MARCH 29, 1966, CERTIORARI from Superior Court, filed. Returnable the Second Monday of June, 1966
TO THE JUDGES of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of CLEARFIELD

GREETING: We being willing for certain causes, to be certified of the matter of the Appeal of JOSEPH IRACA from the Judgment of your said Court at No. 921 of May Term, A.D., 1960, wherein SAID APPELLANT IS PLAINTIFF AND ANDREW H. KITKO, MARGARET KITKO, JOHN KITKO ARE DEFENDANTS, before you, or some of you, depending, DO COMMAND YOU, that the record and proceedings aforesaid, with all things touching the same, before the Judges of our Superior Court of Pennsylvania, at a Superior Court to be holden at Philadelphia, the Second Monday of June next, (1966) so full and entire as in your Court before you they remain, you certify and send, together with this Writ, that we may further cause to be done thereupon that which of right and according to the laws of the said State ought.

Witness, the Honorable HAROLD L. ERVIN Doctor of Laws, President Judge of our said Superior Court, at Philadelphia, the Twenty-fifty day of March, In the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six. Charles A. Hoenstine, Prothonotary.

MARCH 31, 1966, OPINION, filed.

In support of plaintiff's motion for new trial in this action of ejectment he alleged that: (1) The verdict was contrary to the evidence; (2) The verdict was contrary to the weight of evidence; and (3) The verdict was contrary to the law. It will be noted that the charins of title as to each of the parties was stipulated in the record; and after testimony taken and the Court's charge, these stipulations were submitted to the jury for its deliberation and consideration. The bulk of the testimony, apart from the stipulated chains of title, was given over to physical and historical use of the property in question.

This Court entered an order denying the motion, after argument had; and a fruther examination of the record reveals no basis for the Court to change its position in the matter. The case was fully and fairly tried; and, as is indicated by the record, plaintiff has found practically no basis for attack either in the course of trial or in the charge of the Court. In fact only a general exception was taken by plaintiff. It is hornbook law that in an action of ejectment the plaintiff has to rely on the strength of his own title (here a tax title), and not on any weakness of defendants' title. He failed to sustain this burden. It is certain that plaintiff had a tax deed for two and one-half acres, but the testimony showed that that acreage could have been within any one of several properties. The jury very well could have, and did, determine that plaintiff failed to establish the property so covered by the tax deed as being the one claimed by the defendants. The Court being of the opinion that a recitation of the facts pertaining to the chain of title and the use made of the land would not serve any purpose, since the whole of the record must be re-examined upon the appeal now filed, therefore, will not delineate the facts which the jury could have, and apparently did find in this matter. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

May 19, 1966 Mailed to Superior Court.
