Cortez Bell, Jr., Esq., Attorney for the Plaintiff. The Defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel.

III CAUSES OF DIVORCE

Indignities to the Person.

IV FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Marriage---The Plaintiff, Anne K. Longfritz and the Defendant, Robert K. Longfritz, were married on March 29, 1947, in the St. Marks Episcopal Church, in North Tonawanda, New York, by the Reverend Edgar R. Walker

2. Residence---The Plaintiff and the defendant have residents of Clearfield County for the past five and one half years.

3. Citizenship--- Both the Plaintiff and Defendant are citizens of the United States and the Plaintiff is a resident and citizen of the Bourough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pa., and the Defendant is a resident and citizen of the city of DuBois, Pa. Clearfield County, Pa.

4. Age and Occupation--- The Plaintiff is thirty-eight (38) years of age and is unemployed. The Defendant is thirty-seven (37) years of age, and is employed at Brookville Plate Glass as a ceramics engineer.

5. Children---The parties hereto have one child, Robert John Longfritz, presently aged five (5) years.

6. Findings on the Merits---The Plaintiff and Defendant were married on March 29, 1947, at the St. Marks Episcopal Church, in North Tonawanda, New York, by the Reverend Edgar R. Walker. The Plaintiff and Defendant are residents of Clearfield, Pa. for the past five and one half years.

Plaintiff is provided with Indignities to the Person as a ground for divorce. The Defendant displayed such a course of conduct or continued treatment as rendered Plaintiff's condition intolerable and her life burdensome.

Defendant on frequent occasions would seek the company of one Ruth Saricks, and by his own addmission had been keeptin company with her since May of 1961. It also appears from the testimony that the defendant and said Ruth Saricks traveled together in October of 1961 to the George Washington Motor Lodge in Kingof Prussia, Pa., and that they stayed together at said Motor Lodge for several nights.

Admitted hereto and made part of this report is a copy of a letter written by the attorney for the Plaintiff to said Motor Lodge, and a reply, stating that on the dates in question a Mrs. & Mrs. Robert K. Longfritz were registered as guests of the motel. By Mrs. Longfritz's testimony, it appears it was not she who was present when the registration was made. By the defendant's own admission, he was responsible for the registration, and it was made by him for himself and Mrs. Ruth Saricks.

In December of 1961, while the Plaintiff was visiting in Arizona, the defendant by his own admission traveled to Florida in the company of Mrs. Ruth Saricks and her son. When confronted by Mr. Groh, the defendant did not deny his actions or his relationship with Mrs. Ruth Saricks.

Through this continued course of conduct on the defendants part, Plaintiff's condition was rendered intolerable and her life burdensome.

Conduct by a husband with respect to another women may be considered as a form of personal indignity rendering the wife's condition intolerable and her life burdensome and entitling her to a divorce from the bounds of matrimony. See Hartding vs. Hartding 1945 40 A 2d 869, 156 Pa. Super. 438

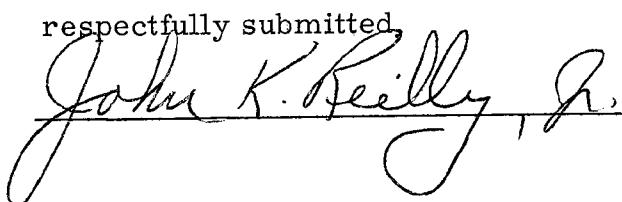

V CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. That the proceedings are in accordance with "The Divorce Law" and Rules of Court Relative to such proceedings.
2. That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter of this action.
3. The Plaintiff is a resident and citizen of the Borough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pa., and the Defendant is a resident and citizen of the city of DuBois, Clearfield County, Pa.
4. That a sufficient cause for divorce on the grounds of indignities to the person has been established on the facts.
