Probable cost of Linn Bridge Two thousand dollars

To the Hon. the Judge of the United Superior Court of the County of Pennsylvania.

The undersigned citizens of the township of Benning respectfully represent that they labor under great inconvenience and expense for the on account of not having a bridge erected at the village of Benning in said township, and they further respectfully represent that erection of such a bridge over the Susquehanna River at that place would be attended with more expense than Benning township should reasonably bear, and that the same is needed because being on a public Highway over which travel is the citizens of Benning township respectfully pray the Court to appoint viewers to examine the necessity for such bridge report upon the same and the location thereof.

And they will ever pray
