(3). The Sandy Township Municipal Authority has constructed a certain sewer system in the Township of Sandy whose appurtenances are within 150 feet of the residence of the Defendant.

(4). Said sewer system was duly leased to Plaintiff.

(5). Said sewer system has been for a period of nine months available to the Defendant for service.

(6). The Plaintiff has duly passed a rate ordinance providing for fair and just charges for sewer services, said rate ordinance being a matter of record in the Township records and is herewith incorporated herein by reference.

(7). By virtue of said ordinance, Plaintiff has sent to Defendant bills in the amount of $48.66.

(8). The Defendant has refused and does refuse to pay the same.

(9). In addition thereto, there is imposed upon such delinquencies a penalty of $25.00.

(10). Plaintiff has repeatedly requested Defendant to pay said sum, to-wit $73.66, but Defendant has refused and does refuse to pay the same.

(11). The charges to Defendant are fair, just and reasonable, and Defendant has no reason not to pay the same.

-2-

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant in the amount of $73.66, together with interest.
