

5. Contractor shall have at all times a Competent representative on the site; shall at all times diligently superintend and supervise said work during its progress; shall procure and distribute to those affected all information necessary for the expeditious and economical conduct of the said work; and shall see to it that the entire work under this agreement is started promptly and prosecuted with great diligence so that it will be completed not later than June 15. 1948.

6. Upon the full and faithful performance of the said work to the entire satisfaction of Telephone Company, and upon a full release of liens being delivered to Telephone Company, Telephone Company shall pay to Contractor the sum of Two Thousand Eight Hundred Twenty Dollars and Twenty Seven Cents ($2,820.27); subject to credit or debit amounts in accordance with Section 1 hereof. Telephone Company shall make partial payments on the above mentioned amount to Contractor during the progress of the said work, which shall be based upon the value of materials furnished in place and work done at the end of each month, reserving therefrom ten per cent (10%) until the final acceptance of the said work and until a full Release of Liens is delivered to Telephone Company by Contractor. Partial payments above referred to are to be made for the convenience of Contractor and are not to be construed as an acceptance of materials or workmanship as being in any way satisfactory or Completed.

7. Should Contractor, in the judment of Telephone Company, fail in any respect to perform the work in accordance with the provisions of this agreement, Telephone Company may immediately terminate the employment of Contractor and employ other Contractors or workmen to complete the work at the expense of Contractor.

8. Contractor shall furnish, if requested by Telephone Company, a Surety Company Bond in a Company satisfactory to Telephone Company in the sum of Two Thousand Eight Hundred Twenty Dollars and Twenty-seven Cents ($2,820.27) guaranteeing the performance by Contractor of each and all of the Covenants, terms and conditions of this agreement. The cost of said bond shall be paid by Telephone Company.

9. Contractor shall not assign, transfer, or sub-let this agreement without the written Consent of Telephone Company.

10. This agreement shall extend to and bind the heirs, Executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of the parties hereto.

In Witness Whereof the parties hereto have caused these presents to be duly executed the day and year first above written.

August 27. 1948. No Lien Agreement filed.

Whereas, on the 7th day of July. 1948. Western Knapp Engineering Company Division of Western Machinery Company hereinafter called "Western", entered into an Agreement with Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Corporation hereinafter called "Pennsylvania", in which Western undertook and agreed to erect a coal preparation plant upon certain land of Pennsylvania situate in the Village of Winburne, Cooper Township, Clearfield County, Pa. containing approximately four and six tenths acres, made of three and six tenths acres, more or less, known as the O. L. Schoonover surface as described in a certain lease from Clearfield Bituminous Coal Corporation to Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Corporation, dated April 1. 1938, and duly recorded in Clearfield County, Pa. and of approximately one acre adjoining the same, the title to which has heretofore been vested in Peale, Peacock & Kerr, Incorporated, the combined parcels above mentioned comprising the site for tipple of Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Corporation at its operation known as No. 46.

Now, Therefore, This Agreement Witnesseth, that Western, in consideration of the sum of One ($1.00) Dollar to it in hand paid by Pennsylvania, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and the further consideration mentioned in the aforesaid Agreement, for itself and its sub-contractors and all parties acting through or under it, covenants and agrees that no mechanic's liens or claims shall be filed or maintained by it, or any of them, against the said coal preparation plant and the parcel of ground appertenant thereto hereinabove described, or any of them, and/or on account of any work done or materials furnished by it, or any of them, under said contract or otherwise, for, towards, in or about the erection and construction of the said coal preparation plant or any part thereof.

Western, for itself and its sub-contractors and others under them, hereby expressly waives and relinquishes the right to have, file or maintain any Mechanic's lien or Claim against the said coal preparation plant or any part thereof and against the said land, and further agrees that this Agreement waiving the right of lien shall be an independent covenant.

Western hereby certifies that no work has been done in connection with the construction of said coal preparation plant on the date of this Agreement and that no work will be done thereon until this Contract has been filed with the Prothonotary of Clearfield County, Pa.

Completion of the said dwelling shall be air dried for a period of less than three (3) months before using the same in any part of the construction above described in accordance with the specifications attached hereto.

3- The owners shall have the right to add to, change or modify the said description of materials, plans and alternation of plans, during the progress of the work. Credit or debit amounts shall be made, based upon the market value of labor and materials added or omitted; but under no circumstances, except upon the written order of the Owners, is any additional expense to be incurred for which the Owners shall be liable.

4- No lien or claims of any kind whatever shall be filed by the Contractor, or by any sub-Contractors or by any other persons, firm or Corporation, against the said building, or against any property belonging to the Owners for work done under this agreement or for materials furnished in connection therewith.

5- The Contractor hereby assumes all responsibility for any and all loss of life & property, injuries to any person or persons, and damages to property, arising out of and resulting from the performance or non-performance of the work covered by this agreement or due to imperfect Construction after completion of the said work. Contractor shall carry insurance to protect the parties hereto from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, judgments, costs, expenses and liabilities of every name and nature which may arise or result, directly or indirectly, from or by reason of such loss, injury or damage. The Contractor shall also carry such insurance as will protect him from all claims under any Workmen's Compensation Laws in effect.

6- The Contractor shall have at all times a Competent representative on the site; shall at all times diligently superintend and supervise said work during its progress; shall procure and distribute to those affected all information necessary for the expeditious and economical conduct of the said work; and shall see to it that the entire work under this agrument is started promptly and prosecuted with great diligence so that it will be completed not later than May 15, 1949.

7- Upon the full and faithful performance of the said work to the entire satisfaction of the Owners, and upon a full release of liens being delivered to the Owners, the Owners shall pay to the Contractor the sum of Fourteen Thousand Two Hundred and Forty Dollars ($14,240.00), the same being a firm bid, within sixty (60) days after the completion date above mentioned; subject to credit
