CLEARFIELD COUNTY, Pa:

The Plaintiff's claim in this case is founded on a single bill or judgment note signed, sealed and dated the 5th day of July 1961, by which the defendants promised to pay to the order of the Plaintiff, Three Months after date the sum of $422.71, payable at The First National Bank of Barnesboro, Barnesboro, Pa., without deduction, value received, and which said single bill or judgment note contains the following:

"And further, do hereby authorize and empower any attorney of any Court of Record in Pennsylvania or elsewhere, to appear for and confess judgment for the above sum, with or without declaration, with costs of suit, release of errors, without stay of execution, and with 10 percent, added for collection fees, and also waive the right of inquisition on any real estate that may be levied upon to collect this note, and do hereby voluntarily condemn the same and authorize the Prothonotary to enter upon the Fl. Pa. said voluntary condemnation; and further agree that said estate may be sold on Fl. Pa. and hereby waive and release all relief from any and all appraisement, stay or exemption laws of any State now in force or hereafter to be passed; and also waive the benefit of the present and any future bankruptcy law that may be passed by the United States."

Said note signed by the defendants is attached hereto and made a part of this Statement of Claim.
