From my own standpoint, not only did he often discuss problems with me, but he was a teacher. He had the ability to open up a new approach to a problem and show you what should be done. I would like to say now, that his kindness and his courtesy extended not only to his professionsl life, but to his personal life. He was always available at any time, to his friends, always glad to interrupt his own plans and talk to anybody who needed help in anyway. Not only do I feel that we have lost a very able member of the Bar Association, but I myself have experienced a very deep personal loss. Thank you.

BY CLARENCE KRAMER:

Thank you. Any others? We would be glad to have anybody who wants to, make any remarks. (Pause)

At the risk of repeating to some extent, things that have been said, Your Honor, I will make some brief remarks on our association, which I think I should do.

I think W. Elbridge Brown came to us as a member of the Bar, well qualified. He graduated out of the University of Pittsburgh Law School, and back of that, suitable and appropriate academic training.

He began in early years, shortly after I had become a member of the Bar, and got off to a good start, making a favorable impression, and succeeding; and was well on his way towards success.

He served temporarily as District Attorney. I don't recall that the Resolutions said that; but there was an interval there over one or two terms of Court, that he served; and I remember defending some cases when he was prosecuting; and as a young lawyer, he presented his cases well, and, incidentally, to his credit he obtained convictions in the ones I defended; meritorious ones, I will add; and so it was that his career started out as a member of our group, with promise and with a great future ahead of him.

Then there opened up to him this other opportunity, to which reference has been made in the Memorial; and I am told that he was taken to a southern city, where Mr. A. W. Lee, the First, was sojourning, and presented to Mr. Lee, the then President of the Trust Company, as a young man with good personality, and with outstanding ability; and so it was that he transferred from the court room to the environs of banking; from the situation of a law office to the position of Trust Officer and in that he was destined to be even more successful than in his brief carreer, he had been as a young and starting attorney at law, for, after all, he had only practiced for a period of six years when he transferred his occupation to the other line of endeavor.

Born in one century, as many of us here were, he lived in the latter years of that century, and through more than half of a vitally heralded and greatly acclaimed twentieth century, a century that has fulfilled much of its promise, but been accompanied with disappointment, of great wars and national conflicts; and through this period of time he manifested the same ability, after going into the Trust Company and in the bank, that he had previously manifested in his first field of activity; and he carried on against the odds of a partly impaired physical constitution, suffered in the service of his country in time of war. He lived through the Spanish American War, as a lad. He lived through two World Wars and served in the First; through the Korean conflict.

He was born in the year of depression, 1893. He lived through another year of panic, 1907; through the devasting depression of the thirties; through the great commercial activity of the twenties, almost unbounded prosperity; and into a day of recuperating economy of our country in the fifties; and, as Judge Pentz has stated, he met those situations favorably. He was able to foresee that out of the depression, this nation would come to a new national economy that would leave behind it the dregs of the devastating thirties.

So his career was a success, and we can well admire his place in the community, achieving and service not only locally, as has been mentioned, the School Board, Rotary, and what not; but acheiving on a State wide level, as president of the State Bankers Association, and as a Director of the Philadelphia Federal Bankers Association, and as a director of the Philadelphia Federal Board of the Reserve Bank. So he left us then, in the high tide of success, at the time when a man's career can reach a good and substantial pinacle of success; and he left us, widely regarded, deeply respected, and uniformly esteemed. He had the qualities of character toward these traits, in the bank; and I would think, as an outsider observing from a distance, that a man must have that quality and fiber of character to say no, when no is indicated. It must be no, whether a person is new to you, whether an acquaintance, or whether a friend, and to stay with that no, if no was the proper procedure. From the inside, I see that a lawyer must have the quality and fiber of character to advise his client as to what he interprets the law to be. For it is not, in many instances, as in the engineering profession and of exact sciences, where two and two make four, but a lawyer must have the stability and the mental ability to say to his client in his opinion the law is thus and so; and then stay with it until the court says that he is right or wrong.

And so he went on his way through life, in the work that he liked, in the vocation that he had chosen, amid the frustrations and defeats that come to every life, and still afforded him the satisfaction and contentment. And so we say to you, ladies and gentlemen, and to the family of W. Elbridge Brown, the place he has left in our community, leaves us to a distinct loss; but it leaves us with memories that are most eminently worthwhile.

If there are any further remarks, we will be glad to have them. (Pause)

If not, the motion is before you to adopt the Memorial prepared by the Committee. All those in favor give their consent by saying I.

MEMBERS OF THE BAR:

BY MR. KRAMER:

Opposed? (None)

The Resolution is unanimously carried and will be spread on the Miscellaneous Docket of the Court, and certified copies sent to the family.

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

And further, we will order the remarks made here this morning to be transcribed and added to and made a part of the records of the Courts of Clearfield County. It is so ordered.

By MR. KRAMER:

And with that, we shall conclude the meeting.

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

Very well, with the adjournment of the meeting of the Bar Association, the Court will also adjourn.

TO THE CLEARFIELD COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION:

We, the members of the Committee appointed by the President of the Clearfield County Bar Association, to present a Memorial in honor of the late W. Elbridge Brown, a member of the Bar of Clearfield County, and resolutions of regret and respect, herewith present such resolutions.

WILLIAM ELBRIDGE BROWN, an honored and respected member of the Bar of Clearfield County, was born at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on the 4th day of April, 1893, a son of Harry William Brown and Mary Adams Hartman Brown. Shortly after his birth the family moved to Osceola Mills, Clearfield County, where Mr. Brown attended grade school and high school, and went to Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport, now Lycoming University, from which he graduated in 1913.

Following his graduation from Dickinson Seminary he entered the University of Pittsburgh Law School in the Class of 1917, graduating that year. Before graduation, as so many men of his generation did, the First World War intervened, and Mr. Brown entered the Officers Training Corps on May 11, 1917, receiving a commission of Second Lieutenant on completion of the training course, and was later promoted to a First Lieutenant, and served until his discharge on June 9, 1920.

Following his discharge from the United States Army he was admitted to the Allegheny County Bar in the year 1920, and remained in Allegheny County until September 2, 1921, when he removed to Clearfield and became a member of the Clearfield County Bar Association

From that date he practiced law with offices in Clearfield until the year 1926 when he became Trust Officer at the Clearfield Trust Company.

Mr. Brown's duties as Trust Officer necessitated curtailment of his law practice, and he devoted all of his time practically to the duties of Trust Officer, with such ability and success that he was made Vice President of that institution in the year1930, and elected to the Board of Directors in 1943, and became President in 1951, which office he held until the time of his death November 29, 1959.

WILLIAM ELBRIDGE BROWN achieved honor and distinction as a banker not only in Clearfield, Pennsylvania, but throughout the State of Pennsylvania, being selected as president of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association for the year, 1940 and 1941, and again later he was selected by the Bankers of the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank as a Director of that Bank in the year 1954 where he served until completion of the year 1957.

During his period of service as a member and President of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association, William Elbridge Brown achieved a wide recognition of his abilities as a banker, particularly Trust Officer, in the rapid advances of banking and trust relationships, which was recognized throughout the State of Pennsylvania, not only among bankers but among members of the legal profession. His selection as a member of the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank in Philadelphia was a recognition of his abilities and knowledge as a banker and trust officer.

In addition to his activities as a banker, both local and throughout the State, William Elbridge Brown, found time to devote his services and abilities to local matters. He served as a School Director of the Borough of Clearfield for a period of eighteen years, fourteen of these as President of the Board; he served as a member of the Board of Governors of the Clearfield Chamber of Commerce practically throughout his working life; was former Commander of the John Lewis Shade Post of the American Leigon, and served on the American Leigon Bi-County Committee, and, in addition, was a long time member of the Clearfield Rotary Club and served as president of that Association. During all of these years he retained his membership in the Clearfield County Bar Association and the American Bar Association, and gave, in addition to his time and attention to banking, civic affairs, his counsel and aid in the matters pertaining to the Bar Association.

He is survived by his wife, Bernice Beyer Brown, to whom he was joined in marriage on October 18, 1918, and two children, William Elbridge Brown, Jr., now of Strafford, Penna., and a daughter, Elizabeth Brown Bell, residing in the Borough of Clearfield, and five grandchildren. A son, John Brown, born in 1919 died shortly after his birth.

In addition to his wife and children and grandchildren, Mr. Brown is survived by four sisters; Mrs. Ray Prescot of Michigan, Mrs. Norman Mortensen, Greenville, Penna., Mrs. Frank Neufer, Cincinnatti, Ohio, Mrs. Harold Duncan, Greenville, Pa., and one brother, Dr. Willard H. Brown, Garland, Texas.

The Committee feels that in expressing the regret of each and every member of the Committee, that we also express the sincere regret of the entire Bar Association, in the loss of an honored member of this Bar, a leader in the movement for better industrial and civic conditions in, not only the town of Clearfield, but the entire County and surrounding regions, and as well, a dearly beloved friend.

We, therefore, respectfully move that his Memorial be adopted by the Bar Association of Clearfield County, and that it be spread upon the records of the County of Clearfield, and that certified copies thereof be furnished to the wife and members of the family of W. Elbridge Brown.

Respectfully submitted,

F. Cortez Bell, Chairman, John J. Pentz & Edward T. Kelley

April 28, 1960, Three (3) copies of Memorial certified to the wife and members of the family of W. Elbridge Brown.

Now, June 4, 1961, Carl A. Belin, attorney for the Plaintiff accepts.
ORDER: NOW, September 20, 1961, after hearing on petition of the plaintiffs for a special court under provisions of the Act of April 14, 1834, P.L. 333 (17 PS 581), it appears to the Court that the premises in said petition, namely, that the President Judge of the Courts of Clearfield County has an undivided interest in and to a tract of land, the title to which appears on its face to be held under the same title as the tract of land in question in the instant action in ejectment.
Reference of the action to the Prothonotary of the County of Clearfield for certification to the nearest President Judge, as provided by the Act of 1834, supra, has been superseded by the Act of 1911, (17 PS 228) in the certification of judges from one jurisdiction to the other, and, therefore, the request for a President Judge to try the issue involved is referred to the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for assignment of a President Judge to try the instant action. By the Court, John J. Pentz, President Judge.

September 22, 1961, ORDER: NOW, September 22, 1961, the order made in the above matter under date of September 20, 1961, stating that the Act of April 14, 1834, P. L. 333 (17 PS 581) is superseded by the Act of 1911 is incorrect, and said order is hereby rescinded.
For the reasons stated in the order made September 20, 1961, requiring the appointment of a judge to sit specially in the County of Clearfield, the Forty-sixth Judicial District, for the purpose of disposing of the above stated action, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania will, in this matter, exercise the extraordinary appointive and directory powers vested in the Chief Justice, and the Supreme Court, by virtue of the Act of May 22, 1722, 1 Smith Laws 131, and direct a Judge of another Judicial District to specially try the above stated action because of the disqualification of the President Judge of Clearfield County, upon the premises appearing on the record. By the Court, John J. Pentz, President Judge.
ORDER: AND NOW, to wit, September 22, 1961, Honorable John J. Pentz, President Judge of the Forty-sixth Judicial District, having disqualified himself to preside, and Honorable Robert M. Morris President Judge of the Fifth-fourth Judicial District, having signified his willingness so to do, he is hereby specially assigned to the Forty-sixth Judicial District for such period of periods as may be required, to hear and determine the following case, presently pending in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County:--

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR W. ELBRIDGE BROWN, ESQ.:

Twenty Six members of the Bar Association Present:

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

This is the time fixed for the memorial meeting of the Clearfield County Bar Association, in respect to our late departed member of the Bar, William Elbridge Brown. The meeting will now be turned over to the Bar Association, Mr. Clarence Kramer, President:

BY CLARENCE KRAMER:

Your Honor, members of the Bar, family and friends, the Committee on resolutions for the memorial in honor of W. Elbridge Brown, are Hon. F. Cortez Bell, Hon. John J. Pentz, and Capt. Edward T. Kelley. Judge Bell will read the resolutions.

BY HON. F. CORTEZ BELL:

Mr. President, Judge Pentz, and members of the Bar Association, the Committee was appointed quite a while ago, and I want to make a couple remarks before I read the Resolutions which Judge Pentz, Mr. Kelley and I have signed as the Committee.

I think I remember Elbridge about as long as most of you anyhow. I can remember when he came to Clearfield we were down in the Kurtz Building and he came in there a while; then was on Market Street, where Reube Nevling is; then went to the County National Bank Building, before he worked in the Trust Company. I think Miss Kester used to be his stenographer years ago, and can remember when he had the office over the County National Bank. I mention the fact that he had a child born in Tyrone, I think it was, and that child died. Our first baby died after three days, and I remember Elbridge and Bernice came to see us at that time. Then later, they moved up our street next to where P. T. Davis lived, and later built a house there; so he not only had to go by our house for a good many years, but I saw him frequently. We also had a bridge club and played together, and went out on picnics; so I had a rather intimate association with Elbridge.

One thing about him, you always knew where he stood. He never left you in any doubt as to whether it was yes or no. It wasn't maybe, or he didn't know; but he said so, and never left any question in your mind as to what position he took.

We have left a lot of little details out of the Resolutions. I am going to mention this - he had empyema and had some ribs removed; and I remember Dr. Hughes said to me that he was only living on nerve, and it was a miracle the man was alive; and so he had the greatest come-back, or reserve, that kept him alive a long time after his health got so his lungs did not allow him the proper breathing to keep on going.

He was in the service, and came out, and was in the Staten Hospital, where he had the same operation as Enrico Caruso had. I have been going into detail. Those are not in the Resolutions.

I will now take pleasure in reading the Resolutions the Committee prepared and signed.

(HON. F. CORTEZ BELL READS THE RESOLUTIONS:)

By Hon. F. Cortez Bell:

I don't believe he ever practiced law in Allegheny County. His Uncle was a tax accountant, and while he was attending law school in Pittsburgh, he did work for the Uncle.

I just checked with Mrs. Brown, and she confirmed that he did not practice in Allegheny County.

We, therefore, move that the Resolutions be adopted, as proposed by the Committee.

BY CLARENCE R. KRAMER.

You have heard the motion. Are there any further remarks. Judge Pentz.

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

I, as a member of the Committee, helped draft the Resolutions; and in addition, I want to express some feelings and some thoughts I have in respect to Elbridge Brown.

I first met him during the First World War. I was in the same military organization as his younger brother, known then as Harry Brown; and when our Company started overseas, we discovered that William Elbridge Brown was the transportation officer in charge of the transport in which our organization was to go across. I didn't meet Elbridge after that. I looked upon him as the brother of my comrade, and I never expected to see him again; until he turned up here in Clearfield County as a member of this bar. We resumed our very brief acquaintanceship, and it ripened into a very fine friendship.

Elbridge Brown was not only a very good friend of mine, but he was also, I regarded, a leader, particularly in trust matters. During that period of transition and rapid change that occurred from 1929 on, Elbridge Brown was, I think, one man who had his feet on the ground. He knew what was happening. He knew why; and he knew what should be done. During the disastrous affairs of what was called the recession, he was one man who was steady. He did not lose his head, and he forecast fo a remarkable degree, the present trust relationship between trust institutions, the legislation involving banks and banking, and the public. His foresight, and his intuition, to me, was most remarkable; and with all of that, his steadfast friendship.

I wanted to say those few words at this time. Thank you.

BY CLARENCE KRAMER:

Thank you, Judge Pentz, Any further remarks:

BY EDWARD T. KELLEY:

If it please the Court, the Brown family and friends. It was my privilege to have been a friend of Elbridge, or Brownie, as we always called him. We entered the Bar about the same time, and I observed his early years, as he observed mine. We talked about matters of the law; and from time to time there comes a man to any profession, who has a unique ability of background and attention to detail, that makes him an outstanding man in that profession; and such a man was Elbridge Brown in the practice of law. He was a good lawyer; but this background of attention to detail, and a background of the law, when he entered into the banking business it made him really great. He was more than a good lawyer. He graduated from a good lawyer to a great banker and an outstanding trust officer. He was recognized not only in Clearfield , but throughout the whole State of Pennsylvania. When you talk about trust matters in Pittsburgh or Philadelphia, they will mention the fact that "Oh, Elbridge Brown came from there"; and I happen to know that he had many opportunities , so far as money was concerned, to go other places, at much larger salary, so that other institutions of much broader scope, could use his ability in Philadelphia or Pittsburgh.

He was a grand fellow, a grand friend, and we are going to miss him terribly.

BY CLARENCE KRAMER:

Any further remarks, members of the Bar?

BY F. CORTEZ BELL, JR:

Mr. President, the Court, and Mrs. Brown:

Perhaps my association professionally , with Mr. Brown, has not been as long as that of some of the members of the Bar, but as you know, I am sure, Mr. Brown was my father-in-law, and our relationship was very close.

I am sure there are not many members of the Bar Association who have not taken their problems, their intricate questions related to estates and trust law, to Mr. Brown for his opinion; and I am sure you will recall there was never a time, no matter how busy he was, when he couldn't find some way to lay aside his work and talk to you.

ORDER AFFIRMED:

While I have the opportunity, I would like to be the first to express my personal thoughts concerning our departed brother. I suppose his life will live in my memory longer that the memory of any of you, and probably a long time after many of you have forgotten him. It probably falls to the lot of few men to have such an impact upon the life and distinction of any one person or family, as did Bish's life have upon mine, and that of my family. It it had not been for Bish Shaw, I probably may not have even been a lawyer. Certainly I would not have practiced my profession in Clearfield County. But for Bish Shaw, I would not have ever known that lovely person who for thirty some years has been known as Mrs. Ramey; ane we would not have had the three daughters, who have since childhood referred to Bish Shaw as "Uncle Bish" - they would not have been ours. Neither would the five grandchildren have been ours. The poet has put it best in these words: "Would I be I, or would I be nine-tenths another and only one-tenth me."

Our paths first crossed when Bish returned from military service back in 1919, and we were under-classmen in college. It was the practice of the institution to cause students to be seated alphabetically in the class rooms, by name. In most classes, by reason of alphabetical order, my name preceded Bish's on the class roll, and in many classes throughout our college career, we sat side by side. The same thing occurred again when we entered Law School together. When we graduated from Law School, at Bish's insistence and request, I came to Clearfield, where he found an opening here for me in the offices of William I. Swoope. When I came to Clearfield, I resided here with Bish and his widowed mother. Down through the years we were together a great deal; probably closer than most blood brothers are together. He was with me, and we were together in many moments of important events in our lives. He was the best man at my wedding. He was with me at the moment that I received the long distance telephone call of theuntimely death of my father. I have missed Bish a great deal.

I can only say in closing, that down through all these years I have never known Bish Shaw to an indecent thing, or to say an unkindword, or to do an unkind act towards any person. I know him to have been a true, loyal, faithful, sacrificing son to his widowed mother; and the same can be said of him also as a husband and a father; and certainly I can say the same thing of him as a friend. I am sure in that land from which there is no return, that it can be said of Bish Shaw, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

BY CLARENCE R. KRAMER:

Thank you, Mr. Ramey.

In addition to Mr. Ramey's close association with Bish Shaw, we expected to have here this morning, Judge Klepser of Blair County, who was a room mate of his at college and, therefore, closely identified, as was Mr. Ramey, in his college carreer; but this is the morning on which criminal court in Blair County opens, and Judge Pentz received this letter from Judge Klepser, which Judge Pentz has asked me to read:

"Thank you for your letter telling me about the memorial for Bish Shaw on June 13th. Criminal Court starts here on Monday morning, the 13th, which will make it impossible for me to be in attendance. Will you please express my sincere regrets to the members of the Bar of Clearfield County, and tell them that as a former Law School room mate at Carlisle, my memories of Bish recall him as a man of sterling qualities. I have visited him and his family in Clearfield, and later with his wife and children, after he had practiced law for some years. The Bar Association and the people of Clearfield County have lost a truly dedicated and highly respected citizen."

As a member of the Committee, I will at this time add my personal tribute to Bish Shaw. Unlike brother Ramey, I can't remember when I first met him. It seems to me that I have always known Bish Shaw, and yetI can't go back in my memory and find a time when I had ever met him prior to his entry into the Bar, and becoming a lawyer. My association with him in that respect, seems to have merged in the past, with subsequent contacts I have had, and therefore, I can't, ad Mr. Ramey, pinpoint the time we first became acquainted; but like him, I shared the esteem and respect of this departed member of the Association. He was friendly and genial, as the Resolution states, and I never, at any time, saw him when his temper was ruffled, or when you could say he was angry. In all my contacts with him, settling cases for the opposite side - I never remember being on a case with him - I never found we came to any point where there was open hostility, as admittedly, there may be in the practice of this aggressive profession of ours; so I found him a friend that it was a real pleasure to deal with at all times.

As the Memorial states too, he came from a family which distinguished itself in the annals of Clearfield County. He had a cousin who was a lawyer and practiced in Houtzdale in 1880. He died in 1899, and for quite a few years before 1899, he became a consul to South America, and was serving in that capacity at the time of his death.

His greatgrandfather was associate judge; and, of course, we know as lawyers, that associate judges are not lawyers, but men trained in the law, and men who distinguish themselves and perform routine duties while the law judge was away on the Circuit. One of his kinfolk was Sheriff, and another was County Treasurer.

Bish Shaw liked Clearfield County, and I think he liked the practice of law - that particular phase of it to which he particularly addressed himself. He also, I think, liked the business side of life; and I feel that in both of those phases of life, he made a record which we can favorably remember; and above all, we can remember him as a friend. I found some words of Edgar Guest relative to friendship, which I think portray the thoughts better than I could - I know it does - and which shows the lasting qualities of true friendship. "Forever is a long time" - and friendships last, really, forever. We cultivate them, and we cherish them until a person has departed.

Forever is a long time, the life of sea and tide,
No calendar can mark it, no season can divide;
It has no bitter ending - let life bring what it may,
Friendships last forever, forever and a day.

Though buildings fall in ruins, and earthly splendors fade;
Though death shall separate us, still stands the friendship made;
Though fashions change and fancies sweep all charms we know away.
Friendship lives forever, forever and a day.

We will be glad to hear from other members of the Bar Association before I put the motion.

BY F. CORTEZ BELL:

I think I knew Bish longer than anyone. His father used to go with my mother, before either of them were married - so I had a rather early background. I was just sitting here thinking, also my Aunt Mary Shaw lived where Evelyn Sykes lives, and Johnny Crago lives there now. The old Shaw homestead stood in the middle of Market Street. They opened it up afterwards, and the Erie Turnpike went to the right, and Guelich Avenue went to the left. I might say Senator Wallace married one of his daughters, and laid out those lots; and as I grew up with Nevling, Fulford and Leipold, we knew it as Shawville.

My earliest recollection is of Bish as a youngster, because my mother and his mother were friendly; and I can remember riding my pony, before there were automobiles, down to Shawville, when the grist mill sat between the Cal Shaw house and the river down there. The grist mill isnow torn down. Then Ed Shaw built a house up our street, and later Bish lived there. Then I lost track of Bish for awhile. He was behind me in High School, and he got lost in the service and I kept on going. I was kicked out of the Army because of a heart attack, and Bish was always very much interested in how I was getting along.

I was down in Dr. Hughes' Office the day Bish died, and Dr. Hughes said to me, "Did you know that Bish Shaw has a heart condition and he is carrying nitroglycerine pills in his pocket, and he tells me he can hardly make it up the hill to his house there?" And I said, "No, I didn't. I didn't even know he had a heart condition." He said "Well, he oughtent to to live up on top of that hill, where he has to walk up hill, because sometimes he has to stop on his way up and rest, and I was giving him the devil." It was less that a week after he told him that, that Bish was dead. I have known him, and respected him, and just wanted to add those few things on, simply because I knew Bish when we were in grade school, and I have respected him all through life.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you. We are glad to have that tribute. Any further remarks from the Bar?

I was present at his death on February 15th. I was coming down the corridor at the Court House. He hollered to me "John, call a doctor", and I noticed that he was bracing himself against the wall - and those were the last words he said.

By the time I got to him, he had fallen on the floor. At that time Mrs. Flegal came in the side door and saw the distress there, and inquired who it was, and I told her. She went to call for assistance in the Commissioner's Office, and I think they called the hospital, and the ambulance and the doctor, and in a very short period the ambulance came. It seemed a long time to me, but those things do take time. I went over and ate my lunch, and comint back I decided to call in at the Fire Hall here to see how he was, and it was no more than a half hour after they had left to go to the hospital, and they told me he had died. It was a real shock to me. I have not recovered from it since. I am conscious of my age, and conscious of my activities, and want to conserve my health as well. I received a very nice letter from his widow, and I regret I was unable to attend his funeral.

I have known Bish Shaw personally since he came to the Bar. He and I were of the same political persuasion, and we acted with one another to advance our idealisms and in the interest of our party. As has been said here, I can truly second the adoption of that Resolution. It is very complimentary, very factual, and very true. With the permission of the Court, I would like to second the adoption of the Resolution.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you. Any further remarks?

BY M. L. SILBERBLATT:

Mr. Kramer.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Mr. Silberblatt.

BY MR. SILBERBLATT:

The last time I talked to Bish Shaw was on February 7th. He was in our office with reference to drawing a resolution. He was in there in the afternoon, and I said to Bish "I am returning to the hospital at Pittsburgh tomorrow. I am very busy this afternoon and I would appreciate it very much if this matter could be delayed about a month/" I said "At that time I ought to be back and if I am not back in the office, someone else will take care of it for me." He left with the understanding we would meet in about a month. That matter was taken care of - not by Bish and not by myself.

I have known Bish Shaw since he practiced law in Clearfield County. I have always found him a very genial man, a very honorable man, and his word always stood. He was a high type gentleman and it was always a pleasure to have business dealings with him. I always considered Bish Shaw as one of my best friends. I know Clearfield County has lost a very fine gentleman in the death of Bish Shaw.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you. Anybody else? (Pause) I see we have a fine large attendance this morning. I am glad to take a note of that.

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

Mr. President. My first contact with Bish Shaw was while involved in his duties on the Board of Viewers for road damages. I found then, some years ago, that his knowledge of the intricacies of the procedure was complete. I found that his estimate and knowledge of values of land was excellent. Throughout the succeeding years, in many contacts in conflicts over the amount of damages, I had many contacts with Bish. I have always found him eminently fair, and as Mr. Ramey and others have said, most genial, and always above board, honest and open. He was firm in his convictions, but he was always willing to listen to reason and argument. Later, I came to know him much better than one does in ordinary business contacts, and found him a most admirable, and honorable gentleman.

It has been said that a lawyer's fame is writ on water. That is only too true. With the exception of his contemporaries and the members of his family, the marks a lawyer makes, regardless of his activities, seem to fade into oblivion upon his passing. A few decisions in the reports of the Supreme Courts, and a few marks in the records of the County, are about all that are left. In this County, the stabilization of procedures in road damages and assessments for damages for the taking of highways, or other eminent domain proceedings, will always bear the mark of A. B. Shaw as the man who worked those out to a detailed, workable process; whose established procedure we followed, and in very few, if any, instances, have his methods been altered or changed; and many, many times his reports of estimates of damages have remained unaltered, and affirmed by juries, and affirmed on appeal. He was an indefatigable worker. He took the time and the care to see that these intricate procedures were carefully followed and established; and we do have, in addition to the memories we have, a monument to his legal abilities and his legal activities, in our road damage proceedings that appear on the books of this County.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you Judge. Are there any further remarks from the members of the Bar?

BY HAROLD BOULTON:

Mr. Kramer.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Mr. Boulton.

BY MR. BOULTON:

I can't let this occasion go by, Mr. Ramey has said thatperhaps if it had not been for Bish Shaw he would never have practiced law, particularly in Clearfield County. I can not say that for myself, but I can say this - my father entered the offices of Irvin Shaw in Houtzdale as a stenographer, and studied law under Irvin Shaw, according to the rules of that particular time. So I perhaps can say too, that if my father had not become a lawyer through his association with the Shaw family, very likely, I would not have become a lawyer either.

I knew Bish, and I became acquainted with him just after I began the practice of law in Clearfield in 1928, and I can remember his being in our office in connection with matters during the, I would say, the dark days of the depression.

I know my father would have taken the occassion to tell about his association with the family, and I only regret that he died in 1955 and, of course, can not be here.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you. Any further remarks? (Pause) If not, you have heard the motion, and heard the second. All those in favor of the motion, give their consent by saying I.

BY THE BAR MEMBERS:

I.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Opposed, No. (Pause) The motion is unanimously carried, and will be spread upon the books downstairs, and certified to the family. That, I believe, will conclude this meeting.

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

All right, Mr. Kramer. That will conclude the meeting of the Bar of Clearfield County, to honor the memory and record of our departed fellow member, Arnold Bishop Shaw.

(9) That by virtue of the written instruments referred to in paragraphs 6,7 and 8, Jack E. McCool acquired all of the interest in the gas and oil rights in the property described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint of all the defendants except Norbertine Owen and Julian L. Baummer, Administrator of the estate of George J. Baummer, who are now the sole remaining defendants in the above captioned action.

(10) That on October 20, 1910, George J. Baummer acquired, inter alia, the property described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint excepting and reserving therefrom "all the coal, coal oil, fire clay and other minerals of every kind and character . . . " Said deed being recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Clearfield County in Deed Book 183, page 637.

(11) On December 7, 1854, George J. Baummer died intestate and Letters of Administration were issued to Julian L. Baummer on December 17, 1957 by the Register of Wills of Clearfield County.

(12) The sole heirs of George J. Baummer, who died intestate as aforesaid, were the defendants: Julian L. Baummer, Mary Baummer, Virginia Baummer, Norbertine Owen, George J. Baummer, Jr., Heloise Baummer, Elizabeth Nollen and Sigismunda Palumbo, who by inheritance acquired whatever interest George J. Baummer may have had in the premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint as of the date of his death, December 7, 1954; all of said heirs having assigned their interests in said premises, subject to this ejectment action, to Jack E. McCool, except Norbertine Owen and Julian L. Baummer, Administrator of the George J. Baummer Estate.

(13) The premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint were assessed to George J. Baummer on the unseated list in Huston Township as 180 acres surface, Warrant 4899. The gas underlying said premises was never separately assessed.

(14) Taxes on the aforesaid premises not having been paid the premises were sold for taxes to Clearfield County at a County Treasurer's sale held July 11, 1932 as "180 A. surf.", and was conveyed to the Clearfield County Commissioners by County Treasurer's deed dated September 15, 1932 and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Clearfield County in Deed Book 479, page 441.

(15) The property subject of the aforesaid Treasurer's sale having not been redeemed was sold by the Clearfield County Commissioners to J. S. Reitz by Commissioners' deed dated May 25, 1942 and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Clearfield County in Deed Book 479, page 442.

(16) On January 5, 1944, J. S. Reitz assigned the property acquired by the aforesaid Commissioners' deed to J. S. Reitz and A. H. Reitz, which said assignment is recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Clearfield County in Deed Book 479, page 443.

(17) That A. H. Reitz, is the widow of J. S. Reitz, who died the 13th day of October 1950, and by virtue of the entireties estate A. H. Reitz became the owner of the surface and the gas and oil in the premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint.

(18) That by virtue of the matters set forth in paragraphs 10 through 16, A. H. Reitz acquired all of the interest of George J. Baummer in the premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, and upon the death of George J. Baummer on December 7, 1954, he had no interest in said premises and, consequently, the heirs of the George J. Baummer Estate acquired no interest in said premises, and specifically, Norbertine Owen and Julian L. Baummer as Administrator of the Estate of George J. Baummer, inherited no interest in said premises.

(19) That on the 30th day of December 1958, A. H. Reitz, widow, leased to Jack E. McCool, trading as Lane Development Company, the gas and oil rights in the premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint. Said lease being recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Clearfield County in Miscellaneous Book 114, page 565.

(20) That on the 1st day of August 1962, Jack E. McCool, trading as Lane Development Company leased the premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint to the New York State Natural Gas Corporation.

(21) That by a stipulation dated August 1, 1962, between Jack E. McCool, trading as Lane Development Company, and New York State Natural Gas Corporation, New York State Natural Gas Corporation has retained a portion of the gas royalties already accrued for gas taken from the premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint as of that date amounting to $2,963.06, "until the title dispute between plaintiffs and Norbertine Owen (and Julian L. Baummer, Administrator of the Estate of George J. Baummer) has been settled or finally adjudicated, at which time it will pay said funds to whom the Court directs".

(22) That title to the gas and oil in the premises described in plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, by virtue of all the matters set forth herein in paragraphs 1 through 21, is now vested in Jack E. McCool or Jack E. McCool trading as Lane Development Company, and the right to receive all of the proceeds or royalties derived from the gas heretofore or hereafter removed from the premises by New York State Natural Gas Corporation, is likewise vested in him and/or W. Albert Ramey, Agent as provided in the lease between Jack E. McCool trading as Lane Development Company and New York State Natural Gas Corporation dated August 1, 1962.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR ARNOLD BISHOP SHAW, ESQ:

Twenty Six Members of the Bar Association present:

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

This is the time fixed for the memorial meeting of the Clearfield County Bar Association, in respect to our late departed member of the Bar, Arnold Bishop Shaw. The meeting will now be turned over to Clarence Kramer, President of the Bar Association.

BY CLARENCE KRAMER:

Your Honor, members of the Shaw family, members of the Bar Association, and guests, as the Court has stated, this is the time for the memorial meeting for our late departed member, Arnold Bishop Shaw. The Committee appointed by my predecessor, consists of myself, Carl A. Belin, and W. Albert Ramey. Mr. Ramey will now read the Memorial.

BY W. ALBERT RAMEY:

The President of the Bar requested that I read the Memorial prepared by the Committee for the Clearfield Bar Association, as follows:

"Arnold Bishop Shaw, a member of this Bar, was born at Clearfield, July 3, 1897, the son and only child of Calvin Shaw and Alva (Vail) Shaw. He lived for a number of years while a boy, at Shawville in this County, which village was named for the Shaw family and whose industriesconsisted principally of lumbering and family and were the reason for naming the village and post office and a grist mill, both identified with the Shaw in Shawville. Later, his parents resumed their residence in Clearfield Borough where Bish attended the common schools and high school, graduating from the latter in the year 1917. He then enrolled in Dickinson College but his college education was delayed for two years while he rendered to his country the duty of military service, serving with the Marine Corps in World War I. Following his release from the Marine Corps he returned to Dickinson College, graduating in 1922. He thereupon entered Dickinson Law School and graduated with the degree of L. L. B. in 1924. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Si Fraternity.

Following graduation from Law School he did not immediately embark upon the practice of law, but for a few years devoted his time and energies to the management of the Clearfield Central Garage, the holder of the Ford automobile agency, in which business he was substantially interested. About the year 1933 he transferred his energies from the business world to professional endeavor and opened an office for the practice of law at 203 Market Street, where he continued in his profession until his death on February 15, 1960.

His death was as sudden as it was unexpected to the members of this Bar Association. Nearly a year, previously, but unknown to most of us, his health had become impaired by the onset of angina pectoris and thereafter he had constantly to be watchful of his efforts and his physical activity. But none of this Association, I am sure, anticipated that on that fatal Monday, the 15th day of February, 1960, he would be stricken with an attack of his infirmity that would cause him to collapse and fall in the corridor of the Court House while about to enter the office of the Sheriff, whose solicitor he was, and to be pronounced dead upon arrival by ambulance at the Hospital. He was buried in Hillcrest Cemetery on Thursday morning, February 18th, six members of our Association serving as pallbearers.

Bish Shaw was a steady and consistent worker, first in the area of business affairs, and since 1933 in the performance of his professional duties as a lawyer. He did Court work trying cases before juries occassionally; but mostly his was an office practice, and in the performance of these duties he did not spare himself long hours or even evening work. He was careful in the preparation of papers, thoughtful in the performance of duties for his clients and watchful that they received due and proper representation. One area of the law to which his activities were devoted was that of property damages, having been a member of the Board of Viewers since the year 1935. In such capacity the responsibilities customary to the law-member of the three man board, including an engineer and a representative of the public, acting under Court appointment, devolved upon him; and in such capacity proceedings required the findings of fact and law whether roads should be opened or vacated, what damages assessed in cases of taking of property for highway or other public purposes. He thus acted in the condemnation of the Clearfield Park Association land by the school authority; in the Lawrence Township Sewer Assessment, in the sewering of outlying territory, and in other responsible cases. Since it naturally falls upon the legal member to prepare the written report and do the paper work in such cases, these duties fell upon Bish and were performed with care and detail. Since 1958 he had been Solicitor for Sheriff, Charles G. Ammerman.

Bish Shaw was a descendent of a prominent family which early settled in Clearfield County. His pioneer ancestor was Archibald Shaw, who came to the County in 1810, settling in the vicinity of Clearfield, Aldrich's History of Clearfield County records that from Archibald's family "have descended some of the most enterprising citizens of the County." One of Archibald's sons was Richard Shaw, who attained County-wide prominence through business and political endeavor and was Associate Judge of the County from from 1851 to 1856. Bish was Richard's great grandson and, politically, followed in the family tradition by being an ardent Democrat. On several occasions he was secretary for the County Committee, and in 1945 was the party's candidate for the office of District Attorney.

Bish Shaw was a genial and amiable personality and one who approached the handling of his cases without hostility or querulousness, and who could win his point without vindictiveness. He always preferred to settle disputes out of court, if he could thereby adequately protect his clients' interest. He was popular with the Bar and had no known enemies anywhere.

He exhibited the same traits of character and of personality in business as he manifested in the practice of his profession, and throughout his legal career, in addition to professional duties, devoted some proportion of his time to the management of the real estate and other interests in which he inherited a part ownership; so managing the family owned coal deposits near Shawville and their operation, and the farm lands in that vicinity, and the real estate which was family owned within the Borough of Clearfield, that benefit and profit was derived for the heirs.

On August 1, 1934 he married MildredDotter of Carlisle, and they established their residence in Clearfield, where they continued to live uhtil the time of his death. In addition to his widow, he is survived by a son, Arnold Bishop Shaw, III, a student at West Virginia Wesleyan College, at Buckhannon, West Virginia, who also contemplates the law as a profession, and by a daughter, Sandra Ann, a student at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Fraternally, Bish had many contacts. He was a charter member of the John Lewis Shade Post No. 6 of the American Legon; Clearfield Lodge No. 314 F. & A.M.; Elks Lodge No. 540 of Clearfield; the United Commercial Traveler's, Philipsburg Council No. 621; and the Clearfield County Historical Society. He was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church of Clearfield and the Trinity Men's Association.

For 15 years he had served as a member of the Clearfield County Selective Service Board, for which he received special recognition from the Adjutant General of the Commonwealth.
