STATEMENT AND CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT

The Plaintiff's claim in this matter is founded on a single bill or judgment note signed, sealed and dated the 14th day of April, 19 61, by which the Defendants promise to pay to the order of the Plaintiff the sum of $ 1183.20 at The Carrolltown American National Bank, Carrolltown, Pennsylvania, in 60 monthly deposits of $ 19.72, each, beginning on the 25th day of May, 1961, and continuing on the same day of each and every month thereafter until the full amount is paid.

Said judgment note further provides as follows:

"In the event that any deposit is not paid within fifteen days from the date due, the undersigned hereby agree to pay in addition to such deposit, a 'late charge' equal to five cents per dollar of each deposit so in arrears, but not to exceed Five Dollars in respect to any one such deposit in arrears, and should the undersigned in such event fail to pay such delinquent deposit and such reinstatement or late charge within the said period of fifteen days, the holder hereof may at his election declare the full amount of this note then remaining unpaid, together with all amounts which may be payable as late charges, immediately due and payable, and may proceed to collect the same at once. And further the undersigned do hereby authorize and empower any attorney of any Court of Record in Pennsylvania or elsewhere to appear for and confess judgment against the undersigned or any of them and in favor of the said payee or holder of this note at any time and as of any term whether or not the payments provided herein are in default for the full amount due or to become due hereunder, with costs of suit, release of errors, without stay of execution and with fifteen per cent added for collection fees, and also waive the right of inquisition on any real estate that may be levied upon to collect the above indebtedness, and do hereby voluntarily condemn the same and authorize the Prothonotary to enter upon the fi. fa. said voluntary condemnation, and further agree that said estate may be sold on fi. fa. and hereby waive and release all relief from any and all appraisement, stay or exemption laws of any State now in force or hereafter to be passed, and also waive the benefit of the present and any future bankruptcy law that may be passed by the United States. The makers of this note when more than one shall be jointly and severally liable thereon."

Said note is hereto attached and made part of this Statement and Confession of Judgment.
