Plaintiff

No. 399, Feb Term, 1961

v.

In Assumpsit

AMELIA A. JOHNSON, Administrator of the Estate of IDA SODERSTROM,
deceased,
Defendant

PLAINTIFF'S STATEMENT OF CLAIM

The plaintiff above named claims to recover from the defendant upon a cause of action hereinafter set forth as follows:

1. The plaintiff, J. Harold Moore, is a resident of the City of DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, where he is engaged in the business of funeral director, embalming and undertaking under the name of N. R. Moore Son.

2. Ida Soderstrom died intestate on April 12, 1960 and Letters of Administration were issued to Amelia A. Johnson, the defendant, on September 14, 1960.

3. Following the death of said decedent, the said Amelia A. Johnson selected a casket and metal vault and employed the said J. Harold Moore, trading as N. R. Moore Son, to embalm the body of the said Ida Soderstrom, to furnish the said casket, metal vault and incidental supplies and to conduct the funeral for Ida Soderstrom deceased, for the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty ($750.00) Dollars.

4. The said J. Harold Moore, trading as N. R. Moore Son, did furnish the said casket and metal vault, embalm the body of Ida Soderstrom, furnish the incidental supplies, conduct the funeral services and inter the body of Ida Soderstrom, deceased.

5. No part of the said amount of Seven Hundred Fifty ($750.00) Dollars to be paid J. Harold Moore, trading as N. R. Moore Son, for the aforesaid materials and services rendered by him in connection with the funeral of Ida Soderstrom, deceased.

has been paid to the plaintiff, and there remains due and owing the plaintiff from the estate of the said Ida Soderstrom, deceased, the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty ($750.00) Dollars, with interest.

6. The price of Seven Hundred Fifty ($750.00) Dollars charged for the said materials and services was and is a reasonable price for the same and the price which the defendant agreed to pay.

7. The agreement between the parties was oral.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff seeks to recover from the defendant, as Administrator of the Estate of Ida Soderstrom, deceased, the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty ($750.00) Dollars, with interest from April 15, 1960.
