To the Hon. the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Cheamshire Pa.

At June Sessions 1878. —

The undersigned citizens of Burnside Township, Cheamshire County, Pa respectfully represent that they labour under inconvenience for want of a public road properly laid out on suitable ground between the forks of the Roads at the bridge at Oliver J. Westover's, and a point on the public road at or near the West end of Lamar's lane, — being a distance of a mile and a quarter more or less — in Burnside township. They therefore pray the Court to appoint viewers to examine and report according to law. — And so they pray. —
