Clerk of Courts are prohibited by law from making and issuing certifications of a naturalization record or any part thereof, except upon Order of the Court. There is no prohibition against furnishing information orally from naturalization records, without Court Order.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service (now known as Homeland Security) is authorized to make such certifications when needed in any judicial proceeding, or to comply with any statute. Persons requiring such certifications should submit application Form N-585 to the nearest Office of Immigration and Naturalization Service. A supply of such Form is available from any office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.
