PETITION

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN J. PENTZ, PRESIDENT JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

The Petition of Donna Louise Winslow respectfully represents:

(1). That she and her husband parted in 1956, and your Honorable Court to No. 63 May Sessions, 1956, made an Order of Court for support of herself and her child, and later for a second child, the Order now being $85.00 per month, and despite the fact that the said Gary Elton Winslow was in the Army for 2 years, he is in arrears in the sum of $1027.50 on said support Order.

(2). That your Petitioner brought a proceeding in divorce in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County to No. 323 May Term, 1961, to obtain a divorce from the said Gary Elton Winslow, said divorce being served upon him at his residence in Elk County.

(3). That there was served on your Petitioner on Friday, August 25, a Complaint in Divorce, filed by Gary Elton Winslow to the above number and term asking for a divorce from your Petitioner.

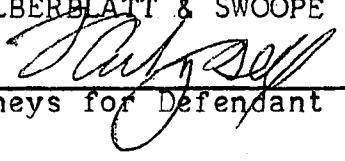

(4). That your Petitioner has not proceeded with her divorce action because of lack of funds, she having custody of the 2 children, age 3 and 5, and not receiving payments of support in the amount sufficient to permit her to expend money to proceed with the divorce case.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner requests that all proceedings in said divorce action be postponed so far as the necessity of filing an Answer, and that a Rule be issued on the said Gary Elton Winslow to show cause why he should not pay reasonable counsel fees and costs and make payment of the Order of Court and the arrearages thereof.

And she will ever pray.
