To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in & for the County of Clearfield,

We the persons appointed by the above order of Court to view the site for a bridge therein mentioned would respectfully report that after giving due public notice of the time and place of meeting we all met agreeably thereto on the 21st day of May 1877 and after all being duly affirmed according to law a bridge mentioned in the above order, and after having carefully examined the premises we are of the opinion that a bridge on that site would not be so advantageous to the Public as a bridge at Ditz's fording.
